

TERMS: Per year $3.00, Six months $1.50, Three months $1.00, Single copies 5c.

BUSINESS CARDS.

CHAS. SLOANE, (Yek Lee), CHINESE LAUNDRY, Chinese "Star Clothing Store," Nebraska Avenue, Columbus, Neb.

DENTAL PARLOR, On Corner of Tenth and North Streets, over Ernst's hardware store.

COHNELIUS & MULLIVAN, ATTORNEYS-AT-LAW, Up-stairs in Gluck Building, 11th street, Above the New bank.

H. J. HUDSON, NOTARY PUBLIC, 12th Street, 2 doors west of Hammond House, Columbus, Neb. 491-7.

THURSTON & POWERS, SURGEON DENTISTS, Office in Mitchell Block, Columbus, Nebraska. 11-11.

J. G. REIDER, ATTORNEY AT LAW, Office on Olive St., Columbus, Nebraska. 2-11.

G. A. HULLHORN, A. M., M. D., HOMEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN, Two Blocks south of Court House, Telephone communication. 5-17.

V. A. MACKEN, DEALER IN Wines, Liquors, Cigars, Porters, Ales, etc., etc. Olive Street, next to First National Bank. 50-7.

McALLISTER BROS., ATTORNEYS AT LAW, Office up-stairs in McAllister's building, 11th St. W. A. McAllister, Notary Public.

J. M. MACFARLANE, H. R. COWDRY, Attorney and Notary Public, Columbus, Nebraska.

LAW AND COLLECTION OFFICE, MACFARLANE & COWDRY, Columbus, Nebraska.

GEO. N. DERRY, PAINTER, Carriage, house and sign painting, glazing, paper hanging, etc., etc., done to order. Shop on 13th St., opposite Engine House, Columbus, Neb. 10-7.

F. H. RUSCHKE, 11th St., opposite Lindell Hotel, Sells Harness, Saddles, Collars, Whips, Blankets, Curry Combs, Brushes, trunks, valises, buggy tops, cushions, carriage trimmings, etc., at the lowest possible prices. Repairs promptly attended to.

J. S. MURDOCK & SON, Carpenters and Contractors, Have had an extended experience, and will guarantee satisfaction in work. Our motto is: Good work and fair prices. Call and give us an opportunity to estimate for you. Shop on 13th St., one door west of Friedhof & Co's. store, Columbus, Neb. 49-7.

O. C. SHANNON, MANUFACTURER OF Tin and Sheet-Iron Ware! Job-Work, Roofing and Gutting a Specialty. Shop on Eleventh Street, opposite Bentz's Drug Store. 46-7.

G. W. CLARK, LAND AND INSURANCE AGENT, HUMBOLDT, Neb. His land contracts some fine tracts in the Shell Creek Valley, and the northern portion of Platte county. Terms paid for non-residents. Satisfaction guaranteed. 20-7.

COLUMBUS PACKING CO., COLUMBUS, - NEB., Packers and Dealers in all kinds of Hog products, cash paid for Live or Dead Hogs or Eggs. Directors—R. H. Henry, Pres.; John Wiggins, Sec. and Treas.; L. Gerrard, S. Corp.

NOTICE TO TEACHERS, J. B. Moncrief, Co. Supt., Will be in his office at the Court House on the third Saturday of each month for the purpose of examining applicants for teacher's certificates, and for the transaction of any other business pertaining to schools. 56-7.

JAMES SALMON, CONTRACTOR AND BUILDER, Plans and estimates supplied for either frame or brick buildings. Good work guaranteed. Shop on 13th Street, near St. Paul Lumber Yard, Columbus, Nebraska. 52-6me.

J. WAGNER, Livory and Feed Stable, Is prepared to furnish the public with good teams, buggies and carriages for all occasions, especially for funerals. Also complete abstract of title to all real estate in Platte County. 44.

D. T. MARTIN, M. D., F. SCHEU, M. D., Physicians, 13th Street, near Court House, Columbus, Nebraska.

DRS. MARTIN & SCHEU, U. S. Examining Surgeons, Local Surgeons, Union Pacific and O., N. & B. R. R's. COLUMBUS, NEBRASKA. 35-vol-1311-7.

