National Republican Ticket. JAMES G. BLAINE, For Vice-President, JOHN A. LOGAN, Of Illinois.

Republican State Convention

Has been called to meet at Omaha, Wednesday, August 27th, 1884, at 10 o'clock a.m., to nominate five candidates for presidential electors. Also, for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Secretary of State, State Treasurer, Auditor of Public Accounts, Commissioner of Public Lands and Buildings, Superintendent of Public Instruction and Attorney General.

Platte county is entitled to seven del-

G. W. E. DORSEY, Chairman. S. B. Colson, Secretary. May 22, 1884.

THE new court house at Stanton finished. DAKOTA county claims good fruit prospects. NORFOLK is about to try a fer

KEARNEY county is being raided by horse thieves.

MR. BLAINE left Washington June 2d, for Agusta, Me.

SAN FRANCISCO is said to be over run with Salvationists.

tour throughout the country. It is stated that New Jersey potato bugs are eating tomato vines.

THE decrease in the public debt during May was $4,763,241,20.

lecturing last week in Kansas. A GARGLE of cold, strong, black tea is a remedy for sore throat.

JENNY LIND'S oldest son has recently married an English girl. CORN in the vicinity of Fremont said to be coming up very nicely. SERVICE on the Oakdale and Niobrara mail route has been resumed. Two hundred and fifty-four Glon-chester fishermen were lost last year. 30,000 women it is said steer canal boats.

JAMES BUCHANAN'S famous farm, "Wheatland," has been sold to a mar- 7 to 4—to report in favor of Wise. ket gardener.

It is claimed that Oscar Wilde and Miss Lloyd were married at London on the 3d inst. In Sweden it is said that a man who has been drunk three times loses the right of suffrage. It is claimed that London has a pauper population of 89,223 outside of asylums and alms houses. THE docket of the superior court, recently in session at Hartford, Conn., contains 150 divorce cases. It is said that health officers destroyed in one week in New York 21,585 pounds of bad meats. DR. WORTHINGTON, of Detroit, bishop-elect of Nebraska, has not yet announced his decision of acceptance. THE New Orleans Exposition is to have the largest building in the world. It has thirty-three acres of floor area. JUDGE WAKELEY'S house at Omaha

Two western inventors have reing compositions.

A PITTSBURG woman suggests that the way for women to get into the pulpit is to cut down ministers' salaries to $12 a week.

Washington Territory.

THE importation of coffee in 1883 reached 525,763,470 pounds, or ten and one-half pounds for each inhabitant of the United States.

A COLORED preacher in Buffalo gave notice to his congregation last Sunday that he wanted less shouting and more money in the future.

WITHIN two mouths the House of all the duties. Lords has had two Roman Catholic accessions-the Earl of Abingdon and Lord North, both converts.

MILLIONS of caterpillars are stripping the leaves from the live oak trees at Cloverdale, California. This is one indication of dry weather.

has just decided that a life insurance only was recovered. policy holds good if the person inspred commits spicide while insane.

AT Sidney, one of the teachers is about to be tried for maltreatment, assault and battery upon one of his pupils, a daughter of Lieut. Murphy.

other day in New York in charge of missionaries. They left immediately for Utah:

H. H. PETIT, who runs the ferry at the Oreapolis bridge, and who had been at work clearing the bridge of driftwood, is supposed to have been drowned.

MISS MARY A. RIPLEY read an excellent paper on "The Dignity of pony's neck, and the pony, becoming Labor" before the Woman's Educational and Industrial Union of Buffalo last week.

of Lima, Ohio, aged about fourteen, a cyclone cave on his farm beaten to a jumped the rope 256 times and fell jelly and the bloody club with which unconscious. She lay in that condition for twenty days before she died.

HON. A. J. SAMPSON, of Denver, by special invitation delivered a sensible less killed for plunder. There is no and eloquent address at the Opera clue to the murderer. House Colorado Springs, to a large and attentive audience on decoration

A RUN was made the other day on ington City. The bank was paying the other day to W. H. Scoville, of for killing Williams. Chicago, who fell into a vat of boiling soap, and when his remains were recovered, they were found cooked to Byron Drum, the nine-year-old son of Postmaster Drum, of Beatrice, Neb., accidentally shot himself through the heart the other day, killing himself instantly. He was a smart bright boy.

THE Geneva, Neb., Driving Association have decided on July 4th and 5th as the dates for their first annua meeting. The Association claims one of the best tracks in the state, and over $500 in cash purses.

