Anderson has shipped, during the last month, 15 cars of fat hogs to Colorado. —Fred. Robarre and "Jim" Zibbe of Fullerton attended the races here last week. —George Habb returned last week from his visit to Illinois. He reports a very pleasant time. —Herman, the barber, is back from his western trip, and has his old chair at Fatty Woods's shop. —If you want to buy good goods cheap, go to Kramer's. —Do yourself justice by buying your furniture, mirrors and undertaking goods of Munger. —John D. Gould and wife of Madison, were in the city last week visiting the family of J. R. Turner. —Frank Price is home again after a ramble through Iowa and Nebraska, and is rolling cigars at Schneck's. —Peter Barnes and E. Albrecht of Madison, attended the races last week and had lots of fun with the boys. —There isn't a man on the Republican ticket who is not worthy the support of every voter at the polls. —H. J. Hudson was elected Grand Master of the I. O. O. F. order at their meeting in Omaha last week. —Miss Emma Hoehen of this city began an engagement as teacher in the Oleson school, on Monday last. —It says to come 50 miles to trade at Kramer's. —E. V. Clark of Genoa was so excited over the races Friday that he got left, and stayed over till Saturday. —A. J. Sampson of Denver, accompanied by masters Harry and Allen Slemmons, arrived in the city Friday last. —Gentlemen wishing perfect fitting shirts, custom made, call and leave measure at Mrs. Stump's millinery store. —Lute North has brought his trotting horse "Mat Patrick" down from North Platte, and will drive him on the road. —Now is your time to go to Kramer's and buy your winter supply. It is unmistakably the best and cheapest place. —Those young men who contemplate marriage should call at the JOURNAL office, and see what nice invitations we are getting up. —Our theatre goes will be pleased to hear that the Kendalls are soon to be with us again. They are about the best company we have ever had. —John Tannahill made some good "drives" on the coal business at the alliance meeting Saturday evening, which we will find space for next week. —We employ 7 tailors now and have work for 7 more. We respectfully solicit your order, guaranteeing first-class work and perfect fit. L. Kramer. —"Jim" Simpson, a former Columbus boy, who has been with the Earle Dramatic Company, left them after their engagement here, and will remain in the city. —It has been reported that all the newspapers of Butler county were in favor of Williams for Judge Post. This is a mistake, the Ulysses Dispatch has been and will be for Judge Post. —The first quarterly meeting of the Columbus M. E. church will be held Nov. 10th and 11th, '83. Quarterly conference Saturday at 3 p. m., and preaching Saturday at 7 1/2 p. m. Sabbath forenoon at 10 a. m. and 7 1/2 p. m. Rev. Dr. Maxfield will conduct the meetings. —Those desiring pianos at reasonable prices will do well to inquire at Anna & Martha Turner's book and music store, or of G. W. Kibbler and John Hammond, traveling salesmen. One of their Christie & Son pianos was sold to M. Vogel last week, for the use of his young daughter. 1

—Merchant tailoring at Kramer's. —If you want to save money buy your boots of Honahan. —Mrs. Stump has just received a large stock of Dolmans and Wraps and a large stock of hoods and hose at the very lowest prices. —There will probably be an unusual effort made during these last days of the campaign to defeat the republican ticket. Look out for all sorts of schemes, all sorts of lies, all styles, sizes and qualities of campaign documents and yarns. Get acquainted with the candidates, for yourself. Do your own voting. —Judge A. M. Post, as a lawyer and a judge, is receiving deserved complimentary notices from the state press all over his district. His election will be a guarantee to every individual that justice will continue to be meted out to him without needless litigation and as economically as possible. —Ulysses Dispatch. —All the leading styles of hats, bonnets, ribbons, lace goods now in stock. Call and see. No trouble to show goods and give prices. Call special attention to stock of hats, bonnets, trimmed in the latest styles. Satisfaction guaranteed. Mrs. Stump. —We had the pleasure of listening to the "Octoroon" Friday night, as rendered by the Erie Comedy Co. All acted their parts well, but we were especially delighted with J. E. Irving as Schudder and A. S. Benedict as Pete, whose acting was character painting in the true sense. We commend the troupe to the Nebraska public as well worthy their patronage. —The following are the winners of the first money in the races here last week: County trot, R. H. Henry's Gray Chariot. Pony running race, R. T. Kneeb's Tom Willson. 