The Wilcox & White organs, also Mason & Hamlin and Chicago Cottage, for sale at A. & M. Turner's book and music store, or by G. W. Kibbler, traveling salesman. W. E. Anderson and his newly made bride, started for their new home in Lyons, this state, last Monday, where Billy expects to open a harness shop on his own hook. A change of time has been made in the B. & M. train time going south, which now leaves here about thirty-five minutes earlier than heretofore. No change in the time of arrival. A party consisting of Clara and Al. Rieky, Harry Newman and Sam Coble, young men of this city, started on Thursday last to seek their fortunes in the White River country. J. E. North, Geo. Lehman and Edward Hor of these parts have been drawn as petit jurors for the next term of the U. S. district court, commencing in Omaha the first Monday in the proximo. The proprietors of the Genoa Esteryria, Messrs. Cook & Davis, have sold out. No possibility of miscegenation which contains these words only, "We have sold out." At the last term of the district court the docketed cases were pretty generally disposed of, and for once in the history of the county, criminals at the bar were made to feel that our courts are not a farce. If you wish to purchase the most satisfactory sewing machine ever offered, call on or address A. & M. Turner, Columbus, Neb., or G. W. Kibbler, Creton, Neb., who sell the light-running Domestic. In dried fruits you can find the best line at John Heitkemper's, such as cherries, raspberries, currants, California prunes, plums, apricots, fancy dried peaches, apples, huckleberries, etc. Please call and examine. We notify each subscriber, every week, of just how his account stands for subscription. If you wish the paper sent you no later than the date printed opposite your name, please drop us a postal card so stating. The Odd Fellows are making preparations to celebrate the 65th anniversary of the order in the U. S., with a "social" and dance which will be held in the Menorah Hall, Friday afternoon and evening, April 25th. Major Frank North started for the Indian Territory last Friday on business connected with the Buffalo Bill Combination. He will join the company at St. Louis, at which point the organization will be perfected this spring. Judge Wakely has granted an injunction running against the Council and Mayor of Omaha prohibiting the issuance of liquor licenses for less than to the close of the year—their previous practice having been to grant licenses by the month. B. R. Cowdery was at North Platte and Sidney last week. There is considerable excitement there as to the sale of lands. Mr. C. made a short visit to W. F. Cody's place, and speaks in the highest terms of the great showman and his ability to entertain his guests. The Platte Co. Bible Society on Sunday evening, 27th inst. Rev. G. W. Wainright of Blair to deliver the annual address. Notice of place announced in various churches in the morning. By order of Ex. Com., E. A. Gerrard, Sec'y. An addition to the front of the main part of the Grand Pacific hotel has been commenced. The new part will be three stories high, 36x32 feet, brick veneered, and to the old part will be added another story. George is bound to keep to the front.

The boarding house of Mrs. M. Infire on 11th street has been rented by W. M. Dineen, late of Platte Center, under whose management it is now being run. C. E. Morse had the contract for putting down the floor and railings of the Loupe and Platte bridges. The work was done well and promptly and both bridges are now in good repair. The post-office was moved Saturday evening to the west room of Marshall Smith's block on 13th street. The new room is certainly an improvement on anything Columbus has ever had for a post-office, whatever may be the location against the centrality of the said location. Hon. Richard Vallentine, Mayor of Jonesville Wis., now manager of Vallentine's School of Telegraphy, and short hand of that city, will make Columbus a flying visit this week, as guest of his old friend L. A. Clark, agent "The Burlington." J. W. Love, of Fremont, places the Graf lands just east of Columbus on the market at prices that are low. These are fine lands and