$66 a week at home. $500 outfit free. Pay absolutely sure. No risk. Capital not required. Reader, you want business at which persons of either sex, young or old, can make great pay all the time they work, with absolute certainty, write for particulars to H. HALL & CO., Portland, Maine.

The Columbus Journal

VOL. XIV.—NO. 38. COLUMBUS, NEB., WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 16, 1884. WHOLE NO. 714.

FIRST National Bank!

Authorized Capital, $250,000. Cash Capital, 50,000. OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS: J. W. EARLY, ROBERT UBLIG, HERMAN OELHRIICH, W. A. MACKEN, G. ANDERSON, G. ANDERSON.

COAL AND LIME!

Foreign and Inland Exchange, Passage Tickets, Real Estate, Loan and Insurance. 29-vol-1311-7.

J. E. NORTH & CO., DEALERS IN—

Coal, Lime, Hair, Cement.

Rock Spring Coal, $7.00 per ton. Carbon (Wyoming) Coal, 6.00. Eldon (Iowa) Coal, 1.50.

Blacksmith Coal of best quality always on hand at low prices.

North Side Eleventh St., COLUMBUS, NEB. 14-32.

UNION PACIFIC LAND OFFICE.

Improved and Unimproved Farms, Hay and Grazing Lands and City Property for Sale Cheap.

Union Pacific Land Office, On Long Time and low rate of Interest.

Final proof made on Timber Claims, Homesteads and Pre-emption.

BECKER & WELCH, PROPRIETORS OF SHELL CREEK MILLS.

MANUFACTURERS AND WHOLESALE DEALERS IN FLOUR AND MEAL.

OFFICE—COLUMBUS, NEB. SPEICE & NORTH, General Agents for the Sale of REAL ESTATE.

621 COLUMBUS, NEB. LOUIS SCHREIBER, Blacksmith and Wagon Maker.

All kinds of Repairing done on Short Notice. Buggies, Wagons, etc., made to order, and all work Guaranteed.

Also sell the world-famous Walter A. Wood Horse, Reapers, Combined Harvesters, Mowers, and Self-Binders—the best made.

Shop opposite the "National" Office, 13th St., COLUMBUS. 28-6.

One birthday there is the life of each girl that exceeds every other, I ween. When the brightest of prospects before her smile.

And for a time her gratitude, hearty and warm. For all the long years that have been. The parents who ever have the mind from them.

Foreign and Inland Exchange, Passage Tickets, Real Estate, Loan and Insurance. 29-vol-1311-7.

UP IN A BALLOON.

Thrilling Experience of a Balloon. French Aeronaut—An Incident of the Last Siege of Paris—A Night of Horror. I had not been in a balloon for ten years, and the very sight of one almost makes me sick.

A Wicked Joke.

The members of the Old Exchange are rather a jolly young men, but the leader in the matter was taken by a youth known as "the dude," whose name is withheld for the sake of his relatives.

Runners by Signal.

Well, it is some years since I have worked at train-dispatching, "but I suppose it hasn't changed much since I quit it, excepting that it is easier now that they have double tracks where they used to have single. No, there's no secret about it.

The Pintes.

The Pinte is not an impressive character. Civilization has done its worst for him. He has learned all the bad and none of the good.

OF GENERAL INTEREST.

A Boston oculist protests against dotted veils. —There are one hundred and five, unused burying-grounds within the corporate limits of London.

PERSONAL AND LITERARY.

—When Henry Ward Beecher was at Grand Forks, Dak., he was invited to umpire a base-ball match. —Miss Mollie Garfield and Miss Fanny Hayes, daughters of two ex-presidents, attend the same school in Cleveland.

—There are two ladies in the neighborhood of Newburn, Ala., who were living in that section before Alabama was a State. That was before 1819. The act organizing the territory dates two years previously.

—Two brothers named Lynch died in the same hospital in New Orleans seven miles in length.

—The most important and valuable stamp collection in the world belongs to a son of the Duchess of Galliera. "Though it is yet incomplete, the stamps alone have cost $300,000.

—It was a pet monkey that struck a match and fired the British bark Marquette at Bayonne, N. J., laden with 1,375 barrels of naphtha and 2,000 of petroleum.

