Metcalf, containing about $8,000 worth of goods, and being a building known as the Freeman block. No one knows how the fire originated, but it is supposed to be the work of an incendiary. The names of the losers are W. M. Freeman, M. D. Freeman, M. D. Abbey, H. C. Metcalf, O. M. Knipple, James Barge, B. F. Fish and Dr. Cooper. The loss will reach $20,000 or $30,000.

A LONG debate took place the other day in the house over paying the expenses attending the sickness and burial of President Garfield, during which the physicians received a severe overhauling from Blackburn and Springer. A bill was then introduced by Mr. Taylor, of Ohio, to pay Mrs. Garfield $50,000, less the amount paid to her late husband on account of salary, and which by unanimous consent passed.

A STATEMENT comes from the Auburn (Neb.) Post, which we think may be implicitly relied upon as truthful that the writer in person visited the huge orchard of Mrs. Jane Lovelace, near Auburn, which contains 3,000 trees, a large majority of which are bending their heavily loaded bows toward the earth, and the fruit is scarcely half matured. A very moderate estimate they will produce an apple crop this year of not less than 15,000 bushels in this "barren wilderness of Nebraska." Mrs. Lovelace has a neat little fortune in the apple crop alone. If she can dispose of them successfully. To save shipment from eastern states, we doubt if she will give Nebraska dealers a chance to buy, that she can sell every bushel in the home market, at good prices.

Alexandria was guarded last week by five thousand marines, occupying seven different centers. Native police are organizing to aid military detectives searching for suspicious persons. There was an attempt one night last week to set fire to St Mark's building, headquarters of the Americans in Alexandria.

A leading editorial in the London morning Post of a recent date says: The behavior of the American admiral and his men at Alexandria is beyond all praise. It is refreshing to find a commander who is able and willing, on his own account, to say what he thinks and do what he says.

Last week the troop ship at Portsmouth, England, was ordered to be in readiness. She will take 2000 men to Egypt.

The wounded natives have been paraded in Cairo, for the purpose of exciting animosity.

The natives state that during the retreat of Arabi Pasha, one of the shells burst in the midst of a body of soldiers and killed twenty-five Dragoonmen.

Arabi Pasha is still issuing orders and making appointments in the Khedive's name. Arabi's forces on the canal are estimated at 10,000, including the Bedouins, who gave adhesion to Arabi but a few days ago. The wounded Arabs from Alexandria were sent to Cairo.

The British and French ambassadors, have been instructed to submit to the conference the question of protection of the Suez canal, and propose the execution of its decision shall be entrusted to certain powers.

The news from Alexandria up to the 20th inst., says DeLesseps has informed Seymour that passage of men-of-war through the Suez canal constitutes a breach of its neutrality.

The force of Arabi Pasha is increasing. He is gaining his influence because of the delay of British troops. His scouts are seven miles from Alexandria.

The porte sent imperative orders to Arabi Pashi not to make a movement. Arabi Pashi is trying to establish relations with Arabs in Tripoli.

The conference which met the other day was chiefly to consider temporary measures for the security of the Suez canal. The idea which found most favor was that protection of it should be entrusted to England and France in conjunction with a third power.

It is stated that several regiments of militia have volunteered for service, and the war office is considering the question of utilizing them for garrison duty at Malta and Gibraltar.

DeLesseps had arrived at Alexandria and had an interview with Khedive. Difficultly in restoring order continues. Lord Charles Balfour is taking every precaution against an outbreak. He has issued notice that he will make no distinction between Europeans and natives. The custom house has reopened.

The British were preparing to dam the Mahmoodiah canal in order to prevent the water running off if Arabi stopped the supply. Arabi was apparently beforehand with that and had diverted the water from the canal. It was estimated there was sufficient fresh water in Alexandria to last ten days.

Arabi's line extends from Lake Mareotis to Abukari. Having got some tools he is now making works. We are in trepidation about water. Enquiries are making about condensers. Vessel supply is ordered here from Port Said. They will be able to supply water for the troops.

