The Scotch correspondent seems to have forgotten that an American can have more than one flock of sheep at a time, and in this country, are very correctly based upon general, and not upon special and peculiar instances. It is not uncommon, for instance, to have a flock increase 80 per cent. One of Mr. Lord's flocks of ewes, 600 number, reproduced last spring 585 lambs, and such a rate of increase is not uncommon. If our Scotch newspaper friend will come over here cattle early in October, which will be again, and agree to set naught down in malice, we know he will tell a different story of Mr. Lord's report concerning sheep-culture in Nebraska. The same correspondent "draws a very long bow" when he cries down the land in our neighboring Nance county, and at the same time praises up Missouri and Kansas. The huge crops on the cultivated tracts, and the immense growth of grass on the virgin soil, speak volumes of praise for Nebraska, which no amount of misrepresentation and downright falsehood can get rid of, and need only be referred to by way of illus-