many of our citizens have waited a long time for a chance to buy them. See his advertisements with numbers and prices elsewhere. Our postmaster the other day in distributing letters for the mail came upon three post-office names rather remarkable—still more remarkable that in the regular line of business they should appear together: the names were Cloverdale, Hellscorner and Biblegrove. I would say to my customers and others that I am prepared to furnish you the White Lilly flour, manufactured at Becker & Welch's mill, which is the best flour made from spring wheat and sold in this market. I would like the good bread baker to try it. Wm. Becker. 43-3m. The Fremont Herald says that a meeting of parties having timber claims west of Valentine was held in that city recently which resulted in the formation of a regular association and the election of officers. Arrangements were then made to have the work done on the claims this season as required by law. The light-running Domestic Sewing Machine, can be purchased only at A. & M. Turner, agents for west half of Colfax, and all of Platte, and Kansas counties. Try the machine yourself, and be your own judge. You, yourself, are to use it, and therefore you should select the machine that best suits you. Some bad blood existing between a couple of tailor's of the city, culminated Sunday evening on 11th street in a fight; the result, a black eye for one of the parties, and a broken head for the other, from coming in contact with a jug in the hands of his adversary. A Dr.'s skill was necessary to repair the damage to the head. Herman Oehrich has purchased the two east lots comprising one-half of the beautiful residence property of H. J. Hudson in the southeastern part of the city, which has had Mr. H's personal attention in the way of adornment with beautiful trees and shrubbery for a number of years. Herman expects to commence the erection of a residence upon the same in the near future. The presentation of "Above the Clouds" by our home talent Friday night drew a large audience at the Opera House. We have no space to comment at length upon the acting of each, but deem it due to all to say that they acquitted themselves with credit. That a repetition of the play Saturday night drew a fair house will show that it was well appreciated and is entitled to be chronicled a success. The amount of business done by the Columbus Packing Co. for the past season certainly makes a very creditable showing. From the company's books we are allowed to condense the following items: Number of hogs purchased and killed during the season, 9,000 head, at an average weight of 285 pounds, from which a grand total of 2,567,557 pounds of meat of the different classes have been manufactured; also 313,107 pounds of lard. How to Make Candy.—This book gives full directions for making all kinds of plain and fancy candy. The recipes for making caramels, chocolate drops, French mixed and all other kinds of candies contained in this book are the same as used by the leading city confectioners. Any one can have these candies at home at less than one third the usual cost. Sent postpaid to anyone sending at once the names of fifteen married ladies and 30 cents in postal note, or 18 two-cent stamps. Address ROCHESTER PUBLISHING CO., 32, 33 & 33 1-2 Osborn Block, Rochester, N. Y. A. M. Winslow's Sons of this city have recently sold to N. C. Hill & Son, Ottumwa, Iowa, the Princess bull 8th Marquis of Wildberg 52,673, red and white, calved Sept. 12th, 1882, by 2d Marquis of Glenwood, 33,302, dam 34 Lady Lale of Conway by George Thorndale 14,316, &c. To A. Severson, Virginia Dale, Col., the bull 4th Duke of Oakland, 51,221, red, calved June 3d, 1882, by 3d Red Rose Duke, 40,591, dam Ellah's Grace, 2d dam by 3d Duke of Putney, 38,154, &c. Prince Louise Fifth, 49,016, red, calved July 9th, 1882, by 5th Earl of Antrim, 35,360, dam Princess Louise 5th by Lord Stanley, 10,385, &c. 14th Marquis of Wildberg, red, calved April 6th, 1883, by 2d Marquis of Glenwood, 33,302, dam 10th Wieston Lady by Grand Master 12,096, &c. Price of the three bulls $325. We give this item as showing that Platte county has men that know the needs of this country in fine stock.