One hundred of Arabi's soldiers deserted him the other day and came to Alexandria.

The water was still flowing on the 20th in the fresh water canal, but exit from the canal into the sea is being blocked by a party of marines, so that the water below the point where Arabi cut it will be retained.

Parties engaged in murdering during the bombardment of the city, will probably be shot by Egyptian troops. It is probable that such executions will continue for some time, as every day brings similar cases.

Alexandria. The Khedive has recently issued a mandate deposing Arabi Bey, and proclaiming him a rebel.

The recent fighting at the gates of Alexandria is isolated. No heavy fighting has taken place. Numbers of Arabi's troops have appeared, and the marines have had some skirmishes with them, but without serious casualties. The main body of Arabi's army continue in camp at Damanhour.

Admiral Seymour's scouts last week brought him information that a large body of troops belonging to Arabi's army is encamped twenty miles from the city. Hostile demonstrations have already been made, and an attack is apprehended. The remainder of Arabi's army are disaffected.

The latest news from an actual inspection of the city discloses the fact that one half of the European quarter of the city has been destroyed. Banks were not burned nor pillaged, and hospitals were untouched. A number of fresh fires were started in the city one day last week, but the military succeeded in extinguishing them before any serious damage was done. Several Arabs who were caught plundering houses were sentenced to be publicly whipped, and five men charged with murder were executed on Place Mohomet. Great distress prevails in the city, and starvation threatens houseless thousands.

At a council of the French ministry held one evening last week it was decided to join England in protection of the Suez canal.

Under recent date it is stated that Admiral Seymour telegraphed to London that the Americans had landed marines and re-established the American consulate.

The fires in Alexandria are subsiding, having nearly exhausted its food.

For state officers are pretty numerous, and yet it is nearly two months to the convention which virtually elects. As to the persons who have been mentioned, there are, for governor, Dorsey of Dodge (the only candidate, so far, north of the Platte), Senator Dismore of Clay, Daves of Saline, Phillips of Lancaster, Shedd of Saunders, Senator Tefft of Cass, Senator Irwin of Pawnee, Alexander, present secretary of state.

J. W. Wallis is the present auditor. Kendall, land commissioner, and Jones, supt. of schools, now serving their first terms, will probably be re-nominated without opposition, as it has been customary to give good officers two terms.

For state treasurer, Senator Burns of Dodge, Hilt of Butler, Fish of Fillmore, Tomblin of Furnas have been spoken of. Whether there are any others ready to enter the lists we are not informed.

For attorney general we see three names, M. B. Reese, our present district attorney, of Saunders Co., A. M. Post of Platte, and Senator Powers of Dakota.

Anderson, S. Anderson. Report from N. Olson as delegate to the Co. Convention also from G. W. Kibler.

By motion, the action of the alliance in regard to the resolution, Resolved to bury all partizanism in the alliance be disapproved.

By motion, the President of the co. convention was requested to call a co. convention as soon as practical for the purpose of reconsidering a stupid blunder made by the co. convention July 1st, '82, in regard to the resolution, Resolved to bury all partizanism in the alliance, adjourned till Aug. 11th, '82.

THE Omaha Republican says "two-thirds of the leading anti-monopolists north of the Platte are fellows who didn't get the post-office."

This declaration might lead to a right smart controversy. For most of the alliance never thought of getting a post-office.

THE National Woman Suffrage association will hold a session in Omaha on the 26th of September '82. Representatives are expected to be present. Among those who are coming into the state to lecture on the amendment are Rev. O. Brown, Mrs. H. M. Gouger, Mrs. E. M. Saxon, Susan B. Anthony, Mrs. May W. Sewall, Miss R. G. Foster, Mrs. M. W. Among others, Lucy Stone, J. W. Howe, Mary T. Eastman, Dr. Mary J. Thomas, H. B. Blackwell, J. P. Fuller, R. N. Hazard and Rev. J. Snyder.

