Single copies

LEANDER GERRARD, Pres'i. GEO. W. HULST, Vice Pres't. JULIUS A. REED.

> R. H. HENRY. J. E. TASKEL, Cashier.

Bank of Deposit, Discount and Exchange. Collections Promptly Made on

Pay Interest on Time Deposall Points.

HENRY GASS, UNDERTAKER!

COFFINS AND METALLIC CASES

AND DEALER IN

Purniture. Chairs, Bedsteads, Bureaus Tables, Safes. Lounges, &c.. Picture Frames and Mouldings.

Repairing of all kinds of Upholstery COLUMBUS, NEB.

HENRY LUERS.

CHALLENGE

DEALER IN

AND PUMPS.

Buckeye Mower, combined, Self Binder, wire or twine.

Pumps Repaired on short notice

One door west of Heintz's Drug Store, 11th Street, Columbus, Neb.

Happiness

indicates perfect health of body and mind. You may possess it, if you will purify and invigorate your blood with Ayer's Sarsaparilla. E. M. Howard, Newport, N. H., writes: "I suffered for years with Scrofulous humors. After using two bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, I great relief. It has entirely restored me to health." James French, Atchison, Kans., writes: "To all persons suffering from Liver Complaint, I would strongly recommend Ayer's Sarsaparilla. I was afflicted with a disease of the liver for nearly two years, when a friend advised me to take this medicine. It gave prompt relief, and has cured me." Mrs. H. M. Kidder, 41 Dwight st., Boston, Mass., writes: "For several years I have used Ayer's Sarsaparilla in my family. I never feel safe,

Found

-At Home

Their long, uncompromising coats and the'r long, uncut beards (for the Menwithout it. As a liver medicine and nonite is a Nazarene in that matter) general purifier of the blood, it has no give fit expression to their characters. equal." Mrs. A. B. Allen, Winterpock, So far as the payment of taxes and the Va., writes: "My youngest child, two cultivation of the soil goes, they are years of age, was taken with Bowel Comgood citizens: but socially they are plaint, which we could not cure. We tried many remedies, but he continued to grow America and the world unacquainted. worse, and finally became so reduced in flesh that we could only move him upon a pillow. It was suggested by one of the doctors that Scrofula might be the cause of the trouble. We procured a bottle of genias, the soons of Arc of history: deand commenced giving it to him. It surely worked wonders, for, in a short time, he was completely cured."

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

Sold by all Druggists. Price $1; Six bottles, $5. Prepared by Dr. J. C. Aver & Co., Lowell, Mass., U. S. A.

A WORD OF WARNING.

CARMERS, stock raisers, and all other interested parties will do well to remember that the "Western Horse and against loss by theft, accidents, diseases, or injury, (as also against loss by fire and lightning). All representations by agents of other Companies to the contrary not-

P. W. HENRICH, Special Ag't, Columbus, Neb.

good man, and reward enough to re-

But the Mennonites, like other Protestants, have not yet solved the problem of unmarried womanhood and they

Dr. Hoyt, it chanced, had never before been summoned. It was a sight, met his view as he entered the cabin.

on a pile of straw in one corner; the close, dark room was crowded with men -moking and women chatteringmen and women alike filthy as their surrounding. The one mitigating cir-evidently ignorant of turther remedy.

"They will not go," she answered.

With an ejaculation, expressive of should jump to a quick conclusion, and that hatred of the alien and call forth every man's knife, with in-doubled howls of one of the women.

the bed, whom he had thought of :

"It is chloroform. Don't you know?

Then he will awaken. Tell them quick,

She looked at him long before she

"He says it will be right," she said, in true and the boy live . If he dies, you

She spoke in a tone of calm convic-to waste breath, the doctor turned again to his patient, upon whose chance of religious man; but I think he prayed as well as labored during the next half-many wounds were fatal, and that the pointing to his knife.

spoke, and the rest waited, breathless, tent to kill.

gaged in pouring imaginary tea for his higher grade of intelligence than the imaginary family, until the coming of rest; but her face showed only pained disposition that his future plans were he said, appealing to her. "It will a ways too vague to admit of severe dis- make him sleep while I set the bone-

Hovt was still engage I upon a line of for her words. She noted the dexterity, mains wa'n't of much 'count. I made will not leave us alive. That is but home" when they were both in their faith rose above her judgment.

Half an hour out of office hours is not or it will be too late."

It is not customary with my people to trust the world's people."

eeive bread in return.

Columbus

WHOLE NO. 794.

LOCUSTS FOR BREAKFAST.

Rare Dish, and He Liket It.