THE Omaha Herald suggests the following list from which the democrats of the Third district may draw a candidate for congress: Munger, Higgins, Zentmeyer, Green, Glover, North, Chard and Hinman.

FRANCES E. WILLARD says the chivalry of the nineteenth century is not that of knights and troubadours, but the chivalry of justice, which gives women a fair chance to be al that God gave them power to be.

Ex-SHERIFF BANKSTON of Arkansas City, tried recently for bigamy and discharged, had an affray with a lawver by the name of Coats, who SITTING BULL is contemplating a had prosecuted him. Coats is dead and Bankston is mortally wounded.

VIOLENT shock of an earthquake in May was not reported in London until the 3d of June, on the island Kishm, near the mouth of the Persian MISS ANNA E. DICKINSON was gulf. Twelve villages were destroyed and 200 persons killed and many wounded.

found the other day not far from mains a mystery.

THE house committee on elections hester fishermen were lost last year. —9 to 1—has decided to report in favor of seating Chalmers in the case and Colorado line was destroyed one in the case and Colorado line was destroyed one in the case and Colorado line was destroyed one in the case and Colorado line was destroyed one in the case and Colorado line was destroyed one in the case and Colorado line was destroyed one in the case and Colorado line was destroyed one in the case are giment and to march to the front in defense of the country. [Apof Chalmers vs. Manning, of Missis- day last week by the bursting of a hone, who saved us the United States plause. Like Douglas, he believed that of Virginia, the committee agreed— water in such force that it swept Beware! Beware! The time is com- Illinois made a record second to none in F. Edmunds [applause], of Joseph R.

Collections of internal revenue for the ten months of the fiscal year, $99,164,745; decrease, $19,908,627 compared with the corresponding period of the previous year. The principal decrease is on tobacco. There was an increase of $12,460,564 from spirits.

MRS. J. L. WILSON and Mrs. L. M Latham have undertaken the management of the Cedar Rapids, Iowa, Transcript, and are said to be making an excellent local paper of it. Prominence is given to news and movements in which women are specially WESLEY JOHNSON was hanged one day last week at Napoleon, Ohio. He declared "it was just and right he should hang." He murdered Geo. Williams and his wife. Williams had been his employe. Robbery was the motive. The murder was an atrocious one.

ALBERT MITCHEL was arrested the was burglarized the other night and other day in Omaha by Sheriff relieved of about $175 worth of Seaton, of Linn county, Iowa, charged with the murder of a man by the name of Thumb, assisted by Geo. cently obtained patents for the use of Pollins, a constable, in making the sawdust, instead of sand in plaster- arrest. The officers started with their prisoner for Iowa.

NINETY-FIVE measures were bro't up in the senate on the 2d, of which forty were passed. This is the greatest day's work of the session. filling lecture engagements in the show a larger record. Among the west. She will visit Oregon and senators present were Edmunds, Sherman, Logan, Hawley and Allison.

MISS ADA READ was nominated for Justice of the Peace by the voters of Livermoreborough, Westmoreland, Pa., as a joke. Now they are dismayed to discover that, having the requisite number of votes, instead of taking the joke, she takes the oath of office, and perhaps will perform

GENERAL O. G. BABCOCK, engineer P. Dockey, his clerk and B. P. Suter, Saturday in Mosquito inlet, off the coast of Florida, while superintending on the light house, being erected THE United States supreme court at this point. The body of Babcock

PINE trees in some portions of North Carolina are said to be dying in large numbers from injuries inficted by the "bore worm" which played havoc with the pines in that state about thirty years ago. Their A PARTY of 270 Mormon immi- ravages are not confined to the old grants from Liverpool arrived the trees, the young ones dying just as rapidly and numerously.

> RAY FENDERSON, a boy about twelve years old, engaged in herding cattle near Eim creek, not far from Kearney, Neb., dismounted his pony the other day to pick prairie beans. and while thus engaged he tied to his ankle the rope halter around the frightened, dragged the boy to death.

JOHN GOODING, a farmer living two miles from Osborn, DeKalb county, A DAUGHTER of George Wilhelm, Missouri, was found the other day in the murder had been committed lying near him. He was supposed to have money and jewelry and was doubt-at Plattsmouth, Neb., named Bright ground had been followed by victory. murdered a man named Williams, one Having succeeded against its oppothe National Savings bank at Wash- night last week, while the latter was nents on all former occasions, it was asleep, with a hatchet, and then shot about to put its house in order for resolutions, presented the platform, ington City. The bank was paying ington City. The bank was paying himself. Both are dead and no reason promptly, and had no intention of taking advantage of the thirty days' taking advantage of the other than the thirty days' taking advantage of the October victory in Ohio.