WE are informed by a good authority that the politicians of Lincoln are already looking after the possibilities of a capitol appropriation at the next session of the legislature. Of course they are. When were they ever known to be without a large demand on the state treasury? Having now had big appropriations for the two wings they will naturally want a still larger one for the body, and their success has been so little interfered with heretofore that everybody will expect the inevitable hereafter. The people of Lincoln, however, especially the business men, who have heretofore (if reports are true) had to "come down" to the lobby, with their tens, hundreds and thousands of dollars, ought to demand a reduction of rates. The percentages have been too large.

MANY farmers have a hesitancy about selling their cream to the creameries, but they are, according to all reports, fast learning that it is about the correct thing to thus dispose of their milk. It pays fully as well, if not better, than to attempt to make butter on a small scale, and it relieves the good housewife of a heap of hard work and vexation of spirit. Some farmers have been experimenting in this matter to determine satisfactorily in its infancy, but the history is long established to show that the farmer is largely benefited by them. It is demonstrated in hundreds of instances in our neighboring state of Iowa, where the creameries have been long in operation, and it will be shown just as conclusively in this state in coming years. The creamery business in Nebraska is comparatively in its infancy, but the history is rapidly coming to the front, and the time is not far distant when producers, if they have any doubts about the most profitable channel through which to utilize their milk, will doubt no more. Let the work of establishing creameries go on, and while they are sure to prove profitable to the men who conduct them, they will likewise be good benefactions for long upon whom they rely for the raw material.—Omaha Republican.

Settling from Upper Shell Creek. Small grain in this neighborhood looks splendid in spite of the numerous chinch bugs. They have thus far done no harm here, but apprehensions are felt in regard to the corn crop, that cereal being unusually behind hand this season.

Mr. John Elliott from Omaha made a little visit to his friends and neighbors a few days ago. He told of a man in Omaha, who, to obtain a loan of $1000 to go into business, mortgaged his property and then went into a gambling den and spent the $1000, and in view of such facts, Mr. Editor, your correspondent is astonished that any man can blame the JOURNAL for trying to explode the whole gambling concern in your city. One should think every father and mother, every wife at least should thank you for your decided stand in that respect.

Mrs. Martin Bloedorn, an aged and hard-working lady, was suddenly taken so ill on Saturday last that they thought she would die. Dr. Meyer of your city was called, and pronounced it Typhoid fever.

LOOKS Like Business. We learn that there is to be a conference of the members of the Anti-Monopolists and Farmers Alliance of this Congressional district, at Norfolk, August 16th. This begins to look like business, and will make old political "hacks" look sour.—Neigh Republican.

Mrs. Lincoln's Funeral. The funeral of Mrs. Lincoln took place on the morning of July 19th, '82, in the presence of a very large attendance. Her remains were deposited beside her husband.

The services were brief, consisting of prayer by Rev. L. R. O. Post and T. A. Parker; sermon by Rev. J. A. Reid. The pall-bearers were—Gov. Cullum, Judge L. H. Fresh, Gen. J. A. McClermond, Hon. J. C. Milton Hay, Col. John Williams, Hon. S. H. Jones, Hon. J. C. Conking and Capt. J. L. Bradford.

THE time for holding conventions is rapidly approaching. We trust that the claims of individual office-seekers from congressmen down, will not be the all-absorbing topic of thought. The party should control the office-seeker and not the office-seeker the party. Let good, fair representative men be chosen for convention and caucus and let them go untrammelled, so that they may act on their own responsibility and according to the dictates of the thinking and intelligent men of the party. No man is so deserving of contempt as the office-seeker who will resort to all the low, mean devices known in politics to a party on which he is a leech.—Gazette Journal.

THE other night as the train was leaving Blair two boys were sitting on the platform with their legs hanging down. The conductor shouted to them to move. One of the boys obeyed but the other did not, and was caught by the board projecting from the mail car. His left leg was terribly mangled and must be amputated. The boy's name is Louis Hester.
