

Communications, to insure insertion in the next issue, should be in hand on Monday; if lengthy, on Thursdays preceding issue-day. Advertisements, of whatever class, should be in hand by noon, Tuesdays.

—Ice, ice, ice at H. G. Brindley's. —J. W. Early was at Lincoln last week.

—Alcohol for sale at P. Hoppen's Saloon. —Mrs. C. J. Gibson, after spending a few days in the city, started Saturday for her home in Greeley county.

—Miss Emily S. Grant of Bon Homme, Dakota, and Miss Libbie L. Swobe of Omaha are visiting at Gus G. Becker's.

—Pearl, daughter of Mrs. Kittie Bonesteel, gives a party to-morrow afternoon to her young friends, at Jas. Pearsall's residence.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McFarland started Tuesday last for their old home in Charleston, W. Va. They will enjoy their first visit.

—J. B. Senecal has leased a hundred and sixty acres of grazing and hay land north of the city, and surrounded it by a plowed strip.

—The route from Columbus to O'Neill will be discontinued after Aug. 1st, except as to that part of it between Platte Center and O'Neill.

—We distinctly heard last Wednesday evening the song of a genuine seven-year locust, which had located itself on a shade tree in the city.

—On Monday week one span of the Duncan, Platte river bridge, sank while cattle were being driven upon it. It is now impossible for teams.

—Thos. M. Wilson, of Bismarck Precinct, placed on our table Monday last a turpin weighing a pounds. It is ahead of any sample yet presented.

—James McAllister, on the 7th of July was fishing for trout in the mountains of Montana at Meadow Creek. The night before, they had a heavy frost.

—J. W. Early, Esq., County Treasurer, started for Ohio yesterday morning. John is one of the many Ohio boys that have succeeded in the west.

—The new U. P. tank, just completed here, is said to be the finest on the line of the road. It is certainly a very handsome piece of workmanship.

—John Wiggins returned last week from a trip through the northern part of the state. The more John sees of Nebraska the better he seems to like it.

—Sam. Irwin spent two days here last week. He packed his collar-box for the "sweet magnoliagades" of Florida. Sam. has been in every quarter of the Globe.

—Emil Pohl had a colt killed by a U. P. train on Saturday morning. It had been picked out of danger, but some one had removed it so that it could cross the track.

—Peter Clinchy seems still inclined to make trouble. The other day he frightened M. O'Herne's herder boy and two of his children running after and threatening them.

—The Genoa Leader has changed hands. Wats. Burgess, who has been editor writes, and E. V. Clark takes hold of the helm. We can only wish our old friends great success.

—Attention is called to the business card of Messrs. McFarland & Cowdry. They are prompt and careful in attending to business entrusted to their care, and are thoroughly trustworthy.

—The last quarterly meeting for this conference year will be held at the M. E. Church, this city, next Sunday. Dr. Miller, the Presiding Elder, will be present and conduct the meetings.

—W. N. Hensley, Esq., late of the Columbus Era, is prospecting for gold about a hundred miles from Gunnison City. He is in company with six other men. He thinks Colorado is a rough country.

—Rev. Franklin Pierce the new Baptist minister, who ministers at Silver Creek and in this city, will preach in the German Reform church in this city Sunday July 31st, and every alternate Sabbath thereafter.

—J. A. Wood returned last week from Colorado, where he had been at work on the railroad. He wouldn't like to live there, the water is not good, as a rule, but he thinks Denver is the prettiest city he ever saw.

—We see by our exchanges that the chinch bug is a common complaint in the state this year. In some localities wheat has been so far destroyed by them that farmers have set fire to their wheat to save their corn.

—A certain surgeon of Columbus made a wager Saturday that he could "get away" with sixteen glasses of soda water within half an hour. He succeeded, but his stomach was very stormy a short time afterwards.

—Col. G. W. Stevens left with us last week a very nice sample of new potatoes. They were large, plump and solid, and when properly prepared for the table, would be greatly relished by any one fond of the article.

—Last week we made note of the fact that diphtheria was prevalent at Madison. We have heard of none in Platte county except two children of J. W. Temple, four miles north of Columbus, and theirs is not of virulent form.