The derivative days this great council. With bated ders of the October victory in Ohio.

Nominate him and the camp fires and both the office advantage of the October victory in Ohio.

Nominate him and the camp fires and both to office advantage of the October victory in Ohio.

Nominate him and the camp fires and both the office advantage of the October victory in Ohio.

Nominate him and the camp fires and the office advantage of the October victory in Ohio.

Nominate him and the camp fires and the october victory in Ohio.

Nominate him and the camp fires and the october victory in Ohio.

Nominate him and the camp fi people believe however that Bright vention, the present body was largely sentiments of the great body of the lions of Republican freemen in the tinent from the Golden State to Cleo-

THE Butler Co. Press is not alto gether pleased with the manner which the late state convention wa conducted, and closes an editorial or the subject with this paragraph:

"The time has come when the per ple can't afford to allow themselves to be misrepresented in state conventions. If it pays the railroads to furnish democratic politicians with passes to manipulate conventions, it pays the people to take a more lively interest.'

It will cost him nothing to keep it if, in manhood, opportunities are offered him to engage in other and more profitable (but not more respectable) employment. A good deed once done, and we know of nothing that would more forcibly illustrate the truth of this sentiment than the adoption and practical use of it by our boys .- Sidney Telegraph.

AUSTIN SHELDON, the famous old hermit of Pike Co., Pa., who had lived in his cave in the rocks for forty-three years, left a few months ago to go to Connecticut to live withrelatives who would take care of him, returned the other day to his den in the rocks near Bingman's Ferry, Pa., where he expects soon to die in the solitude of the place, away from the frivolity and the worldliness of life

THE Madison Chronicle has this to say of an affair mentioned elsewhere in to-day's Journal: "A man named Riley, living one mile south of the them a representation which by Demvillage of Pierce, in Pierce county, ocratic fraud and force is denied them. A woman and three children were club, breaking two ribs, one leg, and to have Democratic force and fraud and in feeling, and enjoying their sympafracturing his skull. This occurred Kansas City, Mo., brutally murdered. last Friday afternoon, and the in-Kansas City, Mo., brutally murdered. last Friday afternoon, and the in-have mercy on us. [Applause.] There tegrity, the intelligence and the loyalty of its citizens. When you starry flag with an axe and the boy's throat cut over night until he was found by a the South saved the Republican par- was assailed by enemies in arms, when from ear to ear. The affair still re- neighbor Saturday noon. The boy died Monday.

sippi, In the case of Massey vs. Wise waterspout, and sending down the Lindsey, Robt. Roddy, R. Fowler, the last four have been recovered.

> SENATOR VAN WYCK still gives a share of his attention to the railroads. Judging from his remarks he has strong suspicions that some kind of fraud has entered into their numerous land grants, and that it must be developed and corrected. Measures to detect and correct such errors will at all times be gratefully received and in government and political matters. and we hope to live to see the time when rulings shall be universally governed by such principles.

The Ticket

Suits the Journal to a nicety. Not anything could have pleased us better. Both are men of stamina, men courage; independent, fearless, outspoken; vigorous - minded, stouthearfed; American citizens, coming up to their high places through honest toil, and by the pure force of genius, pluck, perseverance and a laudable ambition; model American citizens who will work for the advancement of the whole country and MRS. JUDITH ELLEN FOSTER is and very few days in past sessions all its people, and for the upbuilding of the national sentiment, at home and abroad.

Moon Inhabited. It is stated that recently at the astronomical observatory of Berlin, a discovery has been made, which without doubt will cause the greatest sensation, not only among the adepts in science, but even among the most learned. Prof. Blendmann, in that city, has found, beyond a doubt, that our old friend, the moon, is not a mere lantern which kindly furnishes of the 5th light house district, Levi light for the loving youth and gas companies of our planet, but the of Washington, were drowned on abode of living, intelligent beings, for which he is prepared to furnish proofs most convincing. It is claimed now that beyond a doubt the moon is inhabited and that towns, villages and cultivated fields can be plainly seen. A photograph of the moon was taken and placed under a strong micro-walls of the exposition building, had a seating capacity of 13,000.

Chicago. The eighth pational convention of the republican party was called to order at noon, June 3d.

On the speaker's stand were thousand seats, occupied by persons of national repute. Quite a number of U.S. senators and representatives were present, I am ready to incorporate in our among them senstor Manderson and platform that we will carry on the congressman Valentine of Nebraska.

