trouble with the team, whosing, hawing THE JOURNAL. and geeing with the vehemence of a first-class backwoodsman, but to little purpose, for they were beside them-the camp among the trees; but here he lost all control of them, and they rushed elves with terror. Finally, however,

WEDNESDAY, MAY 17, 1882.

he succeeded in driving them along till they were opposite the object of their Entered at the Postoffice, Columbas, Nob., as secon class matter. fears, which was now some rods above gloves.

HOSPITALITY.

in wild and characteristic awkwardness Me wear white gloves at her wedding? No. down the hill homeward. With no team Full dress? Aye-I understand. to take his attention, Mr. Lyman turned aside to learn the cause of all this com-But, wile, I must give our daughter away With a free and uncovered hand, As I took yours, her mother, so long, long motion. The two women and Mary Then weddings were sacraments, now they were standing by the camp fireplace, while George and Amos had gone up are show. nearer to the creature. Sure enough, it And what could I do with my hands in gloves, If my eyes should fill up with tears? I haven't control of my heart to-day, was a bear; but Amos' suspicion was a slander against the poor animal, for it had only thrust its head deep into a sugar kettle and could not remove it. As I had in earlier years. No, no, for her sake it won't do; I must try And not overcloud with my tears her fair sky. Bears are very fond of sweet things, and no doubt this one had been attracted But I want her to feel, when I come to call On the God of her parents to bless The child of our years, the touch of my hand, And the warmth of her father's caress. And, too, I would cherish the touch of her to the camp by the smell of sagar; and after licking out various other vessels, had come to this kettle, an old-fashioned iron pot, and finding the inside surface peculiarly inviting, had pushed his head deeper and deeper into it until it slipped And feel her heart beat in my parting emover his big bony jaws and thick ears. In this predicament he could neither see nor hear, and his mouth was effectually When I lifted her first to my heart, then these hands Were calloused with toil; for I wrought, And doubled exertion for yours and her sake; And often, aye, often I've thought, To hide in one's age the privations of youth is, of all, the unmanliest kind of untruth. his mighty paws were free, they were harmless so long as the kettle held him Wear your laces and diamonds-you've carned prisoner. He now was trying to run Look your best-but let me extend Hospitality's hand all ungloved to my guests. Suppose, now, some old cherished friend Should appear without gloves?-can't afford away, but, being unable to make out the points of the compass or perceive the logs, stumps and trees in his path, was like a person playing carelessly at "blind-man's buff," constantly running them, may be-That man must receive double welcome from against obstacles and tumbling himself over, and upon regaining his feet, start-ing of in another direction. Amos and "And how will the bridgroom look on it," "To receive from ungloved hands his George, fearless of him in his misfor-Well, I trust and believe he has wisdom tune, were amusing themselves by pull-ing his stubbed tail, George even venenough To receive what we give him with pride; And I hope he'll remember the wife that he turing to leap astride of him and ride And I hope he'll remember the wife that he loves Is the daughter of one who has no need of several vards. "Oh, don't! don't! boys," called Mrs. Lyman. "What if it should come -Youth's Companion off all at once? he'd kill you in an in-TOO FOND OF MAPLE SUGAR. stant.'

"Which do you mean, mother, the kettle or the tail?" gleefully responded The sugar-making season was closing along the river valley. The April sun Amos. "They're both fast enough; so was riding high and shining warmly; never fear. He's tried to get the kettle the snow was gone from the lowlands off till he's scratched his neck dreadand south-sloping hillsides, and the maple buds were swelling rapidly fully."

Every few minutes the animal would toward leaf-bursting. Plainly, no more stand on his haunches and paw at the kettle with a vigor that would have repure-flavored sugar could be obtained from the Lyman's "sugar-bush" that moved it had that been possible. Finally, Mr. Lyman said: season.

"Boys, you stay and watch him, and But, over the hills six miles away, where the Lymans' relatives, the Deans I'll carry the baby to the house, take and the Allisons, lived, it was different. care o' the oxen, and get some ropes; That locality was much higher, without and we'll see if we can lead him to the the sunny exposure and southern opencorn-barn and shut him up."

ing of the valley, the soil was colder, the In half an hour he returned, and after forests denser, and, all things considcareful managing they had Bruin halered, the prospect was fair for a week more of sugar-making. tered, and by much pulling and hauling got him under way toward his quarters.

