To Subscribers. Your name, with the date at which your subscription expires, is placed on each Journal you receive. A prompt renewal or discontinuance will save the publishers, both trouble and expense, and be better for all concerned. A renewal is respectfully solicited. $2 for 1 yr., $1 for 6 mos., 50 cts. for 3 mos. Advertisements under this head 10 cts. a line first insertion, 10 cts. a line each subsequent insertion.

Garfield and Arthur Club. The regular meetings of the club will be held Saturdays, 7:30 p. m., in Baker's Hall, upstairs in the Bank Building. M. WHITMOYER, Pres't. HENRY LUBKER, Sec'y.

Political. Mr. ESTERSON, please announce the name of John Rickett as a suitable man to represent Platte county in the next State Legislature. MANY CITIZENS.

Several heavy rains last week. For bargains, go to "The Wonder."

Henry Morris is in from the west. G. W. Fulton was in the city Saturday.

One old buggy for sale cheap at W. H. Lawrence's. Ulysses, on the A. & N. is to have a steam elevator.

Charley Morse has put up about a thousand tons of hay. Charles Brindley is putting up an addition to his dwelling.

G. W. Collins makes a political speech in Columbus, October 5th. Good Prints only 4 cents per yard at Friedhoff & Co's. Bonesteel's old stand.

A child can buy as cheap as a man at the Boston Shoe Store, opp. post-office. One thousand Bushels of Potatoes wanted at Marshall Smith's for cash or trade.

Now is the time to subscribe for the JOURNAL, $2 a year, 50 cents three months. Money to loan on improved farms on the very best terms by Becher & Price.

I. Gluck is selling dry-goods, clothing, and boots and shoes at his usual low prices. Heavy striped Shirting only 6 cents per yard, at Friedhoff & Co's, Bonesteel's old stand.

"Cheap, Cheaper, Cheapest," is the motto of "The Wonder" Store, next door to post-office. The publishing of the delinquent tax-list was left yesterday to the COLUMBUS JOURNAL.

J. E. Tasker, at Platte Center, has a large stock of lumber, which he is selling at low prices. Genoa has a lively Garfield and Arthur club in full working order, and striking heavy blows.

We will furnish the JOURNAL and the Omaha Weekly Republican, one year, postage paid, for $3.00. Paul Vandervoort and W. Bennett are announced to speak to-night in this city, at the Court House.

John Tannahill is erecting a green house for flowers and early vegetables. It will be 12x34 feet. The commissioners of Colfax county have declared their Platte river bridge unsafe, and will close it.

Men's, Youth's and Boy's Clothing, at the lowest prices in the city, at Friedhoff & Co's, Bonesteel's old stand. Mr. Welch is progressing with his new mill near Platte Center, and expects to be ready to grind before Christmas.

Will T. Rickett will pay the highest cash price for 50 head of 2, 3, and 4 year old steers, delivered at Columbus. FOR RENT.—A house, centrally located, and suitable for dwelling or boarding house. Inquire at the JOURNAL office.

In buying, this fall, see what you can buy goods for at other places and then buy them cheaper at "The Wonder." Chas. Davis and Mr. Bell are erecting sheds for their cattle near the Brewery, where they have leased a small tract of land.

J. H. Brouette has opened his marble-shop one door south of Oehlrich & Bro's grocery on Olive street, opposite the Tattersall. Blank notes, bank, joint individual and work-and-labor, neatly bound in books of 50 and 100, for sale at the Journal office.

The B. & M. are selling tickets to the Democratic Convention at Hastings, good to October 2d, for one fare for the round trip. W. B. Rochon moved into his new dwelling-house Friday, in the Higgins and Spielman addition. He has ten acres, and purposes running a dairy.

Judging from what we learn from a friend in attendance at the Nebraska State Fair just closed at Omaha, it was a success in every particular. A vote on the U. P. train last Friday afternoon west of Fremont stood Garfield 119, Hancock 79, Weaver 6. Lady passengers were not requested to vote.

