Single coples.

U.S. Examining Surgeons,

Local Surgeons, Union Pacific, O., N. & B. H. and B. & M. R. R's. Consultations in German and English. Telephones at office and residences.

Office over First National Bank. NEBRASKA. COLUMBUS,

F. WILSON, M. D.,

PHYSICIAN & SURGEON. Diseases of women and children a specialty. County physician. Office former-ly occupied by Dr. Bonesteel. Telephone exchange.

OLLA ASHBAUGH, D. D. S. DENTAL PARLOR, On corner of Eleventh and North streets over Ernst's hardware store,

J. HUDSON, NOTARY PUBLIC. 12th Street, 2 doors west of Hammond House

Columbus, Neb. G. REEDER,

ATTORNEY AT LAW, Office on Olive St., Columbus, Nebraska 2-tf

V. A. MACKEN, DEALER IN

Foreign and Domestic Liquors and Cigars. 11th street, Columbus, Neb. 50-y

MCALLISTER BROS., ATTORNEYS AT LAW,

Office up-stairs in McAllister's building, 11th St. W. A. McAllister, Notary

TOHN TIMOTHY.

NOTARY PUBLIC AND CONVEYANCER. Keeps a full line of stationery and school supplies, and all kinds of legal forms. lusures against fire, lightning, cyclone and tornadoes. Office in Powell's Block, 19-X

B. R. COWDERY, J. M. MACFARLAND, LAW AND COLLECTION OFFICE

MACFARLAND & COWDERY, : : : Nebraska.

F. P. RUNNER, M. D., (Successor to Dr. C. G. A. Hullhorst) HOMEOPATHIC PHYSICIAN AND

Regular graduate of two medical colleges. Office up stairs in brick building north of State Bank. 2-1y

J. J. MAUGHAN,

Justice, County Surveyor, Notary, Land and Collection Agent.

notify me by mail at Platte Centre, Neb.

L H. RUSCHE, 11th St., opposite Lindell Hotel.

Sells Harness, Saddles, Collars, Whipe

Blankets, Curry Combs, Brushes, trunks valises, buggy tops, cushions, carriage trimmings, &c., at the lowest possible prices. Repairs premptly attended to.

H. LAWRENCE, DEPUTY CO. SURVEYOR.

Will do general surveying in Platte and adjoining counties. Office with S. C. COLUMBUS,

S. MURDOCK & SON, Carpenters and Contractors.

Have had an extended experience, and will guarantee satisfaction in work. All kinds of repairing done on short notice. Our motto is, Good work and fair prices. Call and give us an oppo tunity to estimate for you. Shop on 13th St., one door west of Friedhof & Co's. store, Columbus, Nebr.

O.C.SHANNON MANUFACTURER OF

Tin and Sheet-Iron Ware Job-Work, Roofing and Guttering a Specialty.

Shop on Olive Street, 2 doors north of Brodfeubrer's Jewelry Store.

G W. CLARK,

LAND AND INSURANCE AGENT HUMPHREY, NEBR. His lands comprise some fine tracts in the Shell Creek Valley, and the north-

paid for non-residents. Satisfaction

COLUMBUS PACKING CO.,

COLUMBUS, - NEB., Packers and Dealers in all kinds of Hog product, cash paid for Live or Dead Hogs or grease. Directors.-R. H Henry, Prest.; John Wiggins, Sec. and Treas.; L. Gerrard, S.

TAMES SALMON,

braska.

CONTRACTOR AND BUILDER. Plans and estimates supplied for either frame or brick buildings. Good work guaranteed. Shop on 13th Street, near JOHN DUGGAN. St. Paul Lumber Yard, Columbus, Ne-

MOTICE TO TEACHERS.

J. E. Moncrief, Co. Supt. Will be in his office at the Court House on the third Saturday of each month for the purpose of examining applicants for teacher's certificates, and for the transactton of any other business pertaining to schools.

$200,000 in presents given away. Send us 5 cents postage, and by mail you will get free a package of goods of large value, that will start you in work that will at once bring you in money faster than anything else in America. All about the $200,000 in presents with each box. Agents wanted everywhere, of either sex, of all ages, for all the time, or spare time only, to work for us at their own homes. Fortunes for all workers absolutely assured. Don't delay. H. HAL-LETT & Co., Portland, Maine.

Columbus

VOL. XV.--NO. 36.

COLUMBUS, NEB., WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 31, 1884.

