Hill resigned. Bell was architect of the capitol buildings at Springfield, Ill., and Des Moines, Ia. The cyclones which occurred last week in the United States show some strange and remarkable freaks at this season of the year. One struck the west side of Columbus, Indiana, in the night on the 29th ult., unroofing a granary and new mill, knocking the corner of the depot and partially demolishing a saloon. The roof from the mill took down three hundred yards of telegraph wires. The same morning another cyclone was reported as passing over Catahonia and Tensas parishes, Louisiana. The first place it struck, three houses were blown down and four negroes wounded. At the next plantation one house was lifted from the foundation and carried about half a mile into the woods. The negro church was turned half around. A negro had his arm broken, and his wife, another woman and two children were badly hurt. At the next farm visited, a barn and two houses were blown down. The next place struck was the roof of the overseer's house which was carried away and eight cabins demolished. Three persons were badly hurt and another house at Catshong parish blown down. The woman who owned the house escaped, but three children had not been found. The three next places struck demolished nine houses. At Paris, Ky., the same date two cyclones occurred. The first house struck was demolished and four colored inmates killed. In Paris a large number of buildings were damaged from one to five hundred dollars, and so throughout its path in the country. District Attorney Corbhill has written a letter with a view of stopping the practice of dishonest peopling claim agents. He expresses the wish that all soldiers or other parties who have copies of descriptive circulars, from agents of Washington city, or knowledge of any fraudulent transactions on their part should give him full information, to the end that each case may be put in shape by special agents for legal protection. Attorney General Brewster has promised the earnest co-operation of the department of justice and all its officers. He says many of the cases of fraud are heartrending. Maimed and decrepit soldiers' widows and orphans pay their pittance to agents, who merely file their applications to enable them to collect the money from their deluded clients. If the present law is inadequate to prevent such transactions, congress should provide an efficient remedy. Articles of incorporation of the United States Central railroad, $75,000,000 capital, were filed the other day in Denver. The road is already located eight hundred miles east from San Francisco and two hundred miles west from Denver, and will, when completed, be the shortest road over the easiest grades between the two cities. Should no difficulty be encountered in obtaining entrance to San Francisco the road will prove a formidable competitor to the Central Pacific. The officers elected are W. W. Walker, of the St. Louis & Hannibal road, president; John Sharp, of Salt Lake, E. T. Wells, of Denver, vice presidents. Construction of the road will commence immediately. Last week there were renewals of the earthquake, at the eastern end of the Mediterranean, involving an extensive loss of life and property. Smyrna had been warned in time and the people were prepared to escape, so that the loss of life was small, but the loss of property is very heavy. The walls, which have stood since the Crusades, were thrown down, the ancient aqueduct destroyed and the mosques and churches ruined. The people are panic stricken, and the town is temporarily almost deserted. The inhabitants are camping on the frontier. In some of the smaller towns the loss of life has been great. The formal transfer of the command of the army from General Sherman to General Sheridan took place at noon on the 1st, at the headquarters of the army in the war department building at Washington City. Before 12 o'clock the two highest officers of the army were ready and called on Lincoln, the Secretary of War, Gen. Sherman to take official leave and Gen. Sheridan to report for duty. Major General J. M. Schofield assumed the command of the division of the Missouri and Gen. Angur relinquishes the command of the department of Texas, and is succeeded by Gen. McKenzie. Experts sent to Brewton, Alabama, from Washington City by Surgeon General Hamilton, of the marine hospital service to make investigation of the epidemic at that place, reported by telegraph that the disease is yellow fever. To present date thirty-four cases had occurred and eighteen deaths. Dr. Hamilton says this is a very high rate. The population of the town is about thirty-five hundred, but the disease is not spreading to any extent. Recent news from Lisbon, in the old world, states that three thousand armed peasants assembled at Valencia Domingo, Providence of Vienna, and raised cries for a republic. A small detachment of troops were sent to disperse them. Severe fighting ensued. Several persons were wounded on both sides. Eventually the troops were compelled to retreat. Reinforcements of cavalry and infantry were sent from Oporto. A recent statement is made at Paris that in view of the contingency of war between France and China, several French iron clads have been ordered in readiness to reinforce the French squadron in Chinese waters. Cox, Randall and Carlisle will, it is understood, contend for the speakership of the house of representatives. In political circles it is thought the contest will be lively and spirited, with the chances in favor of Randall.