So thought the Lymans on Friday evening when they found it necessary to into such a pace that it required their make the last "run of sap" into molasses, ntmost effort to keep him from running because it would not "grain;" and as away as the oxen had done. At length, they sat talking it over, it was decided mainly by the creature's eagerness to mine Sat urday afternoon and returning Monday | barn, a strong log building, and made e, they s forenoon. The children were joyous him fast by a chain. over the prospect, for the families were very affectionate relatives. Their inter-that he was absolutely secure, the marriage cemented them most closely. problem arose how to remove the kettle. Mrs. Lyman was a Dean; Mrs. Dean The only way seemed to be to break it was an Allison, and Mrs. Allison was a in pieces; yet of course the instant this Lyman; and there were from three to was done the ugly mouth and keen eyes six children in each family. They moved from the East at the same time, and had matters lively for his liberator if within prospered much alike. The Allisons reach. and Deans, however, had settled on a Amos insisted that this task belonged small stream among the hills, where the by right to him, because he was spryer two men had built a mill, while the than George, who was too young, or Lymans had preferred the river valley. than his father, who was too old. Mr. Immediately after the Saturday din- Lyman, hesitated, having not the greatner they all made ready for the start. est confidence in his son's sgility. After The "best clothes" were donned; the much parleying, however, Amos gained hymn-book was taken from the chest, his point. for they were faithful Methodists and "You must not strike on top, or at expected to "go to meetin' at the Hill the side," said Mr. Lyman, "or you meetin'-house;" the big ox-sled was may not only break the kettle, but kill nearly filled with straw for warmth, and the bear, strike well back along the neck some comfortable split-bottomed chairs on the under side, so as to crush the tied in as seats for mother and grand- rim round the top of the kettle." mother; the oxen were yoked-big, Taking the hammer in hand, Amos lank, gentle-eved fellows; the stock was approached the bear. All the family fed a double portion, and Mr. Weston. stood near the door, but where they who lived across the river, was engaged | could instantly dart into the house i to come over and feed again Sunday necessary. morning. "Now, do take care!" said the any-As the slope was bare, Mr. Lyman ious mother. and the two boys walked to the brow of "Of the bear, do you mean!" laughed the hill where the evergreens began, Amos; and then added, in a pompous from which point all the way to their tone, like a hero of many victories, "O, destination there was more or less snow. pshaw, mother! he's tied so short he Away they went at the dignified rate can't come an inch this way; and if he of two miles an hour, but as happy and could, I'm too spry for him." chatty as if their steeds were "dapple-Going up within convenient striking grays," with strings of merry bells and a three-hundred-dollar sleigh. distance, he swung the hammer two or three times just where he wished to

Both Useful and Ornamental. and instead of trying to reach the bank of the river, where the perpendicular that will be of real benefit to the race?

throughout the country.

Is is very easy to say that the decorarocks would have given him no foot-hold, he saw that his only possible tive mania leads our women to waste time and to deface crockery and other chance was to float down the stream on objects. Instead of thus ridiculing a cake of ice until he should reach quiet those whom we should treat with the water. It is a pity that so brave an animal should have no tombstone, and utmost tenderness, why do we not take them by their respective hands-figurano name to be placed upon it. -Harper's tively speaking, of course—and lead them into fields where their passion for decoration can be exercised in a way Young People.

An Arab Police Court.

That this can be done has been prac-The French masters of Algiers have tically demonstrated by Mr. Simeon instituted a court called the Bureau Brewster, of West Middleton, Mass. Arabe. Over it presides a Frenchman, known as the President. A table is beand his example deserves to be held up known as the President. A table is be-to the imitation of his fellow-men fore him. On either side of the room, ranged against the wall, are three or

Miss Sophonisba Brewster has for some time delighted in decorating the family china—including the preserve-jars and the porcelain-lined preserve-tettle. Mr. Brewster regarded his decorating is printing in the printing is printing in the second s daughter's labors with great disdain. Eastern traveler: but, unlike most men, he knew that Enter an Arab, Enter an Arab, with a face of agony ridicule would be of no use. Whether and clothes filthy and in disorder. He he had in view the train of consequences drags himself to the front, raises his which followed his suggestion that So-phonisba should decorate "our new and with the fore-finger pointing to rooster," or whether he merely men- heaven, exclaims in a shrill tone: tioned the rooster because he imagined that his daughter would regard the bird "I invoke God and His justice!"

"What have you to complain of as beneath her notice, is not positively Speak!" says the President. known, but in view of the fact that his With the shrillest of screams, Anown, out in view of the fact that his daughter believed the proposal to be made in perfectly good faith, and pre-pared to carry it into execution, we may assume that he made it with a full knowledge of what would follow. Mr. Breamter's would follow. Wr. Breamter's would follow. BCT.

not

Chicago News.

Sun.

sacrifice. - Chicago Herald.

The New Comet.

millions at any time, though further calculations will be necessary to settle proach us so nearly as other comets

the sun so nearly as this in all probability will. It is to be regretted, however, that its greatest brilliancy will occur at a time when it will be invisible to us, and seen only in the Southern Hemisphere. In this respect it will resemble the great comet of 1880. The present extraordinary intensity of its light which comes to us from the enormous distance of 160,000,000 miles, proves that it has plenty of material for future display, and it will probably show a long and nearly straight tail of enormous dimensions to our antipodes.

How much of the same sort it will give us is still somewhat problematical, and can only be decided on the basis of

It is now invisible to the naked eye, and by a small telescope, though it is readily seen, yet owing to its smallness it can hardly be distinguished from the its perihelion it will probably become visible in the Northern hemisphere. It now appears in the constellation of the Lyre, near Vega. It will pass to the westward of that star, and will continue on its journey up into Cepheus, when in May it will make an abrupt turn and go

The elements of the orbit of the new comet are: Perihelion passage, June 15; perihelion place, 49 degrees, 35. minutes; longitude of node, 206 degrees,

40 minutes; inclination, 74 degrees, 47

Opening the Car Window.

plunging in toward the sun.

stars which surround it. After passing further observations.

