LEAP-YEAR.

The peculiarity of Leap-Year is the peculiar length of the month of February, so the history of the origin of Leap-Year is closely connected with a history of February, and this takes us back almost to the origin of the year itself.

FACTS AND FIGURES.

R. F. Beckwith, of New London, Conn., has occupied the same store fifty years. The wealth of Massachusetts, as assessed for tax purposes, is $1,731,297,061, an increase of $47,000,000 on the valuation of 1882—Boston Post.

PERSONAL AND LITERARY.

Beethoven became deaf in 1801, blind in 1825, and died in 1827, after composing one hundred and thirty-seven different works.

FARM AND FISHING.

See hives should be raised occasionally in the winter, and the dead bees and dirt swept out—Exchange.
