

New carpets at Kramer's. Don't forget the June races. Follow the crowd to "Fitz's." Another fine rain Monday night. Black Ottoman silk at Kramer's. J. S. McAllister has moved to Genoa. Buy one of Kramer's health corsets. A good deal of corn has been planted. Closing out at cost at Winterbotham's. E. A. Blodgett gave us a pleasant call Friday. Thirty yards of calico for 81 at Kramer's. Summer silks, new styles, at Friedhof & Co's. A little mud is preferable to a good deal of dust. Trunks and traveling bags at Norris & Taylor's. C. D. Barlow visited Albion last week on business. Good goods, cheap, closing out, at Winterbotham's. Coffins and all kinds of funeral goods at Mungers. There will be some fine horses at the June races, here. Mr. Weatherbee of Lost Creek was in town Friday. Late styles in filigree buttons just received, at Kramer's. Business on the branch roads seems to be excellent. "Extremes meet" was true of the weather on Sunday, surely. Mrs. Stump has employed a first-class trimmer from Omaha. Mrs. Stump will go to Ulysses to tend to her opening Friday. Orders by mail for any kind of printing promptly attended to. A beautiful assortment of parasols and fans at Norris & Taylor's. The poor old tramp has commenced his summer wanderings. Cooley's celebrated health corset; come and see it at Friedhof & Co's. If you have any real estate to sell or rent call and see Tasker & Houston. Geo. W. Ambrose of Omaha, the lost attorney, has not yet been heard from. Ex-Senator Zehring, of West Point, was in the city Thursday on business. Stoves, a general line of hardware, cutlery, etc., at cost, at Winterbotham's. S. S. McAllister, Esq., was in attendance on district court at Madison last week. Tasker & Houston will give special attention to selling improved real estate. The telegraph crew went off Monday to Fremont. They did excellent work here. An Albrecht is putting up a paint shop on north 11th street, east of Mrs. McIntyre's. Arthur Cate was up from Falls City, Friday, not looking quite so well as usual. George Lehman, Fred. Matthews and George Turner were at Fremont last Saturday. The Leader wants to know if they have a saloon in Genoa, etc? We give it up. There are just two corn-planters left at Ernst, Swartz & Co's. They go like hot cakes. Rev. Hullbush saw a flock of four swans lately. They are a beautiful white bird. Mrs. W. H. Bacon was in town Monday. She gave some incidents of the Sunday story. Tasker & Houston, real estate agents, old post office building on Nebraska Avenue. Now is the time to supply yourself with hardware at bottom figures, at Winterbotham's. Jersey jackets at Kramer's. Nebraska weather came again Saturday morning and the citizens were right glad of it. Plenty of old papers in bundles of ten each, for five cents a bundle, at the Journal office. We would like to call the street commissioner's attention to some very bad ruts on 11th street. Some movers went through town Saturday with a herd of cattle about two hundred in number. E. J. Baker dropped down upon his old friends Monday, looking as healthy and happy as ever. P. W. Henrich is at Denver on a visit, which may be prolonged into a stay, if he likes the country. One of the finest and largest stocks of millinery and notions and at lowest prices, at Mrs. Stump's. The largest stock of carpets in the city to select from at Friedhof & Co's, Bonestell Bros. old stand. Rev. H. A. French will preach at the Congregational church next Sunday, May 13th, morning and evening. D. A. Lord returned last week from his trip to Chicago. He doubtless found the sheep market a little "off." L. W. Potts came in Friday from his school in Dist. 18, walking twenty-six miles. He is teaching his first term. The Buffalo Bill Combination are expecting to do their rehearsals here prior to starting out "on the war path." Jake Hill of Genoa has fifty graded yearling calves averaging over 500 pounds, the heaviest weighing nearly 700. Will T. Rickly, whose accidental kick by a horse last week was detailed in the JOURNAL, is getting along very nicely. Summer silks at Kramer's. E. V. Clark, Esq., of Genoa was in town Monday on his return home from Grand Island where he had been on a visit. Phil Walker of Bellwood was in town Friday. He says that burg is now about the best grain market in Butler County. A New Yorker remarks that Horace Greeley, in his opinion, had a good deal more uncommon sense than common sense. New, and higher and better telegraph poles have been erected here. The moving house-tops will not now reach the wires.