"Come right in here," said the Professor. "I want an unprejudiced opin-

In about a little matter." Then be called to the servant: "Bring me some fried oysters. He eved them suspiciously back, something like that of small

"The Cicada. They ought to have "No, no! not bugs, only the cicadaeverything in nature feeds upon them

Thereupon the host took one of the things, bit it in two, munched and swallowed it with an appearance of rel-ish. The guest shut his eyes and attempted to bolt a whole cicada. The ob eet crushed in his mouth and proved to be little else than a delicate shell, but its flavor was found to be far from dis-batter." said the Professor, explanathing with which they were familiar, but they agreed in the opinion that, vulgar prejudice once overcome, the cicada would be estimated a rare tidbit - rare, certainly, since it required seventeen years to ripen and that it might take rank with frogs' legs, birds' nests, shad

"I spent an hour last night," said the host, "gathering them, and they were very beautiful when fresh. I took them just as the pupa began to break. They were creamy white and plump, and looked good enough to eat raw.

but I didn't venture. I think these should have been stewed instead of fried-stewed in milk. I presume they would be nearly as good as grasshop-

"Certainly. I once ate nothing else for two days, and I found them deli cious when properly cooked. This is only an experiment, of course, but my nearly everything in a large region of country, and many families were on the

Having lighted a cigar the entomole evinced aversion at first, but, prejudices having been ove come, the dish became a favorite with those who es-

"Both the adipoda migratoria," he said. "and the accidium perigrinum have been esteemed as food by some nations in all past ag s, as far back at leas as the Ninevan era. la feed, some tribes have been called Acridophivi, from the almost exclusive preference they give this diet."—Washington Car.

A BEAR STORY.

still-Hunting the Grizzly in the Rocky

Sure enough, there were two bears

(which aft rward proved to be an old she and a nearly full-grown cub) traveling up the bottom of the valley, much agonally down the hillside, so as to cut them off. It was some little time before they saw us, when they made off at a lumbering gallop up the valley. It ing up hill and we down, and moreover the old one kept stopping. The cub would forge ahead and could probably have escaped us, but the mother now and then stopped to sit down on her haunches and look around at us, when the other behind them. By this time I was pretty nearly done out, for running om of the valley, I tripped over a oush and fill full length. When I got hardly run any longer. Merrifield was out of sight below, and the bears were laboring up the steep hillside directly opposite and about three hundred vards off so I sat down and began to shoot sent up a puff of dust where it struck the dry soil so that I could keep cor-crashed into the old bear's flank. She

I rebed heavily forward, but recovered herself and reached the timber, while

Merrifield, who had put on a sport, was

I toiled up the hill at a sort of trot, fairly ga ping and sobbing for breath; but before I got to the top I heard a couple of shots and a shout. The old bear had turned as soon as she was in the timber and come towards Merritiel I: but he gave her the death-wound by tiring into her chest, and then shot at the young one, knocking it over.

When I came up he was just walking towards the latter to finish it with a revolver, but it suddenly jumped up as lively as ever and made off at a great pace-for it was nearly full-grown. It was impossible to fire where the tree-trunks were so thick, but there was a small opening across which it would have to pass, and collecting all my energies, I made a last run, got into position, and covered the opening with my ride. The instant the bear appeared I fired and it turned a dozen somersaults down-hill, rolling over and not far behind.

Century.

"Do you eat grashoppers?"

"All the juices were absorbed in the

"What do you call it?"

breakfast.

hot ones.'

shrimp.

been cooked -

ravenously.

agrecable.

roes an I whitebait.

verge of starvation."

N. Y. Sun.

"What! Bugs?"

VOL. XVI.--NO. 14.

LOOK DEEP.

Sometimes the dazzling insect, with its form of perfect beauty.

Has the deadliest of poisons in its sting;

Sometimes the venomed serpents are concealed in greatest numbers

Where the sweetest flowers and viny curtains cling; While the pure and waxen blossom that we value overmuch May have death and desolation in its odo

Sometimes the plainest plumage covers o'er the sweetest warbler That has ever tuned its anthems for the heart: Sometimes the darkest mine conceals the art; some bounely things are priceless, and behind the rough outside

Are concealed the rarest objects of our gratitude and pride.

The glossiest of blessings and the most at-

May hide a sorrow in their grace concealed: The things we highly value often prove but children's toys When the hollow in their substance is re-

So we value toy balloons well padded out with shining sin, And globes of downy pleasure that are dyna-

Too off we gaze at sorrow, and its somber garb of woe, Our eyes turned from the glimmer at its

The soul oft chills and hardens till, with deep affection's blow.