Mutchakewis, who exercised more authority and assumed more state than would be compatible with the present feelings of the Indians. The designa-tion was official, not individual, and the office was hereditary in the direct male line. He was supported by voluntary ontributions, his muskinews or "provider" making known his necessities from time to time by public proclamsthese were men and two women. They were all married, but the wives of these men employed in this service were required to cook and do the necessary domestic service, while the husbands of the women engaged in the sacred duties were always engaged in hunting, and providing whatever else was wanted. The persons devoted to the altar were thus left without any secular women, the former selecting a husband and the latter a wife for the services

whenever either of these eight persons died. The chain was thus always un-came dangerously ill, if not too far distant, he was taken to the house of the guished and a brand taken from the al-

eight years the whole Chippewa tribe and by them to the men, who each in turn smoked it in the same brief but parted for their different villages. The

IN PARIS.

French Capital.

warm-hearted, hot-headed, loyal and vet rebellious, peaceful and still belligerent people are slumbering, what memories of blood and riot and ruin come trooping up in the brain of the beholder. Again the air seems filled vards run red with French blood, and the glorious architecture of forgotten sarcophagus, no matter how cheaply he Moving toward the background, we come suddenly upon the Bourse, the imposing coup d'etat, the Palais des Beaux-Arts, the Bon-Bon, and the Champs de Dofunny. Farther on rests

the Grand Boulevard de Parleyvoo, river farther, and still beyond the Palais

How fresh in my memory still rests

My next letter will be from Rome.

-There are about 100,000 coloud

There may be more beautiful sights, effect and striking in its operation to connection with this curious custom appear as a direct emanation from the are not a few, many of them being of a Deity. But there was a uniformity of highly romantic and poetic nature.

WHOLE NO. 764.

COLUMBUS STATE BANK!

COLUMBUS, NEB.

CASH CAPITAL,

DIRECTORS:

LEANDER GERRARD, Pres't. GEO. W. HULST, Vice Pres't. JULIUS A. REED.

> R. H. HENRY. J. E. TASKER, Cashier.

Bank of Deposit, Discount and Exchange.

Collections Promptly Made on all Points.

Pay Interest on Time Depos

HENRY GASS.

 ${f UNDERTAKER!}$

COFFINS AND METALLIC CASES

AND DEALER IN Purniture, Chairs, Bedsteads, Bureaus Tables, Safes. Lounges, &c., Picture Frames and Mouldings.

 Repairing of all kinds of Upholstery Goods. 6-tf COLUMBUS, NEB.

HENRY LUERS

DEALER IN

CHALLENGE

AND PUMPS.

Buckeye Mower, combined, Self Binder, wire or twine.

Parties desiring surveying done can Pumps Repaired on short notice

One door west of Heintz's Drug Store, 11th Street, Columbus, Neb.

HELP for working people. Send 10 cents postage, and we will mail you free a toyal yelmail you free, a royal, valuable sample box of goods that will put you in the way of making more money in a few days than you ever thought possible at any business. Capital not required. You can live at home and work in spare time only, or all the time. All of both sexes, of all ages, grandly successful. 50 cents to $5 easily earned every evening. That all who want work may test the business, we make this unparalleled offer: To all who are not well satisfied we will send $1 to pay for the trouble of writing us. Full particulars, directions, etc., sent free. Immense pay absolutely sure for all who start at once. Don't delay. Address STINSON & Co., Portland, Maine.

A WORD OF WARNING.

FARMERS, stock raisers, and all other I interested parties will do well to emember that the "Western Horse and Cattle Insurance Co." of Omaha is the only company doing business in this state that insures Horses, Mules and Cattle against loss by theft, accidents, diseases, or injury, (as also against loss by fire and withstanding.

P. W. HENRICH, Special Ag't, Columbus, Neb.

NO HUMBUG!

But a Grand Success.

P. BRIGHAM'S AUTOMATIC WA-ter Trough for stock. He refers to every man who has it in use. Call on or leave orders at George Yale's, opposite Ochlrich's grocery. 9-6m ern portion of Platte county .- Taxes | Ochlrich's grocery.

J. WAGNER,

Livery and Feed Stable.

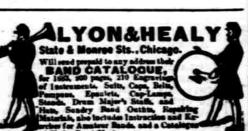

Is prepared to furnish the public with good teams, buggies and carriages for all occasions, especially for funerals. Also conducts a sale stable.

TRANSIT HOUSE, PLATTE CENTER NEB.

Augusta, Maine.

The best accommodation for the traveling public guaranteed. Food good, and plenty of it. Beds clean and comfortable, charges low, as the lewest.

