[Attest:] JOHN STAUFFER, County Clerk.

According to the Omaha Bee

women should not vote because the intelligent, refined and well-informed, even if they were willing to vote, would only be an offset to the ignorant, venal and debauched. What sort of company has Mr. Rosewater kept all of his life that he should utter this infamous libel and falsehood? The Bee's so-called arguments against equal suffrage will do more for woman suffrage than a thousand advocates--they so reveal the entire absence of reason or logic in the cause they espouse.--Sutton Register.

There might be some excuse for the citizens of this city (Lincoln) getting all they could out of the state, but when we go to robbing each other it is time to investigate.—Lincoln Globe.

The Globe is very frank. Stealing from the state has always been a popular diversion with the Lincoln people, and however divided upon other questions they have been united on that. Knowing the inside workings of these matters, the Globe's hints bear a peculiar significance.—Schuyler Sun.

JOHN S. BARON, assistant editor of the North American Review, mysteriously disappeared last February, being last heard from in the Crawford house, Boston, Mass. A search will be made for him now. It is believed that he had at the time a considerable amount of money on his person, and may have been foully dealt with.

An attempt was made the other day to poison the Czar at St. Petersburg, by sprinkling arsenic over a bowl of salad, of which Alexander is known to be very fond. On the day previous the Emperor received an invitation to his own funeral. One of the palace scullions arrested since did the sprinkling on the salad.

A DISPATCH from London gives the Standard's points of objection in its review of the revised testament. The article concludes by saying that whatever scholars may think of the labors of the revisers the impression produced upon the public mind is one of disappointment and dissatisfaction.

The Democracy of the country have been crowing over the situation of New York republicanism the past week, but they must remember that the good sense and sound judgment of the Republican party, now as heretofore, does not abide in any one, two or three of its distinguished members.

MRS. KATE SCHAFFHAUSEN, a milliner, and Charles Baker, of Columbus, Ohio, eloped on the 19th. Both are married, the woman leaving one child and a rheumatic husband, and the man deserting a wife and nine children. The intimacy had been disturbing the family for many years.

NOTICE OF SPECIAL ELECTION.

NOTICE is hereby given to the legal voters of Columbus Precinct in the County of Platte and State of Nebraska, that a special election will be held the place, to-wit: in said Precinct, hereinafter named, on the 25th day of May, A. D., 1881.

for the purpose of voting upon the following proposition, to-wit: That the County Commissioners of said Platte County issue and give to the OMAHA, NIobrARA AND BLACK HILLS RAILROAD COMPANY, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Nebraska, coupon bonds and principal payable at the amount of Twenty-five Thousand Dollars, to aid in the construction of a Union Pacific Railroad, at a point on the Union Pacific Railroad, in the City of Columbus, in said Platte County, and extending thence to Lost Creek Station, also in said Platte County, said bonds to be issued in sums of One Thousand Dollars each, to be made payable to the order of Columbus Precinct, on July 1, A. D., 1881, and to become due twenty years from the date thereof, with interest at the rate of seven per cent per annum, payable annually on the first day of July of each year upon interest coupons thereto attached, both interest and principal payable at the fiscal agency of the State of Nebraska in the City of New York.

And shall the County Commissioners cause to be levied on the taxable property of said Columbus Precinct, an annual tax sufficient to pay the interest on the said bonds, as it becomes due, and after the expiration of ten years from the date of said bonds, shall the County Commissioners cause to be levied in addition to all other taxes, upon the taxable property of said Precinct, a tax sufficient to create a sinking fund for the payment of said bonds, and shall said tax be continued from year to year until the said bonds are paid, and the said Precinct shall only be liable to pay interest on the said bonds from the time the said Railroad Company shall be entitled to receive the same, and upon the delivery thereof, sufficient coupons shall be detached from said bonds to create an interest on the said bonds, and the said Railroad Company shall be entitled to receive them; and, provided further, that the said bonds shall be issued and delivered to said Railroad Company only in the manner and on the conditions hereinafter set forth: to-wit: when said Railroad shall be built and completed from the City of Columbus to the town of Lost Creek as aforesaid.

Said bonds shall be executed and issued by the proper officers of said County and delivered to said Railroad Company sixty days after the completion of said Railroad; and if two-thirds of the votes cast at said election shall be in favor of the proposition to build said County Railroad, the County Commissioners shall be authorized to execute and deliver the same accordingly.

The form in which this proposition shall be submitted shall be by ballot, upon which ballots shall be printed or written or partly printed or written the words: "For Railroad bonds and tax," or "For Railroad bonds and tax, No." And if two-thirds of the votes cast shall have thereon the words, "For Railroad bonds and tax, Yes" then said proposition shall be declared lost; said election to be held at the following place in said Precinct, to-wit: at the Court House in the City of Columbus, Platte County, Nebraska.

The polls at said election shall be open on the morning of the said day, and shall continue open until six o'clock in the afternoon thereof, and said election shall be conducted in all respects as provided by law, at Columbus, Platte Co., Neb. 575-5.