The workman breaks its fettered scales

The ministers of sorrow are the messengers of rest; And hearts that know its purpose are the ones

The purest light-reflector is the prism of a tear,

The heavens in pools of sorrow mirror deep

The trust that leads to patience is begotter from our fear,

And tender spirits come to those who weep: The death angels from evil many thoughtless

And sorrow when transplanted into Heaven becomes a smile.

The most enchanting vanity may blast beyond

The peace of God may blossom from the min-istry of grief.

—I. Edgar Jones, in Current.

DR. HOYT'S WIFE.

The Peculiar Circumstances Under

Which He Found Her.

Dr. Philip Hoyt was annoved when he saw Alice Bayard's name upon the

he had never expected her to definitely marry anybody else; not, at least, while

He was one of Dakota's multitude of "rising young physicians," and when he considered that he had not visited his home for three years, that his letters, from the first intermittent, had,

after six months, become altogether remittent, he had to acknowledge that circumstances did not warrant even an-

Her image had been constantly enbutes of Dr. Hoyt's leautiful, sunny ouch for even a rising physician to devote to amatory obsequies, and Dr.

teens and ended with that last letter, which he remembered as a vapid affair, not worth the answer it had never received, when the tingle of the office bell and the entrance of a farmer from a neighboring town roused him to reality.

"Well now, doctor," said that individual. "I calculate that you're wanted" considerable smart up Hellersville way.

One of the Roosians is nigh about done for. He fell off a hay wagon fust, their the hay wagon fell on to him, and, as near as I can make out, the horses and wagon took turns finishing him up by rubbing him in the ground till the re-out about that from their heathenish jib'er. I was riding by, and the girl that does their talking for them ran out, and asked me to send you over. It's that fourteen-year-old that brings in hay Dr. Hoyt had keen professional instincts, and his preparations for dehe was driving rapidly toward the

"Roosians," as the colony of Mennonite settlers was commonly called.

These are a peculiar people, who unite he principles of the modern Quaker with the practice of the ancient Ishmael-ligious scruple against military service.

they are still a bit of Old-World, old-time bar arianism, planted in the new-fiercely content with their own manners and customs: apart from their own people, fierce enemies and reluctant friends.

own, are them-elves destitute. They are beautiful or ugly as it happens; they wear no mark on their foreheads.

unless it be the sign of a high and holy purpose: nothing distinguishing, unless

Of such was Marie Von Sulevitch.

look within.

these cards: but it was one of the attri- distress.

he remained an indefinite bachelor.

tractive joys

apart.

COLUMBUS, NEB., WEDNESDAY JULY 29, 1885.

The doctor walked the length of the

"There is nothing to tell. You would not under-tand. It is Nicholas this looked with suspicion upon Marie Von Sulevitch, who was twenty-three and had time. It is the same whether it is never cared for a lover; not, at least, Alexis or Ivan. They do not care who, but they will make me marry. They say I am of the world. If I will not until he had a fever; for her delight and occupation was sickness of all kinds. As the colony increased in size she came to be constantly busy. Babies grew quiet as she took them in her marry Nicholas they will cast me off to the world's people. I am no longer arms, fever became-lighter at the touch of them. I come to ask you what you of the world do with your women who robm, and turned before he spoke.

"Tell me all of it," he said. "I am regatest store of treasure.

And the gem is oft disguised with rudest to bear after Marie had bandaged the do not marry.' Dr. Hoyt looked cut of the window. Those who had been sick growled and there was a queer smile on his when well that she should be indulged

The boy was groaning and writhing my wife. Will your resolution be still your friend."

She sighed wearily.

in her whims and the whole people came in time to consider her gifts, "Why not?" he whispered. "She is beautiful and good, more capable, every way, than the best of these book-crammed girls; more nearly in the imwhich were those of a good nurse, as an especial provision for their necessiage of her Maker, too. Why not?"
"Marie," he said, aloud, turning toward her, "are you sure that it is not. pitiful even to professional eyes, that that you do not wish to marry Nieholas and Alexis? I ask you now to be > the same?" Vivid color rushed over her face, and she put up her hands, despairingly. "They said I would be lost among the world's women!" she cried. "Oh they were cruel to cast me away!"

cumstance was the woman kneeling by "No, Marie!" and Philip Hoyt took her hand, as he had done that other the bed. gently bathing the wounds, but The Doctor recognized her as the "one who talked for them." day, which both silently remembered. You will not be lost as my wife; your "Send these people out," he said to her. "They are killing him, using the thoughts are like mine. Why should we not be happy together, caring for little air there is with their vile pipes." the sick?"

