THE SONG OF THE ADVERTISER.

There is an advertiser great, Who is not to be despised, Who is not to be despised, Who is not to be despised.

There is a shop across the street, Where no one is heard, Where no one is heard, Where no one is heard.

There is a man who is not known, Who is not to be despised, Who is not to be despised, Who is not to be despised.

There is a man who is not known, Who is not to be despised, Who is not to be despised, Who is not to be despised.

There is a man who is not known, Who is not to be despised, Who is not to be despised, Who is not to be despised.

There is a man who is not known, Who is not to be despised, Who is not to be despised, Who is not to be despised.

There is a man who is not known, Who is not to be despised, Who is not to be despised, Who is not to be despised.

There is a man who is not known, Who is not to be despised, Who is not to be despised, Who is not to be despised.

There is a man who is not known, Who is not to be despised, Who is not to be despised, Who is not to be despised.