"I am an unfortunate man; poor, bu virtuous. I have never robbed, no Mr. Brewster's poultry-yard at the time in question contained but two fowls-the new rooster and a venerable one." "Don't yell so loud! You are scream Lower you time in question contained but two lied, nor murdered, nor betrayed any hen, and hence did not yield a large daily crop of aggs. Miss Brewster, in accordance with her father's wishes, caught the rooster, and binding him firmly, so as to prevent him from strug-gling, decorated him with admirable taste. Her first operation was to paint taste. Her first operation was to paint market. I come back; I find my tent him a rich dark blue as a background. empty.

him a rich dark blue as a background. Upon this she spread designs in white or in gold—such as golden heads of grain, golden grasshoppers pure white lilies and arabesques of mingled gold and white. The appearance of that fowl when completed would have drawn tears of admiration from the most hard-ened naturalist. He was simply mag-nificent, and when he had surveyed bimself in a mirror thoughtfully ney himself in a mirror, thoughtfully pro- me five douros, and I will show where vided for the purpose, he expressed his she in.' I give him five douros, and he own appreciation of Miss Brewster's leads me to a tent, where I perceive work by a triumphant crow. The bird when turned loose in the and wife.

"I suppose you are speaking of you yard soon became the subject of unrestrained admiration on the part of the wife," returns the President, "and hens of the vicinity, who came to the fence come te claim her back, who has been and, peering through at him, remarked carried off by some one, whose name to one another in a cackle too plain to be misunderstood: "Isn't he just too, too, too, too, too utterly utter?" Notic-ing their admiring glances, the decorated fowl flew over the fence and strolled lown the street, followed by his en-businetic address. I workd with a deep sigh.) Ah, my poor wife! who knew so husisatic adorers. He returned at cakes. I would swear the scoundre sark in company with twenty-seven took her off by force, and that she did tens, all of whom had evidently sworn all she could to resist him."

The hens occupied the Brewster wood- President, "Here is the Kaid of the manufacturing town, wrote to Prof.

SCIENCE AND INDUSTRY. RELIGIOUS AND EDUCATIONAL.

the licentiates.

organizing one.

-In his experiments with the strength -The Baptist ministerial army in the of insects, Plateau, the French natural-United States numbers 16,514, beside ist, has ascertained that, in proportion to its size, a Junebug is as powerful as a -A man in Knox County, Maine, locomotive. who wanted to vote against a projected

-California is to have a cotton factohigh school, wrote his ballot "Know." ry. Manufacturers of wool there say ALLS MILAR BLEM -Omaha is to have a Young Men's that California cotton is more servicea-Christian Association. Steps have been taken by some leading citizens toward ble to them than that of the Southern States .-- N. Y. Herald. -Some observations were lately made > in a balloon by M. de Fouviele on an opaque cloud which covered the region of Paris for several days. The cloud was hardly 300 meters thick. The upper part of the guide rope was covered with hoar frost. The mean temperature

> > -A Minnesota inventor, says the New England Farmer, proposes to send grain from the West to the seaboard by means of a pipe line, somewhat as petroleum is sent from the oil regions, the grain being propelled by compressed air. The being built for a decisive test of the merits of the plan. -It is said that the fifteen dynamite manufactories now under the control of M. Nobel (the man who introduced nitro-glycerine in its various forms into public use) turn out about 5,000 tons a year. In this country and in Europe it s estimated that the production of explosives containing nitro-glycerine is etween 7,000 and 8,000 tons a year, and this quantity has the energy of at least 45.000 tons of ordinary gunpow-

-The value of the cotton plant, it would seem, has been increased by the discovery that the bark of the roots -At a meeting of Baptist ministers at Philadelphia, a resolution was adopted to recover the spirit, leaves a resinous matter which amounts to eight per protesting in the name of Christianity against the arrest of Godfrey Hubert, a cent. of the original weight of the bark. Baptist pastor at Skiem, Norway, who The new product thus obtained appears black and shining, but when pulverized was recently sentenced by the courts takes the color of cochineal. It dissolves there to pay a fine of $30 for baptizing a convert, both of whose parents were in fourteen parts of alcohol, fifteen of chloroform, and 122 of benzol; it dismembers of his church. It was resolved to request the Secretary of State to insolves also in caustic alkalies, and is precipitated from those solutions by struct the American Minister to Sweden acids. Hydrate of potash colors green. and Norway to inquire into the case .-Sulphuric acid dissolves it with a redbrown coler.-N. Y. Sun. -The Lee Avenue Baptist Church, Brooklyn, whose pastor, the Rev. J. Hyatt Smith, now a member of Congress, recently resigned after thirteen years' service, has dissolved under its -If you can not inspire a woman with ove of you, fill her above the brim with former name, and a new church has love of herself-all that runs over will been formed under the name of the be yours. South Baptist Church. The Rev. N. B.

PITH AND POINT.

-A Philadelphia surgeon makes dim-Thompson is now pastor. As the church edifice has been sold for an academy of oles to order for $15 apiece, and the average servant girl takes four and music, a site for a new church is being strikes for an increase of wages .- Delooked for. Services will be held in the troit Free Press. old structure for six months.-N. Y.

-Mustard is said by the fashion mon--A restless young preacher with a congregation of working people, in a the earth.-N. Y. Comercial Advertiser. gers to have a seasonable color. It

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE!

ING.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE!

It has cured thousands of cases and is destined to cure millions and millions more

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE!