Her face grew pale again and her eyes were bright with happiness. "You mean that I can serve you. make your life better, be useful to you?" she questioned.

disgust, Dr. Hoyt turned to his patient. Men never tell their real thoughts at shall not attempt a diagnosis; there were broken bones and ghastly wounds. these critical times; but a comical vision of Alice Bayard's probable ideas of The boy was fast weakening from his more than mortal agony.
Chloroform, that angel of solace to wifehood, compared with these, did cross this lover's mind, though it was very tenderly that he said: the sufferer, was first administered; and "My Marie, you are a great woman; but to make your husband's I fe better, the long-bearded men, gathered close around the bed, watched the immediate effect of the me licine and saw that that is worthy even of you. the boy gasped a little, grew more They were married at once, and have lived very happily, the Doctor and Doc he saw Alice Bayard's name upon the The enlightened reader will not find toress, equally unmindful of the scorn-wedding cards which he received from it easy to comprehend ignorance such ful pity, which is all that the Bostonians Boston. To be sure he had never as theirs; but these men had only the and Mennonites vouchsafed by way of definitely asked her to be his wife, but evidence of their senses, with no past remembrance. Mrs. Hoyt retains many of her orientexperience, or even knoweldge. It was only natural, therefore, that they al ideas of the wife's domestic station. Her thoughts are still largely of service. She has a way of slipping out of the room when many people come; but she will listen at midnight, with widestranger, already strong enough. should, with this added provocation, awake interest, to professional accounts of epidemics and surgical operations. Dr Hoyt was too taken by surprise Her household is well ordered, and if to be more than dismayed at first. The she does not assert herself, and is not brilliant for the many, her husband is threatening glances at the bed, the restill content. Men are Eastern potentates, shorn only of opportunity. Dr. Hoyt finds a satellite, whose shining made plain the cause of the murderous preparations. He turned to the girl by face reflects always his own glory, so agreeable that he has never wished to have insteal a rival planet. - Harriet B. Waterman, in N. Y. Independent.

> ----A WESTERN MAN AT DINNER. How He Succeeded in Getting the Walters to Wait on Him.

Those who had not "tipped" the waiters received but tardy attention. It chanced that one of this class, a big. memories, which began with "seeings the certainty of his motions, and her broad-shouldered fellow, with huge whiskers, a regular basso profundo voice, rough clothing, and a head of Russian, "that be will sleep only till the wounds are dressed. I do not under- hair like a big buffalo's frontlet, swaggered in, and, with a free and indestand; but I think he knows. See, he works in a good way. It is the custom pendent air, took an unoccupied seat at in America, perhaps. Do not kill him the dinner table. It chanced that there figured upon the The doctor worked rapidly, and the which was served as a sort of rarity, men fell back into one corner and mumbled together. One of them spoke and just as the new-comer sat down. presently, gesturing a great deal and some was ordered by a party of three gentlemen opposite, who were prompt-"He says," tran-lated Marie, "that they will not kill you, if your words are

Say, waiter," said the new-comer, bring me some 'er that b'ar meat." "Yessir," said the white-jacketed attendant, who left, but gave no further heed to the order.

tion, and, seeing that to argue was but The Western man sat quietly in h place for five minutes, the chairs or either side of him having been immedilife his own depended. He was not a ately turned up, lest some guest equally objectionable to the head-waiter might man's story, and a few moments later every probability that some of the get in at that point. After sitting five minutes he grabbed hold of a waiter who was passing behind him. "Say, have you got any b'ar mest with the same sublime contempt.

nold of the heavy dining plates that were laid on either side of him and lently upon the table with a crash that smashed them into pieces, brought the him in an instant, and started some of alarm, seizing the head-waiter by the a huge bowie-knife. "thar's my money and here's my weapons; ef you don !

have a plate o' that b'ar meat here in two minutes I'll rub some of you out."

Released from his grasp, the headvaiter retired and in a moment more a plate of the desired delicacy was placed

"Anything else, sir?" said the now

"Yes, take that." pointing to the gold eagle that still remained on the table, "and bring two bottles of cham-

When the wine came, one of the bot tles and three glasses were passed across the table to the three gentlemen oppo-

"Gentlemen, I apologize for interrupting your dinner, but I had to do suthin to get waited on by these infer-

It was thought best to humor him.

il niggers. Won't you take a drink

-A little girl in one of the orphale asylums of this city was recently stung before him.

obsequious waiter.

pagne and four glasses.'