—Mr. Kearney, an attorney of Albion, had a preliminary hearing on a charge of complicity of some kind in the fire at Albion recently, and in default of bail for his appearance before the next term of district court was sent to prison.

—The M. E. University, which has been in operation for several years, it is understood will be removed to Fullerton, Nance Co.

—Mr. Thudwater of West Virginia, an acquaintance of Col. Moran's, was in the city last week. We were informed that he was on the look-out for several tracts of land for a number of families, who desire to remove to Nebraska.

—R. S. Sutherland, recently of Schuyler, takes the place here of Mr. Chapin, day operator. Mr. Sutherland must have some very worthy friends at Schuyler. On a return there recently they presented him with a handsome gold watch.

—R. H. Henry returned Sunday from a six weeks sojourn in the western part of the state. He reports some large fields of corn in the Loup country as looking first-rate, better than on the line of the U. P. between this and Grand Island.

—"Fatty" Woods weighs 190 pounds and strikes a ton," murmured a Boone county youth the first of the week, as he meandered up one of our streets. It is very "dangerous to be safe" to be around "Fatty" when you are imbibing.

—Dr. Hoehn complains against the A. & N. for keeping three car loads of stone on a street crossing Sunday last, compelling teams to go several blocks around. We are informed that this is the first time the A. & N. track has been blocked.

—It is understood that Norfolk, Oakdale, Albion and Genoa will make special effort to secure the Congregational Academy that is to be located somewhere in the North Platte county within the next year. Will Columbus have anything to say?

—Mr. Swearingen of Clear Creek has picked eight quarts of gooseberries from one of his bushes this season, and three and a half bushels from all his bushes. If every family in Nebraska could have that many to put up for winter use, there would be less call for pills.

—Mr. Anderson, of the firm of Anderson & Roen, returned Friday from a trip to Wisconsin. He says that corn in Nebraska is far ahead of that in Iowa, Illinois or Wisconsin, in the latter state being now about as far advanced as Nebraska corn was four weeks ago.

—Mrs. Johnson Craig of Cadiz, O., accompanied by her son Thompson Craig of Burt Co., came to the city on a visit Tuesday of last week. Thompson returned to his home Monday. Mrs. C. will continue her visit to her daughters in Nebraska, Mrs. G. W. Brown and Mrs. M. K. Turner.

—Of course it is little use to tell the public of central Nebraska that Messrs. Becher & Price are the "boss" insurance agents, and are ready at all times to write policies to suit all sorts of customers, but it may be well enough to let people know that this firm have money to loan, more than ever, and cheaper than ever. Call and see them.

—A light shower Monday morning helped to put the atmosphere in good shape for harvest, most of which will probably be done in this county this week. Much of the oats is lodged, and more or less damage has been done to wheat by the chinch bugs. Every now and then you will hear a farmer say, "This is my last wheat year."

—The members constituting the Keystone Base Ball Club of this city have become quite proficient players and would be pleased to hear from clubs of other portions of Nebraska. Any club visiting Columbus will be guaranteed a good game and an excellent time. The boys would be pleased to hear from Omaha, Fremont or Grand Island.

—Mr. Dunsford expects to have anywhere between a thousand and fifteen hundred bushels of onions to harvest this fall. We believe that when our people come to thoroughly know the capacity of Nebraska soil for potatoes and onions, that they will be the best paying crop raised here. These vegetables are always a good price, and nearly always very productive.

—The Fair and Driving Park Association promises to be a success. It is proposed to form a joint-stock company, purchase a suitable tract of land, fence it, erect suitable buildings, and have here a place for exhibitions that will be a credit to the city. It is thought that with such grounds, we can in a year or so secure the state fair. The last we heard, some $1,700 in stock had been subscribed.

—All along, a very considerable portion of the current family expenses on the farms of Nebraska have been provided for by the sale of butter and eggs, but we venture to predict that these two items will figure more largely in future calculations. The business has assumed wonderful proportions for Columbus. Messrs. Randall & Shotwell give, as their shipments for the two months, ending July 10th, 28,900 doz. eggs, and 99,194 pounds of butter, and of this latter, 71,000 pounds were shipped in June.