—General Grant has had made at Hartford, for presentation to the Viceroy of China and the Mikado of Japan, two guns modeled after the Gardner patent, which have been fired at the rate of seven hundred shots per minute.

—David Hawthorne, of Philadelphia, beat his wife. She dealt him a mortal blow with a tumbler. He lived a week, and went around all right, when the artery burst, causing death. His wife was operated by his own statement.

—A civil engineer who recently surveyed one hundred and seventy miles of railway in Arkansas reports that the citizens strongly opposed the construction of the road on the ground that it would scare all the game out of the country.

—Pearl street, New York, is the crookedest street in the world. It is a mile and a half long, and yet its curves are so incessant that you cannot in any place see more than two squares ahead.

—A New York judge says there is no law to prevent a woman dressing in men's clothes if she wants to, and dismissed one in that garb brought before him by a valiant policeman.

—The great Napoleon married a widow. Scarron's widow became a court favorite. Rousseau went crazy after a widow, and Gibbon, the historian, made himself ridiculous over one.

—Disraeli married a widow, and three of the most distinguished widows in Europe to-day are the Empress Eugenie, of the French; Queen Isabella, of the Spanish; and Queen Victoria, of the English.

—"Eyes of vair," the old phrase used by English poets, is a curious result of phonetic spelling. Vair is the spotted fur made by the skin of the fox squirrel; verre is the French word for glass.

—Long white in one of the offices at the White House contains cases, each of which bears the label "eccentric." These cases are crammed with written communications.

—The speaker who alluded to his candidate for the office of mayor, climbed up to the composition room with a club after reading it in the paper as a "hard boss" that snatched the bottle from the bar.

—It is a common saying that a woman can't keep a secret as well as a man. All boys, why, a woman will keep a secret that a man would forget in two hours, long enough to spread it over two counties.

—Mrs. Charles Dunlap, living a few miles from Circleville, O., a poor woman, depending on daily labor for support, went to town one day recently and unexpectedly came across a man who had worked for several years, and whose salary was $200.

—M. Marius Vachon, in the last number of the "grave Gazette de Cologne," to Germany, to show a healthy independence of French fashions, in Germany, as elsewhere, the fashionable modistes slavishly imitate.

—Boniface De Roo, a native of Holland, who had lived for the last seventeen years in Akron, O., where he died recently, bequeathed $10,000 to that city, his entire fortune.

—A German paper, the Illustrirte Zeitung, reports that German emigrants return weekly in great numbers from America. Of the hundred and twenty-four laborers returned recently from Chicago to their old homes in East Prussia.

—A good man who may try to be original, and make a miserable mistake in the endeavor. They imagine they can turn the whole world round by some eccentricity of dress or behavior.

—A German paper, the Illustrirte Zeitung, reports that German emigrants return weekly in great numbers from America. Of the hundred and twenty-four laborers returned recently from Chicago to their old homes in East Prussia.

—A good man who may try to be original, and make a miserable mistake in the endeavor. They imagine they can turn the whole world round by some eccentricity of dress or behavior.

—A young tooth, coming out as natural as if in childhood, is nursed by Mrs. Isabella Weeden, of Colusa, Cal., who is the mother of two boys over seventy-eight years old.

—There are two ladies in the neighborhood of Newburn, Ala., who were living in that section before Alabama was a State. That was before 1819.

—The most important and valuable stamp collection in the world belongs to a son of the Duchess of Galliera. "Though it is yet incomplete, the stamps alone have cost $300,000.

—It was a pet monkey that struck a match and fired the British bark Marquette at Bayonne, N. J., laden with 1,375 barrels of naphtha and 2,000 of petroleum.

—General Grant has had made at Hartford, for presentation to the Viceroy of China and the Mikado of Japan, two guns modeled after the Gardner patent, which have been fired at the rate of seven hundred shots per minute.

—David Hawthorne, of Philadelphia, beat his wife. She dealt him a mortal blow with a tumbler. He lived a week, and went around all right, when the artery burst, causing death.

—A civil engineer who recently surveyed one hundred and seventy miles of railway in Arkansas reports that the citizens strongly opposed the construction of the road on the ground that it would scare all the game out of the country.

