WHEN the would-be friends of Ireland adopt the arguments of her bitter enemies, there must be something wrong. For twenty years the arch enemies of Irish freedom have been hounding her patriots and nobles...

Political. Preparations are being made in New York for at least two meetings to be held in the city soon of the Irish-Americans in the interest of Mr. Blaine...

The Democratic papers that have claimed Hamilton Fish for Cleveland ought now to correct the "mistake." "MAINE was republican anyhow, and it don't make any difference, practically, how great the majority figure."

"We have very little faith in politicians who do not love their country, and who fail to see the hand of the oppressor in measures calculated to cripple and destroy the business of their fellow citizens."

"The principle of the public regulation of railway corporations is a wise and salutary one for the protection of all classes of people, and its favor legislation that shall prevent unjust discrimination and excessive charges for transportation, and that shall secure to the people and to the railways alike the fair and equal protection of the laws."

"It is claimed that the democrats will have in a few days a subject that will demand more of their attention than the Mulligan letters. They will be confronted with Grover Cleveland's free trade record. His denial of his having tried to influence members of congress to vote for the Morrison bill will not stand. It can be shown that he wrote to speaker Carlisle, W. R. Morrison, and Mr. Dorsheimer expressing opinions favorable to the bill."

"Three cheers for" Higgins, "he was witty last week,—but hold on, come to think of it," we cannot cheer very lustily, for the wit consisted merely in writing a man's name and a man is not entitled to much praise for "wit" so close fetched. The talented and influential editor of the Irish World has quite a number of admirers even in this country, and will probably survive the ordeal of having his name spelled with small letters."

Fisher and Mulligan letters were given the public with a view to prejudice the people against Mr. Blaine. Mr. Blaine has been interviewed relative to those letters and says that his desire was that every voter in the United States might read the letters for himself and not form his judgment from editorial misrepresentations in partisan journals. There was not a word in the letters, Mr. Blaine added, which was not entirely consistent with the most scrupulous integrity and honor. He hoped every republican paper in the United States would publish the letters in full.

The Electrical Display. The exhibit at Philadelphia has opened. 228,000 square feet of space are set apart for the buildings. There are twenty-one exhibitors of electric lights and methods of generating light by electricity, and 4500 lamps, which, when lit, produce a wonderful effect, being so arranged that no shadow is to be seen. A correspondent says that a flood of white light rivaling day in purity and brilliancy falls over everything.

The Edison Company have a splendid display of the work of the great inventor. An electric railway is to be one of the most interesting features of the exhibit. Several sewing machines, looms, a ruling machine and a printing press are run by electricity. The display of telephones includes the original instrument used by Bell, and others showing his progress towards perfection. An electric organ pours forth music, electric clocks tick, and a brood of chickens hatched by an electric incubator "peep" to the delight of visitors.

The third session of the North Nebraska annual M. E. conference met at Blair, Sept. 10th, with Bishop Willard F. Malliaie presiding, who at the close of the session read the appointments for the several districts composing the North Nebraska conference. Among them we note Albin, J. L. St. Clair, Central City J. B. Leedom, Cedar Rapids C. C. Wilson, Clarks J. A. Fleharty, Columbus E. J. Robinson, Grand Island Z. S. Rhone, St. Edwards J. W. Jennings, Humphrey J. R. Gearhart, Madison C. F. Heywood, Schuyler R. B. Wilson.

CITIZENSHIP of the republic must be the panoply and safeguard of him who wears it. The American citizen, rich or poor, native or naturalized, white or colored, must everywhere walk secure in his personal and civil rights. The republic should never accept a lesser duty, it can never assume a nobler one, than the protection of the humblest man who owes it loyalty—protection at home, and abroad, which shall follow him and protect him wherever land he may go upon a lawful errand.—[James G. Blaine.

A TERRIBLE murder was reported the other day from Coal Valley, Fayette county, West Virginia, in which Smith Olden and Alexander Tinecher were involved in a quarrel, when Olden struck Tinecher with an axe, cleaving his breast open from the right shoulder through both lungs and heart, part of the heart dropping out of the gaping wound. The murderer was arrested.

Two masked men entered the house of Miss Mary Giffeller, near Mansfield, Ohio, the other night, and demanded her money. She gave them $150, claiming that was all she had. The robbers then bound her and applied a burning lamp to her feet, endeavoring to extort more money, but the young woman persisted she had given it all up. The villains then left the premises.