PRIZE. Send six cents in postage, and receive free, a costly box of goods which will help you to more money right away than anything else in this world. All, of either sex, succeed from first hour. The broad road to fortune opens before the workers, absolutely sure. At once address, TRUE & Co.,

INDIAN SUMMER.

What perfect days are those that sometimes When latest autumn still retains its prime;
The plenteous harvests all are gathered in;
A lull succeeds the toil of summer time,
As if the year would linger ere it leaves,
To rest awhile amid its garnered sheaves.

A dreamy, brooding stience wraps the earth,
As wraps the purple haze the distant hills;
The joyous molody of birds has ceased,
But nature's undertone the silence thrills,
And still the blue of summer tints the sky,
Though wary birds take wing and southward fly.

How softly now the mellow sunlight falls, As if in blessing on the waning year; Not in the fervid heats of glowing June, But with a chastened radiance far m

It's fragrant mem'ry when the blossom

O rare, brief season, thou hast all the charm Of summer's gladness blent with thine own peace.

How like thou art to beautiful old age—
The restful calm where active labors cease;
And, pausing on life's threshold ere he leaves,
One sees Heaven's sunlight smiling on his

-M. K. Buck, in Chicago Advance. SACRED FIRE.

A Former Interesting Custom of North American Indians.

Its Probable Origin - A Legend of the Natchez-The "Living Sacrifice of the Sacred Fire"-Kept Perpetually Burning.

One of the most peculiar and interesting customs of the North American Indians, which, with many others are now preserved only in tradition, was that of keeping alive the sacred eternal fire. the council was held. After the termi-All the rites and duties connected with nation of the business a portion was it are probably remembered by some of carefully returned and the remainder the veterans of the Western tribes, but extinguished. Whenever a person beit is not known to have been observed after the arrival of the French upon the Mutchekewis, where his fire was extingreat lakes.

It is a favorite theme, however, tar, the fire rekindled, at which a feast powerful nation of the Natchez. These and the viands consumed. It is carbon (Wyoming) Coal 6.00 Indians were of a higher type of intelligence, probably, than any other tribe. The prevalence of a custom similar to assembled at their principal village this of our Indians among the natives "about the season of the buds." Harly of the East, from a very early period, is in the morning the great pipe was well known to all who have traced the lighted at the sacred fire, and delivered history and progress of human super- to the Mutchekewis. He took one puff stitions. From them it found its way and then delivered it to the women, to Greece, and eventually to Rome. It is not, perhaps, surprising that the element of fire should be selected as the solemn manner. It was then passed to object of worship by nations ignorant of the children. This ceremony occupied the true religion, and seeking safety in the greater part of the day. Early on that system of polytheism which de- the following morning a feast was held, North Side Eleventh St. clared the manners and the morals of at which the men, women and children the most polished people of antiquity. silently ate in separate groups, and in The affections and instinct seemed to the evening of the second day they derequire something tangible and visible for their support, and this mysterious fire was called Kangagerskoote, or the agent was sufficiently powerful in its everlasting fire. The legends told in the mode of worship and in the princi- What led to the discontinuance of this ples of its observance which leaves no custom, which had such a firm hold doubt of the common origin of this upon the religious or superstitious feelbelief. The sacred flame was not only re- mysteries that has never yet been exgarded as the object of veneration, but plained. But there is not known on its preservation was indissolubly con- the North American continent to-day nected with the existence of the State. any people or tribe who practice in any It was the visible emblem of public form this custom of the orientals. safety, guarded by chosen ministers, secured by dreadful imprecations and punishments and made holy by a solemn and imposing ritual. The coincidences which will be found between Giddy Bill Nye's Observations on the Gay these observances and opinions and the ceremonies and belief of the Indians indicate with sufficient certainty that perhaps, than the quiet beauty of the their notions upon this subject were French capital sleeping in the moonbrought from the Eastern hemisphere, and were derived from the fruitful Persian stock. It is not known positively that this custom existed among any other tribes than the Iroquois, the Chip- tifications to where nearly two million pewas, the Natchez and the Shawnees. It is certain that the Natchez were fireworshipers, and without giving full credit to all the marvelous tales related of this tribe by the early French settlers and travelers, we may yet be satisfied from the many concurring accounts that they were believers in the efficacy with the wild roar and rush of the of an eternal fire. According to one riotous canaille, the beautiful bouleof the legends, this tribe should have been of Asiatic origin, for they were unanimous and sincere in centuries crumbles and yields to the following the most poetical of all mad tide of revolution and revenge. the idolatries of the East. Another From the early days of infant Paris. curious fact is that they held woman in known then as Lutetia Parisorum, when the highest respect, and with a gallantry the French eapital was simply an outquite uncommon to the Aborigines, they ascribed the salvation of their race to one of the sex usually degraded and of National debts and overskirts, we despised by them. The tradition in trace the wonderful career of the great substance is as follows: Many thousands city. Again we see Cæsar rebuilding lightning). All representations by agents of winters ago all the inhabitants of the of the city. In fancy we see him being of ether Companies to the contrary not earth, with the exception of a single about with his coat off and his red family, were destroyed by floods and suspenders flashing in the warm south-darkness for want of food. This one ern sun. His noble head is thrown family managed to keep up a large fire back proudly and across the horizon of of wood and so survived for a time. back proudly and across the horizon of his pantaloons there is a dash of pale But in consequence of the continued light that shows where he sat down in darkness even this last remnant of human existence was about to perish. In de Saltpeter now stands. Rapidly the eye this emergency, a young girl of the sweeps down the Seine from the family, suddenly inspired by the idea Louvre, along the Tuileries, the Rue that she might save her race by an act Rivoli and the Rue Folderol, to where of self-sacrifice, threw herself upon the fire which served the despairing sufferers for light and heat. Her body was speedily reduced to ashes, but the next Hotel des Invalides, an imposing pile, moment, she arose perfect and appar- crowned with a gilded dome oneently unharmed, in the eastern sky, hundred and five meters high. Imsurrounded with halos of surpassing mediately under it stands the sarcophglory. The darkness began to dis- agus of Napoleon I. This sarcophagus appear before this new sun, and the was first used by Napoleon. He was