The convention was called to order by Senator Sabin, chairman of the national committee. He said Chicago was known as the convention city. It was the field of republican victory; here it was that the immortal patriot, Abraham Lincoln, was chosen; here the party chose that great chieftain, General Grant; here it nominated that honored soldier - that great statesman-that representative citizen-James A. Garfield (cheers); ev-WE learn that a B. & M. watchman ery action of the party on this historic

A most horrible accident occurred was insane and without other cause formed of men instructed by their republican party. The platform be hoped that the voice of the people in full, hereafter. would be largely puissant in its deliberations. [Applause.] He closed and proposed for temporary chairman Hon. Powell Clayton, of Arkansas. H. C. Lodge of Mass. proposed

John R. Lynch of Miss. This opened the first subject for debate, and speeches were made by Lodge of Mass., Morrow of Cala., Curtis of N. Y., Drummond of Maine, Stewart of Penn., Prentiss of Mo., Every boy should be given a trade. Roosevelt of N. Y., Carr of Ill., Taft of S. C., Winston of N. C., Green of Md., Thurston of Neb., and others.

Lynch was elected by a vote of 431 to 387 for Clayton, the Nebraska delegation voting as follows: Church says an old proverb, is done forever, Howe and E. L. Reed for Lynch, the remaining eight for Clayton. Mr. Lynch made a very happy, > impromptu speech. The committees on credentials, on rules, permanent organization and resolutions were annuouced, Nebrasks being represented on the committees, respectively, as follows: W. T. Scott, C. P. Matthewson, J. H.

McCall, N. R. Harwood. There was an interesting discussion upon the adoption of rules, that brought out some strong sentiments from southern republicans in regard to their representation in the national councils of the party. Broadley of among men, at the good old age of 83 Kentucky made a very earnest appeal for justice. Among other things he

"It is well known to this convention that in the South to-day our hurrans for Logan.] A native of the voices are stifled by fraud and force, state which he now represents in the and yet you are asked to take from pounded his 18-year-old son with a [Applause.] If in the South we are identified with them in interest, in faith on the one side and Republican disfranchisement on the other, may God ty. [Applause.] Three hundred thousand of her brave soldiers march- of war threatened the very life of this ed to the battle field and helped their nation, this gallant son of the Prairie brothers in the North to save the State resigned his seat in the Congress of A CATTLE roundup camp on Union. It was Florida in 1876 that the United States, returned to his home Senate. [Applause.] I say to you, brethren of the Republican States: South may in some states have a majority. Don't fall by the hands of Patrick Lynch, Jno. Smith, L. your own selves. * * * * Give name of Logan. [Applause.] His history Pelton and C. Hail. The bodies of Give us your encouragement and aid Believe to Develop the battles of Relieve to Develop the Battles the Battles to Develop the Battles the Battles to Develop the Battles the Battles to Develop the Battles to Develop the Battles the Ba as you give it to other states, and mark my word, if you do not find that West Virginia, North Carolina, plause.] He never lost a battle. Florida and the Old Dominion, in plause. I repeat again, Mr. President spite of Democratic shot guns, in spite and fellow citizens, he never lost a batof legalized murders that cry to God for vengcance, will give you their wait for orders, neither did he fail to electoral votes. Lynch, in his speech, stated that when he ran for congress in the 6th district of Mississippi in 1880, he knew there were not less than 5,000 authority of the Government, first a regvotes polled for him that were approved by the people. Strict jus-tice now is becoming more popular counted for the man that ran against army. He remained in the service until him. The official return gave him 5,000 of Lynch's votes, and he con- him, he marched into the capital of the sidered that if the amended rule was adopted it was virtually, saying to was mustered out of the service under southern republicans, "we will only the very shadow of the Capitol Building which he had left four years before as a admit you on what the Democrats member of Congress to go out and fight choose to give you." Warner of Missouri said that his which hath her victories, returned, he state cast 153,060 republican votes. They had fought democracy and re- tion. In a service of twenty years in bellion during the war, and are still fighting democracy, and he protested guished as a statesman than he was reagainst the Republican party giving and conservative in the advocacy of sanction to the frauds of the de- measures involving the public welfare, forcible and eloquent in debate, fearless mocracy in the south.