Lawns and piques at 5 cts. per yd., at Friedhof & Co's. Great preparations are being made for the June races here, and everybody is coming to witness the best races in the west. J. E. Tasker will loan money on chattel security or buy chattel mortgages. Old post office building on Nebraska Avenue. Ed. Smith of Schuyler was at home Sunday. He reports business rushing, and that Kramer will erect a double store there. A. Anderson, of the First National Bank, went to Colorado Monday to visit his brother and take a much-needed rest from business. WANTED.—A good wagon maker. Steady employment the year round. Apply in person, or address, Wm. Bloodorf, Platte Center, Neb. 2-1f. M. K. Turner has purchased for his daughters Anna and Martha L. J. Slatery's stock of books, stationery, sewing machines and musical instruments. Jack Phelan, catcher in the base ball game between the Columbus and Wahoo nines, is reported as drowned while boating at Dubuque, Iowa, last Sunday week. Wm. Dougherty arrived back from Vermont Saturday evening. "Bill" looks in splendid health, and must be having living on the fat of the land this winter. George Clother started yesterday to get thirty Indian men of the Omaha tribe, also ten families for the Oddy show. The next week will be unusually interesting here. One of the High School pupils, Mr. Kerr, solved the Hero problem in Ray's arithmetic, last week, without any aid from his teacher.—a task not many pupils can do. It is all well enough to have plenty of Nebraska sand in your inside make up, but it is more than disagreeable to have it in your eyes, ears, nose, mouth and hair. Dr. Carver and five others of the Buffalo Bill Company came in Monday. It is expected that the entire company will be here to-day and rehearse the remainder of the week. At the last election of officers for the fire department Robert Uhlig was chosen president, D. N. Miner, secretary, Wm. Becker, treasurer, and Augustus Lockner, chief engineer. Among the latest dodges in the swindling line is a sewing machine for twenty-five cents to be sent to the advertiser in stamps. By return mail the dupe receives a cambric needle. The JOURNAL keeps adding to its already large stock of job type, and orders are flowing in. We don't ask for a rest, and like an omnibus, there is always room for one more. An exchange suggests the idea that children will be educated some where and somehow, and wonders why everybody cannot see that it is best they should be educated properly. It is understood that the Fire Department will make an effort to have a real old-fashioned celebration of the Fourth of July at Columbus this year. If it develops we shall make record. Sale bills, posters, dodgers, envelopes, circulars, all kinds of legal blanks, briefs, etc., printed "with neatness and dispatch," at the JOURNAL office. The Columbus Driving Park pay their purses in full, and all horsemen who have good horses come here with them, and you can look for a splendid field of horses and very exciting races. Flies started in sometime ago, but the recent cold weather gave them a back-set. It will be in order now to look after the screens, and get a start of the flies. An ounce of preventive, &c. J. C. Morrissey of Plattsmouth was in town Friday night. He expected to stay a day or two, but was called home by a telegram. We look for an upper story to be built on his property on 11th street. T. A. Potts is now the agent for the Wheeler & Wilson sewing machine in Platte county and the territory immediately adjoining. His headquarters when in town will be at A. J. Arnold's jewelry store. The legal business of the state, so far as the court work is concerned, seems to be getting along swimmingly. Under the new regime all the judges of the district courts seem to have just enough to do, to do it well. The novelty for the past week has been the six mule team and stage coach of "Buffalo Bills." They are about the finest team in the west, and Fred. Matthews, the driver, can "string 'em out" in better shape than anybody. Wm. Smith (mason) is building a concrete dwelling for himself in the west part of town—26x30 one story high, walls 12 inches thick, with 6 inch partitions, all concrete. He has been ten days building, and will be ready for the roof this week. Prepare to fence now—don't delay another year. You need the fence, your stock will appreciate free range over their pasture, and your purse will scarcely feel the outlay at 7 1/2 cents a pound for the barbed wire at Winterbotham's. Call soon. At Mungers' you will find a splendid variety of furniture of all descriptions—plain, neat and tidy; also highly-finished, beautiful and costly, suitable to all tastes and purses. Call and see his stock, for you will be sure to see something you need. D. L. Bruen wants all the other sheep men in Nebraska to know that he is raising 105 lambs, the product of 106 ewes, the other lamb having been accidentally killed. If there is any better flock record in the state the JOURNAL would like to be apprised of it.

