

Communications, to insure insertion in the next issue, should be in hand on Monday; if lengthy, on Thursday preceding issue-day. Advertisements of shorter class, should be in hand by Tuesday.

To Subscribers. Your name, with the date at which your subscription expires, is placed on each JOURNAL you receive. A prompt renewal or discontinuance will save the publishers, both trouble and expense, and be better for all concerned.

School in Dist. No. 1 commenced again Monday after a week of holidays. For family groceries—sugar, coffee, tea, spices, etc., call at Wm. Becker's.

Joseph Rivet, County Commissioner elected in the city Monday and Tuesday. Now is the time to subscribe for the JOURNAL, $2 a year, 50 cents three months. The cold wave appears to have "lost its grip"—we hope, to visit us no more this winter.

That good cider at Wm. Becker's is nearly all gone. Hurry up, or you won't get any. Step into Mrs. M. S. Drake's military establishment and see those perforated card novelties. We will furnish the JOURNAL and the Omaha Weekly Republican, one year postage paid, for $3.00.

Elder Lodge is delivering this week a course of lectures at Beans School-house on the prophesies. WANTED.—For good wages, a girl to do general house work. Enquire at the residence of Leander Gerrard. One week from yesterday the County Commissioners will meet for business under the new administration.

Maj. Burgess of Genoa, was in the city last week. Al. Rieder spent the holidays with friends in the city. When you want apples don't forget to go to Marshall Smith's.

Specimen copies of M. M. Pomroy's Great West, published at Denver, Col., can be seen at this office. L. W. Cottrill, correspondent of the New York Sun, made the JOURNAL office a pleasant call last Monday. If anybody wants a good farm wagon he should examine the Coquilard at Wm. Becker's before purchasing.

Mr. J. Coffroth, from Pennsylvania, who has been visiting friends in the city for a few weeks past, started for Washington, D. C. Thursday. The contestants in the Pat Murray school district suit have buried the hatchet, and Miss Dings of this city has been employed to teach their school. Geo. W. Brown, representative elect from Dist. 45, was in the city Saturday on his way to Lincoln, to take his place among Nebraska's law makers.

D. C. Loveland was in the city last week. He has moved his family here, and though "on the road" most of the time, he again calls Columbus home. Mrs. Geo. Hulst and Mrs. Dr. Martyn went to Omaha Friday. We are informed they were to receive New Year calls with Mrs. Dr. Mercer of that city. A local debating society recently had up for discussion the question, "Resolved, That there is more benefit derived from attending a dance than a lyceum."

The State Press Association will hold a meeting at Lincoln on January 12th, '81. This meeting, it is believed, will be an interesting one to the membership. Mrs. Chas. Berringer, daughter of Chas. Wake, of this city, who has been on an extended visit to the home of her parents, left for her own home in Elgin, Illinois, last week. It is conceded by both democrats and republicans that J. L. Lewis sells more genuine Singer Sewing Machines, oils, attachments and needles than any other man in the State.

Mr. G. W. Galley wears a pair of leather boots with wooden soles, and he says his feet keep warm and comfortable the coldest days. He had to send to Boston to procure the article. Will a review of the past year find justification in your conscience for all you have done or left undone? If not, brace yourself with good resolutions for a better showing at the end of 1881. Some person has cynically remarked that you can enjoy a sleigh ride in the solitude of your own room by letting the fire go out, putting on your wraps and sousing your feet in a bucket of ice water.

The Sidney Plaindealer claims that the Nebraska legislatures of the past have been niggardly towards the state press, and wants to go on record as one paper of the state that demands that such legislation shall cease. Parents of daughters who have been benefited by Mrs. Page's excellent musical instruction will have an opportunity to show their appreciation by being in attendance at her benefit concert next Saturday evening. It was uncomfortably cold in this locality last Tuesday and Wednesday, but the cold in nowise compared with cold snap at Alpena, Mich.; at that place on the Sunday previous, the thermometer was 35 degrees below zero. During the session of the legislature, M. K. Turner, senator from this district, may be found at the residence of J. R. Fairbanks, Lincoln, corner of 14th and P. streets, where he will be glad to receive and welcome any of his acquaintances. At the regular meeting of the City Council last Saturday a committee was appointed to devise means to lift the city indebtedness. It appears that under the existing law, cities of the second class have no power to collect any portion of the tax levy on real estate.

Mrs. Page's Benefit Concert which was announced to take place last Thursday at the Mannerchor Hall, and which was postponed on account of prevailing bad weather, will be given to the public next Saturday. At the annual meeting of the Columbus Mannerchor, January 24, the following officers were elected: John Stauffer, President; David Schupack, Secretary; Herman Oelrich, Treasurer; Emil Pohl, Director. The petition to allow the City Council to cut up Frankfort Square into lots and sell it to pay the city indebtedness, did not receive sufficient favor in the eyes of the community, and the quare will remain intact for the present. The county superintendents of schools of the state will meet in convention in Lincoln on the 10th of January '81. We incline to the opinion that some improvement in the school laws of this state could be made in the interest of the people.