Commercial Bulletin.

hotel and hev what I kin pay for?"

sick one would never revive. for dinner?" Marie watched more latently than any "Yes, sir." of the others. Her contidence increased "Well, bring me some, and quick and every few minutes she turned to the too, for I'm hungrier'n a hound.' Away went the waiter, but he didn't

ite. Exiled from Russia, because of te- group with an imperious nod. 'He is right; he is right," she said. When, finally, the boy opened his eyes, and knew pain again, the men and est New-World civilization, because of its newness equally savage. They are figured to bring altar gifts to lay at the physician's feet; but Marie only

"We did not know that America held so wise a man. I will never think, dashed one after the other down viohereafter, that I am called to nurse the "Everything depends upon you now," he answered. "Nursing must do the rest," and, leaving directions, he drove his immediate neighbors to their feet in away, meditating seriously, for so light- alarm. hearted a man, upon his strange escape Asiatics and Mennonit's still, and with from death. For two weeks he was a daily caller

Among all nations are born-more at the cabin; and long before the end often, too, than is supposed -women of that time his interest in the boy had who are best described by the word de- become secondary to his interest in the voted. They are the Jephthas, the Iphi- nurse, who developed astonishing ability. She seemed to expand and human- Westerner that held him in an iron nied individual life, and destine I to be ize from day to day.

grip. "Wall, then, do you see that?" slap objective, they are more frequently, if "She would be a fortune to any comless gloriously, found in the old maids munity," besaid, in speaking of her. ping down a tea-dollar gold piece with who care for other people's children: "Such gifts of voice, touch and manner his right hand, and then, throwing back ing out the measure of lives not their were his especial admiration; he held the right one in his own, one day, and looked at it steadily; it was large and flexible, perfect in shape, and imbued with a strength that made simple contac with it pleasant. He looked at her it be an expression of the eve which face, and its expression made him drop seems always to see outward, never to her hand. "You must be very strong," he said. "Yes," she answered. "My ancestors, also a trial and a puzzle to the orthodox you know, kill d oven with their fists. members of the simple community. I am very strong."

Without excuse she had refused to The rest of the community were unmarry Ivan in Russia, and when her accountable in their behavior. After father foolishly indulged her, and would that first day, when they were disposed again have permitted her to marry, this to crown his head and lay doves at his Cattle Insurance Co." of Omaha is the time in America, Alexis, who was rich feet and make him feel altogether like only company doing business in this state in land and cattle, she refused as before; some quality in the g'rl, which the first state of suspicious dislike, tempered rest found it difficult to appreciate, ena- only with some dread of his mysterious bled her again to have her own way. | power.

That had been years before, when she It was a week after his last visit that was marriageable; now she was twenty- a ring at the office bell, one morning, three, and no longer counted among announced Marie Von Sulevitch. She the girls. She had never really been had walked far, for she breathed hard: counted among the girls: to dance with but her face was white, and showed her had never been so much fun as with that she was sustained by moral rather those who laughed more. Only Ivan than physical strength.

and Alexis had wished to worship her as a saint. It was therefore fortunate, perhaps, that neither had married her. If they had continued to worship, the other women might have become exacting and forgotten that it is honor enough to work and rear children for a st home."

I wish you to ten me where to go, ten the sting the sight to be untered in a strong the sight to be untered it is no longer possible for me to stay ance states that he never heard of u at home."

FIRST National Bank

COLUMBUS, NEB.

$250,000 Authorized Capital. Paid In Capital. 50,000 Surplus and Profits, -8,000 OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS.

ANDERSON, Pres't. SAM'L C. SMITH, Vice Pres't. O. T. ROEN, Cashier. J. W. EARLY, HERMAN OEHLRICH, W. A. MCALLISTER, G. ANDERSON, P. ANDERSON.

Foreign and Inland Exchange, Passage lickets, and Real Estate Loans. A Tol-18-17

BUSINESS CARDS.

D. T. MARTYN, M. D. F. J. SCHUG, M. D. Drs. MARTYN & SCHUG, U.S. Examining Surgeons, Local Surgeons, Union Pacific, O., N. & B. H. and B. & M. R. R's. Consultations in German and English. relephones at office and residences.

Office over First National Bank.