—The Nellie Boyd theatrical combination commenced an engagement of three nights at the Opera House Monday evening, opening with the thrilling drama "Forget Me Not," which was well calculated to test the ability of the troupe. The play was a success, and it was plainly apparent to the audience that the Nellie Boyd Combination are well up in their profession. To-night is their last; we do not know the title of the play that will be put on, but the repertoire of the troupe embraces nothing but first-class plays and there need be no fears but the audience will be well entertained.

—Attention is called to the business card of Messrs. McFarland & Cowdry. They are prompt and careful in attending to business entrusted to their care, and are thoroughly trustworthy.

—The last quarterly meeting for this conference year will be held at the M. E. Church, this city, next Sunday. Dr. Miller, the Presiding Elder, will be present and conduct the meetings.

—W. N. Hensley, Esq., late of the Columbus Era, is prospecting for gold about a hundred miles from Gunnison City. He is in company with six other men. He thinks Colorado is a rough country.

—Rev. Franklin Pierce the new Baptist minister, who ministers at Silver Creek and in this city, will preach in the German Reform church in this city Sunday July 31st, and every alternate Sabbath thereafter.

—J. A. Wood returned last week from Colorado, where he had been at work on the railroad. He wouldn't like to live there, the water is not good, as a rule, but he thinks Denver is the prettiest city he ever saw.

—We see by our exchanges that the chinch bug is a common complaint in the state this year. In some localities wheat has been so far destroyed by them that farmers have set fire to their wheat to save their corn.

—A certain surgeon of Columbus made a wager Saturday that he could "get away" with sixteen glasses of soda water within half an hour. He succeeded, but his stomach was very stormy a short time afterwards.

—Col. G. W. Stevens left with us last week a very nice sample of new potatoes. They were large, plump and solid, and when properly prepared for the table, would be greatly relished by any one fond of the article.

—Last week we made note of the fact that diphtheria was prevalent at Madison. We have heard of none in Platte county except two children of J. W. Temple, four miles north of Columbus, and theirs is not of virulent form.

—Mr. Kearney, an attorney of Albion, had a preliminary hearing on a charge of complicity of some kind in the fire at Albion recently, and in default of bail for his appearance before the next term of district court was sent to prison.

—The M. E. University, which has been in operation for several years, it is understood will be removed to Fullerton, Nance Co.

—Mr. Thudwater of West Virginia, an acquaintance of Col. Moran's, was in the city last week. We were informed that he was on the look-out for several tracts of land for a number of families, who desire to remove to Nebraska.

—R. S. Sutherland, recently of Schuyler, takes the place here of Mr. Chapin, day operator. Mr. Sutherland must have some very worthy friends at Schuyler. On a return there recently they presented him with a handsome gold watch.

—R. H. Henry returned Sunday from a six weeks sojourn in the western part of the state. He reports some large fields of corn in the Loup country as looking first-rate, better than on the line of the U. P. between this and Grand Island.

—"Fatty" Woods weighs 190 pounds and strikes a ton," murmured a Boone county youth the first of the week, as he meandered up one of our streets. It is very "dangerous to be safe" to be around "Fatty" when you are imbibing.

—Dr. Hoehn complains against the A. & N. for keeping three car loads of stone on a street crossing Sunday last, compelling teams to go several blocks around. We are informed that this is the first time the A. & N. track has been blocked.

—It is understood that Norfolk, Oakdale, Albion and Genoa will make special effort to secure the Congregational Academy that is to be located somewhere in the North Platte county within the next year. Will Columbus have anything to say?

—Mr. Swearingen of Clear Creek has picked eight quarts of gooseberries from one of his bushes this season, and three and a half bushels from all his bushes. If every family in Nebraska could have that many to put up for winter use, there would be less call for pills.

—Mr. Anderson, of the firm of Anderson & Roen, returned Friday from a trip to Wisconsin. He says that corn in Nebraska is far ahead of that in Iowa, Illinois or Wisconsin, in the latter state being now about as far advanced as Nebraska corn was four weeks ago.