Is the only positive cure known, and to show what this remedy will do we give a as a sample of cases cured by it, a statement which was GIVEN UNDER OATH. To Whom it May Concern.-In the year 1875 1 treated with "Kendall's Spavin Cure," a bone spavin of several months' growth, nearly half as large as a hens egg, and completely stopped the lameness and removed the enlargement. I have worked the horse ever since very hard, and he never has been lame, nor could I ever see any difference in the size of the hock joints sizes I treated him with "Kendall's Spavin Cure." R. A. GAINES

Enosburgh Falls, Vt., Feb. 25, '79, Sworn and subscribed to before me this 25th day of Feb., A. D. 1879. JOHN G. JENNE, Justice of Peace

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE:

ON HUMAN FLESH it has been ascertained by repeated trusts to be, yield a promising dye-stuff. It appears the very best liniment ever used for any deep seated pain of long standing that, when the bark of cotton root is or of short duration. Also for CORNS, EUNIONS, FROST-BITES exhausted by alcohol of the specific gravity of 0.84, a dark reddish-brown liquid is obtained, which, when distilled is good for BEAST is good for MAN, and we know from Experience th at "KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE" can be used on a child 1 year old with perfect safety Its Effects are wonderful on human flesh and it does not blister or make a sore. Try it and be convinced.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE:

Read below of its wonderful effects as a liniment for the hu am family. HEMATICE, MISSOURI, Au., sist 20, 1880.

B. J. KENDALL & Co., GENTS :- I am so overjoyed in view of the result of an application of your Kendall's Spavin Cure that I feel that I ought for Humanities' sake publish it to the world. About thirty-five years ago while riding a young sake publish it to the world. About thirty-live years ago while riding a young ugly horse, I was injured in one of my testicles, and from that tim : to three weeks ago a slow but constant enlargement has been the result, giving me a great amount of trouble, almost entirely preventing me from horseback riding, which was my usual way of traveling. I saw a notice of your Kenda'l's Spavin Cure, never once thought of it for anything except for horses, but after receiving be medicine and reading over what it was good for, feeling terribly exercised about my difficulty, for had consulted many physicians and none gave me any specific but when it could e endured no longer to remove it with the knife. I applied your Kendall's Spavia ure as an experiment, and it was so painful in its application that I concluded not to repeat it and thought no more about it until near a week, and lo and behold ne-half the size was gone, with joy I could scarcely believe it. 1 immediately applied it over again, and have made in all aboat 1/2 dozen applie tions running over space of two weeks and the terrible enlargement is almost gove, in view of which cannot express my feelings of delight. It has been a God send to me, may he end to others with like troubles. JOHN RICE. Pastor of Hematite Congregational Church.

P.S. You are at liberty to put this in any shape you may please. I am not ashamed to have my name under, over or by the side of it.

-The number of white and colored pupils attending the public schools at Danville, Va., is the same-370 each. The average attendance is one point in favor of the white pupils. -In Springfield, Ill., the young men of the cloud was 5 degrees.

-President Cheney, of Bates College, Maine, has published an appeal for an addition of $100,000 to the college's experiment has been found to work perpresent endowment of $150,000. The fectly in a short tube, and machinery is women of the country are asked to raise $20,000 for the endowment of a chair.

-A young couple in Trousdale County professed religion on the same day in the same church, were baptized in the same creek, in the same hour, by the same minister, and were united in marriage before changing their baptis-mal clothes.-Nashville (Tenn.) Ban--General James M. Coale, who died at Frederick, Md., a few days ago, left $10.000 each to the following institutions: Georgetown College, Georgetown, D. C.; St. John's Literary Society. Baltimore; St. Mary's Industrial School for Boys, Baltimore, and the Little Sisters of the Poor, Baltimore; besides smaller bequests of from $2,000 to $5,000 to other schools and charities. -N. Y. Independent.

In due season they reached their friends strike, so as to make accurate work of and a jolly time they had visiting, on it, and then gave the kettle a ringing matters past, present and future. The blow.

men looked at the stock of cattle, the But the only result was to startle the mill-yard of saw-logs, talked of their bear and cause him to spring suddenly work, and compared notes generally; forward, which in turn so scared the women recounted in-door affairs; Amos that he tripped over his own the children whispered and giggled and heels and fell awarkwardly through romped ; and all did justice to the warm the door way upon the ground outside ; sugar. Next day they went to meeting in this frightened the baby, a child of proper form, and in the evening attendthree years, and Mary, so that one cried ed class-meeting. and the other screamed. But the rest

Monday morning bright and early of the family were greatly amused, Mrs. after a breakfast of buckwheat cakes Lyman saying: and maple syrup, they were off for home, Mr. and Mrs. Lyman, grand-"How spry, oh, how very spry you are, Amos! mother, Amos and George-big boys of But Amos sprang to his feet and seventeen and fifteen-Mary and the marched in to try it again. The bear baby. Onward they trudged till to- had changed position, giving chance for ward noon, the snow everywhere less a fairer blow at the kettle, and this time than on Saturday, but the sturdy oxen it snapped in pieces, leaving the creamaking sure work of it. When they ture's head free once more. But instead reached the outskirts of the "sugarof offering his liberator any violence or bush," through which the road led around the hill, Mr. Lyman said: around the hill, Mr. Lyman said: "Now, Mary, if you can walk the rest o' the way with the boys, we'll set the developed a fierce and restless temper, kettles and other things at the camp and being several years old, it was found right on the sled, and take 'em to the impossible to tame him in the least.