GRAND ISLAND, Neb., May 3, '83. Editor Journal.—Hereafter all notices of intention to make final process will be published for a period of six weeks. This order does not affect notices published prior to this date. C. H. STETTER, Register. We are shortly to have a play by the Columbus Dramatic Company—probably next week. "Our Boys" is to be presented by Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Bowman, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Coffroth, Miss Lou Hudson, Miss George Warburton, G. W. Phillips, Dr. Evans, J. G. Reeder and F. Kimmel. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Delman have the heartfelt sympathy of this community and their many friends elsewhere, in these trying hours of their sore affliction. One bright, little boy gone to the Summer Land, and other precious lives in doubt are enough to call forth the sympathetic feeling of every father and mother heart. F. M. Cookingham is our authorized agent at Humphrey for soliciting subscription, advertising and job work. Business entrusted to him will receive the same attention as if done direct with us. Call on him, give him your home work and your home news, use him well, and he will grow space. If M. K. TURNER & Co. John Wise lays on our table a couple of potatoes of last year's planting dug out the ground this spring. He don't know whether the frost ever struck them or not, but thinks not. Some claim that vegetables may be kept good, though frozen, if they be allowed to remain buried in the earth until the frost is all out of the ground. A four-line local for a boy, printed in last week's JOURNAL, bringing us half a dozen applicants, strung along since Wednesday last. The first applicant is now installed, on probation. It does the JOURNAL's heart good to see the spirit of business and pluck evinced by the young lads who desire a share in the world's work and wages. If anybody has a better span of colts in this neck o' woods than Guy C. Barnum we would like to see them. They are not quite three years old and weigh 2440 pounds, are remarkably well broke, and are "daisy" roadsters. Guy knows a good animal when he sees it, and thinks his team cheap at $600. "Reub" and "Ed." certainly take the whole bakery. When a calf is left to run with the cow, the latter is more or less injured as a milk giver. Those who have taken the calf from the cow, and given it liberal feed and care, find it thrive first-rate, and, at the same time, the cow improves for milking purposes. Now that milk is so valuable to raise cream, it is becoming in all that the best use be made of the cows to raise the milk. A committee has been appointed to wait upon the business men of Columbus for subscriptions to a fund for celebrating the Fourth of July. It has been a long time since Columbus has observed the day with speeches and songs and pyrotechnical displays suited to the patriotic sentiment of our citizens, and it might not be amiss to get everybody together, talk over what ought to be done, etc. Humphrey. Nice May weather. Farmers are very busy now. The new Catholic church has been recently painted. Mrs. Newell will go east to see her friends. She feels she has no home since the fire Wednesday night. She has the sympathy of her many friends here. About 10 o'clock Wednesday night of last week the cry of fire brought out nearly every one in our thriving town to witness what terminated in a great loss to not only individuals of private losses but to the community in general. Newell South's hardware store, occupied by him also as a dwelling, was discovered to be on fire in the second story. Neighbors assembled quickly, yet the work of extinguishing the flames was impossible, as a strong northwest wind blew the smoke and fire quickly in the building; the work of removing them commenced; many things were taken out, to be burned afterward as they caught fire and could not be saved. The fire also extended to Jacob Steff's hotel; they removed their furniture, but the building was lost. Jacob is not at all disheartened, although his insurance does not cover his loss, which is about $3,000; his insurance is, however, $2,300, and he in one day replaced him a shelter and saloon, and is doing a thriving business. Not so lucky was Mr. Newell South, as he by hard labor and careful saving accumulated a nice, well filled store and had in it all that he possessed and in the hasty work of the fire he was not allowed to save himself even a change of shirts, and without a hat even as he had retired for the night; he did all that man could do to save himself, wife and child first, and then was not willing to leave the rooms until compelled to by friends; he removed powder, cartridges, &c., saved his notes and books, lost the day's sales of about $90 in currency left in the money drawer; lost nearly all his household furniture, including bed clothes, bedding and clothes of himself, wife and child, on which he had no insurance at all. His total loss will exceed $5,500. His insurance is $2,500. Cause of fire unknown. South is a plucky man and we hope he will not leave us but will build and try it again, which he says he will do if his many friends will be prompt in assisting him in his downfall. Post Office. The following changes will be made in the delivery of mail matter in the Columbus post-office on and after Sunday, April 23d: Sundays the office will be open from 11 a. m. till 12:30 p. m., and 4:30 till 5 p. m. Money orders and registered letters will not be issued or paid on Sundays. On week days the office will be open from 7 a. m. till 8 p. m. Money orders and registered letters will receive attention from 8 a. m. till 4 p. m. H. J. BRADY, Postmaster.