—Mrs. Johnson Craig of Cadiz, O., accompanied by her son Thompson Craig of Burt Co., came to the city on a visit Tuesday of last week. Thompson returned to his home Monday. Mrs. C. will continue her visit to her daughters in Nebraska, Mrs. G. W. Brown and Mrs. M. K. Turner.

—Of course it is little use to tell the public of central Nebraska that Messrs. Becher & Price are the "boss" insurance agents, and are ready at all times to write policies to suit all sorts of customers, but it may be well enough to let people know that this firm have money to loan, more than ever, and cheaper than ever. Call and see them.

—A light shower Monday morning helped to put the atmosphere in good shape for harvest, most of which will probably be done in this county this week. Much of the oats is lodged, and more or less damage has been done to wheat by the chinch bugs. Every now and then you will hear a farmer say, "This is my last wheat year."

—The members constituting the Keystone Base Ball Club of this city have become quite proficient players and would be pleased to hear from clubs of other portions of Nebraska. Any club visiting Columbus will be guaranteed a good game and an excellent time. The boys would be pleased to hear from Omaha, Fremont or Grand Island.

—Mr. Dunsford expects to have anywhere between a thousand and fifteen hundred bushels of onions to harvest this fall. We believe that when our people come to thoroughly know the capacity of Nebraska soil for potatoes and onions, that they will be the best paying crop raised here. These vegetables are always a good price, and nearly always very productive.

—The Fair and Driving Park Association promises to be a success. It is proposed to form a joint-stock company, purchase a suitable tract of land, fence it, erect suitable buildings, and have here a place for exhibitions that will be a credit to the city. It is thought that with such grounds, we can in a year or so secure the state fair. The last we heard, some $1,700 in stock had been subscribed.

—All along, a very considerable portion of the current family expenses on the farms of Nebraska have been provided for by the sale of butter and eggs, but we venture to predict that these two items will figure more largely in future calculations. The business has assumed wonderful proportions for Columbus. Messrs. Randall & Shotwell give, as their shipments for the two months, ending July 10th, 28,900 doz. eggs, and 99,194 pounds of butter, and of this latter, 71,000 pounds were shipped in June.

—The Nellie Boyd theatrical combination commenced an engagement of three nights at the Opera House Monday evening, opening with the thrilling drama "Forget Me Not," which was well calculated to test the ability of the troupe. The play was a success, and it was plainly apparent to the audience that the Nellie Boyd Combination are well up in their profession. To-night is their last; we do not know the title of the play that will be put on, but the repertoire of the troupe embraces nothing but first-class plays and there need be no fears but the audience will be well entertained.

—Attention is called to the business card of Messrs. McFarland & Cowdry. They are prompt and careful in attending to business entrusted to their care, and are thoroughly trustworthy.

—The last quarterly meeting for this conference year will be held at the M. E. Church, this city, next Sunday. Dr. Miller, the Presiding Elder, will be present and conduct the meetings.

—W. N. Hensley, Esq., late of the Columbus Era, is prospecting for gold about a hundred miles from Gunnison City. He is in company with six other men. He thinks Colorado is a rough country.

—Rev. Franklin Pierce the new Baptist minister, who ministers at Silver Creek and in this city, will preach in the German Reform church in this city Sunday July 31st, and every alternate Sabbath thereafter.

—J. A. Wood returned last week from Colorado, where he had been at work on the railroad. He wouldn't like to live there, the water is not good, as a rule, but he thinks Denver is the prettiest city he ever saw.

—We see by our exchanges that the chinch bug is a common complaint in the state this year. In some localities wheat has been so far destroyed by them that farmers have set fire to their wheat to save their corn.

—A certain surgeon of Columbus made a wager Saturday that he could "get away" with sixteen glasses of soda water within half an hour. He succeeded, but his stomach was very stormy a short time afterwards.

—Col. G. W. Stevens left with us last week a very nice sample of new potatoes. They were large, plump and solid, and when properly prepared for the table, would be greatly relished by any one fond of the article.

—Last week we made note of the fact that diphtheria was prevalent at Madison. We have heard of none in Platte county except two children of J. W. Temple, four miles north of Columbus, and theirs is not of virulent form.