All that summer they kept him firmly "All right, I'd like to, on the green chained in the corn-barn and fed him grass," responded Mary, a buxom lassie well; but as winter approached he grew of ten years; and springing off, she more and more savage, and so they joined her brothers on the grassy bank made a laprobe of his furry hide, and at the roadside. How gay and birdlike meat of the best parts of his flesh .children are when spring first uncovers the ground, after the long, snowy win-Wide Awake.

They had gone but a few roods fur-" Father," began the innocent child, ther when the oxen began to lift their as he leaned on his father's knee, "you noses, bend forward their ears, and are an awful good man?-" look earnestly ahead, as if they smelt, heard or saw, something quite uncommon; but Mr. Lyman could isly, and she says: excited by their near approach to home, ask?" you please: I would be so glad," and the other male passengers turn green with envy, and he leaus over the back of the sandalwood, bergamot, lemon, rose-mary, neroli (made from bitter orange The news that a dog had gone over with a loud "Whoa, haw, go 'long!" "Suppose, father, that you had $10,-urged them on. But the oxen did not 000 in Wabash preferred which had cost the falls and was still alive spread rapidly, and in a few moments the bank of the river was lined with people. The dog floated down the river on his in a pure state, because its great cost envy, and he leans over the back of the seat and tackles the window in a knowing hull month, or until I know the victim -AT THE -Can now afford "go 'long" very well; they swung you $80?" around now this way and now that, " Yes." A CHICAGO DAILY. won't begin no lawsuit. Now, stranger, way with one hand, if peradventure he stopped often, and acted so wild and Union Pacfic Land Office " And they went down to 55?" cake of ice but he had very little confi-dence in its seaworthy qualities, and howled loudly for help. Of course no for it. Musk is another important inthat's me, and if you have come here to may toss it airily with a simple turn of nervous that Mrs. Lyman called out, " Yes." THE the wrist, but it kind of helds on, and trade hosses don't reckon that Matthew, "And suppose an old friend from excitedly On Long Time and low rule he takes hold with both hands, but it Mark, Luke or John ever writ a line ad-"Stop, husband, stop, and let mother Elmira came here to buy stocks, and CHICAGO HERALD, one could help him, for it would have gredient, entering, as it does, into al-been impossible to reach him with a most all perfumes, except those which vising a church member to come right of Interest. sort of doesn't let go to any alarming and me out. I'm afraid o' the creacould be talked into believing that Wadown and give away the ring bones on his own anamile! "-Detroit Free Press. tures, they act so. They'll tip us over bash preferred would touch 75 before extent, and then he pounds it with his All the News every day on four large All wishing to buy Rail Road Lands boat, and had a rope been thrown to are actually imitations of flower odors, fist, but it only seems to settle a "leetle" September, would you unload on him at or Improved Farms will find it to their advantage to call at the U. P. Land Office before lookin elsewhere as 1 make a specialty of buying and selling pages of seven columns each. The Hon. yet. him as he passed under the Suspension or, as styled by perfumers, "natural," Bridge it is hardly probable that he as, for instance, heliotrope, tuberose, closer into the place, and then he comes ----The boys and Mary were watching 60 and rake in his cash?" around and she gets out of the seat to give him a fair chance, and he grapples the proceedings from the roadside, and Physicians' Fees. "No-ahem-that is-see here, Sylwhite rose and violet.-Boston Herald. could have caught it. Amos called : vanus! The next time I have a dear old Some distance below the bridge the lands on commission; all persons wish that window and bows up his back and Fifty years ago physicians in New friend call to see me and you listen at $5 per Year. "Hold on, mother; let me take the river forms a terrible whirlpool, and -Twelve boxes of young monkeys artugs, and pulls, and sweats, and grunts, and strains, and his hat falls off, and ing to sell farms or unimproved land Bedford, Mass., were paid a fee of 6 1-2 the library door to catch our conversebaby, and then you can help grandwill find it to their advantage to leave when the dog and his cake of ice reach- rived at New York recently. They were Three months, $1.50, One month on tion, you'll get a dividend on curiosity cents per visit. A few years later the ed the whirlpool they were carried sea-sick all the way over; howled and his suspender buttons fetch loose, and their lands with me for sale, as my famother." price rose to 25 cents a visit, including trial 50 cents. that will last you a lifetime! Tell your Just as he stepped back on the grassy cilities for affecting sales are unsur around at a frightful, speed. Presently coughed like babies. Among them the cake of ice broke in two, and the were two "boly monkeys" worshiped his vest buckle parts, and his face gets free medicine. In 1830 an advance was bank with the little one in his arms. mother to put you to bed an hour ahead passed. I am prepared to make final the cake of ice broke in two, and the struggled bravely for a few momenta, and then disappeared under the waves, by certain African tribes. Incy-the monkeys, not the tribes-are covered with long, soft, white hair. The im-porter said there weren't monkeys porter said there weren't monkeys his collar at the forward button, and the CHICAGO made to 50 cents, which brought forth proof for all parties wishing to get of time for the next week !"