2:40 class, Robt. Graham's Yellow Jacket. County running race, Pat. Griffin's Black Bee. Three minute class, C. E. Morse's Bessie Turner. Free for all trotting race, R. T. Kneeb's Elmwood Chief. —A reception was given last evening by Mr. and Mrs. Friedhof in honor of Mr. and Mrs. George McKelvey, who have just returned from eastern Iowa, where they have been spending their honeymoon. George and Nellie will now settle down to assume the duties of married life, and will use and enjoy the handsome gifts presented them at their marriage. They have the best wishes of a large number of friends. —Rev. John Gray has accepted a call to preach to congregations at Ainsworth and Valentine, and will leave for his new field about the 15th of November. Mr. Gray is a man of keen, bright intellect, and therefore an excellent sermonizer as well as lecturer. He has, besides, the ability to get along with the world's people a good deal better than the general average of ministers, and thus his labors are valuable to a community. —A writer in the Lincoln Journal objects to township organization for Lancaster county because, first, of its expensiveness, second, its "complicatedness," and estimates that it would cost the people of that county $7,000 to $10,000 more than the present system. He suggests that if, to the present machinery, there was added a board of auditors, three in number, invested with supervisory powers, it would be an improvement on what we have, and far less cumbersome than the proposed township organization. —The social evil is a subject that our citizens must, soon or later, consider seriously. THE JOURNAL has called attention to and again to the fact that the evil is a very serious one in this community and likely to prove more so, including in its meshes the very youthful, also married men and single men. Under our laws a bawdy house is a nuisance, and under a recent decision of the supreme court of the state, any individual feeling personal interest sufficient would have little trouble in invoking the aid of law to rid themselves of the very means of nuisances. The court say: "Nuisance—House of ill fame—Evidence.—To authorize a conviction under section 210, of the criminal code, for permitting a house to be used as one of ill fame, or for purposes of prostitution, it must be shown, that the house was of ill fame in fact, or in other words a house resorted to for purposes of prostitution. That the prisoner was the owner, or had control of the house; and that he knowingly permitted it to be occupied as a house of ill fame. 2.—The bawdy character of the house may be shown by its general reputation and that of the persons frequenting it, together with other facts and circumstances which lead satisfactorily to that conclusion. It is not necessary to show particular acts of prostitution." —Platte Center Items. Farmers about our burg seem to be busy plowing after the rain, which caught some of them threshing. —Mr. Geo. Smith of St. Joe was here part of last week making contracts for machinery, with our dealers. Our grain buyers seem to be doing a large business, although the sale of farm products has hardly commenced yet. —The boom for Becker for county treasurer seems to be immense, and Gus certainly will get there, if the court knows itself, and "she thinks she do." —Chris. Martin's child, which accidentally sustained a fracture of the arm about the elbow when four days old, has completely recovered and Chris again wears a broad smile on his face. —Candidates for the various county offices seem to make frequent visits to our little town, seeking to realize the fact that a great many of our Platte county's votes are cast at Platte Center and in Lost Creek precinct. —More anon. ROYAN.

County Ticket.
GUS G. BECHER,
The candidate for county treasurer, was born at Pilsen, Austria, in 1845. In 1848, his father emigrated to St. Louis, Mo., at which place, in the Christian Brothers Academy, Gus received a considerable portion of his education. In 1857, Mr. Becker's father removed to this city, Gus following in 1859, in the meantime going to school. For eight years thereafter he was a clerk in the hardware store of Hurford & Bro. at Omaha, where he made many friends. After that he came to Columbus, and for the succeeding four years was engaged in the United States service, under Major Frank North, with the Pawnee Scouts. In '71 he served as enrolling clerk in the state senate. After his return he started in his present business, in which he takes great pride, and in which he has been very successful, enjoying the confidence, and winning the good will of every man with whom he does business. The county's money and the county treasurer's duties will be safe in his hands.
HENRY RAGATZ,
The nominee for county clerk, was born in Saux county, Wisconsin, in the year 1854. His father was one of the early pioneers of that then frontier state, emigrating from Switzerland in 1838, and settling in Prairie Du Sac, Saux Co., Wisconsin, the same year. His mother was a native of Germany, so he is a full-blooded descendant of that sturdy, independent, frugal, persevering stock, that cross from the lands of William Tell and "Old Fritz" that underlies one of the best strata of our American citizenship. Henry was born and raised on a farm, doing the manual labor expected of boys of his age in that position, and receiving the advantages of a common school education during the winter months, ending with three terms at the high school in the city of Prairie Du Sac; thence he served a five year's clerkship in a general store in his native town, removing to this city in the early spring of 1879, where he started in the general grocery trade, in which he has met with the invariable success that honesty, prudence, economy and indefatigable energy insure. Last spring, unsolicited and unexpected by him, his friends nominated him for councilman of the second ward of this city. His opponent was one of the most prominent democrats in the city, but Mr. Ragatz was elected by a handsome majority in the old democratic ward. To those who know Henry Ragatz no word of commendation is needed, and his friends predict his election to the office of county clerk as a certainty.
