MR. EDITOR:—Please announce the name of John Rieckly as a suitable man to represent Platte county in the next State Legislature.

MANY CITIZENS.—A nice race Saturday. For bargains, go to "The Wonder."

Born to Mrs. S. S. McAllister, Tuesday, Sept. 28th, a son. M. D. Denson sold a wagon train of hogs in the city Saturday.

Wm. Smith has rented Hunneman's office, near the elevator. Jno. Godfrey was under the weather several days last week.

A line of Boots and shoes at cost and less at Marshall Smith's. Raymond shipped two car-loads of fat hogs to Denver on Tuesday.

We learn that Willie, son of H. P. Coolidge, is afflicted with scarlet fever. Tiffany & Rouson shipped a select lot of hogs to Denver last week.

A child can buy as cheap as a man at the Boston Shoe Store, opp. post-office. H. J. Hudson will accept our thanks for a nice large specimen of wild plum.

A. C. Tigner conducted the religious services at the M. E. church last Sabbath. Now is the time to subscribe for the JOURNAL, $2 a year, 50 cents three months.

Money to loan on improved farms on the very best terms by Becher & Price. "Cheap, Cheaper, Cheapest," is the motto of "The Wonder" Store, next door to post-office.

J. E. Tasker, at Platte Center, has a large stock of lumber, which he is selling at low prices. West of North Platte and into Wyoming there are 1500 car-loads of cattle awaiting shipment.

W. H. Lawrence has moved his pump establishment to the Sutton building opposite the P. O. We will furnish the JOURNAL and the Omaha Weekly Republican, one year, postpaid, for $3.00.

Coal is coming into stronger demand, as the nights lengthen, and the winds come from the northwest. Ransdell & Shotwell are paying the very highest market prices, in cash, for fat poultry, and want all they can get.

Will T. Rieckly will pay the highest cash price for 50 head of 2, 3, and 4 year old steers, delivered at Columbus. For Rent.—A house, centrally located, and suitable for dwelling or boarding house. Inquire at the JOURNAL office.

In buying, this fall, see what you can buy goods for at other places and then buy them cheaper at "The Wonder." Blank notes,—bank, joint, individual and work-and-labor, neatly bound in books of 50 and 100, for sale at the JOURNAL office.

WANTED.—A girl to do general housework. Good wages will be paid for a competent girl. Enquire of Leander Gerrard, Nebraska Ave. Anderson paid Clark Kennard $171 for two wagon loads of fat hogs last week. He paid as high as 4 1/2 cents for a few loads of choice hogs.

Fat hogs bring the farmers more money this season than any other product of the farm. This is a lesson to increase their corn and hog crops. Mrs. Martha Barrow last week presented us with a sample of native Nebraska plums, equal in size and quality to the best cultivated varieties.

M. T. Kinney, express messenger on the St. Joseph and Western railroad, is rejoicing over the arrival of a Garfield voter at his house.—St. Joe Herald. Rev. Flebarty returned from Conference Tuesday evening. He has been assigned to Harvard, in the Hastings district, and Columbus is to be supplied by M. V. B. Bristol.

On Monday last L. Kramer sold $650 worth of goods. This is a good reckoning, and we are informed by our bankers that more money is being distributed here this fall than last. Rasmussen & Schram gave an oyster supper Saturday evening at Sheelan's parlors to a number of their business brethren. The dissolution of the firm was duly celebrated.

Powder and shot at "The Wonder."

C. H. Young has gone to Iowa on a visit. Mrs. A. N. Burgess is afflicted with neurop.

Frank Clark goes to Echo City, Utah Territory. Hon. Loran Clark, of Albion, was in the city Saturday last.

J. G. Higgins and F. Brodewier went to Madison Tuesday. The cheapest place to buy goods of all kinds is at "The Wonder."

When you want apples don't forget to go to Marshall Smith's. For first-class work and best stock, go to the Boston Boot and Shoe Store.