- Wall Street keen-eyed Mary exclaimed, in an agipatent for their homesteads. WEEKLY HERALD an outburst of indignation from the Daily News. tated undertone : Henry Cordes, Clerk, writes and people, and the medical fraternity were obliged to explain that if they received "O, my! what's that running around speaks German. -The recent report of the Commisdown by the sugar-camp?" Acknowledged by everybody who has sioner of Internal Revenue gives the pay from all of their patients they might be able to gain a livelihood, and some-Looking in that direction, Amos and read it to be the best e ght-page paper SAMUEL C. SMITH, number of liquor dealers in each State, ever published, at the low price of George saw certain movements that as-tonished them very much. Agt. U. P. Land Department, COLUMBUS, NEB and the population, so that it is easy pretty young lady, vexed at having been thing besides, from their old prices. By 621-v #1 PER YEAR. hundreds of tons of water must have the rate of five hundred annually .to arrive at the ratio of one to the other. made so conspicuous, says, in her iciest "A bear! a bear!" shouted George. the time people became reconciled to billen upon him, and beaten him down Chicago Times. manner: "Oh, never mind, thank you. this advance another was made to $1, Vermont has one retail dealer to every Postage Free. "But what a looking head!" "If it's a bear, he's drunk! See him $660 utilt free. No risk. Every-the news, and general reading interest-812 of population; Maine, one to 791; Massachusetts. one to 245; Illinois, one toward the bottom of the river, it seems It 'doesn't make any difference," and and then again to $2, and in some cases See him Massachusetts. one to 245; Illinois, one almost incredible that he should have -Massachusetts has been having an to 267; Iowa, one to 377. On the other been able to rise to the surface and to epidemic of big fires. In the words of then calmly goes away and sits down in more. This is the history of the protumble!" exclaimed Amos. quired. We will furnish you ing to the farmer and his family. Special gathers himself together and reads a book upside down—oh doesn't he feel good, just? May be he isn't happy, but if you think he isn't don't be fool enough to extend any of your sympathy. He doesn't want it.—Burlington Hawkeye. It is submit to what they term ruin- doesn't want it.—Burlington Hawkeye. It is submit to what they term ruin- doesn't want it.—Burlington Hawkeye. It is submit to what they term ruin- doesn't want it.—Burlington Hawkeye. It is submit to what they term ruin- doesn't want it.—Burlington Hawkeye. It is submit to what they term ruin- doesn't want it.—Burlington Hawkeye. It is submit to what they term ruin- doesn't want it.—Burlington Hawkeye. It is submit to what they term ruin- doesn't want it.—Burlington Hawkeye. It is submit to what they term ruin- doesn't want it.—Burlington Hawkeye. It is submit to what they term ruin- doesn't want it.—Burlington Hawkeye. It is submit to what they term ruin- doesn't want it.—Burlington Hawkeye. It is submit to what they term ruin- doesn't want it.—Burlington Hawkeye. It is submit to what they term ruin- doesn't want it.—Burlington Hawkeye. It is submit to what they term ruin- doesn't want it.—Burlington Hawkeye. It is submit to what they term ruin- doesn't want it.—Burlington Hawkeye. It is submit to what they term ruin- doesn't want it.—Burlington Hawkeye. It is submit to what they term ruin- doesn't want it.—Burlington Hawkeye. It is submit to what they term ruin- doesn't want it.—Burlington Hawkeye. It is submit to what they term ruin- doesn't want it.—Burlington Hawkeye. It is submit to what they term ruin- doesn't want it.—Burlington Hawkeye. It is submit to what they term ruin- doesn't want it.—Burlington Hawkeye. It is submit to what they term ruin- doesn't want it.—Burlington Hawkeye. It is submit to what they term ruin- doesn't want it.—Burlington Hawkeye. It is submit to what they term ruin- doesn't want it.—Burlington Hawkeye. It is submit to what they term ruin- doesn't want it.—Burlington Hawkeyee It is submit to what they term ruin- doesn' another seat, and that wearied man fession in nearly all of the Massachumother, take the baby." reach his cake of ice. Had he escaped a native of the Emerald Isle: "The inhand, Nevada has one to each 65; Mon-Mrs. Lyman took the child, and the Mrs. Lyman took the child, and the tana, one to $1; Colorado, one to 76. the whirlpool and reached the shore, he habitants of that Stat boys bounded away to investigate the The State with the fewest is Vermont, would have been the most famous the towns are tinder. the whirlpool and reached the shore, he habitants of that State are hardy, but mystery, while Mary wished she was a and the one with the most is Nevada.of living dogs. boy and brave enough to go with her Chicago Tribune. He was as brave as he was enduring, -The sunflower craze is coming to a for he never lost his presence of mind; Maantime Mr. Lyman was having -A light employment-making gas shed during the night, and on the next morning laid two dozen eggs in various available localities on the Brewster (With a groan)—"What a wife I myself away in this shoe town." Prof.