family of the Natchez was saved. This proud and exclusive about his sarcophwonderful girl became the chief of the agi, refusing to use a second-hand tribe, and it was decreed that her nearest female relation should be her suc- could procure it. The worship of the sun which she had rivaled at her resurrection was established at once, and in addition to this. a perpetual fire was kept, called the "Living Sacrifice of the Sacred Fire," and it was the belief of the survivors that silent and abandoned, while down the so long as this fire blazed upon their altars the tribe of the Natchez should de Livery Stable, stands the historic be peaceful and happy. On the spot Rue de Crazy Woman's Fork. where the sacrificed maiden was reincarnated when the fire from heaven the picture of Paree, and what a pleasdescended and surrounded her body ure it is, again and again to bring back with glory they built their mound to in- its tender outlines. Imperfect though dicate that their wanderings were at an | this pen picture may be, I know it will end. It was only on this mound at the be read with much pleasure by those Festival of the Fruits that the Priestess of the Sun showed herself to the people arrayed in robes of white with a girdle who see it and if there should, at first blush, appear to be a vagueness, and, as it were, an incompleteness in the about her waist adorned with sparkling description, I hope the gentle reader gems. She assisted in the early greet- will bear in mind that Tie Siding. ing of her ancestor (the sun) and as the Wyoming, is about the nearest I ever god of day ascended into the east his got to Paree, and with a broken leg first rays fell upon the figure of the sacred priestess, which circumstance out between myself and France, I am was hailed by the worshipers as a rec- afraid that I may be delayed in reachognition of sympathy and acknowling there this fall.

My next letter w and his queenly representative. The Chippewa tribe formerly inhabited the regions around Lake Superior, and its council house and the seat of the eternal fire were west of the Keewenaw Point. Here lived the principal Chief, called the Roman Catholics in the country.

FIRST National Bank COLUMBUS, NEB.

tion. Whatever was required on these occasions, either of food or clothing, Surplus and Profits, was immediately forthcoming. He appears to have been the chief priest, and OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS. could not engage in war or hunting. In the village where he resided, and near ANDERSON, Pres't. SAM'L C. SMITH, Vice Pres't. his cabin, the eternal fire was kept burning. The altar was a kind of rude oven, O. T. ROEN, Cashier. over which no building was erected. J. W. EARLY, HERMAN OEHLRICH, Guardians were selected by the Mutchekewis to take charge of the fire; two of Paid In Capital.

W. A. MCALLISTER, G. ANDERSON, P. ANDERSON. Foreign and Inland Exchange, Passage Tickets, and Real Estate Loans. 39-vol-18-1y

cares to divert their attention from the holy trust committed to them. A perpetual succession was kept up in the priesthood by a prerogative of the Mutchekewis and the principal head

NORTH & CO

-DEALERS INbroken and traditionary rights transmitted unimpaired. Death was the penalty for any neglect of duty, and was inflicted without delay and without mercy. The council fires were lighted Lime, at the great fire and carried wherever > Hair. Cement.

