Major Frank North.

Saturday morning, the Chicago dailies of Friday arrived with the first news concerning an accident happening to Major Frank North, on | Tuesday. Thursday, and all his friends here, which includes everybody, anxious to bear from him. Hartford Courant of Aug. 1st, contains this mention :

"ACCIDENT TO A FRONTIERSMAN-SHOW TRAMPLED BY A HORSE AND SCORE. BADLY HURT. The 4,000 people who gathered at

Charter Oak park yesterday afternoon to witness the representations of far western life as depicted by

Buffalo Bill's Wild West organization, saw an accident which will rob that enterprise of one of its shining lights, if not forever, for the reday's performance had just begun when Major Frank North fell from his horse and had seven ribs broken and his spine injured to some extent. The Omaha, Pawnee and Sioux Indians, the Mexican vaqueros, the cow-boys and "star" frontiersmen had the grand stand by Buffalo Bill, at the wagon they kept him "running the conclusion of the grand equestrian entree, and were scurrying down the track, when the girth of Major North's saddle broke and he fell to the ground. Before Major North could get up, the pony of an on-rushing Indian struck him on the back with his fore feet, with the result stated. Great excitement prevailed in the grand stand as the cavalcade wheeled about to see the result of the accident. A physician was called for and Dr. Peltier responded from the audience. He immediately took charge of the injured frontiersman and had him acquaintances at the U. P. depot removed to Oakwood hotel where every care was shown him. The advent. Major stood his sufferings bravely and without a murmur. He has for a long time been a great sufferer completed a very successful term of from asthma, and this complaint in connection with the injuries received vesterday renders his condition decidedly critical. It is believed, he will not be able to exercise for months to come. Major North is one of the foremost frontiersmen who has visited the east. He is a member of the Nebraska legislature and is associated with Buffalo Bill in an extensive cattle ranche near North Platte in that state. During the late civil war Major North organized from the Pawnee tribe of Indiana several White Chief of the Pawnees, and the Mr. and Mrs. N. D.