AUGUSTUS W. CLARK,
The republican candidate for clerk of the district court, was born in Ashtabula Co., Ohio, June 11, 1839. In 1848 his family removed to La Salle Co., Ill., where his early youth and manhood years were passed. In 1879 he removed to this county, having previously purchased the farm formerly owned by W. H. Gibson northeast of the city. Mr. Clark is one of those quiet, unassuming, careful gentlemen who seldom make mistakes and who never blunder, just the qualities needed in the discharge of the duties of clerk. Wise to apprehend the law and the instructions of the court, he has none of that peculiar smartness, characteristic of so many clerks, which leads them to assume the judicial functions, at odd times and stages of legal proceedings. He will make an excellent clerk.
GEORGE W. CLARK,
The gentleman whom the republicans of Platte county have named for the office of sheriff, was born in Columbiana Co., Ohio, March 11, 1849. In '51 his parents moved to Wisconsin. Young Clark was brought up on a farm, with the usual good fortune of farmer lads in having plenty of work during all the year, with an opportunity in the winter months of attending the district public school, of which he made such good use that early in life he was qualified to teach, which he did several years, before and since he removed to Nebraska. Ten years ago Mr. Clark came to Nebraska, locating on government land in the northern part of Platte county, then known as Stearns Prairie, and engaged in tilling the soil in summer and teaching school in winter. Since 1877 he has been engaged in the insurance business, and in March of this year opened an insurance and real estate office at Humphrey, a very thrifty business-center of Platte Co., where he is pursuing the even tenor of his way. Mr. Clark, it is scarcely worth while for us to add, is an honest, capable man, of excellent personal habits, and he will make as good a sheriff as Platte county ever had—accommodating, obliging, gentlemanly, upright, doing his duty in every particular, and under all circumstances, bravely yet kindly. The man who votes for him can feel an assurance that in the discharge of the duties of the responsible office of sheriff, he will honor himself and justly represent the interests of the public.
WALTER S. WELLS, candidate for county judge, was born at Johnston, N. Y., in 1857. He comes of good parents, his father, John Wells, having served several terms as judge of Fulton county, N. Y., and one as a member of the national congress. Young Wells attended the public schools of his native town and afterwards Union University, at Schenectady, graduating in June, 1878. Two years afterwards he graduated from the Albany Law School. In 1880 he removed to Wheeler county, this state, and in September, 1882, to Platte county, where he now resides and practices law, being a member of the firm of Walker & Wells. The people of the county who do not know Mr. Wells, will have an opportunity during the campaign of making his acquaintance. In the conduct of his office he would pride himself in doing his whole duty by the interests that would come under his charge.

JOSEPH RIVET,
Republican nominee for county commissioner, is one of nature's noblemen, an honest man. The voters of the county who have had business before the Commissioners' Court, have found in him a man attentive to business and anxiously desiring to understand and do his whole duty, in the interests of the public whom he serves.
JOHN TANNABILL,
Republican candidate for county commissioner, was born at Huntingdon, Canada, March 12, 1846, and is therefore in the 37th year of his age. In 1856, his father removed to Chickasaw county, Iowa. John was the oldest child of the family, and when his father enlisted in the service of the United States in 1861 (in the 7th Iowa) John had a good deal to look after, for a boy of sixteen; still more, when his father, after having honorably served his country, in the vicissitudes of battle was taken prisoner at Belmont, and died at Annapolis just after being exchanged.
Like all other patriotic young men of the time, however, the incidents of the war, the cause of the Union, and the necessity of the preservation of the government were so engraving that the beginning of the year 1865 found young Tannahill, at the age of 20, enlisted in the 156th Illinois regiment, and campaigning in Georgia in Gen. A. J. Smith's division. Of course his service was brief, because the war soon ended. In the seven months of his companionship with the boys in blue he was thoroughly imbued with the military spirit, and if called into duty to-day would make a model citizen-soldier.
While in Iowa Mr. Tannahill was elected road supervisor in a very thickly settled district, giving excellent satisfaction. In 1869 he removed to Nebraska, taking a homestead in Butler county, and operating as a farmer and a grower of and dealer in garden seeds, in which he has gained an enviable reputation, all through Nebraska. While living in Butler county Mr. T. served six years as school director and two terms as justice of the peace, showing the qualities that always characterize him, wherever he is placed—stability, and a strict regard for justice and right.
We don't know of a single enemy that Mr. Tannahill has in all the wide world, and his friends will take pleasure in voting for him, because they can do so without misgivings of any sort.