—Mr. Kearney, an attorney of Albion, had a preliminary hearing on a charge of complicity of some kind in the fire at Albion recently, and in default of bail for his appearance before the next term of district court was sent to prison.

—The M. E. University, which has been in operation for several years, it is understood will be removed to Fullerton, Nance Co.

—Mr. Thudwater of West Virginia, an acquaintance of Col. Moran's, was in the city last week. We were informed that he was on the look-out for several tracts of land for a number of families, who desire to remove to Nebraska.

—R. S. Sutherland, recently of Schuyler, takes the place here of Mr. Chapin, day operator. Mr. Sutherland must have some very worthy friends at Schuyler. On a return there recently they presented him with a handsome gold watch.

—R. H. Henry returned Sunday from a six weeks sojourn in the western part of the state. He reports some large fields of corn in the Loup country as looking first-rate, better than on the line of the U. P. between this and Grand Island.

—"Fatty" Woods weighs 190 pounds and strikes a ton," murmured a Boone county youth the first of the week, as he meandered up one of our streets. It is very "dangerous to be safe" to be around "Fatty" when you are imbibing.

—Dr. Hoehn complains against the A. & N. for keeping three car loads of stone on a street crossing Sunday last, compelling teams to go several blocks around. We are informed that this is the first time the A. & N. track has been blocked.

—It is understood that Norfolk, Oakdale, Albion and Genoa will make special effort to secure the Congregational Academy that is to be located somewhere in the North Platte county within the next year. Will Columbus have anything to say?

—Mr. Swearingen of Clear Creek has picked eight quarts of gooseberries from one of his bushes this season, and three and a half bushels from all his bushes. If every family in Nebraska could have that many to put up for winter use, there would be less call for pills.

—Mr. Anderson, of the firm of Anderson & Roen, returned Friday from a trip to Wisconsin. He says that corn in Nebraska is far ahead of that in Iowa, Illinois or Wisconsin, in the latter state being now about as far advanced as Nebraska corn was four weeks ago.

—Mrs. Johnson Craig of Cadiz, O., accompanied by her son Thompson Craig of Burt Co., came to the city on a visit Tuesday of last week. Thompson returned to his home Monday. Mrs. C. will continue her visit to her daughters in Nebraska, Mrs. G. W. Brown and Mrs. M. K. Turner.

—Of course it is little use to tell the public of central Nebraska that Messrs. Becher & Price are the "boss" insurance agents, and are ready at all times to write policies to suit all sorts of customers, but it may be well enough to let people know that this firm have money to loan, more than ever, and cheaper than ever. Call and see them.

—A light shower Monday morning helped to put the atmosphere in good shape for harvest, most of which will probably be done in this county this week. Much of the oats is lodged, and more or less damage has been done to wheat by the chinch bugs. Every now and then you will hear a farmer say, "This is my last wheat year."

—The members constituting the Keystone Base Ball Club of this city have become quite proficient players and would be pleased to hear from clubs of other portions of Nebraska. Any club visiting Columbus will be guaranteed a good game and an excellent time. The boys would be pleased to hear from Omaha, Fremont or Grand Island.

—Mr. Dunsford expects to have anywhere between a thousand and fifteen hundred bushels of onions to harvest this fall. We believe that when our people come to thoroughly know the capacity of Nebraska soil for potatoes and onions, that they will be the best paying crop raised here. These vegetables are always a good price, and nearly always very productive.

—The Fair and Driving Park Association promises to be a success. It is proposed to form a joint-stock company, purchase a suitable tract of land, fence it, erect suitable buildings, and have here a place for exhibitions that will be a credit to the city. It is thought that with such grounds, we can in a year or so secure the state fair. The last we heard, some $1,700 in stock had been subscribed.

—All along, a very considerable portion of the current family expenses on the farms of Nebraska have been provided for by the sale of butter and eggs, but we venture to predict that these two items will figure more largely in future calculations. The business has assumed wonderful proportions for Columbus. Messrs. Randall & Shotwell give, as their shipments for the two months, ending July 10th, 28,900 doz. eggs, and 99,194 pounds of butter, and of this latter, 71,000 pounds were shipped in June.

