—Thanks to Hon. W. A. McAllister for a recent copy of the New Orleans Picayune. It is a mammoth sheet.

—Call and examine our new line of Silk Embroidered Newport Scarfs, cashmere and shetland shawls at Galley Bros.

—It seems to be the opinion of the newspapers at David City that J. Robert Williams will go free, after all the trouble.

—H. J. Hudson, assisted by a delegation from Central City, recently organized a lodge of Odd Fellows at Silver Creek.

—Though having met with misfortune, Wermuth & Bettcher are still on the top and their business is again flourishing.

—The commencement exercises of the High School will be held in the new building, and several pupils will receive diplomas.

—John Timothy, Esq., dealer in school books, stationery, etc., at Platte Center is the authorized agent of the JOURNAL at that place.

—Those who wish to have their assessments equalized with others in their township should look after the matter before the town board.

—Oil and gasoline stoves for the summer at Ernst & Schwarz's Hardware Store on 11th street.

—The well-known Avery corn planter and check-rower for sale at a reasonable price at Ernst & Schwarz's Hardware and Implement Store on 11th street.

—Messias Holmes & George have employed a trimmer from St. Joseph and ask all the ladies to give them a call, and see their stock of new goods.

—It is needless for us to repeat that we will be undersold by none on good reliable goods. Remember we are the oldest dry goods house in the city. J. H. Galley & Bro.

—Having sustained a heavy loss in fire, we want everybody, knowing themselves indebted to us to come forward and settle their accounts. Wermuth & Bettcher.

—Col. Stevens is fitting up the grounds at Spring Lake in good shape for pic-nickers. A platform for dancing, and a new boat will be among the improvements.

—Sufficient rain Thursday, Friday and Saturday last, at this point, to satisfy the reasonable demands of everybody, especially those who have recently sown turn grass seed.

—We have the order of procession for the G. A. R. on Memorial Day and will print that and the order of exercises at the Opera House, if we receive it, in next week's JOURNAL.

—The rain of Friday morning was very heavy at Madison, the water being so deep in the lower parts of the town that hogs were let out of their pens to save them from drowning.

—Those in need of corn planters should remember that Krause, Lubker & Co. have the celebrated Union and Keystone machine with Tate's check rower. The best in the market.

—We have put in the largest line of school-youth's, boys and men's clothing ever brought to the city. We can suit any one in regard to style and price. Call and see us. J. H. Galley & Bro.

—The well known firm of Taylor, Schutte & Co., have not gone out of business here, as some have got the impression; they have only disposed of one branch of their extensive business, viz, that of lumber.

—The choicest line of dress gingham, prints, lawns, percales, nanooks, dotted swiss, muslin veiling and other dress goods at all prices which we shall take pleasure in showing to our patrons. Galley Bros.

—A story is going the rounds of Nebraska papers that John Wira of Sarpy county has begun suit against Henry Schuman for the value of a horse promised for service rendered in securing a wife for Schuman.

—D. Anderson made another shipment of milk cows, and yearling heifers to Denver, Colorado, last Friday. The party getting these cattle were so well pleased with them, that he gave Mr. A. another contract to fill.

—The big improvement to the Grand Pacific Hotel will give it fourteen additional rooms, making fifty bed-rooms in the house. Mr. Lehman thinks that he may be compelled to make other improvements before fall.

—All the farm implements of Wermuth & Bettcher were burned up in the fire, but they lost no time and have now replaced their stock and are prepared to furnish the best of goods again as of old at the same reasonable prices.

—Harrison and Jefferson counties, Ohio, were visited on the 9th and 10th of May by snow. Here, at Columbus, some of our citizens were indulging on the 16th in the luxury of eating splendid fresh cherries, just picked from the trees in—California.

—Sheldon & Somers Bros. have sold the 5th Duke of Richmond, a young thoroughbred short horn, to Long & Kingsland of Garfield county, for $200. The Duke is a year old and weighs 1100 lbs. A fair sale, and an exceedingly good purchase.

—The Long Pine Journal rises to remark that the much-advertised fire extinguishers called hand grenades will extinguish fire that comes of burning oil, but nothing more. That the swindle is a gigantic one, and has been worked for all it is worth.