Stone of Iowa said he believed the William Mabones of the south should be encouraged in this con- one laurel from the brow of any

Mr. Townsend, of New York-I participated in the winter of 1876-7 in the people of this country than almost the endeavor to cast the electoral any other man now engaging public atvotes that we cast in this Union. We counted the votes, and with those which have given life and spirit and vicvotes we declared that Mr. Hayes tory to the Republican party than has was President of the United States by John A. Logan, of Illinois. [Loud cheers.] was President of the United States by lawful election. We found in those investigations that there were 20,000 more Republicans in South Carolina than there were Democrats. found that there were 15,000 more Republicans in Mississippi than there were Democrats, and perhaps 20,000. We found that there was a very large majority of Republicane in Louisiana, and a fair majority in Florida. Now. these facts having been developed and presented to the world, how will the Republican party ever say that because Bourbon violence came into the South and suppressed Republican votes in those states, we will disfranchise our faithful allies in the South? [Applause.] Judge William H. West, of Ohioheartily respond to the sentiments of Kentucky and to the sentiments of Missouri. I have lived in Kentucky in the day when Henry Clay was our pride and Crittenden our glory; I have lived in Virginia when Appomattox' apple tree was a sapling. These states have been my home. come to-day from the state of Chase. of Giddings, of Waite and of Corwin, illustrious men, who, with Garfield, look down upon us from above. Gentlemen, the Republican party has not yet fulfilled its mission. Although it has secured the personal liberty of a race of bondsmen, their political you may be assured that you will have liberties are not secured, and by the grace of God the Republican party must live until the home of Mahone must live until the home of Mahone and the home of Bradley and the home of Lynch shall be fully represented according to their strength. I am ready to raise the standard here. war until the scenes of Danville and Copiah shall be impossible under the flag of my country. I hope to God the day will never come when I shall be the member of a convention, the termined by the shotgun and the tissue ballot. After a few other similar speeches, Mr. Bishop withdrew his motion and the minority report was dropped, representation of which shall be de-

The committee on permanent organization reported in favor of Gen. Henderson of Mo. as permanent chairman, who, on taking the chair, made a brief address.

took place. McKinley, of the committee on is North; on it or to it are stretched own constituents; it was therefore to lengthy, and will be published by us forth the imploring hands of ten millions of political bondmen of the South, while above, from the portals At the evening session of June 5th, of light, is looking down the imthe presentation of caudidates being mortal spirit of the immortal martyr who first brought it victory, bidding with an expression of hope for victory in order, Mr. Brandegee of Conn., in us hail and godspeed. [Applause.] a lengthy and able speech put in nomination Gen. Joseph R. Hawley banner triumphed—that symbol of union, of freedom, of humanity, and of Conn.

Senator Collom of Ill., nominated | of progress, sometimes by that eilent Logan in the following speech: Senator Cullom-Mr. President and Gentlemen of the Convention: Twentyfour years ago the second national convention of the Republican party met in this city and nominated its first successful candidate for President of the United States—Abraham Lincoln. [Great applause.] Abraham Lincoln led the Republican party to its first great victory, and stands to-day in the estimation o the world as the grandest figure and most majestic figure in all modern time. [Applause.] Again, in 1868, another Re-publican convention came together in this city, and nominated as its candidate for President of the United States another eminent citizen of Illinois-General Ulysses S. Grant-[great applause]-and the Republican party was again victo-

Still again, in 1880, the Republican party turned its face toward this political of struggling freedom and bleeding Mecca, where two successful campaigns had been organized, and the martyred Garfield led the Republican party on to a glorious victory. [Great applause.]