Road supervisor Morse who has had in charge the laying down of the old flooring, and putting on of the railing of the old parts of the Loupe and Platte bridges, is entitled to credit for the promptness with which it has been done, he having paid the cash necessary to secure sufficient help for the work for which he will take the orders of the county. He informs us that the railing on the Loupe bridge has been left incomplete as to bracing, etc., for the purpose of getting the Platte bridge in crossable shape as soon as possible, but will receive his attention again, and will be made as substantial as the old material will permit. At the Platte bridge the other day, was witnessed an exhibition of perseverance and determination on the part of a Polish woman, that would put to shame many of the sterner sex. It appears that the woman had moved to this side of the river before the going out of the bridge, and had upon the other side some domestic animals, which needed attention. Going to the bridge and finding it still not ready for crossing, she began preparations for wading the river. The men at work at the bridge divining her intentions, attempted to dissuade her from the undertaking, but she would not listen, and throwing off her outer garments, plunged into the surging river and successfully battled the current until the opposite shore was reached, notwithstanding the fact that the water at the deepest point came up to her neck. It is little short of a miracle that she was not swept from her feet and drowned. Almost as astonishing is the fact that any female human being could endure such a bath in a temperature almost at freezing point. Leap Year and Mother Hubbard. The second leap year ball of the season was given at Menorah Hall last Wednesday evening. We believe it was the original intention of the committee having the matter in charge to make it strictly a Mother Hubbard affair, that is to request that the ladies attend costumed in the flowing, free and easy garment—a sort of cross between a night gown and a morning wrapper which is finding some favor with fashion's votaries, and styled a Mother Hubbard dress; but for some reason the majority of the ladies do not seem to have taken kindly to the notion, and in respect to making the ball an exclusive Mother Hubbard affair, it was not a complete success. However, it was a success in point of being a decidedly pleasant social occasion in which all seemed to enjoy themselves to the fullest extent, and the ladies in Mother Hubbard looked almost as charming as usual. Once more we are constrained to say that in affairs of this kind the ladies take the cake. The following were in attendance: Miss Anna Rasmussen, A. Anderson; Miss Lillian Smith, J. C. Martin; Miss Mamie Mullen, J. G. Reeder; Miss Stella North, Myron Wheeler; Miss Minnie Kramer, Dave Loeb; Miss Anna Becher, Will Trekkel; Miss Susie Wake, John Becher; Mrs. Cornelius, Geo. Smith; Miss Gusta Loeb, H. C. Niblock; Miss Ida Martin, Dr. C. D. Evans; Miss Minnie Nickerson, J. E. Munger; Miss West, D. A. Lord; Miss Eva McKean, Theodore Wandel; Mrs. Dr. Martyn, Irwin Letham; Ida George, D. Richardson; Miss Anna Turner, Jacob Wagner; Mrs. H. I. Murdoch, Will Murdoch; Mr. and Mrs. Meagher; Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Roen; Major Frank North and mother; Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Morse; Chas. Henderson, guest. The little folks were, Ida Meagher, Mazie North, Nellie North. The ladies appearing in Mother Hubbard costumes were Miss Eva McKean, white Swiss on blue; Miss Ada Westcott, wine colored nun's veiling; Miss Gusta Loeb, nun's veiling, pink plush yoke; Miss Emma West, cream nun's veiling, cream satin yoke; Miss Annie George, cream nun's veiling, lace yoke; Mrs. O. T. Roen, pink crashmere and lace diamonds; Miss Anna Rasmussen, pale blue patch work; Mamie Mullen, blue nun's veiling; Miss Lillian Smith, mashed strawberry; Miss Stella North, cadet blue; Mrs. W. M. Cornelius, cardinal. Music by Maennerchor string band. National Anti-Monopoly Convention. The following named gentlemen were appointed delegates and alternates by the anti-monopoly state central committee, to represent their respective congressional districts at the national anti-monopoly convention to be held at Chicago, May 14th, 1884, provided the congressional committee should choose not to call a district convention, viz: Delegates—John Barad, D. L. Bruner, T. T. Wilkinson, W. J. Burger. Alternates—N. Olsson, James Armstrong, Judge Ewing, J. R. Ratcliffe. Arrangements were made for the whole delegation to meet at the Corzens House, Omaha, by 3 o'clock p. m. May 12th. The convention promises to be a very large one, with much interest. The people of this nation are thoroughly aroused on this question. D. L. BAUER. "The Woman's Physician." A common sense medical work for ladies only. Fully answers all questions which modesty prevents asking a male physician. Gives causes and symptoms of all diseases of the sex, with positive cure for each in plain language, written by ladies who have made these diseases a life study. A plain talk in delicate language which every woman, young and old, should read. It is recommended by many eminent lady physicians as a safe guide for the sex. Handsomely bound and illustrated. Sent postpaid for $1.00. Address the ROCHESTER PUBLISHING CO., 32, 33 & 33 1-2 Osborn Block, Rochester, N. Y.