Eldon (lowa) Coal 5.00 seldom failed to recover. Once in > Blacksmith Coal of best quality al ways on hand at lowest prices.

COLUMBUS, NBB.

BECKER & WELCH,

PROPRIETORS OF CREEK MILLS. ings of the wild tribes, is one of the

MANUFACTURERS AND WHOLE-

SALE DEALERS IN

FLOUR AND MEAL.

OFFICE. - COLUMBUS, NEB

light on the Seine, but I do not remember at this moment what they are. SPEICE & NORTH Looking down from the mighty for-

> General Agents for the Sale of REAL ESTATE

Union Pacific, and Midland Pacific per acre for cash, or on five or ten years ime, in annual payments to suit purresidence lots in the city. We keep a complete abstract of title to all real estate in Platte County.

COLUMBUS, NEB.

UNION PACIFIC LAND OFFICE

Improved and Unimproved Farms. Hay and Grazing Lands and City Property for Sale Cheap -AT THE-

Union Pacific Land Office. On Long Time and low rate of Interest. Final proof made on Timber Claims, Iomesteads and Pre-emptions. All wishing to buy lands of any description will please call and examine my list of lands before looking else where All having lands to sell will please call and give me a description, term;

II also am prepared to insure property, as I have the agency of several first-class Fire insurance companies. F. W. OTT, Solicitor, speaks German SAMUEL C. SMITH, Columbus, Nebraska.

LOUIS SCHREIBER, Blacksmith and Wagon Maker.

Short Notice. Buggies, Wagons, etc., made to order, and all work Guaranteed. Also sell the world-famous Walter Wood Mowers, Reapers, Combined Machines, Harvesters, and Self-binders—the best made.

Shop opposite the "Tattersall," on Olive St., COLUMBUS. 26-m

PLUMBOTTLE'S ADVENTURE. He Relates It to an Appreciative Audi ence in Austin.

Tom Plumbottle had just returned to Austin from a brief visit to New York, and was relating his experience and adventures to a few select friends in the Authorized Capital, - - $250,000 back room of a saloon.

"Those gangs of roughs must be 50,000 pretty bad in New York," remarked 6,000 Gilhooly.

"Bad! Well, I should snicker to insinuate. Talk of Texas rowdies! They are mere babes and sucklings compared with the thugs and burglars of New York. They think nothing of burglarizing a house in broad daylight, still held the reins in their stiff hands. and murdering any of the inmates who may be in their way." "I had no idea they were that dangerous," observed Gus De Smith. "They have got the police so badly clothes, clean dishes in the kitchen or scared that they are afraid to make ardo anything that would give him a sou. rests. That's what makes the brigands so bold. I had a narrow escape from being murdered by them myself, while brother in a carpenter shop, where the I was in New York," said Plumbottle, two had covered themselves with an old shaking his head, and looking as serious as a candidate of whom a ten dollar very high. They lay very close to-bill had been solicited by an impecuni- gether, and by this means managed to ous suffragan.

breath.' "I can guess what you had baited Tom Ochiltree," remarked Gilhooly.

"Please don't interrupt him," Gus De Smith. "It's his own breath, and he has a perfect right to bait it with what he pleases. Go on, Plumbottle; with renewed strength and crept out of we want to hear about your narrow

"Did you have your pistol?"

resumed Plumbottle; "so without takcellar to conceal it." The hearers had become interested in Plumbettle's narrative. They leaned over known, and created much wonder towards him with protruding eyes and open mouths. Even their drinks remained untouched.

"I silently cocked my revolver and unlocked the door. I heard a voice say: Turn her over on her back and take off her legs.' I knew that the moment had arrived for action. The assassins, in courtyard with a very original lattice. order to more easily dispose of her body, I had succeeded in getting a few similar were going to dismember the fat woman. Gentlemen, I tell you it was a trying moment," and Plumbottle paused. "Pid you shoot?"

"Was the woman dead?" "Gentlemen," resumed Plumbottle, 'I did not shoot. The woman was not heard of afterwards," said Plumbottle.

"You are a fraud, and no gentleman," said Gus De Smith, draining his glasss and going off. "I believe the whole thing is one of | but he was very modest about it. I then the Irishman carrying the piano had not | for his acceptance. The onlookers recreferred to it as a female, but that's not egnized the drawing and uttered exmy fault. How could I suppose it was a piano when they talked about turning maker ran off with it greatly delighted, her over on her side and lifting her up accompanied by a crowd of admirers. I at the other end?"