Mr. President and fellow citizens, it is humanity which convulsed the continent, the republic rallied, united, inspired the forces of patriotism and the force of humanity in one congood for us to be here. There are omens solidated phalanx. These great isof victory in the air. History repeats itself. There are promises of triumph sues have ceased their contention. to the Republican party in holding its national nominating conventions in this great emporium of the Northwest. The The subordinate issues resulting therefrom are settled and buried away with the dead issues of the past. The commonwealth of Illinois, which has never wavered in its devotion to Repubodds of a solid South are against us. lican principles since it gave to the na-Not an electoral gun can be expected tion, aye, to the world, the illustrious from that section. If triumph comes Lincoln, has commissioned me, through the Republican states of the North its voters, to present to this convention must furnish the concurring battafor its consideration as the standardbearer of the Republican party, another lions from the farm, the anvil, and the son of the Illinois, one whose name will loom, from the workshop and the be recognized from one end of this land deek, from the huts of the trapper on to the other as an able statesman, a brilthe snowy Sierra, from the hut of the liant soldier, and an honest man-John A. Logan, of Illinois. [Applause long fisherman on the banks of the Hudcontinued, waving of handkerchiefs, and son. As the Republican states must furnish these concurring battallions if triumph comes, does not sound councils of the nation, reared among the political wisdom dictate and demand youth of a section where every element of manhood is early brought into play that a leader shall be given to them he is eminently a man of the peopl whom more people will follow, not as conscripts marching by funeral marches to certain defeat, but a grand thy, respect and confidence. The safety, civic hero whom the souls of the nation depend upon the courage, the inpeople desire to serve [applause], swelling the lines with the enthusiasm of volunteers as they sweep on and the integrity of the Union was menaced by organized treason, when the storm onward to certain victory. In this contention of forces, to whom, as candidate, shall be intrusted our battle flag? Citizens, I am not here, and may my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth if I abate one tithe from the just fame, integrity and public honor of Chester A. Arthur, in time of war men must be either patriots I abate not one tithe from the just or traitors, and he threw his mighty influence on the side of the Union, and fame and public integrity of George everything in its path. The names of ing in this country when you may be the history of states in the struggle to Hawley [applause], of John Sherman eagle of Illinois-[yells and applause] soldiers of the late war whose names are proudly written on the scroll of fame and I am proud to know that these distinguished Senators whom I have and the public integrity of him for burg, of Lookout Mountain, of Atlanta, whose confirmation they voted to an office second in dignity to the office must fight this battle, I nominate of President itself-to the first there was fighting to be done he did not obey orders when they were received. [Applause.] His plume, like the white plume of Henry of Navarre, was always premiership in the administration of James A. Garfield. [Applause.] The man for whom these Senators and rivals will vote for Secretary of State of the United States is good enough to be seen at the point where the battle for the plain flesh and blood of God's raged the hottest. During the long people to vote for President. Who struggle of four year; he commanded by shall be our candidate? [Cries of Blaine and prolonged applause.] Not iment, then a brigade, then a division, the representative of a particular interest or a particular class. Send to the close of the war, when at the head of his army, with the scars of battle upon the country a doctor's candidate, a lawyer's candidate, a banker's candidate, a Wall street candidate, and the hand of resurection will not had led on a hundred hard-fought fields fathom his November grave. [Laughter.] He must be a representative of American manhood. [Applause.] A representative of that living Repubthe battles of his country. [Applause.] When the war was over and gentle peace, licanism that demands the amplest industrial protection and opportunity whereby labor shall be enabled to take his place in the councils of the naearn and eat the bread of independent employment, relieved of mendicant both houses of Congress he has shown himself to be no less able and distincompetition with pauper Europe or pagan China. [Applause.] He must now ned as a soldier. Cautious, prudent be a representative of that Republicanism that demands the absolute political as well as bodily emanicipa-—yes, I repeat again—fearless in defense of the rights of the weak against the option of mankind; a representative of that Republicanism which recognizes pression of the strong, he stands to-day, and I say it without disposition to pluck whose name may be presented to this convention—I say he stands to-day, in my judgment, closer to the great mass of tention. [Applause.] No man has done more in defense of those principles

In all that goes to make up a brilliant military and civil career to commend a man to the favor of the people he whose name we have presented here to-night best. We ask you, therefore, to give him this nomination because it would not be assailed, and it is not assailable. We ask you to nominate him because his public record is so clean that even prolific calumny dare not attack it. We ask you dreds of thousands of veteran yolunteer soldiers who are to-night, all over this broad land, standing around the telegraph offices waiting to know whether that gallant leader of the volunteer sol-behalf of the white and colored Republi-hundreds, black and white, appealing to this convention as the representatives of tion and to vindicate them of their rights in the midst of this vast assembly of representative citizens of this grand republic; aye, in the sublime presence of the people themselves represented here to-night in all their majesty, we offer you the name of the tried hero and patriot.

John A. Logan, of Illinois, and ask home and peace abroad, and in the interest of the prosperity of this great people. [Loud and continued applause.]

-Here the clerk read the roll of states on down to Maine, when smid the wildest applauding, cheering and waving of hats, umbrellas and handkerchiefs which lasted for many minutes and was repeated again and Mr. West-The most grateful service of my life was performed by again, Mr. West, of Ohio, arose.