—The Nellie Boyd theatrical combination commenced an engagement of three nights at the Opera House Monday evening, opening with the thrilling drama "Forget Me Not," which was well calculated to test the ability of the troupe. The play was a success, and it was plainly apparent to the audience that the Nellie Boyd Combination are well up in their profession. To-night is their last; we do not know the title of the play that will be put on, but the repertoire of the troupe embraces nothing but first-class plays and there need be no fears but the audience will be well entertained.

—Attention is called to the business card of Messrs. McFarland & Cowdry. They are prompt and careful in attending to business entrusted to their care, and are thoroughly trustworthy.

—The last quarterly meeting for this conference year will be held at the M. E. Church, this city, next Sunday. Dr. Miller, the Presiding Elder, will be present and conduct the meetings.

—W. N. Hensley, Esq., late of the Columbus Era, is prospecting for gold about a hundred miles from Gunnison City. He is in company with six other men. He thinks Colorado is a rough country.

—Rev. Franklin Pierce the new Baptist minister, who ministers at Silver Creek and in this city, will preach in the German Reform church in this city Sunday July 31st, and every alternate Sabbath thereafter.

—J. A. Wood returned last week from Colorado, where he had been at work on the railroad. He wouldn't like to live there, the water is not good, as a rule, but he thinks Denver is the prettiest city he ever saw.

—We see by our exchanges that the chinch bug is a common complaint in the state this year. In some localities wheat has been so far destroyed by them that farmers have set fire to their wheat to save their corn.

—A certain surgeon of Columbus made a wager Saturday that he could "get away" with sixteen glasses of soda water within half an hour. He succeeded, but his stomach was very stormy a short time afterwards.

—Col. G. W. Stevens left with us last week a very nice sample of new potatoes. They were large, plump and solid, and when properly prepared for the table, would be greatly relished by any one fond of the article.

—Last week we made note of the fact that diphtheria was prevalent at Madison. We have heard of none in Platte county except two children of J. W. Temple, four miles north of Columbus, and theirs is not of virulent form.

—Mr. Kearney, an attorney of Albion, had a preliminary hearing on a charge of complicity of some kind in the fire at Albion recently, and in default of bail for his appearance before the next term of district court was sent to prison.

—The M. E. University, which has been in operation for several years, it is understood will be removed to Fullerton, Nance Co.

—The M. E. University, which has been in operation for several years, it is understood will be removed to Fullerton, Nance Co.

—The M. E. University, which has been in operation for several years, it is understood will be removed to Fullerton, Nance Co.

—The M. E. University, which has been in operation for several years, it is understood will be removed to Fullerton, Nance Co.

—The M. E. University, which has been in operation for several years, it is understood will be removed to Fullerton, Nance Co.

—The M. E. University, which has been in operation for several years, it is understood will be removed to Fullerton, Nance Co.

—The M. E. University, which has been in operation for several years, it is understood will be removed to Fullerton, Nance Co.

—The M. E. University, which has been in operation for several years, it is understood will be removed to Fullerton, Nance Co.

—The M. E. University, which has been in operation for several years, it is understood will be removed to Fullerton, Nance Co.

—Mr. Thudwater of West Virginia, an acquaintance of Col. Moran's, was in the city last week. We were informed that he was on the look-out for several tracts of land for a number of families, who desire to remove to Nebraska.

—R. S. Sutherland, recently of Schuyler, takes the place here of Mr. Chapin, day operator. Mr. Sutherland must have some very worthy friends at Schuyler. On a return there recently they presented him with a handsome gold watch.

—R. H. Henry returned Sunday from a six weeks sojourn in the western part of the state. He reports some large fields of corn in the Loup country as looking first-rate, better than on the line of the U. P. between this and Grand Island.

—"Fatty" Woods weighs 190 pounds and strikes a ton," murmured a Boone county youth the first of the week, as he meandered up one of our streets. It is very "dangerous to be safe" to be around "Fatty" when you are imbibing.