THE WONDERFUL MOTHER. A Large Brown Bear Which Took Care of a Little Savoyard Boy.

out .- Texas Siftings.

The winter of the year 1709 was one of extreme cold. Never was a colder winter known in Europe. In France many people froze to death in their English fox-hounds, three couple of beds, not only among the mountains, but even in the villages and cities. a thoroughbred Scotch deerhound, a Well, Amandy, I've nothing more to The hottest fire was not sufficient to keep a room warm. While the stoves were red hot, the water would freeze has been found the run is very fast, and N. Y. Independent. but a few feet from them. The trees in it is generally impossible to keep near the forest and by the roadside became up with the hounds. Occasionally one so frozen that some of them burst, and made a noise as if a small mine had ex-Sparrows and crows and jackdaws sometimes fell down dead while flying in the air. Large flocks of sheep and All kinds of Repairing done on cattle froze in the barn yards. The bats, which usually sleep during the winter, were awakened out of their torpid slumbers, fluttered around a little while, and fell dead on the ground. The deer in the forest could no more run swiftly, but crept slowly out of the woods and came near the dwellings of men. Finally spring came, and a multitude of them were found dead in the woods. The little lakes and brooks and rivers, after they had been thawed by the sun, emitted a very unpleasant odor, because nearly all the fish in them suffered from extreme poverty, for the cold had destroyed many of their means of support. The wheat that had been sown in the autumn, their sheep, fowls, fish and vegetables that had been buried in the ground, were completely destroyed by the frost. During this winter a poor little Savoyard boy was wandering in the streets of Luneville, in Lothringia. He was a pitiable orphan. His older brother, who had taken care of him, had now gone on a message to the city of Nancy to earn a few francs. But he suffered the fate death, though covered with furs and cloaks. The drivers lost their lives, and The little Savoyard boy wandered about from house to house to get a little employment or a piece of bread. He was glad to blacken boots or shoes, dust But when night came on his suffering became intense. He had slept with his foot cloth, on which they piled shavings be protected from the severity of the

"You don't say so. Tell us all about cold. But now he was alone, and he it," said Kosciusko Murphy. | would certainly freeze if he should at-"I occupied a small hall-room in one tempt to sleep in the carpenter shop. of the most aristocratic streets of New | The wife of the hostler took compassion York, and thought I was perfectly se-eure from the murderous assaults of the ing place in one of the stalls in the aouse-breakers, but I was mistaken. I stable where the horses of a certain did not get up as early as usual one Prince were kept. In this stall there morning, as I was not feeling well. I stood an iron cage in which a large brown bear was confined; for the beast of Austin, Tom Ochiltree, Bob Lowe, of was very wild and angry. The little the Galveston News, and a few more Savoyard boy, who had come in the distinguished Texans, and consequent darkness of the night into the stable, iy I was suffering from a severe attack neither knew nor cared for any wild of bilious headache, to which I am sub-ject," continued Plumbottle. beast that might be near by. He lay down upon some straw and stretched "Ahem!" remarked Gilhooly.

"While I was trying to recall some of the incidents of the previous evening, and more particularly a conversation I the beast was, and found that a large the candidate replied: "I am accus-

had with Colonel Ochiltree about a supper he once gave to the Prince of Wales get in where the straw was, he crawled tended to fix us over."—Rochester Exand the Prince Imperial of France, I heard a strange noise in the hall, as if some heavy body was being dragged little, but did no violence. She took does not believe that convent schools across the floor. I listened with bated the little stranger between her paws and pressed him near her warm breast and against her thick skin so softly and your breath with if you were out with comfortably that he who had not slept for many nights with any comfort now said forgot all fear and soon fell into a sweet,

In the morning the boy wakedoup the cage and went forth to the city to attend to his business and seek his "It was no joking matter, I assure daily bread. At night he returned to you," continued Plumbottle, "for as I his strange mother. Beside the bear listened with bated breath, I heard a there lay a great many pieces of bread man say: 'She is too heavy entoirely. which had been brought from the table It's sorry I am that I had anything to of the Prince; but the bear had eaten all do wid her,' and pretty soon another she wanted, and these were left. So voice replied: Turn her over on her the Savoyard helped himself to all he side, and may be we can lift her thin."

"This is getting interesting," remarked Gus De Smith, leaning over.

