A. M. Post was appointed as member of the committee on resolutions, and helped to secure the insertion of the plank on railroad legislation. At one time, during the early part of the convention, after the organization had been completed, when the "Ins" were anxious to proceed at once with the nominations, and when there was an evident disposition on the part of several members, at least, to decide upon a platform of principles before, rather than after nomination, Mr. Post made an excellent little speech in favor of a full, calm consideration of principles applicable to the needs of Nebraska, as a platform for the Republican party, and then the nomnation of candidates who would best represent those principles and carry them into effect. This, however, being not according to the programme, was not approved, and the maries are to be held at the usual principles were tacked on the tailboard of the band-wagon as usual. -E. A.