The British consul at Chios reports a thousand persons on the main land killed and wounded by the earthquake. Assistance is urgent. The consul has collected for the relief of sufferers. J. C. K. Hines, a prominent lawyer of Reading, Pa., has mysteriously disappeared. It is believed that he retained $13,000 collected for heirs of an estate. He is also charged with getting worthless checks cashed. SHERIFF'S SALE BY virtue of an order of sale to me under the seal of the District Court of the county of Nebraska, bearing date on the 15th day of October, 1883, and the judgment and decree of said court upon the same which was issued, I have levied upon the same which is described in the following described property, to wit: The west half of the northwest quarter of Section thirty-four (34) in Township sixteen (16) north, and Range one (1) west of the sixth principal meridian in Platte county, Nebraska, and on the 17th day of November, 1883, at one o'clock in the afternoon of said day, at the west front door of the Court House in the city of Columbus, in said county, (that being the building where the last term of the court was held) I will offer the same for sale at public auction to the highest bidder, for cash, to satisfy said judgment and decree in said court rendered, on the 19th day of September, 1883, in favor of Charles P. It is becoming a matter of surprise that so many persons lose their lives by coming in contact with electric wire. The last reported death was that of T. R. Robbins, Supt. of the Dayton Fuller Electric Light Co., who took hold of a wire where the insulation was off and fell as if shot, exclaiming "The life is burned out of me." He died in three minutes. RECENTLY at Milwaukee, at a session of the Supreme Temple such action was taken as declared the Patriarchal Circle henceforth to be an independent organization, which removes the Odd Fellows' qualification. The members still retain their identity with the Odd Fellows, but hereafter all persons are eligible to membership in the circle. THE remains of the fat woman, Mrs. Moore, were recently interred at Baltimore. About a dozen men brought the corpse from the second story to a hall below, the coffin being too large to admit of its being taken up stairs. It was then taken to Mount Olivet Cemetery in a wagon, there being no hearse of sufficient dimensions to carry it. FIVE hundred and seventy-six newspapers are published in Iowa. It is claimed that Iowa men and women read, and are perhaps better posted on public matters than the citizens of any state of the Union. The manner in which they settle their public affairs gives strong evidence of general intelligence. AFTER a trial which caused much excitement, two Jews were convicted at Casmin of setting fire to a synagogue to obtain the insurance, were sentenced to four years' imprisonment. Others were sentenced to shorter terms. The crime was originally attributed to Christians. THOMAS B. MERRICK, who keeps a restaurant on Front street, in Plum Creek, Neb., was accidentally shot by his wife the other morning. She was trying to hold out a shot gun, when it went off, the whole charge striking him in the head, tearing away the scalp and fracturing the skull. Two hundred and sixty-six persons were suffering from trichinosis the other day at Ermesleben, Germany. Only 50 out of 134 houses are free from the disease. There have been several cases at Aken. As many as twenty-three persons had died at Ermesleben that morning. ONE evening last week Baxter Stringley, city marshal of Salida, Col., was fatally shot while attempting to arrest Frank Reed, a cow boy, for coal stealing. Stringley covered him with his revolver, but Reed was too quick for him, and shot him three times, and then escaped. A REPORT comes from Joliet, Ill., that masked men entered the house of Edward McLaughlin the other night, tortured the farmer and his wife until they disclosed the hiding place of $1,000 in gold, which they took and departed, leaving the victims very nearly dead. ANNA DICKINSON has begun the season under very satisfactory auspices, opening in Steubenville, Ohio, then in Michigan, afterwards going directly west, acting through to the Pacific coast. She is playing Hamlet and Anne Boleyn, the latter written by herself. ON the arrival of the train at Port Hope one evening last week from the west the express messenger on the train handed the agent a package said to contain $10,000. The agent placed the money in the safe, and going back in a few minutes, found it had been abstracted. RECENTLY the trial of sixty-three persons, members of the Nihilist Red Cross society, was concluded. All were sentenced to be sent to Siberia. The testimony of informers and others proved that the society has ramifications in every port of the empire. A CLEVELAND, O., doctor has succeeded in bringing intelligence and health to an idiot invalid boy of that city by electricity. The intelligence is not extensive and the health not robust, but both promise to make the subject good for something. QUITE an excitement prevails at Liabon, D. T., over the discovery of gold. W. H. Griewold, of Chicago, made the discovery on his place near there, two months ago. He had 139 samples assayed and the result showed from $20 to $250 per ton. A REMARKABLE bed of iron ore has recently been found in the northern part of the state of Wisconsin. The discovery was made by Wm. Newell, of Eau Claire, Wis., and is said to be the most valuable iron lead ever discovered in this country. THE California wine product this year will not exceed 10,000,000 gallons, being a reduction of 40 per cent. The disease in grapesvines, known as "cankers" in France, made its appearance for the first time in California this year. THE Evangelical conference recently held at Allentown, Pa., resolved to appropriate $7,000 for the purpose of erecting chapels and mission houses in Japan and to send an additional missionary to Japan and to Switzerland. A RECENT statement is made at Paris that in view of the contingency of war between France and China, several French iron clads have been ordered in readiness to reinforce the French squadron in Chinese waters. Cox, Randall and Carlisle will, it is understood, contend for the speakership of the house of representatives. In political circles it is thought the contest will be lively and spirited, with the chances in favor of Randall.