J. E. MONCRIEF,
the candidate for county superintendent of schools, is known to every bright school lad and lassie in the county. His record as the official head of the public school system of the county is well known to intelligent parents and school officers who take any interest in public instruction, and it is safe to say that these, by their votes, will place the seal of their approval upon his actions. He makes a very careful superintendent, and is economical in the expenditure of the county's money.
JOHN G. ROYAN, named by his political friends as candidate for surveyor, is thoroughly well qualified for the place in every respect, not only as a capable accountant but as being acquainted with the lands of the county. Besides which, his work will be done, as it always has been done, without reference to how it will affect one man or another, but exactly as it ought to be, squaring with the law and each man's right. This is John's uniform way of doing things, and a man might as well try to have him say that two and two make five, or that a straight line is not the shortest distance between two points, as to change his conduct of a public office.
CARROLL D. EVANS, named for coroner, was born in 1856, at Tarentum, Penn., a town near Pittsburg. He received his mental training at the Tarentum Academy, the Pennsylvania Porter College and the College of Physicians and Surgeons, Baltimore, Md., where he graduated. In the latter city he served in the Baltimore City Hospital for eighteen months, where he acquired practical knowledge in surgery which has been of good use to him in his practice. For several years he engaged in the work of his profession at Bradford, Penn., after which he came to Nebraska, settling in this city in May 1882, since which time many of our readers have been acquainted with the doctor and his work. He has shown himself versed in professional knowledge, with nerve enough for any emergency required, and would make a good sheriff in any contingency that would require him to serve.
Judge Post in Colfax.
The anti-monopolists of Colfax in their county convention Saturday adopted the following:
WHEREAS, The alliance party of this judicial district have no candidate, and
WHEREAS, Having great respect for Hon. A. M. Post, the republican nominee, both as a citizen and a judicial officer,
Resolved, That we, the alliance party of Colfax county, in convention assembled, do unqualifiedly endorse his candidacy.
Notice.
To the Platte Co. Repub. Cen. Com.: I regret to say in my present engagements are such as to compel me to decline being a candidate at the coming election, for the office of clerk of the district court. The honor thus unexpectedly conferred upon me by the convention is highly appreciated. Hoping that our ticket and the cause it represents may be successful,
I remain yours,
M. BRUGGON.

Humphrey.
The heavy frost of the season thus far froze ice one-half inch thick in this vicinity.
Joseph Eimers has left for Dakota to seek his fortune in the West. Joe leaves many friends here who wish him success.
Mr. Reedy organized a class in book keeping and commercial arithmetic last Wednesday evening at the school-house.
Mrs. F. M. Cookingham is quite seriously sick at time of writing. Her many friends are faithful, and have good hopes of her recovery.
John Morgan, a son of S. E. Morgan, left last week for Dakota; he is going to see his uncle Mr. John Kennedy, and will probably locate there permanently.
I see by the bills allowed by the county commissioners that it costs the county fifteen dollars for a pauper to stay a part of day and one night at the Humphrey House, it being a small building where he was kept, used also for a meat market part of the time. The pauper undoubtedly was sick, but as only three dollars of the amount was for the doctor and two, (which I believe were just claims) for attending the same and also a collection was raised to bear his expense to which the writer contributed, in the face of these facts we would like to know from those concerned why the tax-payers should pay this landlurd ten dollars? We would add the landlurd did not take him into the house. If this is a just claim, properly allowed, then it certainly is very expensive traveling as a pauper, and the county should hire a vigilant committee to keep these extravagant persons in other counties.
Relief.
EDITOR JOURNAL.—I was out first killing frost Saturday night; up to that time, tomatoes and peppers were perfectly green.
A creamery project is being agitated here, but a large bonus is asked by the party wishing to start it. A query in our mind is, why should farmers give to start one when it is one continual giving (in dictation of prices) after it is started. Like all our other business ventures, this, too, in our humble opinion, ought to stand on its own honest bottom.
Quite a number of old settlers are building and moving into town; the two years hail is the moving cause.
Cash & Hurd have now, with the new addition, a double-front store, and it is packed full, from end to end and from top to bottom.
The G. A. R. had their first of a series of public meetings on the evening of the 13th and it was well attended.
Threshing backedwater, and a few days back, we gathered a few very fine specimens of winter apples; orchard, mostly now, is in very fine condition. Corn will be hard husking this fall, as it is mostly bent to the south and the ears very close to the ground.
Three tickets in the field in this county, which will cause a good many to fall very low in their aspirations for public pap, in the hereafter.
Oh! by the way; Col. Roberts, our gray haired, (but well liked by everybody) grain buyer, smilingly passed us the cigars this morning, and said it's another boy. Father and mother very happy. Why Not?
October 15th, 1883.
