

—The JOURNAL's facilities for printing wedding and party invitations or wedding cards are very complete, enabling us to turn out work of this class that cannot fail to suit the most fastidious. We keep a good assortment of the latest styles of this class of stationery always on hand to select from.

—The Mason & Hamlin organ is the best offered for sale here. Call at A. & M. Turner's book store. —Friday week Chris. Meedell's barn took fire and was destroyed, a horse, a cow and some hay going with it.

—The school board held a special meeting Monday evening, completing their record on the bond question, a notice for the submission of which will be found elsewhere in to-day's JOURNAL. —O. L. Baker visited Geo. Willard's ranch near Genoa, one day last week. He thinks George has a fattening cow that is hard to beat. She weighs at the present time 1715 pounds, and is not yet ready for the market.

—The grand hop was a success at Niels Pederson's Friday night; there was a good lively company gathered and that they had a good lively time is the verdict of those attending. There has been a general overhauling at the post-office and bank. Mr. D. J. Drebert resigned in favor of his brother-in-law W. H. Springer, who has been appointed postmaster here.