—Pearl street, New York, is the crookedest street in the world. It is a mile and a half long, and yet its curves are so incessant that you cannot in any place see more than two squares ahead.

—A New York judge says there is no law to prevent a woman dressing in men's clothes if she wants to, and dismissed one in that garb brought before him by a valiant policeman.

—The great Napoleon married a widow. Scarron's widow became a court favorite. Rousseau went crazy after a widow, and Gibbon, the historian, made himself ridiculous over one.

—Disraeli married a widow, and three of the most distinguished widows in Europe to-day are the Empress Eugenie, of the French; Queen Isabella, of the Spanish; and Queen Victoria, of the English.

—"Eyes of vair," the old phrase used by English poets, is a curious result of phonetic spelling. Vair is the spotted fur made by the skin of the fox squirrel; verre is the French word for glass.

—Long white in one of the offices at the White House contains cases, each of which bears the label "eccentric." These cases are crammed with written communications.

—The speaker who alluded to his candidate for the office of mayor, climbed up to the composition room with a club after reading it in the paper as a "hard boss" that snatched the bottle from the bar.

—It is a common saying that a woman can't keep a secret as well as a man. All boys, why, a woman will keep a secret that a man would forget in two hours, long enough to spread it over two counties.

—Mrs. Charles Dunlap, living a few miles from Circleville, O., a poor woman, depending on daily labor for support, went to town one day recently and unexpectedly came across a man who had worked for several years, and whose salary was $200.

—M. Marius Vachon, in the last number of the "grave Gazette de Cologne," to Germany, to show a healthy independence of French fashions, in Germany, as elsewhere, the fashionable modistes slavishly imitate.

—Boniface De Roo, a native of Holland, who had lived for the last seventeen years in Akron, O., where he died recently, bequeathed $10,000 to that city, his entire fortune.

—A German paper, the Illustrirte Zeitung, reports that German emigrants return weekly in great numbers from America. Of the hundred and twenty-four laborers returned recently from Chicago to their old homes in East Prussia.

—A good man who may try to be original, and make a miserable mistake in the endeavor. They imagine they can turn the whole world round by some eccentricity of dress or behavior.

—A German paper, the Illustrirte Zeitung, reports that German emigrants return weekly in great numbers from America. Of the hundred and twenty-four laborers returned recently from Chicago to their old homes in East Prussia.

—A young tooth, coming out as natural as if in childhood, is nursed by Mrs. Isabella Weeden, of Colusa, Cal., who is the mother of two boys over seventy-eight years old.

—There are two ladies in the neighborhood of Newburn, Ala., who were living in that section before Alabama was a State. That was before 1819.

—The most important and valuable stamp collection in the world belongs to a son of the Duchess of Galliera. "Though it is yet incomplete, the stamps alone have cost $300,000.

—It was a pet monkey that struck a match and fired the British bark Marquette at Bayonne, N. J., laden with 1,375 barrels of naphtha and 2,000 of petroleum.

—General Grant has had made at Hartford, for presentation to the Viceroy of China and the Mikado of Japan, two guns modeled after the Gardner patent, which have been fired at the rate of seven hundred shots per minute.

—David Hawthorne, of Philadelphia, beat his wife. She dealt him a mortal blow with a tumbler. He lived a week, and went around all right, when the artery burst, causing death.

—A civil engineer who recently surveyed one hundred and seventy miles of railway in Arkansas reports that the citizens strongly opposed the construction of the road on the ground that it would scare all the game out of the country.

—Pearl street, New York, is the crookedest street in the world. It is a mile and a half long, and yet its curves are so incessant that you cannot in any place see more than two squares ahead.

—A New York judge says there is no law to prevent a woman dressing in men's clothes if she wants to, and dismissed one in that garb brought before him by a valiant policeman.

—The great Napoleon married a widow. Scarron's widow became a court favorite. Rousseau went crazy after a widow, and Gibbon, the historian, made himself ridiculous over one.

—Disraeli married a widow, and three of the most distinguished widows in Europe to-day are the Empress Eugenie, of the French; Queen Isabella, of the Spanish; and Queen Victoria, of the English.

—"Eyes of vair," the old phrase used by English poets, is a curious result of phonetic spelling. Vair is the spotted fur made by the skin of the fox squirrel; verre is the French word for glass.

