Safe Robbery.

Friday morning last at about one o'clock the outer doors of the Co. Treasurer's safe at the Court House were blown off, upwards of $60 in money abstracted, with papers, such as county warrants, licenses, etc. The burglar-proof chest was not tampered with. Two locks were blown open, a hole being drilled into them and powder used. No that in March J. G., accompanied by damage to the county, except that your correspondent, was on his way done to the safe.

There has not been a watchman at the Court House, the Treasurer, J. W. Early, being the nearest at hand, on the next block.

The burglars entered the office by taking out a pane of glass in one of the windows. C. M. Chambers, being up with