—The Schuyler Sun gives particulars of a gang of horse traders that might more properly be called a gang of horse thieves. They have begun their work about this time of year for several seasons back, and everybody would do well to have nothing to do with them.

—W. P. Jones, president of Normal College, Fremont, is just beginning to use his rheumatic fingers after an attack of twelve weeks of that fearful malady, inflammatory rheumatism. From what we have noticed of the progress of his school he must have done some good work notwithstanding.

—E. A. Fulford was in town one day last week. He was brought to town to get his broken planter mended. He reports getting in his seeds nicely. If seeds are put in early and properly cultivated afterward, no justifiable complaint can ever be brought against the Nebraska soil for not doing its full part.

—The phrase "printer's devil" owes its origin to the fact that the first errand boy employed by William Caxton, the first printer, the son of a gentleman of French descent named De Ville, or Deville, and the name thus came to be applied to printer's apprentices. In this office the boys call him "Satan." We believe that in 1885 it is time to abolish all such opprobrious names, and in the future direct that our youthful help be called by his right name, Leander McFarland.

—The "World," with the Philadelphia Times says in the most perfect condition for years, will be here next week, Thursday.

—The will of James W. Dickinson, late of this county, deceased, was last week admitted to probate by his honor Judge J. J. Sullivan of the county court. Objection was made by some relatives interested, on the ground of undue influence. We learn that an appeal will be taken to the district court.

—The City Council had an interesting meeting Monday evening, and will have another Saturday next. The new ordinance concerning auctioneers, &c., was read and referred; the water works ordinance was read and discussed, and a few amendments made, and the ordinance ordered engraved.

—Those in need of furniture will find it in very large quantities at J. E. Wagoner's establishment at 11th and 1st. Particulars in regard to cherry and mahogany, bureaus of best styles, secretaries and book cases, in fact, anything you may need, will find a large stock, select furniture, and prices suit every pocket-book.

—For corn planters, check rowers, cultivators, barbed-wire, go to Wermuth & Bettcher; they have a grand new stock and can sell you cheaper than anybody else. They sell the Barlow and Brown planter, the celebrated Hayworth check-rower. See them, before purchasing elsewhere; they will give you a good bargain.

—One of our exchanges says there are three sorghum sugar factories in Kansas and that last year they produced 600,000 pounds of sugar and 150,000 gallons of syrup. It is estimated that each of them will soon produce 2,000,000 pounds of sugar annually. Nebraska is as well adapted to this industry as Kansas is.

—We found the good-looking card of Crenshaw & Dinwiddie of the Norfolk Journal under our door one day last week on our return from dinner. Call again. We wish to become acquainted with you, for we see that you, at once, though comparative strangers in Nebraska, know what is needed to make our communities prosperous.

—Wm. Lamb informs us that upon the completion of his new two-story frame dwelling house on 14th street he will immediately commence the erection of a similar one on his vacant lots east of his present residence. Mr. Lamb certainly deserves great credit for his enterprise in this direction, as there is always a demand for dwellings for rent.

—Coldiron & Co. of Beatrice have the contract for the stone work on Schroeder's new mill, and are rushing the work. The building is to have three floors and will be forty feet high. The side-track leading to it has been surveyed, and will necessitate a change in some of the buildings at present near the tracks on the south side of the main track.

—S. A. Percival, of London, England, father of Harry Percival, accompanied by the Rev. Dr. Tanner, father of Mrs. Percival, passed through this city Thursday last on their way to visit the place near Fallerton, in Kansas county, Neb., where their son and daughter met their horrible deaths at the hands of a murderer, and to learn what they could.

—D. L. Bruen was so overcharged with his subject for discussion last Saturday evening that he had to have a round of words with Carl Kramer. We suggest that Carl and David appoint an evening at the Court House, choose a moderator, and have it out, "if it takes all summer." The Journal will guarantee a good audience if the weather is fair, and a little good music is provided.