—Long white in one of the offices at the White House contains cases, each of which bears the label "eccentric." These cases are crammed with written communications.

—The speaker who alluded to his candidate for the office of mayor, climbed up to the composition room with a club after reading it in the paper as a "hard boss" that snatched the bottle from the bar.

—It is a common saying that a woman can't keep a secret as well as a man. All boys, why, a woman will keep a secret that a man would forget in two hours, long enough to spread it over two counties.

—Mrs. Charles Dunlap, living a few miles from Circleville, O., a poor woman, depending on daily labor for support, went to town one day recently and unexpectedly came across a man who had worked for several years, and whose salary was $200.

—M. Marius Vachon, in the last number of the "grave Gazette de Cologne," to Germany, to show a healthy independence of French fashions, in Germany, as elsewhere, the fashionable modistes slavishly imitate.

—Boniface De Roo, a native of Holland, who had lived for the last seventeen years in Akron, O., where he died recently, bequeathed $10,000 to that city, his entire fortune.

—A German paper, the Illustrirte Zeitung, reports that German emigrants return weekly in great numbers from America. Of the hundred and twenty-four laborers returned recently from Chicago to their old homes in East Prussia.

—A good man who may try to be original, and make a miserable mistake in the endeavor. They imagine they can turn the whole world round by some eccentricity of dress or behavior.

—A German paper, the Illustrirte Zeitung, reports that German emigrants return weekly in great numbers from America. Of the hundred and twenty-four laborers returned recently from Chicago to their old homes in East Prussia.

—A young tooth, coming out as natural as if in childhood, is nursed by Mrs. Isabella Weeden, of Colusa, Cal., who is the mother of two boys over seventy-eight years old.

—There are two ladies in the neighborhood of Newburn, Ala., who were living in that section before Alabama was a State. That was before 1819.

—The most important and valuable stamp collection in the world belongs to a son of the Duchess of Galliera. "Though it is yet incomplete, the stamps alone have cost $300,000.

—It was a pet monkey that struck a match and fired the British bark Marquette at Bayonne, N. J., laden with 1,375 barrels of naphtha and 2,000 of petroleum.

—General Grant has had made at Hartford, for presentation to the Viceroy of China and the Mikado of Japan, two guns modeled after the Gardner patent, which have been fired at the rate of seven hundred shots per minute.

—David Hawthorne, of Philadelphia, beat his wife. She dealt him a mortal blow with a tumbler. He lived a week, and went around all right, when the artery burst, causing death.

—A civil engineer who recently surveyed one hundred and seventy miles of railway in Arkansas reports that the citizens strongly opposed the construction of the road on the ground that it would scare all the game out of the country.

—Pearl street, New York, is the crookedest street in the world. It is a mile and a half long, and yet its curves are so incessant that you cannot in any place see more than two squares ahead.

—A New York judge says there is no law to prevent a woman dressing in men's clothes if she wants to, and dismissed one in that garb brought before him by a valiant policeman.

—The great Napoleon married a widow. Scarron's widow became a court favorite. Rousseau went crazy after a widow, and Gibbon, the historian, made himself ridiculous over one.

—Disraeli married a widow, and three of the most distinguished widows in Europe to-day are the Empress Eugenie, of the French; Queen Isabella, of the Spanish; and Queen Victoria, of the English.

—"Eyes of vair," the old phrase used by English poets, is a curious result of phonetic spelling. Vair is the spotted fur made by the skin of the fox squirrel; verre is the French word for glass.

—Long white in one of the offices at the White House contains cases, each of which bears the label "eccentric." These cases are crammed with written communications.

—The speaker who alluded to his candidate for the office of mayor, climbed up to the composition room with a club after reading it in the paper as a "hard boss" that snatched the bottle from the bar.

—It is a common saying that a woman can't keep a secret as well as a man. All boys, why, a woman will keep a secret that a man would forget in two hours, long enough to spread it over two counties.

—Mrs. Charles Dunlap, living a few miles from Circleville, O., a poor woman, depending on daily labor for support, went to town one day recently and unexpectedly came across a man who had worked for several years, and whose salary was $200.