THE British consul at Chios reports a thousand persons on the main land killed and wounded by the earthquake. Assistance is urgent. The consul has collected for the relief of sufferers. J. C. K. Hines, a prominent lawyer of Reading, Pa., has mysteriously disappeared. It is believed that he retained $13,000 collected for heirs of an estate. He is also charged with getting worthless checks cashed. SHERIFF'S SALE BY virtue of an order of sale to me under the seal of the District Court of the county of Nebraska, bearing date on the 15th day of October, 1883, and the judgment and decree of said court upon the same which was issued, I have levied upon the same which is described in the following described property, to wit: The west half of the northwest quarter of Section thirty-four (34) in Township sixteen (16) north, and Range one (1) west of the sixth principal meridian in Platte county, Nebraska, and on the 17th day of November, 1883, at one o'clock in the afternoon of said day, at the west front door of the Court House in the city of Columbus, in said county, (that being the building where the last term of the court was held) I will offer the same for sale at public auction to the highest bidder, for cash, to satisfy said judgment and decree in said court rendered, on the 19th day of September, 1883, in favor of Charles P. Dewey and Albert B. Dewey, executors of the estate of Chancery Dewey, against the said Henry and Elizabeth H. Hudson, administrator, and Ellen Sheehan, administratrix, of the estate of Edward D. Sheehane, and Edward John Sheehan, children and heirs at law of said Edward D. Sheehane, defendants, for the sum of three hundred twenty-five dollars and fifty cents, and the further sum of ten dollars, taxed at twenty-one dollars and forty-three cents ($21.43), together with interest thereon, which said sum of money and attendance will be given by the undersigned, the Sheriff of said county, this 10th day of October, 1883. D. C. KAVANAGH, Sheriff of Platte Co., Neb. NOTICE. THE STATE OF NEBRASKA, ss: Among the records and proceedings of the District Court in and for Platte county, State of Nebraska, at the September term, 1883, it is interalia thus contained: "In the matter of the application for the sale of real estate of Josephine W. Wess, an insane person." On the petition of Emil Fohl, guardian of Josephine W. Wess, an insane person, and inhabitant of Platte county, Nebraska, praying for a license to sell real estate for support and maintenance of said Josephine Wess. It is ordered by the court that the 29th day of October, 1883, at one o'clock, a. m., at the court house in Columbus, Platte county, Neb., be fixed for the time and place of hearing said petition, and notice of the same be published in the COLUMBIAN JOURNAL, a newspaper published in general circulation in said county, for three successive weeks prior to the hearing, notifying all persons interested in said estate to appear at said time and place and show cause, if any, why said license should not be issued in accordance with said petition. A. M. POST, Judge. I certify the above to be a true and correct copy said order. Witness my hand and official seal at Columbus, Neb., this 22nd day of September, 1883. C. A. Office and Parlors, Over the new Omaha National Bank, Thirtieth between Farnam and Douglas Streets, OMAHA, NEBRASKA. A. S. FISHLATT, M. D., : : : Proprietor. SPECIAL ATTENTION GIVEN TO DISEASES OF THE THROAT AND LUNGS, CATARRH KIDNEY AND BLADDER, AND WELL AS ALL CHRONIC AND NERVOUS DISEASES. DR. FISHLATT Has discovered the greatest cure in the world for weakness of the back and limbs, involuntary discharges, impotency, general debility, nervousness, languor, confusion of ideas, palpitation of the heart, timidity, trembling, dimness of sight or dizziness, diseases of the head, throat, nose or skin, affections of the liver, lungs, stomach or bowels—those terrible disorders arising from solitary habits of youth, and secret practices more fatal to the victims than the songs of Sirens to the mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most radiant hopes or anticipations, rendering marriage impossible. Those that are suffering from the evil practices, which destroy their mental and physical systems causing NERVOUS DEBILITY, the symptoms of which are a dull, distressed mind, which unites them from performing their business and social duties, makes happy marriage impossible, distresses the action of the heart, causing dizziness of spirits, evil forebodings, cowardice, fears, dreams, restless nights, dizziness, forgetfulness, unnatural discharges, pain in the back and hips, short breathing, melancholy, tire easily of things, and have preference to being deprived of the pleasure of healthy walking, retiring, sexual weakness, lost manhood, white and weak eyes, dyspepsia, constipation, confusion of thought, trembling, watery and weak eyes, dyspepsia, constipation, paleness, pain and weakness in the limbs, etc., should consult me immediately and be restored to perfect health. YOUNG MEN Who have become victims of solitary vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of exalted talent and brilliant intellect who might otherwise entrance listening to notes with the thunders of their eloquence or wake to ecstasy the living lyre, may call with full confidence. MARRIAGE. Married persons or young men contemplating marriage be aware of physical weakness, loss of procreative power, impotency, or any other disqualification speedily relieved. He who places himself under the care of Dr. Fishblatt may rely with confidence in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician. ORGANAL WEAKNESS Immediately cured and full vigor restored. This distressing affliction—which renders life a burden and marriage impossible, is the penalty paid by the victim for improper indulgence. Young people are apt to commit excesses from not being aware of