—Dr. Hoehn complains against the A. & N. for keeping three car loads of stone on a street crossing Sunday last, compelling teams to go several blocks around. We are informed that this is the first time the A. & N. track has been blocked.

—It is understood that Norfolk, Oakdale, Albion and Genoa will make special effort to secure the Congregational Academy that is to be located somewhere in the North Platte county within the next year. Will Columbus have anything to say?

—Mr. Swearingen of Clear Creek has picked eight quarts of gooseberries from one of his bushes this season, and three and a half bushels from all his bushes. If every family in Nebraska could have that many to put up for winter use, there would be less call for pills.

—Mr. Anderson, of the firm of Anderson & Roen, returned Friday from a trip to Wisconsin. He says that corn in Nebraska is far ahead of that in Iowa, Illinois or Wisconsin, in the latter state being now about as far advanced as Nebraska corn was four weeks ago.

—Mrs. Johnson Craig of Cadiz, O., accompanied by her son Thompson Craig of Burt Co., came to the city on a visit Tuesday of last week. Thompson returned to his home Monday. Mrs. C. will continue her visit to her daughters in Nebraska, Mrs. G. W. Brown and Mrs. M. K. Turner.

—Of course it is little use to tell the public of central Nebraska that Messrs. Becher & Price are the "boss" insurance agents, and are ready at all times to write policies to suit all sorts of customers, but it may be well enough to let people know that this firm have money to loan, more than ever, and cheaper than ever. Call and see them.

—A light shower Monday morning helped to put the atmosphere in good shape for harvest, most of which will probably be done in this county this week. Much of the oats is lodged, and more or less damage has been done to wheat by the chinch bugs. Every now and then you will hear a farmer say, "This is my last wheat year."

—The members constituting the Keystone Base Ball Club of this city have become quite proficient players and would be pleased to hear from clubs of other portions of Nebraska. Any club visiting Columbus will be guaranteed a good game and an excellent time. The boys would be pleased to hear from Omaha, Fremont or Grand Island.

—Mr. Dunsford expects to have anywhere between a thousand and fifteen hundred bushels of onions to harvest this fall. We believe that when our people come to thoroughly know the capacity of Nebraska soil for potatoes and onions, that they will be the best paying crop raised here. These vegetables are always a good price, and nearly always very productive.

—The Fair and Driving Park Association promises to be a success. It is proposed to form a joint-stock company, purchase a suitable tract of land, fence it, erect suitable buildings, and have here a place for exhibitions that will be a credit to the city. It is thought that with such grounds, we can in a year or so secure the state fair. The last we heard, some $1,700 in stock had been subscribed.

—All along, a very considerable portion of the current family expenses on the farms of Nebraska have been provided for by the sale of butter and eggs, but we venture to predict that these two items will figure more largely in future calculations. The business has assumed wonderful proportions for Columbus. Messrs. Randall & Shotwell give, as their shipments for the two months, ending July 10th, 28,900 doz. eggs, and 99,194 pounds of butter, and of this latter, 71,000 pounds were shipped in June.

—The Nellie Boyd theatrical combination commenced an engagement of three nights at the Opera House Monday evening, opening with the thrilling drama "Forget Me Not," which was well calculated to test the ability of the troupe. The play was a success, and it was plainly apparent to the audience that the Nellie Boyd Combination are well up in their profession. To-night is their last; we do not know the title of the play that will be put on, but the repertoire of the troupe embraces nothing but first-class plays and there need be no fears but the audience will be well entertained.

—Attention is called to the business card of Messrs. McFarland & Cowdry. They are prompt and careful in attending to business entrusted to their care, and are thoroughly trustworthy.

—The last quarterly meeting for this conference year will be held at the M. E. Church, this city, next Sunday. Dr. Miller, the Presiding Elder, will be present and conduct the meetings.

—W. N. Hensley, Esq., late of the Columbus Era, is prospecting for gold about a hundred miles from Gunnison City. He is in company with six other men. He thinks Colorado is a rough country.

—Rev. Franklin Pierce the new Baptist minister, who ministers at Silver Creek and in this city, will preach in the German Reform church in this city Sunday July 31st, and every alternate Sabbath thereafter.