the greatest propriety, listen to plaintive ditties, enjoy the Ethiopianisms, laugh at the wonderful impersonations, and go into ecstacies over the music and nonsensicalities. The best ever witnessed one that will meet with the approval of the amusement-loving public. Unexceptionable in all its features. Devoid of low wit and coarseness. The resources of this exposition are so great, the number of performers so large, and their different acts so varied, the public are gratified with a variety of performances seldom seen in this country.