—The JOURNAL job department is prepared to furnish, on short notice, all kinds of commercial work, such as letter heads, note heads, bill heads, statements, circulars, envelopes, cards, doggers, posters, &c.; visiting cards; lawyers' briefs; pamphlets; catalogues; sale bills, &c. Satisfaction guaranteed. Orders by mail promptly attended to. Address, M. K. Turner & Co., Columbus, Neb.

—The body of Lewis H. Johnson, one of the victims of the double murder at Lincoln last week, passed through the city Thursday, bound for Madison, where the parents of the murdered man reside. The Madison Chronicle says that three weeks ago when Lewis bade his father and mother good-by, his mother remarked at the time that she felt a presentiment that she would never see her boy again.

—The Gordon Press gives an account of how a man was walking along the street, met another and said "good morning," when the accented immediately drew a six-shooter and fired, hitting Palmer in the foot. "Now, boys, we hope you will quit," is the spirit of the editor's remarks over this incident. There is no safety in Gordon or any other town except in a rigid enforcement of the laws, a duty that officers elect owe their community.

—Mr. C. H. Sheldon of this city recently entered into agreement with Somers Bros. of Erina, Garfield county, (cut off from west Wheeler), in pursuance of which he sent up to the range recently one hundred and forty-seven head of cows and three thoroughbred short horn bulls. The intention is to make the raising of fine grades a specialty, and Mr. Sheldon speaks in the highest terms of the country there as being adapted to the raising of stock. Mr. Sheldon has not, by any means, relinquished his property here, but on the contrary is contemplating improvements on his large tract of land near this city.

Personal.

We learn that Mrs. Byron Millett of Denver is very seriously ill.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McAllister returned home Saturday evening.

Mr. Fred. Jewell started Thursday for a five week's sojourn in California.

G. W. Clothier arrived home Sunday. He has been with Carver's Wild West show.

Cal. Valentine, Esq., was out Sunday on crutches, and is recovering from his accident.

Miss Mary Cooney left town Saturday for her home in Nance county, where she will remain.

Miss Mollie Rasmussen left for Chicago Friday to be under the doctors' care for a few weeks.

Mr. J. I. Paynter of Omaha, arrived in the city Sunday on a visit to his daughter, Mrs. O. L. Baker.

Henry S. Redenbaugh, who went to Kansas some weeks back, expects to return during the summer some time.

Charles McCune of Schuyler was in town Monday, and took the A. & N. train yesterday morning for David City.

George Schram started Thursday for Denver. All his acquaintances will be glad to know of his success in the west.

G. W. Davis, Jr., son of our townsman last week with his family. They are from Maryland.

E. V. Clark, Esq., of Genoa was in town Friday. He does not seem a day older than years ago when he came from Indiana to reside in Columbus.

Larry Rossiter of Platte Center, who was recently appointed railway postal clerk, his run being between Omaha and Ogden, went home Monday on a visit.

Dr. J. F. Wilson was drafted into the medical service at Cedar Rapids, Boone county, while there recently on other business, and will, we understand locate there permanently.

James H. Lynch, formerly in the employ of the U. P. Co. at this place, came up from Omaha Saturday and returned Monday. He has had considerable sickness in his family recently.

George Redenbaugh is down from Custer county on a visit to his old home. Speaking of the troubles between the settlers and the range men in his county, he expresses the opinion that the fences put up on government lands will have to go.

All the railroad people, as well as many others, will be glad to learn that Conductor Pat Lyman, who had both legs broken at the Hubbel wreck, is completely recovered and will go to work on Monday. He will take charge of passenger trains No. 59 and 60, the Columbus train, S. E. Harvey, now on his run, will take the run on which Mr. Lyman was hurt, Nos. 39 and 40, the Cannon ball trains between Atchison and Red Cloud.—State Journal.

—Facts concerning Nebraska are sometimes so utterly impossible of belief by eastern people who don't know what Nebraska is, that ludicrous things sometimes take place. A story in point. A young man of moderate means left his home in the east to try his fortune in the west. He was engaged to a young lady of good family, and was to return in a year or two to claim his intended wife. He took a homestead of 160 acres, in Nebraska, and made such good use of his few hundred dollars that in two years he had a good team of horses, a few cows and pigs, a little house, seventy acres of corn, &c. &c. Returning to his old home (not having, in the meantime, written of his acquisitions) he happened to speak of his affairs, when the father of his intended bride spoke up and told him that he could never consent to the marriage of a daughter of his with such a notorious liar, as he had evidently become since he went to Nebraska, and the young man was compelled to return without his intended wife.