Mahlon Oehler and family returned to Columbus last week from Platte Center. Commissioner John Wise and wife started Wednesday for Illinois, to visit friends.

Tasker is selling lumber at Platte Center at regular hard times prices. Call and see him. G. B. Bailey went down the road Tuesday to meet his wife, who has been visiting friends.

Raymond says that the market for hogs is higher in Columbus than anywhere else in America. An all-day smoke for 5 cents. Have you seen it? What? Why the Long Trail Cigar at "The Wonder," next door to post-office.

Lucian Clark, father of Hon. Loran Clark, died at Albion, Boone county, on the evening of Sept. 26th in the 77th year of his age. C. G. Hickok had his foot pinched Monday morning by a barrel of vinegar, cutting a hole through the instep of a pair of fine boots.

Saturday evening last Mrs. Moses Welch had a paralytic stroke which affects the entire right side of her body. She is in her 70th year. J. R. West advertises a sale for next Saturday week. He expects to move to California, where he lived before coming here seven years ago.

Henry Carrig sold to Tiffany & Rouson the other day, a car-load of hogs for which he received $783.44. They were May pigs, and averaged nearly 300 pounds. The Democrats on Saturday elected the following delegates to the Co. Convention: Geo. Lehman, Jno. Hancy, Jno. Wermuth, Pat. Hayes, Jno. Browner, M. Schram, Jr., and Julius Rasmussen.

The sociable at the Congregational Church last evening was well attended, and was a very enjoyable affair. The solo singing by Miss Turner elicited much praise as did also that of Miss Bridges. At Platte Center the other day Tiffany & Rouson purchased a car-load of hogs, 64 in number, weighing 18,310 pounds; at Columbus, the same day, they purchased another lot of exactly the same number and weight.

The speech of Mr. Bennett last Wednesday night at the Court House was well received by the goodly number of Republicans present, who, every now and then, as the speaker made a good point, cheered him to the echo. On last Saturday D. Anderson sold and weighed up to Brown Bros. of Fremont, 125 feeding steers, which will be corn fed the coming winter on Maple Creek, Dodge county. This is good evidence of a large corn crop east of us in Nebraska.

The republican senatorial convention held last week in the 11th district nominated B. K. Smith, of St. Edwards, Boone county. Mr. Smith is said to be a first-rate man, and there is no question but what he will be triumphantly elected. The 1st and 2d days of October were regular land-office days with S. C. Smith. James Platt of Chicago bought: 560 acres; C. Shoemaker, of Sterling, Ill., 160 acres; T. Odenthal 160 acres, John Bern 80 acres. All the purchases were of Platte county lands.

FOR SALE.—A dwelling-house and lot in a very desirable part of the city. Will be sold at a sacrifice, as the money is needed. The house is new and cost more money than is asked for both house and lot. For further particulars inquire at the JOURNAL office. It is a very sad affair indeed, if true, as reported, that ex-Governor Garber, by softening of the brain, is now suffering under mental aberration, at his home in Red Cloud, in this state. He knows no one except his wife; not even his most intimate acquaintances make any impression on his memory.

Misses Caroline and Martha Kennedy, who formerly lived at this place, but who have been making an extended visit of several years in Columbus, Nebraska, returned to Cadiz on Thursday of last week, to take up their abode among their former friends and enjoy their native hills once more.—Cadiz, (Ohio), Republican. Some one recently broke several of the large lights of glass in the front of Maenmercher Hall on 11th street, worth about $15. The manner in which it was evidently done precludes the notion of accident. These depredations that do no one any good show a very bad disposition on the part of the perpetrator, a disposition which needs only to be intensified to lead to assassination.