NEBRASKA

D. EVANS, M. D., PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON. Office and rooms, Gluck building, 42-v

COLUMBUS,

F. F. RUNNER, M. D.,

HOMŒOPATHIST. Chronic Diseases and Diseases Children a Specialty. Office on Olive street, three doors

M. CORNELIUS.

LAW AND COLLECTION OFFICE Upstairs Ernst building 11th street. A. GARLOW, Collection Att'y. SPECIALTY MADE OF BAD PAPER

Office with J. G. Higgins. 34-3m J. HUDSON. NOTARY PUBLIC. 2th Street, 2 doors west of Hammond House

Columbus, Neb. G. REEDER. ATTORNEY AT LAW,

Office on Olive St., Columbus, Nebraska MONEY TO LOAN. Five years' time, on improved farms with at least one-fourth the acreage under cultivation, in sums representing one third the fair value of the homestead. Correspondence solicited. Address. M. K. TURNER. Columbus, Nebr. V. A. MACKEN, DEALER IN

Foreign and Domestic Liquors and Cigars. 11th street, Columbus, Neb. 50-y

ATTORNEYS AT LAW. Office up-stairs in McAllister's building, 11th St. W. A. McAllister, Notary

TORN TIMOTHY. NOTARY PUBLIC AND CONVEYANCER. Keeps a full line of stationery and school supplies, and all kinds of legal forms lusures against fire, lightning, cyclone and tornadoes. Office in Powell's Block. Platte Center.

. M. MACFARLAND, B. R. COWDERY, Attorney and Notary Publ'c. Collecto LAW AND COLLECTION OFFICE -OF-MACFARLAND & COWDERY, Columbus, : : Nebraska. J. J. MAUGHAN. Justice, County Surveyor, Notary, Land and Collection Agent.

return, and the color began to mount into the face of the backwoodsman. He gave a third order, which was treated Parties desiring surveying done can otify me by mail at Platte Centre, Neb. Patience could no further go; he seized

F H. RUSCHE, 11th St., opposite Lindell Hotel. Sells Harness, Saddles, Collars, Whips. head-waiter and two or three others to Blankets, Curry Combs, Brushes, trunks valises, buggy tops, cushions, carriage trimmings, &c., at the lowest possible prices. Repairs promptly attended to.

"Look hyar," said the cause of this TAMES SALMON, CONTRACTOR AND BUILDER. arm, "kin I get waited on in this hyar Plans and estimates supplied for either frame or brick buildings. Good work guaranteed. Shop on 13th Street, near "Certainly, sir, yes, sir," said the head-waiter squirming ineffectually in the grasp of the big left hand of the St. Paul Lumber Yard, Columbus, Ne braska. R. H. LAWRENCE,

DEPUTY CO. SURVEYOR. Will do general surveying in Platte the haven of other's lumps, who, fill- rarely come in one person." Her hands the upper part of his coat, from one in- and adjoining counties. Office with S. C. side pocket of which protruded a re- Smith. volver and from the other the handle of | COLUMBUS,

> Y S. MURDOCK & SON U. Carpenters and Contractors. Havehad an extended experience, and will guarantee satisfaction in work. All kinds of repairing done on short notice. Our motto is, Good work and fair prices. Call and give us an oppor tunity to estimate for you. A Shop on 13th St., one door west of Friedhof & Co's. stere, Columbus, Nebr. 483-v O.C.SHANNON MANUFACTURER OF Tin and Sheet-Iron Ware!

Job-Work, Roofing and Gutter-ing a Specialty. Shop on Olive Street, 2 doors north of Brodfeuhrer's Jewelry Store.

G WICLARK LAND AND INSURANCE AGENT, HUMPHREY, NEBR.

by a bee on the ball of one of her eyet. His lands comprise some fine tracts the sting causing the sight to be utterin the Shell Creek Valley, and the northern portion of Pirtle county.—Taxes paid for non-residents. Satisfaction similar case. -N.O. Times-Democrat.

COAL & LIME!

E. NORTH & CO...

-DEALERS IN-

Coal.

Lime.

Hair. Cement.

Rock Sping Coal ... Carbon (Wyoming) Coal 6.00 Eldon (lowa) Coal 5,00

Blacksmith Coal of best quality always on hand at lowest prices.

North Side Eleventh St.,

COLUMBUS, NEB. UNION PACIFIC

SAML. C. SMITH, Ag't.

-AND-

1 have a large number of improved Farms for sale cheap. Also unimproved farming and grazing lands, from $1 to $15

Special attention paid to making inal proof on Homestead and Timber eating of grasshoppers had a practical object in view. The insects had caten All having lands to sell will find it to their advantage to leave them in my hands for sale. Money to loan on farms.

F. H. Marty, Clerk, speaks German.

gist described his experience in at-Columbus, Nebraska. tempting to introduce a grasshopper diet in the West. He cooked the in-LOUIS SCHREIBER, sects in various ways and found them always palatable and nutritions. People invited to partake always

All kinds of Repairing done on Short Notice. Buggies, Wagons, etc., made to order. and all work Guaranteed.