(With a groan)-"What a wife I have lost in her! She cost me forty premises. In the course of the day the owners of douros."

the hens appeared and carried them "Come, now," said the Kaid, turning away, but before night the decorated to the Arab, "could we not arrange this rooster went fourth and brought back a matter in a friendly way?"

new harem of thirty-four facinated hens, (With virtuous indignation)-"Never! all of whom furnished the Brewster never! I appeal to God and His jushousehold with eggs on the next mor-ning. Once more the neighbors came for there missing hens, and having dis-covered that the decorated Brewster dear creature she was!"

fowl was irresistible in the eyes of the "How much did she cost you?" asks females of his species, no less than five the Kaid. leading citizens induced their daughters "Who? My wife? Forty douros.

to follow the example of Miss Alas! The joy of my tent is departed Brewster and to provide their fond with her. Forty douros, without countparents with blue and gold roosters. ing the jewels." The new rivals of the original deco- "I am ready to give you twenty on rated rooster were sufficiently gorgeous account of the man who now holds her to retain the allegiance of their harems, in possession."

and three of them challenged him to Changing his whole manner, the Arab single combat, and whipped him so replies: "How? I beg your pardon! thoroughly that the discouraged bird Twenty douros? But she cost me forty." persistently remained at home and shunned all female society. Mr. Brew-ster, however, was not discouraged. He sent to Boston, for a game-cock of "But she was then young. She is now beginning to grow old, and she has dropped much under her first value." "That's true. She has gone down. persistently remained at home and He sent to Boston for a game-cock of "That's true. She has gone down. demonstrated prowess, and on the ar- She is not what she was. Twenty dourival of the fowl Miss Brewster deco- ros? It is a bargain. Count them out tated him in the Pompeiian style, with at once. My word is my bond."

black wings and a red body, picked out with geometrical figures in dead gold. The money is counted out before the plaintiff, whose eyes sparkle with greed-Thus decorated, he was far more beauineas

"But stop!" exclaims the President tiful than his predecessor, and Mr. Brewster, after keeping him shut up for a few days, turned him loose, armed "The plaintiff has affirmed that she would not for all the world be separated with a pair of long steel spurs. from him. Now, if this poor woman

That night the game-cock returned 1 home, at the head of a procession of loves him --- " "She love him! She has said that three hundred and eleven hens. In fact, she had rather be cut to pieces alive than as was afterward learned, there were return to him," answers the Kaid.

duty a few hours later.

as the Dog of Niagara.

The Bog of Niegara.

Times.

The Good Father.

not six hens left in the whole township "There may be something in it," quietly returns the Arab. "For some who had not yielded to the fascinations of the gallant Pompeiian stranger. Furthermore, he had fought and killed time she has taken the bridle off her tongue more than befits a woman. I thirty roosters who had rashly ventured have been obliged to box her ears on to defend their marital rights, and many an occasion. many an occasion.

among the dead were the five decorated "But you said you loved her dearly. roosters, the work of the pious daugh-ters of West Middletown. Mr. Brewster Stowing away his money and rising from his knees, the Arab replies: "True; now reaps an average of a hundred eggs but she had begun to get a little the every morning, and though the neigh-bors constantly come and take away their hens, the Pompelian game-cock it might have been. Twenty douros; it worse for wear. She limped a good bit, and then her left eye was not as clear as never fails to lure them away from their Thus we see that woman's fondness document that the actual possessor of my wife is forbidden to bring her back

It has always been supposed that no By a process known as enfluerage, living being could be swept over Niagara which is the exposure of beef fat to fresh Falls and survive the terrible plunge. flowers, in close boxes, until it is thor oughly permeated and charged with The feat, however, was successfuly performed by a dog a few days ago. The name of this able animal is untheir odors, the perfumes of six flowers are obtained, which could in no other known, and it is only too probable that he will be mentioned in history merely manner known to science be preserved apart from the fresh petals. Those flowers are violet, jasmin, tuberose He first attracted attention while he rose, orange flower and cassic (cinnamon flower). From these six there are

CITY PROPERTY FUR SALE, EVERYBODY

-An un-country man bought a Ro man candle and lighted it to go to bed by. He says you can bet your sweet life he'll lick the man that loaded it, if Phelps wrote to the young man that he he can find him out.-Boston Post. could not make a better throw. If by -An Irish gentleman, hearing of a throwing himself away on these people, friend having a stone coffin made for himself, exclaimed: "By me sowl, that's whom he considered unworthy of his superior talent, he could lift them up a good idea! Shure an' a stone coffin intellectually and spiritually, he was

'ud last a man a lifetime " doing a work which would be worth the -A fashion item says "oval necks are more fashionable than the pompadour squares." This fashion should be encouraged. Girls born with square

At present the comet is about one necks don't look as well as those whose hundred and sixty millions of miles necks are oval.-Norristown Herald. from the earth, and its distance from us -"Is the doctor in?" asked an anxwill probably not be less than eighty ious-looking young man. "No, sir," replied the person addressed ; "but you that point. But though it will not apcan leave an order on the slate. Is it a very urgent case?" "Well, yes," the young man said-"rather urgent, 1 think. Just as I started away from have done, it may be expected to make a fine display for a few days in the home my youngest brother was falling early part of June. Only ten comets have hitherto been known to approach out of a second story window."-Chica go Tribune.

48

PRINCIPAL ADVANTAGES ARE

B. & Q. R. R. No transfers; changes

f. om C. B. & Q. R. R. to connecting lines all made in Union Depots.

THROUGH TICKETS

____AT___-

-CAN BE HAD -

tion which will open a

P. S. Eustis.

Gen'l T'k't A'gt,

OMAILA, NEB

-"Is there a letter here in a scented envelope for my wife?" he asked the postmaster, while the green fire from his eyes made the office look like leafy forest. "Yes, sir," answered the postmaster as he handed it out. The ealous man tore it open at once, when, lo and behold! it was the milliner's bill. -The Court, austerely: "Prisoner how did you have the audacity to break into this man's house at midnight and rob him?" Prisoner, (piteously): "But, your Honor, last time I was before you you wanted to know how I could have the audacity to rob a man on the high-me to get in my work .- New Haven Reg-----An Honest Man.

way at high noon. When do you want ister.

ten."