"This is getting interesting," remother, who pressed him to her as she had done before; and he slept there as

"I never travel without my arms," | if in the warmest feather bed. In this way he spent five nights with ing time to make my toilet, I took my out anybody knowing it. On the morn-pistol and listened again, attired as I ing of the sixth night he overslept himwas in my short-stop clothes. The self, so that when the hostlers went burglars were still there, for I could around with lanterns in the early mornhear them trying to lift the body, for ing to attend to the many horses in the one of them said: 'Turn her up on her stable, they saw the boy lying between back, Pat, and lift her up at the other the paws of the great bear. The old end, for she is squazing the loife out of bear grunted a little as if she was very me.' I knew that the stout German much offended at any one seeing her lady, who lived on the floor above, had taking care of her little favorite. The been murdered for her money, and the boy sprang up, and squeezed through burglars were removing the body to the the cage, to the great astonishment of the bystanders. The strange affair became widely

Flattered by a Russian.

I noticed a door and a window in a

THE CHINESE CABINET-MAKER. A Simple-Minded Fellow Who Was Easily

ones, and when time failed me I rubbed black all over a sheet of paper and then applied it to the lattice, thus obtaining a faithful life-size copy. The Chinese driver is certainly an innovation, and paper being strong, although fine, was there is probably plenty of punching eminently suitable to this sort of drawdead, for when I stepped out into the hall, she was standing on the landing above, watching the Irishmen bring up one of the standard to this sort of drawing, and also copying inscriptions on stones or walls. Not having any such paper about me I begged a Chinese to those square pianos. One of the Irish- go and fetch some for me, which he did chasers. We have also a large and those square pianos. One of the Irish- go and fetch some for me, which he did choice lot of other lands, improved and men, who was unscrewing the legs of with alacrity, and when I explained unimproved, for sale at low price and on reasonable terms. Also business and help them carry her, the piano, up the me a stool that I might reach the winstars. If it had been the fat woman dow with greater facility. Some of them instead of a piano they were carrying off, held it all the time for me, and when I expect I would have been murdered they inquired why I was doing this, I in cold blood, and never have been told them that the design was very beautiful, and that I desired to have a "I wish, then, it had been the wom- window like it in my own house. This an," said Gilhooly, with a disgusted pleased and flattered them greatly, and to enhance the merits of their town they told me the artist was a native cabinetmaker; some of them even ran to fetch him. I complimented him on his work, Colonel Ochiltree's yarns," said Mur- tore a sheet of paper out of my notebook, and, to leave him a remembrance. "I would not have been deceived if sketched my own likeness and offered it only mention this fact to prove how easy "Charge these drinks up to Mr. Plum- it is to disarm the distrust and hostility bottle," said the crowd as they passed of a Chinese crowd.-A Russian through

Elk-Hunting in Ceylon.

China.

The finest sport in Ceylon is elkhunting on the hills, which are five thousand to seven thousand feet above the sea level. The hounds are a mixed pack, comprising four or five couple of mixed breed, and some "seizers"-viz: strong greyhound, perhaps a kangaroo hound, and crosses of these breeds with mastiff and bloodhound. After an elk | stead of your own married husband. of these is snapped up by a leopard lurking on the hillside. When at last the elk comes to bay, it is generally in a strong-flowing water course, and the seizers then rush in, aided by the hunting men, whose only weapon appears to be the knife, with which the quarry is stabbed as he faces his four-legged foes. The elk weighs sometimes as much as four hundred pounds clear, and it is a pleasant reward for a run which lasts usually two hours or more. -Chicago Tribune.

-A Tennessee man had to be hanged before he could be convinced that there was any law in this country to punish a man for killing his wife's poor relations

-There are 546 lady missionaries in had been frozen to death. The people India.

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

Business and professional cards of five lines or less, per annum, five dollars. For time advertisements, apply at this office.

La Legal advertisements at statute

For transient advertising, see rates on third page.

monthly.

RELIGIOUS AND EDUCATIONAL.

MAll advertisements payable -Education is on the increase. There are twenty-two public schools in Al-turas County, Idaho. -Over 10,000 copies of the Bible have been printed every day for the last thirty-four years .- N. Y. Tribune.