The Young Men's Republican Club of Plattsmouth sends Dr. Miller of Omaha a pair of suspenders, so that when he addresses an audience, if his vest is so short that he cannot pull it down, he may be able to draw his pants up. The next time the Dr. speaks to a fastidious Plattsmouth audience, he should wear a longer vest.

FOREIGNERS in this state to entitle them to vote should take out their declaration papers thirty days before the election. If we count correctly, the time for doing this will expire on the 5th of October. Those who love their country will not fail to cast their votes, and at once attend to securing the necessary papers.

SENATOR VAN WYCK delivered the other afternoon a spicy address at the Saline county fair. He didn't dwell so much on raising crops to make money, as cutting down freights and taxes and squaring up the school land frauds. By his remarks he relieved Gov. Dawes of school-land frauds.

CAPT. W. L. ELLSWORTH has accepted the nomination for President of the United States tendered him by the American political alliance, and will stump Louisiana, Tennessee, Maryland and Virginia. The headquarters of the alliance will be removed from Boston to Philadelphia.

A SWARM of bees have colonized in the mummy of an ox that has lain on the alkali flat, near Dayton, Nev., for two years or so, and the interior of the carcass is full of honey. The skin is intact over the whole skeleton, and is rigid as iron. The bees pass in and out at the mouth of the animal.

A RECENT dispatch from Hong Kong says the French man-of-war Atlanta boarded a regular Hong Kong trading junk and threw its cannon, guns and ammunition aboard. The merchants of Hong Kong are greatly irritated at the action of the French.

JACOB WITMER, who resides five miles north of Elm Creek station, was found dead the other day, having had his neck broken by the upsetting of a wagon as he was returning from Kearney. A German woman was with him and had one shoulder fractured.

The London Times not long ago contained what is probably the longest editorial on record. It filled seven columns. The Atlanta Constitution says we have had editors in this country who wrote editorial columns long, but they are dead.

Correspondence.

In this department the people talk, and the editor. Each writer must hold a B. J. diploma ready for production, and his statements of facts. "In the multitude of counsel there is wisdom."—[Ed. JOURNAL.]

About the only "reason" the Blaine Irishmen give for their apostasy to the democratic party is that Harper's Weekly, George William Curtis and a few other old enemies have come over to the democrats. We read a short time ago that several prominent Englishmen had joined the Catholic church. In order to discuss their old religion. Why adhere to a church that will admit an old enemy into its fold.—[Democrat Sept. 13th.

Mrs. R. L. STUART recently deposited $50,000 in the United States, Trust Company, to be used by the Children's Aid Society in building a lodging-house for homeless boys on the east side of the Hudson.

MISS GRACE BABB, of Maine, who is the first woman graduate of a college of pharmacy, has gone to the woman's Medical College of Philadelphia to lecture on chemistry, as assistant to Dr. Rachel Bodley.

The oyster interest in New York employs $20,000,000 capital and about 16,000 men in the wholesale trade alone. Gotham's average daily consumption of the bivalve is 35,000 bushels.

OUT west men who are not members of the Salt Lake church, but who for business or political reasons affiliate and sympathize with the polygamists, are called "Jack Mormons."

The President has appointed Harry Kilingbury, son of Lieut. Kilingbury, who lost his life in the Greeley expedition, as a cadet-at-large to the naval academy at Annapolis.

ALREADY at a depth of eighty-five feet at Brownville, Neb., a vein of coal six inches has been struck. The people are greatly excited with the prospect of obtaining coal.

A CORRESPONDENT, writing from the Valley of the Amazon, says that stalks of fan-grass are found in that region which measure thirty-five feet from the ground.

The best record of a homing pigeon has just been made by a Fall River bird. The course, 214 miles, was flown in 275 minutes, average 1,329 yards a minute.

IN Newfoundland the codfish catch has failed, and hundreds of families are starving or living on devil-fish. Such news has a strange sound in this land of plenty.

The acting secretary of the treasury has issued warrants for $166,666 in favor of the directors of the New Orleans exposition, being the second installment.

"We believe that everywhere the protection to a citizen of American birth must be secured to citizens of American adoption."—[Republican Platform.