Lepold Terenin on Sterns Prairie, Sep. 22d, lost his dwelling and contents by fire, caused by a defective flue. Loss $500; insured with Becher & Price for $300 on house.

Powder and shot at "The Wonder."

H. V. Monnette and family move to St. Joseph, Mo., this week.

E. J. Risser is out again, and expects soon to be able to travel.

The cheapest place to buy goods of all kinds is at "The Wonder."

For first-class work and best stock, go to the Boston Boot and Shoe Store.

Jack Wells came down from Duncan Monday, and called at the JOURNAL office. The best $1.50 Boot in town can be found at Friedhoff & Co's, Bonesteel's old stand.

Tasker is selling lumber at Platte Center at regular hard times prices. Call and see him. Charley Zeigler sold his matched team of ponies at the State Fair last week for $425.

Lorenzo Clark took second money in the double-team trot at the State Fair last week. Ten-pin match at Wm. Bucher's October 2d 1880. Only 25 cents a chance. All fine prizes.

Phil. Cain disposed of quite a herd of his cattle last week to eastern parties at good prices. J. P. Becker is putting up extensive coal sheds in the rear of the Becker block on 13th street.

Charley Morse is the owner of a fine colt, three weeks old, from "Allen Percy" and "Topsy." J. Austin, who left Columbus some time since, has returned and is engaged with "Fatty" Woods.

Good black Cashmere, 36-inch wide, only 35 cts. per yd., at Friedhoff & Co's, Bonesteel's old stand. J. S. Moody has ordered his JOURNAL changed to Osceola, and purposes to stay in the Platte valley.

The editor of the Era is a very proper individual to talk about industry, energy and other many qualities. Friedhoff & Co. sell heavy unbleached Muslin, a full yard wide, for only 6 cents per yard. Come and see it.

O. C. Shannon has purchased "Ida" Brindley his express teams and business, and is now running in full blast. George Clark an old-time Columbus boy, arrived in the city last Saturday, and will visit with friends a couple of weeks.

Hiram Rice, post-master at Albion, will have the honor of having erected the first brick building in that thriving town. A. E. Verity, Esq., who has an interest now in two newspapers, one at Fullerton and one at Rising, gave us a pleasant call Monday.

An all-day smoke for 5 cents. Have you seen it? What? Why the Long Train Cigar at "The Wonder," next door to post-office. Henry Lubker don't own any two-year-old cattle at all, but if he did he would have those like his father's, which weigh 1000 lbs. apiece.

James Woods, a gentleman aged 70 years, and brother-in-law of F. Lushbaugh, died on Saturday last in this city. He was a former resident of Iowa. There were a goodly number of Platte county people at the State Fair, but not one of them, so far as we have heard, had a single article on exhibition.

J. C. Morrissey, who has been a resident of Columbus for a number of years past, goes to Plattsmouth, where he will put up a transfer grain elevator. John Eymon was in town yesterday to meet his youngest brother Jerome, and his mother Mrs. A. Eymon of Macon Co., Ill. His mother is in her 75th year.

W. T. Ransdell of Denver, formerly of this city, recently sold his yearling colt, from "Allen Percy," for $300,—an extra price, but it is just as easy to raise good colts as poor ones. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. G. Bowman were in attendance at Omaha last week at the marriage of Joy Morton and Miss Carrie Lake. The future home of the happy couple will be Chicago.

Hob. L. Gerrard and family returned last week from their visit to Iowa. Mr. G. says they enjoyed their visit very much, the boys making the most of the trees and stones. Iowa is prospering. S. M. Barker was on his way Monday to Canada—gone for more sheep, of course, and he knows what he is about every time. When Nebraska gets sheep "struck" her farmers will have money in the bank, and plenty of it.