FOR SALE.—A dwelling-house and lot in a very desirable part of the city. Will be sold at a sacrifice, as the money is needed. The house is new and cost more money than is asked for both house and lot. For further particulars inquire at the JOURNAL office. The first day of the new year was a beautiful, bright, clear and still winter day; the sleighing being exceptionally good for this climate was improved by many, and the merry jingle of the bells, gave a life and cheer to the streets that would have been lacking without them. The ice foundation on our streets makes good skating, and the boys of the city have the greatest enjoyment, with skates on and ten or more of them in a row, the front chap holding on to a sleigh or wagon and the balance to coat tails, go whizzing through the streets at railroad speed. We see by the Lincoln Journal, that Calmer McCune, late editor of the David City Republican, and who has been on the sick list for some time, is now sweltering with the heat under the orange groves of Florida. We hope the young man will return to Nebraska in improved health. Em. J. Potts bid good-bye to his many friends in Columbus, and Monday took the east-bound train for Sheldon, Ia., to visit his father. He expects to spend some time visiting in different parts of the east, then push for the far west, fame and fortune. May success attend your efforts, "Em."

The following officers of Willey Lodge No. 44, I. O. O. F., were installed at their regular meeting last evening: N. G. John Huber; V. G. F. Brodtmeier; Sec'y, C. A. Newman; Treas., C. A. Speice. Encampment officers elected on Monday evening as follows: C. P., J. Greig; S. W., H. P. Coolidge; H. P., H. J. Hudson; Jr. Warden, J. Gross; Sec'y, Benj. Spielman; Treasurer, Chas. Wake. The Columbus Drug Store, formerly owned by A. W. Doland changed hands on New Year's day, Dowty, Weaver & Co. becoming the proprietors. David Dowty has been identified with the establishment for some time past as clerk. He is well known in this community as a young man of unapproachable character and good business attainments, and under his leadership we predict for the new venture eminent success. Mr. Geo. J. Anderson, a gentleman who furnishes the best of press testimonials as to starting in the dramatic life, called at the Journal rooms Monday. He informs us that he will remain in the city long enough to appear before a Columbus audience in the drama entitled "The Octoroon," supported by the Columbus Dramatic Society. The entertainment will come off in the near future due announcement of which will be made. At a regular meeting of Montrose Lodge, K. and L. of H., at Knights of Honor hall, Saturday night, the following officers were elected to serve the ensuing term: P. P., John Wiggins; P. H., P. Coolidge; V. P., Mrs. Rose Wiggins; Secretary, A. A. Smith; Financial Secretary, G. W. Clothier; Treasurer, Mrs. T. M. Coolidge; Chaplain, Mrs. J. H. Small; Guide, A. M. Jennings; Guardian, Mrs. L. Shannon; Sentinel, H. L. Small. The Congregational Mite Society at their meeting last Saturday decided that its next should be a charitable sociable, February 1st. It was also decided that as the 22d of February comes in their week and on their regular evening to hold at that time a patriotic sociable. The decorations, music, readings, tableaux, etc., to be of a national character. There will be no sociable next week in view of prospective religious meetings, which will occupy the evenings. N. E. Small returned from Utah last week where he has been for the past three months. He exhibited at the JOURNAL office some magnificent specimens of the natural curiosities that abound in that country. Among them was a mossaite, that will weigh at least twenty-five pounds; also some fine specimens of petrified wood, shell rock and forest rock. The curiosities were taken from Silver Creek canon, Utah. N. E. will remain at home during the holidays, after which he will return to Utah. A trial between a couple of farmers living in the northwestern part of the county, on the Looking Glass, occupied three days of last week, and was tried before Justice Millett. The whole neighborhood seemed to be mixed up in the litigation which was over a few bushels of wheat. The testimony of twelve witnesses was taken. The result was a judgment for the plaintiff for $5.90 and costs. If all parties concerned can be taught anything by experience they probably realize by this time that resorting to the law for redress in small matters is very unprofitable business. The entertainment which was to have taken place at the Presbyterian church Friday evening did not come off, owing to the indisposition of Miss Loder. The Plattsmouth Herald in speaking of the entertainment at that place says: "Mr. and Miss Loder gave us one of the best little entertainments we have had." And this complimentary of Miss Loder: "Miss Loder has a beautiful mobile face. Her hair was combed down plain on each side of her forehead and she looked so much like the girls we used to know, that we fell in love with her at once. It looked so pure and honest after the frizzes and 'bangs' of the period."