Also sell the world-famous Walter A. Wood Mowers, Reapers, Combined Machines, Harvesters, and Self-binders - the best made.

Shop opposite the "Tattersall," on Olive St., COLUMBUS. 26-m

B. A. FOWLER. ARCHITECT, 1505 Farman St., - CHAHA, MEB. DIANS AND SPECIFICATIONS FURNISHED for all kinds of Public Buildings and Private Dwellings. Architect of Willard Block, Child's Hospital, Residence of Hon. J. M. Thurston, Residence of Hon. John I. Redick, Omaha; Residence of Hon. G. W. E. Dersey, Masonic Hall, ll, Esq., First National Bank, Blair,

Neb; Residence of Thos, Bryant, First National Bank, Schuyler, Neb., and mathe cab would run back to her. The apshot was that we got ahead of them. $200,000 in presents given away. Send us 5 cents postage, and by mail you will get when they turned and went straight up one hillside as we ran straight down free a package of goods of large value, that will start you in work that will at along the steep ground through the once bring you in money faster than anysage brush was most exhausting work: thing else in Americs. All about the and Merrifield kept gaining on me and $200,000 in presents with each box was well in front. Just as he disap-Agents wanted everywhere, of either sex, of all ages, for all the time, or spare peared over a bank, almost at the bottime only, to work for us at their own homes. Fortunes for all workers absolutely assured. Don't delay, H. HALup I kn w I could never make up the LETT & Co., Portland, Maine. ground I had lost, and besides could

NO HUMBUG!

But a Grand Success.

over Merrifield's head, aiming at the D P. BRIGHAM'S AUTOMATIC WA- big bear. She was going very steadily every man who has it in use. Call on or leave orders at George Yale's, opposite Oehlrich's grocery. recting my aim; and the fourth ball

TRANSIT HOUSE. PLATTE CENTER NEB., JOHN DUGGAN, - - . - Proprietor.

ing public guaranteed. Food good, and plenty of it. Beds clean and comfortable, harges low, as the lowest.

The best accommodation for the travel-

A PRIZE. Send six cents for postage, and receive free, a costly box of goods which will help you to more money right away than anything else in this world. All, of either sex, succeed from first hour. The broad road to fortune opens before the workers, absolutely sure. At once address, TRUE & CO. Augusta, Maine.

MOTICE TO TEACHERS. J. E. Moncrief, Co. Supt.,

Will be in his office at the Court House on the third Saturday of each month for the purpose of examining applicants for teacher's certificates, and for the transaction of any other business pertaining to schools.

HAMILTON MEADE, M. D., PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON.

. Piatte Center, Nebraska.

EATES OF ADVENTMENC

of five lines or less, per annum, five

For time advertisements, apply rates on third page.

A gentleman who had an engagement with Prof. Riley called at his house this chester, Va. —Tennyson is said to be keen in money matters. He has changed his publisher five times in as many years morning and found the entomologist alone in his dining-room reading the morning papers as he finished a late aged seventy-six years. Her life has been one of retirement and benevolence.

The visitor, despite the fact that he had breakfasted, was induced to seat himse'f at the table "just for the experiment." and was served with a spoonful the only way he can preserve his sanity is to mingle freely with others.—Chicaof dark brown objects, like very small go Hera'd. a moment, having discovered beneath the crust of bread crumbs a laminated The ruling passion strong in death was illustrated by Dan Mace, the veteran driver, who is reported to have said just before he died: "I have turned into the home stretch for the last heat of my race, and I am close to the line." -N. Y. Sun. miscalled the fifteen-year locust. Don't be afraid of them. They are only the quintessence of vegetable juices, and

-Mr. James Russell Lowell is intensely American and will tolerate no criticisms of his own country. "Hawthorne insulted us all," said an English lady, "by saying all English women were fat, but I dare not say in Mr. Lowell's presence that an American woman is thin."—Chicago Tribune.

