

Communications to insure insertion in the next issue, should be in hand on Monday; if lengthy, on Thursday preceding issue-day. Advertisements of whatever class, should be in hand by noon, Tuesday.

-The Kummer Guards are making grand preparations for their dance. All who wish a good time, come.

-J. J. Slattery has purchased the stationery store of Lubker & Kramer, and as soon as he can will remove to Lamb's building on Nebraska Avenue, one door north of post office.

-John Ernst expected to start yesterday for Europe, sojourning mostly for the next three, four or five months, at Bern, Switzerland. The Journal wishes him a safe voyage and a pleasant visit.

-If you want to see a store covering 5000 square feet filled with a new stock of $50,000 where you can get just what you want and are certain of getting the lowest prices go to Kramer's New York Cheap Cash Store. 23-1f.

-Charles Diedrich started for Europe last week. He goes to complete his education in drawing and painting. He has already made his mark in that line, as a learner, but we believe he is destined to become a master.

-The delegates from Columbus precinct to the County Democratic Convention, elected Monday, were, Jno Wermuth, Jno Haney, H. Oehlrich, E. D. Sheehan, J. B. Delsman, Chas. Schroeder, F. Broodfeuter, D. Schupbach.

-We are told that McBride & Preston from Canada bought 700 acres of land within a mile or two of Richland for which they paid $6.00 per acre. It is said they intend starting a cattle ranch. -Schuyler Herald.

-John Elliott's sale on the 27th ult. was well attended, and John Huber the auctioneer, sold $2,000 worth of property in about two hours.

-S. H. Overton, conductor on the Norfolk Branch started yesterday for St. Louis. Rumor has it that he is to bring back a wife but then rumor is sometimes a deceiving jade, and the Journal has enough to do to give the facts.

-Michael Cronin had in town Saturday the best load of potatoes we ever saw. They were all large - some of them very large, and just as they were dug. He calls them California Russets, and gets $1 a bushel for them for seed.

-A. C. Tigner, who returned home Thursday, desires us to say through the Journal that he is back through the Journal and is working on the U. P. between this and Omaha, and that he will settle all claims against him as fast as he can.

-A suit was in progress Monday before Justice Bailey, between G. W. Elliston and Walter, Richard and Thomas Dress, step sons of David O'Brien. It seems that Mr. O'Brien had sold certain property to Elliston, and that the sons lay claim to the same.

-Mr. Will Y. Bissell, late of Dubuque, Ia., has located in Columbus as special agent of the Hartford Fire Insurance Co. This speaks well for our city as the business center of a large section of country, and railroad radiating point easy of access from every direction.

-H. P. Smith has left with us a specimen of peanuts grown in the city. They shell out one quart for each peanut planted. Mr. S. thinks that his crop will amount to about one hundred bushels per acre. These are certainly very prolific, and as good as any peanuts are.

-The Fair promises to be a success because the weather is good, because the crops and things to exhibit are good, because the people like to attend fairs, because the premiums will undoubtedly be paid just as advertised, and generally because the fair itself will be a good one.

-The Lincoln Journal had Columbus in the recent cyclone as losing the Presbyterian Church, Gross Bros' store, etc., etc. The Journal will please correct the mistake Madison was evidently meant. The cyclone did not strike us, although we did have some pretty high wind.

-Hon. J. T. Clark and Rev. J. G. Gasman delivered the addresses at the memorial services at Schuyler. The hymns sung were "I would not live away," "Nearer, my God, to thee," "Asleep in Jesus," "God bless our native land." The orders taking part in the exercises were Masonic, G. A. R., and the Zapadni Jednota.

-Every saloon keeper in Platte county, outside of this city, was indicted at the last term of court. All but one (Jacob Ripp) had obtained license under the old law, and held the erroneous idea that it was good yet. The indictments against S. L. Barrett were founded upon two documents. He was put to trial on one of them, the jury disagreeing.

-Thursday and Friday are to be the big days of the Fair. The address by Dr. Miller of Omaha, the exhibition of Company drill by the Kummer Guards, the music by the Cornet Band, together with the races of the regular programme will make Thursday the grand day of the fair. There are horses enough, and of the requisite mettle to assure the best races in the state. These always attract a large crowd. With fair weather everybody expects to be there.

-Special Meeting. Monitress Lodge, No. 291, K. & L. of H., on Saturday evening Oct. 8th. All members are requested to be present. By order of the Protector. A. A. SMITH, Sec'y.

-Some one has remarked that marriages have not been numerous here in Nebraska, this year. Whether the severer winter, the spring flood, old Mother Shipton's prophecy or Venner has had anything to do with this or not, there is ample time yet, during the year, to remedy the evil. While the Journal would never favor the marriage of boys and girls, it yet feels like saying an encouraging word occasionally to those of proper age, and like good old Ben Franklin, the Journal does favor early marriages. Now, young man, don't be so backward in coming forward, and asking the all-important question. There are plenty of young ladies, pure-minded, noble-hearted, waiting to become some good man's wife. You may possibly ask the wrong one the first time, but there is another and another within speaking distance, and don't be discouraged. Fair time is a good time to look after these matters. So far as expenses are concerned, there is many a single man, paying more money for board, billiards, cigars, etc., than would keep comfortably a small family. Lay aside mock modesty, consult some judicious friend, ask your girl, and thank us for advice.

-Thos Jones near Postville on Saturday week lost by fire, his stable and all his hay, Hans Elliott, who saw the fire from a distance, rescued, succeeding in unloading and saving Mr. Jones's horses. It seems that the fire caught from ashes thrown upon a manure pile - a habit of the household. Comment is unnecessary.

-Some drover of cattle passed over the Platte bridge south of Duncan, and belonging to Butler precinct, on Sunday last, putting three spans of it out of shape. As the spans that went down before, was only temporarily repaired, the present break makes a job of work that will take some time, and cost something. Commissioner Wise says that this is the third time there have been breakages in that bridge.

Admission Free to the Columbus Fair!! -To show our appreciation of the efforts of the Columbus Fair Association, and to induce none of our friends to miss this great show, we decided to give one admission ticket free to every person purchasing $5.00 worth of goods of us, during the fair. To every person purchasing $10.00 two tickets; $15.00, three tickets, and so on. So by making your fall purchases at that time you will be able to take your whole family to the fair without costing you a cent. We give these tickets partly that you may not fail to see what immense bargains we are giving in our establishment by selling goods at a smaller profit than was ever before attempted by any house in Columbus. We are receiving an immense stock from New York, and you will save money by purchasing from us. The Journal could not furnish us the list of goods and prices. Call and see us, and look out for further particulars next week. On the corner north of the post-office. 22-w-2