Notes by the Way.—En. JOURNAL.—The Dour, Durra or Rice corn of Kansas which has created such a furor from its ability to withstand severe drought, and, therefore adapted to the arid sections of Kansas and Nebraska, I find, upon examination, to be an old acquaintance, having grown it in Pennsylvania more than forty years ago, under the name of African Millet or Guinea corn, and at that time it was used in some portions of southern Europe as a substitute for wheat, a place which it fills but partially, though it may help to keep famine from the door. It belongs to the same family with sorghum and broom corn, and, therefore, in order to keep it pure, will require to be planted where it will not mix with these. The name Durra is Arabic, evidently showing its eastern origin and that it was brought from a country not subject to excess of moisture. My friend Heinrich wishes some one to utilize the wild sunflower by heading them and converting the seed into oil. Now, I know not what kind flourish on Shell creek, but I am very sure that what I want header would top such plants as grow in our section, with any satisfaction when sufficiently dry; besides I think he is in error in regard to the amount of seed or the quantity of oil to be obtained from our native variety; the article he quoted from evidently has reference to the Russian variety, one head of which I know from observation will yield a half pint of seed, or about 60 bushels per acre, which if there was sufficient inducement might pay to raise, as it is generally a sure crop. For the winter food of fowls is very beneficial, and as an oil-producing plant I should think it would yield at least double that of flax; a more efficient way of utilizing the wild sunflower in my opinion would be to prevent their going to seed and fertilize the soil by plowing them under, and this can be done very effectually with a sulky plow, so that stalks left in height can be buried completely out of sight, and leave the surface as clear of trash as tho' none had ever grown. The same authority says he has a second crop of wool, and thinks three crops may easily be made in two years, but what advantage if the three crops net him no more than two because such proceeding will require extra winter care to carry the flock through the severe weather. I know that in California this double system of shearing is followed, but their winters are milder than ours, and there it is more particularly for the purpose of getting rid of the scab, but presume this not to be the object in his case. Theories are all well enough in their way, but facts are stubborn things and when these have natural laws to sustain them they may be said to be invincible. G. S. T.

Hon. T. P. Kennard of Lincoln and Judge Davis of Alma spoke at the Court House Tuesday evening to a fair audience of our citizens of both parties, acquitting themselves very handsomely. Judge Davis showed, to the satisfaction of Republicans at least, the utter absurdity of the great cry for a "change," made by the Democratic party. Mr. Kennard dwelt upon the financial bearing of the election, striking a vein that has not been sufficiently worked by republican speakers, and one which is simply astonishing, when it comes to be seen in the light in which Mr. Kennard presents it.

We have been engaged, day and night, the past week in getting ready Treasurer Early's very interesting annual talk to the patrons of his office. We may be allowed to say, in regard to this serial, which will appear in four issues of the JOURNAL, that, although it looks rather uninviting and even monotonous, yet there are many who will read it with serious faces and downcast looks. There is always a way, however, where there is a will, and none need despair.

M. K. Turner, of the COLUMBUS JOURNAL, has been nominated for the office of state senator from the 14th district, composed of Platte and Colfax counties. Mr. Turner is an old resident of Nebraska and one of the best men in the state for the position. The district, politically, is one of the doubtful ones of the state but we firmly believe that Mr. Turner will receive the election.—Lincoln Globe. In a business letter from George Spooner at Lincoln he says that the Journal building is being rushed forward; Quick's three-story building is nearly finished; the wing to the Capitol is ready for the third windows; the depot is under "full blast." Lincoln is taking some pretty tall steps this year, and is as lively a town as there is in the west.

Barker & Croxon, of Silver creek had on exhibition at the State Fair 47 head of sheep, mostly Cotswolds. Among the lot however, were two Leicestershires, seven Shropshire-downs and two Southdowns. These parties keep about 4,000 head of sheep, and those on exhibition were in good condition, and a beautiful breed, especially the Cotswolds.

Campaign Meetings.—The State Central Committee have made the following announcements for Columbus: Hon. E. K. Valentine and Gen. John C. Cowin, Tuesday, October 12th, 7 p. m. Hon. Church Howe, Col. E. F. Smyth and Hon. D. G. Hull, Saturday, Oct. 16th, at 7 p. m.