the stamp of American statemanship as the passport to every right, privilege and consideration at home or abroad. Whether under the sky of Bismarck, under the palmetto, under Mohawk, that Republicanism regards | made unanimous. with dissatisfaction a depotism which, under the sic semper tyrannis of the Old Dominion, annihilates popular majorities in the name of Democracy; a Republicanism that is embodied and stated in the platform of principles this day adopted by our conventive is James G. Blaine, of Maine. A perfect deluge of applause. roar of enthusiasm, gigantic howls of delight interrupted the speaker, continuing for over fifteen minutes. It was as if the waters of a Niagara that had been kept in space by mighty powers suddenly broke loose, filling the air with the deep, sonorous roar diers of this country is to receive the of a colossal descent. There was no nomination at your hands. [Loud attempt to check it—that would have cheers.] We ask you to nominate him in been useless. The band struck in time and again, people tore the flags supporting the shields bearing the cans of the South, who are here by the states' arms from their fastenings and our grand old party to give them protecwaved them frantically in the air. used handkerchiefs, hats, umbrellas, in the South. Now, my friends, standing newspapers, coats -- anything they could lay hold on-to demonstrate their enthusiasm and satisfaction. The demonstration exceeded that of four years ago in favor of Grant by the sagacious and incorruptible states. far, and it was useless to check it. It man, the man who though defeated never had to run its course, and that it did sulked in his tent; we offer you General at the end of sixteen minutes.] make him your nominee. [Cheers.] If you will give him the nomination he will give you a glorious victory in November, and when he shall have taken his position as President of this great republic.

After the applause, which lasted subsided Judge West continued: Gentlemen of the convention, it has been heard that in the convention of t curing the Republican vote and carrying the State of New York. Cheers. | Gentlemen, the Republi-The blind orator of Ohio, Judge can party demands of this convention West, nominates the Plumed Knight. a nominee whose inspiration and glorious prestige shall carry the Presidency with or without New York-[loud cheers]-that will carry the Legislatures of the several states : millions of Republicans believe that voting for the nomination of that in- that man, who from the baptism of spired emancipator, the first Repub- blood on the plains of Kansas to the ican President of the United States. fall of the martyred Garfield, where Applause.] Four and twenty years ever humanity desired succor, wherof the grandest history in the annals ever freedom called for protection, reverses have threatened; our flag is of the battle seemed to wave the

The usual routine of organization of the Presidency, not a stain on its Henry of Navarre. [Cheers.] this great council. With bated ders of the October victory in Ohio. COLUMBUS BOOMING!

WM. BECKER.

Six times in six campaigns has that man of destiny, the Wellington of American armies, Ulysses the Great

-[applause]--last by him at whose Commit it to the bearing of that chief the inspiration of whose illustrious character and great name will flare the beart of our young men, stir the blood of manhood and rekindle the the seventh campaign will see that Political conditions are changed since the accession of the Republican party to power. The mighty issues the bow of promise. [Applause.]

DEALER IN ALL KINDS OF

STAPLE AND FAMILY:

untimely taking off a nation swelled GROCERIES the funeral cry and wept above great Garfield's grave. [Great applause.] Show that banner of triumph again.

KEEP CONSTANTLY ON HAND A WELL SELECTED STOCK.

fervor of the veteran, and the close of Teas, Coffees, Sugar, Syrups, Dried and Canned Fruits. holy eneign standing to the sky like and other Staples a Specialty.

> Delivered Free to any part of the City.

Cor. Thirteenth and K Streets, near A. & N. Depot.

CHEAP FUEL! Whitebreast Lump Coal 5.00 Nut " 4.50 Colorado Hard TA GOOD SUPPLY.

TAYLOR, SCHUTTE & CO.

JACOB SCHRAM,

-)DEALER IN(-

DRY GOODS!

Boots & Shoes, Hats & Caps,

FURNISHING GOODS AND NOTIONS

LOW PRICES FOR CASH.

THE REVOLUTION

Goods and Clothing Store

Has on hand a splendid stock of

Ready-made Clothing. Dry Goods, Carpets, Hats, Caps, Etc., Etc.,

t prices that were never heard of before in Columbus.

I buy my goods strictly for cash and will give my customers the our President. [Rounds of applause.] Give Me a call and covince yourself of the facts.

patra's Needle. [Cheers.] Nominate CONDON & MCKENZIE him and the millions who are now in waiting will rally to swell the colnamed have borne like testimony to umns of victory that will sweep on the public life, the public character In the name of a majority of the delegates from the Republican states

> James G. Blaine, of Maine. [Loud and long-continued applause. Blaine's nomination by West was well seconded by Gov. Davis o Minn., Gen. Goodloe of Ky., Ex-Senator Thos. C. Platt of N. Y., and > and their glorious constituencies who Galusha A. Grow of Penn. Townsend of N. Y., nominated Chester A. Arthur. On assembling Friday morning, the convention proceeded to ballot, as

FIRST .-- Blaine 3341/2; Arthur 278; Edmunds 93; Logan 631/2; Jno. Sherman 30; Hawley 13; Lincoln 3; Gen. Sherman 2. Second.-Blaine 349; Arthur 276;