—We call attention to the statement of the Columbus State Bank, published in a recent issue of the Journal, and our commendation of the bank has built up a business that is our pride and our community may well be proud of. The Columbus State Bank is well and favorably known all over the State and their business is not confined to our county, they draw largely from the surrounding towns. Most of the stock money of this bank was secured in this part of the State, and they still have their business with them. Its stockholders, Leander G. W. Taylor, J. A. Reed, E. Tasker, Geo. W. Taylor, Robt. H. Perry and M. Bruggen are for the bank the confidence and good will of our customers.

—The State Journal gives particulars of a remarkable recovery from a railroad injury. Joseph L. Goff, a brakeman, was hurt at Ashland last January. He fell under the engine, and the forward trucks of the engine passed over his leg just above the ankle, severing the foot and ankle almost entirely from the rest of the leg. The E. R. Company's surgeon took out some bones, put the parts together, and while the leg will be a little shorter than the other, it is surprising that it could have been preserved after being run over by an engine.

SCHOOL REPORT.

Table with columns: Dept., Enrollment, Average Daily Attendance, Per Cent. of Attendance. Lists various schools and their performance.

Miss Martha A. Hanchett is teaching in the Mock district, No. 64.

Mrs. Irwin, mother of Hon. W. J. Irwin, has been very sick, but is now better.

Mr. P. G. Jones has so far recovered from his recent illness as to be at work again.

The assessor is abroad and people are finding out what their property is (not worth).

A young colt belonging to W. F. Hanchett hung itself in its mother's halter last Monday.

We had a heavy rain here this (Friday) morning, which was needed, as the top of the ground had become very dry from recent hard winds.

A Mr. Johnson, living near Wm. Wright's, was kicked in the breast by a horse on Tuesday, from the effects of which he died Thursday morning.

The cold weather of last week froze the leaves on lilacs, roses, and other shrubbery here. Those who were boasting of having vegetables up have now to boast of now. But it did not snow here all day on the 5th as in Minnesota, or on the 7th, as in Wisconsin. DANN.

The coming Sengerfest, to be held in Lincoln on June 23, 24, 25, 26, and 27, 1885, will undoubtedly be one of the grandest events ever known in the history of Nebraska. Out of all the cities in the four great states of Missouri, Iowa, Kansas and Nebraska, Lincoln was chosen as the place of assembly for this year's affair.

It will be a very carnival of music and song, and the programme will be of such a varied and interesting nature as will be thoroughly enjoyed by all classes, young and old. Members will be present from the singing societies of the four states named, the aggregate numbering about 1500.

Some of the township boards will sit as a board of equalization the week preceding the next session of the county board of supervisors (which begins Tuesday, June 23), and the latter sit then as a board of equalization. We understand that equalization as between individual property owners must be attended to before the town board, and that equalization as between different towns only is made by the county board of supervisors. If you have any grievances of this kind, have, follow them clear along the line.

—Being unable to meet his fine, he languishes in the bastille, is an expression used by the Grand Island Independent in regard to a tramp there who lately attempted to outrage a young woman, and stole $25 from her. If the authorities of every town in the state will provide work for all such criminals and for vagrants, and see that they work out their fines, crimes and vagrancy will decrease, and eastern dead-beats will not find here a feathered nest.

—An exchange is trying its hand on the selection or manufacture of poetry. This is the result of scissors or mental effort: Now break your backs, And cripple your knees, And plant your potatoes, Cucumbers and peas— For the glutinous slug And the festive bug Will laugh at such luxuries.

Another— The June-bug has a gaudy wing, The lightning-bug the flame; The bed-bug has no wings at all, But gets there just the same.

Mail: Don't you forget to remember that the June-bug has a gaudy wing, the lightning-bug the flame, the bed-bug has no wings at all, but gets there just the same.