That Smelling Committee.—To all whom it may concern: I have learned that democrats are so incensed at my remarks at the Court House Saturday evening, that my own record is now their point of attack, by a smelling committee at Columbus, with its factories among the quondam Ku Klux of Dixie. I am a number of good persons with a reminiscence of my democratic associations they shall hear me as fully as they choose, at any time or place they may select.

The son and the nephew of Gov. Nichols attended the same school, and were members of the same class with myself. I have for years been acquainted with the States Atty. Gen., elect, of Louisiana. But the northern democracy are responsible for the election of Tweed to the U. S. Senate after his indictment and his crimes were notorious, also of John Morrissey after he had served out a term in the penitentiary for burglary. The chairman of a committee of the democratic legislature of Ohio, which abolished the homes for soldiers' orphans, served two years in the Michigan penitentiary. At present one of their leading campaign organs of Ohio served ten years in the penitentiary. Also one of their members of congress is now under an indictment for bigamy,—has four living wives.

Now, until a parallel to this can be furnished against the republican party, the democrats will only get themselves into new dilemmas by any attempt against my record. Very respectfully, E. A. FULFORD.

Announcement for Commissioner.—POSTVILLE, Sept. 31st, '80. MR. EDITOR:—In your last issue I noticed that the Platte county Republican convention is to meet shortly at Columbus, and it seems that Shell creek is well-blessed with office-seekers on the democratic side for the coming election, especially for the office of county commissioner, but I have not yet learned of any republican in this community seeking that or any other office; this is not because we have not got any men who are capable of filling offices but for the simple reason that they are no office seekers; but at the same time they are excellent officers. Among the number of republicans whom it is thought and confidently felt will make an excellent commissioner, namely Mr. Joseph Rivet. Mr. Rivet is a well known farmer, and one who is very much respected by all his acquaintances. He is a gentleman of intelligence and honesty, and is a stalwart republican in the bargain, and one who will not swerve an inch from the right. We, as republicans, have no objections to our democratic neighbors running, but at the same time think they will get defeated, especially if Mr. Rivet gets the nomination on the Republican side, which, we hope he will. Rex.

Alfred Stenger.—Mr. Alfred Stenger, son of Martin and Caroline Stenger, departed this life Tuesday morning, Sept. 21, at 7 o'clock p. m., after an illness of 18 days. His sickness was typhoid fever and pneumonia. Mr. Stenger's death is to be greatly regretted by his many friends and acquaintances. He was a young man of firm and decisive integrity, strictly honorable in his dealings with all men, whether acquaintance or stranger. Mr. Stenger had been a resident of this county for the last seven years, and in so short a time, through his honorable and upright career, made many true friends, who do most sincerely sympathize with the bereaved family in this sudden affliction. Although dead and passed from our midst, he has left a name that will ever be remembered by his personal friends. J. H. BARROW.

Republican Rally.—Judge O. P. Mason of Lincoln, one of the ablest speakers in Nebraska, will address his fellow-citizens on party issues Friday evening, Oct. 9th. Those who fail to hear him will miss one of the rarest intellectual treats of the campaign here. The characteristics of Mr. Mason's speeches are candor, fairness, good hard sense and vim. The Judge was here once before during the campaign, but did not deliver a speech because of inclement weather and ill health. Let him be greeted by a large crowd.

Republican Convention, Aug. 28th, I hereby call the convention to meet again, at the Court House, in Columbus. August Herde and Thomas Hawes, two farmers living near Schuyler, Neb., quarrelled one day last week about two calves, which resulted in Hawes shooting Herde in the mouth, the ball lodging in the back of his neck, inflicting a serious and perhaps fatal wound. Hawes is in jail awaiting the result of Herde's injuries.

A man appeared at the lumber yard in Platte Center, the other morning, with a shot-gun in his hand, after a load of lumber that is being sold so cheap. He was relieved when he found that Tasker was not disposed to go back on his offer, and there was no need of the gun. "A soft answer turneth away wrath."