The Storm. Sunday last was an exceedingly warm day for the time of year. All day long there was a strong, warm wind from the south and southwest, and, having been dry for some time, the dust flew with a vengeance; it was a day long to be remembered by those who never before experienced anything of the kind, and if there were many such days in the Nebraska year, the opinion of the average weather would be rated very low, indeed. But all things mundane have an end, and this fact was quickly and very effectively set forth near the close of the day. The storm clouds chased each other for a while, the sky was soon overcast, the ominous howl of the wind began and soon the storm of rain and hail came on in mad "fury." Tall, strong trees bent beneath the gale; leaves and twigs of trees were knocked off; early vegetables, just peeping out of the ground, were washed by the white stones that fell thick, fast and hard; window lights were cracked and crushed under the heavy blows of the pelting hail; rooms were flooded by the rain, which poured in at every opening on the south and west; little children, frightened beyond the necessities of the occasion, embraced, and bade good-bye, expressing a hope to see each other in the better world; the beasts of the field and the fowls of the farm-yard, sought what protection they could find in the direction of the storm, for to go against it was impossible; the mad elements had their own way for a few minutes, and directly the unclouded sun in the west shone forth, and there were the old, upper clouds in their place, the same as if nothing had happened. The course of the storm was from southwest to northeast, and does not appear to have taken a swath more than two miles wide at any one place. While there was wind, rain and some hail in Columbus, no window lights were broken, but two miles north and west we gather the following incidents: At Wm. Grant's, a stable unroofed and window glass on the south and west sides of the house broken; at H. W. Winslow's (the Phil. Cain farm) 44 lights broken, the foliage of trees whipped off; at Franklin Still's the lights in the south and west sides of the dwelling broken; at Plety's 64 lights of glass; at Norval's 32; at Turner's 12; at Keating's 35, and Thomas' old straw shed scattered around, and 11 old hens, 2 turkeys and a general assortment of young chickens killed; here Jos. Flynn, who tried to get the cattle to shelter, had his face bruised to bloodiness by the pelting hail. Although hailstones could have been gathered by the wagon-load after the storm, there was no considerable damage to growing grain or vegetables, as they were not up high enough. Humphrey. Nice May weather. Farmers are very busy now. The new Catholic church has been recently painted. Mrs. Newell will go east to see her friends. She feels she has no home since the fire Wednesday night. City Council. Wm. Rounton was appointed on the regular police force, and a set of police regulations adopted. A resolution was passed instructing the committee on public property to advertise the outlots and parcels of land belonging to the city for sale. The election of Gu. Lockner as chief engineer of the fire department was confirmed. A resolution was passed instructing the committee on public property to take down the fence on Frankfort (Engine House) Square, and turn the timber over to the street commissioner to be used in repairing sidewalks. A new ordinance regarding houses of prostitution was read a second time and made a special order at the next meeting. Sparks from President. Mr. Osborn has purchased a yoke of cattle. The weather the past week has been very disagreeable. We understand Mr. Hyat will succeed Mr. C. Tyler as postmaster at President. Farmers in this vicinity, having finished seeding, are now preparing for planting corn. Miss Marie Elliott is visiting Mrs. J. A. Ziegler, she expects to return to Omaha shortly. Mr. W. Sipple has had several wolf chases in which the wolves always came off victorious. Miss Minnie is the guest of D. W. Ziegler at Sodville; she expects to return to school Monday. Mr. Tyler has sold his farm to Mr. Hyat of Ill., and purchased one near Genoa, where he will make his future home. Mrs. Alexandre received a telegram informing her of the illness of her son William, who is on a farm in Holt county. A social was held at the Monroe Congregational church Saturday evening, May 5th, for the purpose of raising money to secure a school. Sparks from Creston. E. A. Sheets was around looking for a school a short time since. Mrs. J. H. Millage and others of Granville, are quite sick with measles. Mrs. H. Springer from Iowa, has come west with the view of finding a climate better suited to her health, and is the guest of her sister, Mrs. D. J. Drebert, of Humphrey. Rev. A. J. Wright, the Baptist minister of Granville, will preach in the Creston church next Sunday evening. As there are only a few persons here who are members of that society, they do not have any church organization, so I have no preaching except by preachers who are engaged in other fields. In my last communication I said that only two out of six applicants for teachers' certificates, at Humphrey, "passed." I have since heard that that was incorrect, but as I had received my information, as I supposed from a reliable source, I gave it verbatim. My informant must have made a mistake unintentionally. The result, however, was not quite so bad. YOUNG REPORTER. Real Estate Transfers. Reported for the JOURNAL for the week ending last Saturday, by Gus. C. Becher & Co: U. S. to Paulina A. The Platte County Sabbath Schools will hold their county convention in Columbus, at the Congregational church, Friday, May 18th, 1883, commencing at 2 p. m. Every Sunday School is requested to send delegates, and all ministers of the county are requested to be present. This meeting is for all those interested in Sabbath School work. The Rev. J. D. Stewart, of Hastings, one of our most practical Sunday School men, has promised to be present. We trust this will be an interesting and profitable meeting. We shall be glad to entertain friends in attendance on this convention. A Special Request. That the secretary of each subordination grange in the county send in the minutes of each meeting held; also the date of the following meeting, to our county papers, for publication, so that farmers may see what we are doing, and be induced to attend the meetings, and help us to secure equal rights, equal taxation and justice.