Mr. and Mrs. James McAllister, and Mrs. Robert McPherson visited relatives in Council Bluffs last week, and report a very nice time. Of course they "took in" the State Fair. This was Mac's first trip to Omaha in a good many years. Rev. Father Smith of Greeley county passed through the city Monday on his way to Chicago. There were with him two Catholic bishops who had been at the colony in that county. They purpose locating other colonies in Nebraska.

FOR SALE.—A dwelling-house and lot in a very desirable part of the city. Will be sold at a sacrifice, as the money is needed. The house is new and cost more money than it is asked for both house and lot. For further particulars inquire at the JOURNAL office.

John Gogan gave us a business call one day last week. He says that Pleasant Valley has abundance of hay, plenty of corn, and a very good quality of wheat. In speaking of timber, he praised the water Elm as a good grower in all seasons, wet or dry.

The following expression occurs in Sir W. Temple's writings: "he thought that was the best climate where he could be abroad in the air with pleasure, or at least without inconvenience, the most days of the year and the most hours of the day." How accurate a description of Nebraska!

Last week D. Anderson shipped to Deaver a fine lot of hogs for the Colorado market. He also disposed of eighty head of feeding steers to Mr. Kennard of Washington Co., this State. This is the second batch of feeders sold this season by Anderson, and he still has 100 head of good steers for sale.

Saturday Sep. 18th, the family of C. P. R. Williams, P. M. at Grand Island, including E. C. Hockenberger formerly of this place, and Ass't P. M., were poisoned by eating diseased chicken for dinner. Two doctors with them constantly for twenty-four hours succeeded in bringing them through.

Our democratic brethren who meet at Hastings to-day could not do a better thing than nominate Hon. J. E. North of this county for Governor. Of course James would get "acopped," but if a turn of fickle Fortune's wheel should decree that we must have a democrat, he would make a right good one.

Galley Bros. are establishing a store at Creighton, Knox county, and will keep a general line of groceries, dry-goods, boots and shoes, hardware, &c. Creighton is the present terminus of the E. V. R. R. and is a good trading point. Our Knox county friends will find the Galley Bros. all right as business men and gentlemen.

Judge Hudson, of Columbus, promises the Leader an article, or series of articles, on the early settlement of this part of Nance county by the Mormons, and the trials and privations many of them were made to endure by the tyrannical sway of their leaders, and the treatment received from Indians, agents, and others. It will doubtless be read with great interest.—Genoa Leader.

Those who attended the meeting addressed by Col. Huggins and E. A. Fullford, will remember the gentleman who put on the Ku Klux uniform. The epithet applied to him in the last Era would be more appropriate to the man who used them without knowing what he was talking about. Why is a man to be blackguarded in a newspaper, simply because he differs from the editor in his political opinions?

Twelve hundred head of cattle at the State Fair shows that the great interest of Nebraska is receiving a larger share of attention than ever. All intelligent farmers are alive to their interests, and so soon as they are able, will manage to get more and more stock—sheep, cattle or hogs, or all of them, and when once the great body of them get well under way, they will be on the road to independence and prosperity.

We find in a West Point paper, where they have a paper-mill, an advertisement calling for old rope, 1 cent a lb.; paper boxes and old straw wrapping paper, 1/2 cent a lb.; clean newspapers, old books and envelopes, 1 cent per lb.; writing paper, old flour sacks and other old manilla papers 1/2 cent per lb.; clean white cotton rags 1/2 cent per lb.; mixed cotton and woolen rags, 1 cent per lb. They are also buying tons of sough grass and oat and rye straw.

The Republican District Convention of the 14th District met at Columbus, Saturday, and M. K. Turner, editor of the JOURNAL, was declared the nominee of the convention for State Senator, by acclamation. They could not have made a more honorable selection, for M. K. Turner is a man in the fullest and broadest meaning of the term, and well qualified to discharge the duties in a manner that will reflect creditably on the district. He will be elected.—Genoa Leader.