One day in the years agone a strange arrived at Dearborn, in this county, and inquired for a citizen commonly known Phrough coaches from destination on C as Uncle Ike. The old man was soon found in a grocery, and after the usual "how-de-do" the stranger said : "Do I address Uncle Ike Barlow?" "You dew," was the reply. "Well, my name is Thorburn, of Ann Arbor." " Jess so." "They tell me that you are a great LOWEST RATES horse-trader." "Wall, I dew make a trade now and then. What ye got?" "I've got a horse I brought along on purpose to trade with you. Let us first

.oad. Agents are also prepared to check baggage through; give all information as understand each other. You are a o rates, routes, time connections, etc. and to secure sleeping car accomodamember of the church?' "Y-e-s; I expect I be." ions. "Then of course I shall expect you to be honest with me. I've been looking This company is engaged on an extenat your old nag over there by the post. How old is he?"

NEW LINE TO DENVER "That 'ere hoss," slowly replied Uncle Ike, as he puckered his lips and And all points in Colorado. This exsquinted his left eye-" let's see-let's ention will be completed and ready for Wall, now, I quite forgit whether usiness in a few months, and the pub-ic can then cujoy all the advantages of a through line between Denver and he's nine or ten years old, but we'll say hicago, all under one management.

"Uncle Ike, isn't that horse all of twenty years old? Come, now, as a member of the church, give me an honest answer.'

"Look a-here, mister," said the old LAND, FARMS, man, after a strong gaze at the stranger, "I never trade hosses but one way." "How's that?"

"Yes, I hope so, my son." "You wouldn't cheat anybody out of trying to raise a window on a railway - ANDof spray that rises at the foot of the means confined to the pomades, as the "When I'm buying of a hoss I'm a car, and he jumps up and gets in ahead discover nothing strange, and remark- a cent, would you?" Columbus, Nebraska, when I'm a-selling of a hoss I reckon CITV DDAUCDTV IND CALE cataract and climbed upon a cake of scented fats are termed. He uses many of the other boys and says: "Allow me?" ing that the creatures were probably "Of course I wouldn't, why do you

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE!

KendalPs Spavin Cure is sure in its effects, mild in its action as it does not olister, yet it is penetrating and powerful to reach any deep seated pain or to remove any bony growth or any other enlargement if used for several days, such as pavins, splints, callous, sprains, swelling, any lameness and all colargements of e joints or limbs, or rheumatism in man and for any purpose for which a liniment s used for man or beast. It is now known to be the best liniment for man ever used acting mild yet certain in its effects. It is used in full strength with perfect safety at all seasons of the year.

Send address for Illustrated Circular, which we think gives positive proof, of its virtues. No remedy has met with such unquillfi d success to our knowledge, for east as well as man. Price $1 per bottle, or six bottles for $5. ALL DRUGGISTS have it or can get it for you.

r it will be sent to any address on receipt of price, by the proprietors, Dr. B. J. KENDALL & CO. Enosburg Falls, Vermont.

ests of its readers and its publish. BURLINGTON ROUTE ers. Published at Columbus, Platte county, the centre of the agricul-Shortest and Quickest Line to tural portion of Nebraska, it is read by hundreds of people east who are HICAGO, ST. LOUIS, PEORIA looking towards Nebraska as their future home. Its subscribers in DES MOINES, ROCK ISLAND, Nebraska are the staunch, solid portion of the community, as is

And Especially to all Points evidenced by the fact that the JOURNAL has never contained a IOWA, WISCONSIN, INDIANA "dun" against them, and by the ILLINOIS, MICHIGAN, OHIO, other fact that

ADVERTISING

In its columns always brings its reward. Business is business, and those who wish to reach the solid people of Central Nebraska will find the columns of the JOURNAL a splendid medium.

JOB WORK

Upon application at any station on the Of all kinds neatly and quickly done, at fair prices. This species of printing is nearly always wanted in a hurry, and, knowing this fact, we have so provided for it. that we can furnish envelopes, letter heads, bill heads, circulars, posters, etc., etc., on very short notice, and promptly on time as we promise.

SUBSCRIPTION.

Six months 100 Three months, 50
le copy sent to any address United States for 5 cts.

was in the rapids above the falls, and as he struggled with the current which fifty or more combinations made, for the was swiftly sweeping him along, it was supposed that he had only a few moments to live. He was seen to plunge over the falls, and then, to the by jasmin and tuberose; lily of the val-amazement of those who had watched ley by violet and tuberose. But the his descent, he emerged from the cloud

He goes out satisfied.

Science of Perfumes.

minutes; perihelion distance, 10,000,000 miles, motion direct. . This comet appears to have no analogue in the past, as no comet is known with elements sufficiently resembling these to constitute reasonable belief identity. The elements of the comet o 1097 somewhat resemble those of the present comet, but the perihelion dis-ance of the former is computed to be seven times as great as that of the lat-ter. Two weeks of further observation will serve to remove many uncertainties which now exist as to the future of this comet, and these observations will unquestionably be awaited with the greatest interest. - Albany Cor. N. Y. Herald. May be a man feels happy and proud and flattered and envied and blessed among men when he sees a pretty girl resources of the perfumery are by no is a reasonable price. I am a just and virtuous man, I am. Everybody will tell you so. I am satisfied. I desire a for decoration may, if properly directed, be made a source of much profit to intelligent and upright men. -N. Y. to me. God be with you!"