-The real object of education is to give children resources that will endure long as life endures .- Sydney -At Bowling Green, Ky., it is necessary for the churches to take out boarding-house licenses before they can give charitable suppers. -A frame school-house in the Catskill Mountains, which is used for church purposes, is papered with pictures from illustrated papers published during the rebellion .- Troy Times. -Since he has attained his majority, in 1868, the Duke of Norfolk has, ir one way or another, given more than $2,500,000 to the Roman Catholic Church, besides princely sums devoted to private charities. -The Superintendent of the Philadelphia Public Schools declares that 96,-600 children of that city are growing up without schooling. At least 20,000 of them, he thinks, do not go to school because there is no room for them. -The schoolmaster who sat down on a large disk of shoemaker's wax, which the boys had placed in his chair, stuck to business very closely. In fact, he stuck there until about eight o'clock in the evening .- Burlington Free Press.

-A good old Congregational pastor used to say that there is a town officer mentioned in the New Testament to whom he had been more indebted than to almost any other man: "the town clerk of Ephesus, who [Acts xix. 35] adrised 'to do nothing rashly.' -At the recent examination of Rev M. C. Stebbins for the pastorate of the should be fashionable resorts merely for the young ladies of rich parents. It says: "There is no necessity for convent schools unless they send out into the world Christian gentlewomen. If they become servile to wealth, they should close their doors to pupils and take in the poor and the sick.' -Many of the country school-houses in Europe have gardens attached to them, says Prof. Lanz. This is especially true of Germany, Switzerland, Belgium, Holland and Denmark. These gardens are used not only for ornament and to grow vegetables for the use of the teacher and his family, but they also serve a purpose in the work of instruction. Children in these schools are generally taught the elements of agriculture and horticulture, and these gardens are used to illustrate lessons and to try experiments.

WIT AND WISDOM. -An ounce of keep-your-mouth-snut is better than a pound of explanation

after you have said it. -"Oh, for the wings of a dove," she sang as she was puzzling her brains as to what new ornament she should put upon her bonnet. - Yonkers Statesman. -A more glorious victory can not be gained over another man than this, that when the injury began on his part, for the kindness to begin on ours.-N. Y.

Ledger. -A little boy whose sprained wrist had been relieved by bathing in whisky surprised his mother by asking: "Did papa sprain his throat when he was a boy?"-Troy Times.

-"It's proof of the singular operation of the human mind," says a mental philosopher, "that when two men accidentally exchange hats the one who gets the worst tile is always the first to discover the mistake." -They have a man named Pyle out in St. Louis who drives a horse-car. A horse-car under the guidance of a pilethere is probably plenty of punching done on the car-and possibly some log-rolling .- Boston Times. -A father-in-law at a wedding attempted to chaff the groom: "I hope now, sir, that you will not get into any more scrapes." "No," said the new son-in-law, "I shall not have a chance; I shall never get out of this one."-Providence News. -The Crazy Quilt! h, can you see by the dawn's early light, What you failed to perceive at the twilight's iast gleaming: A cranky concern that through the long night, O'er the bed where you slept was so saucily streaming? The silk patches so fair, Round, three-corned and square, Give proof that the lunatic bed-quilt is there, Oh, the crazy-quilt mania triumphantly raves, And maid, wife and widow are bound as its

-D. T. Highmore

-I was told a good story the other day about a Griswold street lawyer. In the dead of one dreadful hot August night he was awakened by a noise in his bedroom. Hastily sitting up in bed to find out who the intruder could possibly be, he was confronted with a revolver in the hands of a burly burglar. "I'm looking for money, I am, " hissed the burglar, "so you'd better keep still." "Oh! say, hold on," said the lawyer, "lemmo get my pants on and I'll help ou hunt for it."—Detroit Free Press. -Mrs. Jarply to husband: How could you stay out at the club until after one o'clock in the morning and leave your wife all alone?-Mr. Jarply: You must be mistaken, my dear; it was only half-past eleven o'clock, or so .-Mrs. Jarply: You can't deceive me; I was awake, and looked at the clock .-Mr. Jarply, in a deeply injured tone: say, if you will believe a ninety-five

The Word "Woman."

Men often misuse not only women cent nickle-plated nutmeg clock, in-savs a contemporary, but the word "woman." The husband who speaks of his wife as his "woman" is a hog. The man who goes out with his wife and registers her as his "lady" is abusive. though he may not know it. The man who goes out with several women should not say that he is with a lot of women, but that he accompanies ladies. This includes his wife and all others in the company. It is proper to say good morning, good evening, or good night, "ladies," but it would be boorish to say good-night "women." Treat your wife as your wife, with love, respect and manly attention. Treat all women as ladies, as refined, lovable women, as by so doing you prove yourself to be the posesior of gentlemanly qualities.-Sur Francisco Chronicla.