The Kendall Combination are billed for Thursday night at the Opera House in "The Merchant of Venice" and "Solon Shingle." By invitation a number of the friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Winterbotham met at their residence on New Year's evening. We feel confident in saying that the evening was delightfully spent, for W. H. and his excellent lady possess the happy faculty of making their friends feel at home and happy a while under their roof. The Nebraska State Horticultural Society, will hold a winter meeting and fruit exhibit at Lincoln, commencing January 19th 1881, and continuing three days. The exercises of the meetings will be conducted as usual on such occasions, consisting of Essays, Papers, Addresses and Discussions upon the various subjects connected with fruit raising. Proceedings were recently instituted by the A. & N. R. Co. to gain possession of certain lots owned by Mrs. Gottschalk and Mrs. Dietrich, and lying adjacent to the A. & N. depot. An injunction was granted by Judge Higgins, mainly on the ground that the petition alleges that the plaintiffs do not attempt to secure the property for public benefit, but for private use and benefit. The following officers of Willey Lodge No. 44, I. O. O. F., were installed at their regular meeting last evening: N. G. John Huber; V. G. F. Brodtmeier; Sec'y, C. A. Newman; Treas., C. A. Speice. We are informed by manager Hunsman that the Opera House has been engaged for Monday and Tuesday of next week for the great magician, McAllister, who will give performances upon those evenings. He also informs us that the well known and deservedly popular Kendall Combination are booked for three of the remaining days of the week, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. These entertainments were to have taken place last week, but were delayed on account of the irregularity of trains, &c., putting the parties behind with their plans for engagements. Revival meetings will be held in the Congregational church during the evenings of next week. Assistance will be given from abroad. It is the pastor's desire that all the members who have at heart the welfare of the church, the success of the cause, and the improvement of the moral's of Columbus, will give their influence for these meetings, and be in attendance often as possible. Christians, you have duties regarding Christ's work in this place which you set your part well, and help the churches to do something for Christ? or, will you bury your talent and let God's cause suffer thereby? E. L. S. A correspondent from the vicinity of Bean's school house writes to the JOURNAL giving the particulars of what he styles an accident; the occurrence is hardly of sufficient importance for a newspaper item, as it seems no person was injured, but we give space to the main facts detailed out of admiration for the pluck and perseverance displayed by the young man who is the subject of the little sketch. It appears that a young gallant of the neighborhood, to take advantage of the sleighing, for his own benefit and also that of his lady friends, made himself a sleigh. His first ride resulted in a run-away and consequent wreck of his handiwork, the sleigh; but he appears not to have been discouraged nor to have faltered in his determination to give the girls a ride, but promptly went to work to repair the breaks. Then, securing the company of lady friends he started with them to church. (Here we must condemn the young man's judgment; he should have taken one at a time) but a break down occurring on the way, a part of the distance was made on foot, and while the ladies were attending services the gallant was repairing the sleigh, which feat he accomplished in time to take them safely home. Shall We Discuss. Ed. JOURNAL.—As stated in your issue of the 22d ult., the anti-prohibition committee was invited to provide a man to discuss the question of prohibition with J. B. Finch on the 23d, to which the following answer was received: "Had the invitation reached us at an earlier date, we would have been pleased to have furnished a man to have met and discussed the question of prohibition with Mr. Finch. Very respectfully, Geo. V. Hines, chairman anti-prohibition committee." In view of the apparent willingness of the anti-prohibition committee to discuss the question, and that there may be no failure Mr. Finch desired me to make the following proposition: 1st. At any time the anti-prohibitionists will provide a man and give me two days notice, Finch will meet him in Columbus for a joint discussion. 2d. In order that no reasonable ground for failure may be left, Finch proposes that should they conclude they had no able man here and send for one, Finch will pay one-half of such man's railroad fare to Columbus. And now, Mr. Editor, if there is any right and wrong to this question, as American citizens and as men, would it not be well for us to discuss it, and then decide like men, who, seeing the right, dare maintain it. Respectfully, E. A. GERRARD.

The reporter would call attention to the remarkable weather of the past month, particularly since the 16th ult., the sun being scarcely visible for a period of two weeks, which, coupled with intense cold and stormy winds, has made one fancy he was dwelling in some other country than Nebraska. Observation extending over a great scope of country and for a period of several years has demonstrated the fact that every month has its belt or zone of winds, followed by storms or fair weather; therefore, in order to encourage my readers to observe for themselves, I shall hereafter, under the head of probabilities for next month, give the courses of the winds likely to be followed by stormy or fair weather. For the month of January these are for stormy weather from N.E. to S.E., and for fair weather from W. to S.W.

In Memory of Our Little Frankie. Be soft thy repose, darling, Afar from thy parents' fond arms. Another shall watch thy cold pillow, Another shall soothe thy alarms. Gone! Gone! In the May time, dear Frankie, Thou hast left us thy loss to deplore; Gone, gone, like a strain of soft music Whose sweetness shall charm us no more. Fond memory steals with light footsteps And hallows all left us of thee To a joy, to a link of fair fancies, Thy chorus of remembrances twine. But he who first gave thee did thee And blessed be his name—it is love And shall your fond parents deny thee The arms of a savior above? So here to his love and safe keeping The child of our love we restore In realms of no sadness, no parting, We'll meet to be parted no more. MR. AND MRS. WILL RIEKY, Columbus, Dec. 27, '80.