A man by the name of D. A. Ballard, who registered here last Tuesday as Geo. E. Dean, was arrested by John McMahon, Chief of Police, on a charge of swindling preferred at Seward by some of his dupes, doubtless. The fellow was selling washing-machines, shirt-polish receipts, etc. The Sheriff of Seward county came up Wednesday and got his man. The rascals of every stripe ought to shun Columbus, for we have a detective force here that is very liable to "gobble them."

Judge O. P. Mason of Lincoln was on hands Friday evening last according to appointment for a speech before the Garfield and Arthur club, but, owing to the rains of the evening, and to the fact that the Judge was not in very good health, the meeting was postponed. Mr. Mason has promised to come on call, some time during the campaign, and when he does, every voter, whether republican or democrat, should turn out and hear him. A man of great strength of intellect, and a very impressive manner, his speech will be not only instructive but interesting.

Garfield and Arthur Club. At the meeting last Wednesday evening the organization was completed, the officers chosen being as follows: President, M. Whitmoyer; Vice Presidents, D. D. Wadsworth, G. W. Gaitley, G. W. Clothier; Recording Secretary, Henry Lubker; Corresponding Secretary, Wm. McAllister; Treasurer, Byron Millet; Executive Committee, A. M. Post, Chairman.—G. W. Clothier, H. P. Smith, S. G. Smith, A. C. Tigner, Gus. Lockner, Chas. Brindley and E. Pohl.

The regular meetings will be Saturday evenings of each week. Republican Co. Convention. By virtue of authority vested in me at the session of the Platte Co. Republican Convention, Aug. 28th, I hereby call the convention to meet again, at the Court House, in Columbus, SATURDAY, OCT. 9th, 1880, at 1 p. m., for the purpose of completing the work for which they were called. By order of L. Anderson, chairman.

M. K. TURNER, Sec'y. We have not seen the regular call for the convention, but we are informed by our committeeman that it will be held at David City, Saturday, Oct. 16th at 1 P. M.

Float Convention. We desire to return heartfelt thanks to friends for assistance and sympathy during our bereavement. G. W. CLOTHIER, Mrs. G. W. CLOTHIER.

Notice is hereby given by Galley & Bro., that all who are indebted to them, either by note or book acc't, must come forward and settle immediately, as they need the funds.

Wintering Plants. Anyone wishing house plants wintered make arrangements soon with John Tannahill.

Farmers, Read. A fine lot of the best Fanning Mills in the market for sale at cost. W. H. LAWRENCE.

Parker; Frederick Griffin Bruce Hessler; Francis Jones James A. Waltman; Antonio Locecos S. C. Richman; held Stephen Marling for address.

Obituary. WALBORN.—In Columbus, Neb., Sept. 23d, of diphtheritic croup, little Willie, only child of James and Kittie Walborn, at the early age of two years and five months.

A little form is still in death. A voice we loved is hushed; He'll not call again say "take me," O! our hearts are almost crushed. Empty stands the little cradle, Empty too, the half-worn shoes, And the little feet that pressed them Safe, have trod life's journey through.

His little robes are "all clean now," Spotted and white as snow, And he's gone to meet a loved one, Who on earth did love him so. But why, oh why, should we mourn for him? "Let them come," the Saviour said; "In His arms our baby's resting, Yes, his little spirit's dead."

Then, good-by, our darling Willie, Till we meet to part no more, And our spirits, too, are wafted Over to the other shore. A. M.

MARRIED. HENDRIX—WHEELER.—Sept. 21st, by Judge J. G. Higgins, Wm. R. Hendrix and Miss Etta Wheeler. MORSE—MCUFFIE.—Sept. 21st, by Judge J. G. Higgins, Benj. F. Morse and Miss Annie Mcuffie, all of Platte Co.

RIEDER.—Of typhoid malaria, Sept. 18th, 1880, of diphtheritic croup, aged 14 years. The sympathy of the Argus is extended to our fellow-townsmen in this sad hour of affliction.