-Thirteen must be a lucky number. John Bennett, of West Fairfield, Pa., died of consumption at the age of sixty. leaving a family of thirteen children. All are alive and well to-day, the oldest being eighty-seven and the youngest sixty. Siekness has never troubled the progress, proposes to expurgate all objectionable features, and cater to a high form of morality by recording the elevating and refining tendencies of literature and art. -Mr. Labouchere says he under-News of Paris, started sometime since erations. The shares of the company have been all taken up privately in London and Paris.

is eighty-one years of age. HUMOROUS.

ter quite frequently lives on its paw all the year round. -"She cried for succor, and I went to her aid," he said as he pulled out his empty pockets. "Yes, and by the looks of things, I should think she found one." was all the comfort he got. - The Judge.

restaurants," the husband said as he laid down his paper. "Good gracious!" exclaimed his wife, "have they no plates?"-Chicago Tribune. -"How did you contrive to cultivate such a beautiful black eve?" asked

-A tramp applie I for breakfast at a house on Michigan avenue. "Why don't you look for work?" asked the householder roughly. "I never ge time," said the tramp. "Why, what are you doing all day?" "Looking for break-Don't yer know how ter read yit?" Tex 1: Siftings. -"Here," yelled a small boy who had been trading knives, sight unseen. "that ain't fair." "What ain't?" asked the other one. "Why, this knife's backspring is gone, and 'taint got no -nap.' "Course taint: I gave the snap away. What'd ye reckon I was tradin' fur. -Merchant Traveler. -Logic is logic: Storekeeper-"Beg (displaying the one-dollar bill that has been handed him). Fogg "Well, sir, and is n't that all right?" Storekeeper - "Hardly; it wants a cipher on the end here, you know." Fogg -"A cipher? Oh, that's nothing."-Boston Transcript.

-Teacher - Now, what do you understand by brain work? Bov-When a man works with his head. Teacher-Correct. And what is man ai labor? Boy-When a man works with his hands. Teacher-That's right. To which of these classes do I belong when I teach you? What do I use most in teaching you? Boy-A strap.- Tolado

And murmured softly in his ear:
"What good is a bear without a ring?"

Cheap Enough. "Do you take this woman whose hand

"Do you take this man you've j'ined fists with to be your pard through thick an' thin?" "Well, you're about right for once.

reckon you're married about as tight as the law kin j'ine you. I guess four bits 'li do, Bill, if I don't have to kiss the bride. If I do it's six bits extra." Chicago Ledger.

For transient advertising, see

MAll advertisements payable

PERSONAL AND LITERARY.

Prof. Riley Introduces a Reporter to c -Mrs. Bettie Dandridge, a daughter of old Zach Taylor, once President of the United States, is living at Win> profiting each time by the change. -Mrs. Phœbe Vanderbilt, only sur-viving sister of the late Commodore Vanderbilt, died in New York recently.

family. - Pittsburgh Post. -The Dawn, the latest New York daily paper, is designed as a morning Neither the entomologist nor his vis-itor was able to liken the flavor to anynewspaper for young people, and while giving the news to note the world's by two young American journalists, has justified the formation of the property into a stock company, in order to enlarge both the paper and its field of op-

-Rev. Aaron Cleveland, who died in Dr. Franklin's house in Philadelphia August 11, 1757, was buried in Christ Church graveyard. His grave has been unnoticed for nearly one hundred and twenty-eight years, but it is now known that he was the great-grandfather of Grover Cleveland, now President of the United States. On the tomb-tone the name is spelled Cleaveland. - Chicago

Journal. -Mrs. Mary Breneman, of Lafavette, Ind , claims to be the oldest homae being in the land. According to her account and that of her relatives, she was born at Lewiston, Del., on the 14th of March, 1778. In 1801 she and her first husband, William Colter, moved to Circleville, O., making the journey in a wagon. Her youngest son resid s at Rensalaer, in Jasper County, Ind., and

-Yes, there is a difference between the bear and a dude. The former sucks its paw through the winter, but the lat-

-"I see they are serving ref eshments on roller skates in some of the too far for us to shoot. Grasping our rifles and throwing off our hats, we Brown. "Oh," replied Fogg, who had started off as hard as we could run dt- b en practicing up in roller skates. "I raised it from a slip." - Eoston Tran-> fast, replied the tramp. - Detroit Free -A stranger in Austin met Uncle Mose and asked him: "Where does Colonel Yerger reside?" "He libs out dar on Austin avenue somewhars. "What is the number of the house?" "Huh! You finds de number on de dore.

your pardon, sir; I sa'd ten dollars

-He Took the Hint: " You're the belie of the town," The young man sa d.

As he smoothed the curis
On her queenly he d.

He took the hint, the young man did,
When she gave her little head a fling.

you are a-squeezin' to be your lawful wife, in fush times an' skimp?" "I reckon that's about the size of it aquire."

over: the ball had struck it near the old man." tail and had ranged forward through "All right, then. Kiss in court, an' I the hollow of the body. Each of us had thus given the fatal wound to the bear into which the other had fired the first bullet - Theodore Roosevell, in

—Lieutenant Greely is said to be haunted day and night by visions of his long period of starvation in the Arctio regious, and the physicians assert that