—M. Marius Vachon, in the last number of the "grave Gazette de Cologne," to Germany, to show a healthy independence of French fashions, in Germany, as elsewhere, the fashionable modistes slavishly imitate.

—Boniface De Roo, a native of Holland, who had lived for the last seventeen years in Akron, O., where he died recently, bequeathed $10,000 to that city, his entire fortune.

—A German paper, the Illustrirte Zeitung, reports that German emigrants return weekly in great numbers from America. Of the hundred and twenty-four laborers returned recently from Chicago to their old homes in East Prussia.

—A good man who may try to be original, and make a miserable mistake in the endeavor. They imagine they can turn the whole world round by some eccentricity of dress or behavior.

—A German paper, the Illustrirte Zeitung, reports that German emigrants return weekly in great numbers from America. Of the hundred and twenty-four laborers returned recently from Chicago to their old homes in East Prussia.

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

- Business and professional cards of five lines or less, per annum, five dollars. For time advertisements, apply at this office. Legal advertisements at statute rates. For transient advertising, see rates on third page. All advertisements payable monthly.

PERSONAL AND LITERARY.

—When Henry Ward Beecher was at Grand Forks, Dak., he was invited to umpire a base-ball match. —Miss Mollie Garfield and Miss Fanny Hayes, daughters of two ex-presidents, attend the same school in Cleveland.

—There are two ladies in the neighborhood of Newburn, Ala., who were living in that section before Alabama was a State. That was before 1819. The act organizing the territory dates two years previously.

—The most important and valuable stamp collection in the world belongs to a son of the Duchess of Galliera. "Though it is yet incomplete, the stamps alone have cost $300,000.

—It was a pet monkey that struck a match and fired the British bark Marquette at Bayonne, N. J., laden with 1,375 barrels of naphtha and 2,000 of petroleum.

—General Grant has had made at Hartford, for presentation to the Viceroy of China and the Mikado of Japan, two guns modeled after the Gardner patent, which have been fired at the rate of seven hundred shots per minute.

—David Hawthorne, of Philadelphia, beat his wife. She dealt him a mortal blow with a tumbler. He lived a week, and went around all right, when the artery burst, causing death.

—A civil engineer who recently surveyed one hundred and seventy miles of railway in Arkansas reports that the citizens strongly opposed the construction of the road on the ground that it would scare all the game out of the country.

—Pearl street, New York, is the crookedest street in the world. It is a mile and a half long, and yet its curves are so incessant that you cannot in any place see more than two squares ahead.

—A New York judge says there is no law to prevent a woman dressing in men's clothes if she wants to, and dismissed one in that garb brought before him by a valiant policeman.

—The great Napoleon married a widow. Scarron's widow became a court favorite. Rousseau went crazy after a widow, and Gibbon, the historian, made himself ridiculous over one.

—Disraeli married a widow, and three of the most distinguished widows in Europe to-day are the Empress Eugenie, of the French; Queen Isabella, of the Spanish; and Queen Victoria, of the English.

—"Eyes of vair," the old phrase used by English poets, is a curious result of phonetic spelling. Vair is the spotted fur made by the skin of the fox squirrel; verre is the French word for glass.

—Long white in one of the offices at the White House contains cases, each of which bears the label "eccentric." These cases are crammed with written communications.

—The speaker who alluded to his candidate for the office of mayor, climbed up to the composition room with a club after reading it in the paper as a "hard boss" that snatched the bottle from the bar.

—It is a common saying that a woman can't keep a secret as well as a man. All boys, why, a woman will keep a secret that a man would forget in two hours, long enough to spread it over two counties.

—Mrs. Charles Dunlap, living a few miles from Circleville, O., a poor woman, depending on daily labor for support, went to town one day recently and unexpectedly came across a man who had worked for several years, and whose salary was $200.

—M. Marius Vachon, in the last number of the "grave Gazette de Cologne," to Germany, to show a healthy independence of French fashions, in Germany, as elsewhere, the fashionable modistes slavishly imitate.

—Boniface De Roo, a native of Holland, who had lived for the last seventeen years in Akron, O., where he died recently, bequeathed $10,000 to that city, his entire fortune.

—A German paper, the Illustrirte Zeitung, reports that German emigrants return weekly in great numbers from America. Of