Thanksgiving Proclamation WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.

By the President of the United States of America, a Proclamation: At no period in their history since the United States became a nation, has this people had so abundant and so universal reasons for joy and gratitude at the favor of Almighty God, and been subject to so profound plore his continued care and protection. Health, wealth, and prosperity throughout all our boarders, herence by the great body of our drowned. population to the principles of liberty and justice, which has made our wise institutions and strong form of government and society, which will perpetuate it, for all these the thanks of a happy and united people, as New York. with one voice, ascend in devout homage to the giver of all good. Therefore, I recommend that on Thursday, the 25th day of Novemtheir respective places of worship the winter. to make their acknowledgments to Almighty God for his bounties and his protection, and offer to him of New York, ordered on the 18th prayers for their continuance.

In witness whereof, I have bereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed. Done at the city of Washington on the 1st day of November, in the year of our Lord eighteen hundred and eighty, and of the independence of the United States the was caused by water.