Edmunds 85: Logan 61; Jno. Sher man 28; Hawley 13; Lincoln 4; Gen Sherman 2. THIRD .-- Blaine 375; Arthu: 274;

man 25; Hawley 13; Lincoln 8; Gen FOURTH .-- Blaine 544; Arthur 267 Edmunds 41; Hawley 15; Logan 7

Edmunds 69; Logan 53; Jno. Sher-

Lincoln 2. Gen. Jno. A. Logan of Illinois was then nominated for vice-president the vote being unanimous except 7 of the pelican, or upon the banks of the N. Y. The nomination was then

FINAL PROOF.

Land Office at Grand Island, Neb., May 23d, 1884. NOTICE is hereby given that the following-named settler has filed tion. Gentlemen, such a representa- notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and that said proof will be made before the Judge braska, on the 12th day of July, 1884, viz: John Flakus, Homestead No. 8098, for the N. E. ¼, of N. E. ¼, Section 20, Township 17, north, of Range 1 west. He names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon, and cultivation of, said land, viz: Borowiak, V. Losek, John Treba, Sobastyan Formanski, all of Duncan P.O., Platte Co., Neb. 5-6 C. HOSTETTER, Register.

FINAL PROOF.

Land Office at Grand Island, Neb., May 9, 1884. YOTICE is hereby given that the fol-I lowing-named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and that said proof will be made before Judge of the District day of June, 1884, viz:
John A. Griffey, Homestead Entry No.
8166, for the S. E. 1/2, S. 12, in Township 19, north Range 3 west. He names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon, and cultivation of,

FINAL PROOF.

U. S. Land Office, Grand Island, Neb.)
March 3d, 1884,
NOTICE is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and that said proof will be made before Clerk of District Court for Platte county, at Columbus, Neb., on June 12th, 1884, viz: Hugh McCarvel, Homestead No. 8624 for the E. 1/2 of S. W. 1/2 and W. 1/2 of S. E. 1/2 Section 27, Township 20, Range 3 west. that shall sweep to the Congressional districts sufficiently to recover the House of Representatives and restore it to the Republican party. Three millions of Republican shallows the live the Republican party. Three cabe, Thomas McPhillips, Martin Maher and Michael Clark, all of Postville, Neb. C. HOSTETTER, Register.

May 12th, 1884.

FINAL PROOF. Land Office at Grand Island, Neb.,

of recorded time have distinguished the ascendency of the Republican party. The skies have lowered, reverses have threatened; our flag is still there, waving above the maneion | white plume of James G. Blaine, our | the District Court, at Columbus, Nebraska, on the 28th day of June, 1884, viz: of the Presidency, not a stain on its fold, not a cloud on its glory. Whether it shall maintain that grand ascendency depends on the action of the September victory in Maine this great council. With bated ders of the October victory in Ohio.

Henry of Navarre. [Cheers.]

Sir, nominate him and the shouts of the September victory in Maine will be re-echoed back by the thunting witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon, and cultivation selling book in America. Immense prof-

I. GLUCK.

Cor. Olive and 13th Sts.,

Have always on hand a new and full

Well Selected.

Dried and Canned Fruits of all kinds guaranteed to be best quality.

DRY GOODS!

A well selected new stock which will be sold as cheap as the cheapest,

BOOTS AND SHOES,

A NEW AND WELL SELECTED STOCK TO CHOOSE FROM.

BUTTER, EGGS and POULTRY, and all kinds of country produce taken market prices. WESTERN IOWA NORMAL in trade or bought for cash at the highest

-SCIENTIFIC AND-COMMERCIAL COLLEGE

COUNCIL BLUFFS, - IOWA,

Will Open THE 23d of JUNE, 1884.

A complete course for teachers and those desiring a higher English educain actual business practice and general correspondence, short hand, ornamental penmanship, elecution, German and mu-Splendid rooms, large, light and sic. Splendid rooms, large, light and well furnished, charges very moderate, cost of living reasonable, society good, experienced teachers. For further par-

BEARDSLEY & PAULSON, Council Bluffs, Iowa. HENRY LUERS

DEALER IN

CHALLENGE

AND PUMPS. Buckeve Mower, co Binder, wire or twine.

Pumps Repaired on short notice One door west of Heintz's Drug Store, 11th Street, Columbus, Neb. HENNINGS IMPROVED ELASTIC SECTION

ROTHSCHILD, JOSEPH & CO.,

FRIEDHOF & CO. TANTITO wanted for The Lives