Mrs. S. C. Smith writes from Pike Co., Mo., her old home, that the weather is very dry, that water is being hauled for domestic purposes, and stock are driven to the river. She doesn't know what would induce her to live there after residing in beautiful Nebraska.

We are in receipt of a communication signed J. M. Robinson, concerning matters chiefly personal and in which the general public have little interest. If the writer wishes to vindicate himself, and will make affidavit to his communication, we will publish it as an advertisement.

J. B. Beverstock, who has been with the Kramers for so long a time, started yesterday for his old home at Shelby, Ohio. We don't like to see him go, and hope he will return before long, and make Nebraska his permanent home. He has made a host of friends here who will always be glad to know that he prospers.

We see it stated in several of our exchanges that Columbus is to have another newspaper. It was rumored last week that we were to have another Democratic paper there is also strong talk of a German paper printed entirely at home. If these three enterprises come to a successful issue, it ought to make times lively—six newspapers.

Hon. G. W. Collins of Pawnee City spent the Sabbath in Columbus. He spoke to the Garfield and Arthur club at Schuyler Saturday evening. Mr. Collins will be a candidate for Lieutenant Governor, before the Republican State Convention next Wednesday, and if he gets on the ticket, he will honor his party by his canvass and the conduct of the office.

To succeed John Walker as Co. Commissioner we hear the following suggested as possible candidates, on the Republican side: Oleson, Munson, French, Irwin and Trueman. As this is the most important office for the general interests of the county, the best selection should be made, and so harmoniously made, too, that we shall be able to elect our candidate by a handsome majority.

On Saturday last, at the hour advertised, a number of Republicans met at the Court house, and elected B. Millett, Esq., Chairman and Jno. Huber Sec'y.
