The directors of this institution are M. Whitmoyer, Prest., V. T. Price, Treas., H. P. Smith, Sec'y., and C. Kramer and W. T. Ransdell. The by-laws have been adopted, and when Mr. Frank Price, brother to V. At a meeting of the City Council Monday evening, side-walks were ordered as follows: On 13th street, through Becker's addition, on the south side of street; on 11th street from Washington Avenue, east, south side of street; from corner 13th and R streets to the west end school house; from Paul Hoppen's, and as many new ones as may choose on 10th street, to the east end school house. Also, two new fire wells were ordered put in, one corner 13th and Olive, the other on 11th street, near the Lindell House.

Carl Brandt was promoted to the office of Chief of Police, to fill vacancy caused through the impeachment of J. C. McMahon; Mahlon Clother was appointed policeman.

being the highest total on any one office; this is easily accounted for, because the contest on this office was more active than on any other. It is strange, however, that the total for surveyor (on which there seemed to be little or no contest) should be but two less than on treasurer; that on commissioner was 18 below; on coroner, 11; on sheriff, 20; on super-

Sherman precinct will attract at tention as giving majorities for Maxwell, the republican regents, North, Moncrief, Henry, Cramer, and Heintz-the extremes being a republican majority of 60 for one candidate, and a democratic majority of 49 for another. Monroe, Walker, Creston, Loupe, Looking Glass and Woodville are among the precincts decidedly republican.

The jail proposition is buried deep enough, though it would have been still more gratifying had there been no votes in its favor. One man supposed (as several newspapers have wrongly published) that the woman suffrage amendment was before the people for a vote this election.
