Never permit the charge to be brought against any Republican of Platte county that he stayed at home on the day of election.

P. J. Lawrence, who recently made a trip to Illinois, says that Nebraska is far ahead of that state this year, in the way of crops.

The secret, after all, of carrying an election in Platte county for Republicans, is for every Republican to be at the polls and deposit his ballot.

A good deal of work is necessary to be done by Republicans of Platte county, if they expect to be successful at the polls on the 3d of November.

Everybody is specially invited to call at Kramer's Double Store, Eleventh and 11th, at the large stock of goods, not excepted anywhere in town.

Mr. David Maloy had a runaway, got his buggy smashed up and his face bruised. He says he will never in his life touch a drop of liquor again. X.

Vote for Cornelius for Judge. He is a lawyer, understanding the duties of the office, and a man who would look after its affairs promptly and thoroughly.

A few votes may tell on the election or defeat of one of our candidates. See to it that there is no lack of yours to defeat any one of the good men on the ticket.

Wanted, a girl for general house work. Apply after Monday, Nov. 2d, at residence of Rev. S. Goodale. P.

Herman Herring, about seventeen years of age, convicted of shooting with intent to kill, was sentenced by Judge Post to the Nebraska Penitentiary for one year. 28-1f

The Keary of New Era has reproduced the several communications recently appearing in the JOURNAL, with commendations to its readers, as articles worthy of attention.

A good man says that two men going to law are as though they were putting their heads each in a bucket of water to see which of them can hold out the longest.

There will be a social dance and oyster supper at the residence of Mr. Diederich on 13th street, opposite Huber House this (Wednesday) evening October 28th. Everybody invited.

We learn from Fred. Anson that Chas. Heitman of Creston has been very seriously ill for the last ten days; also that G. W. Kibler of the same neighborhood has been "under the weather."

Money to loan at once and without delay on real estate, in large or small amounts, on time to suit. Promptly, quietly and at the lowest possible rates. Apply to Gus G. Becher & Co. 19-1f

V. T. Price, who was at Chadron lately, says that some lots there are sold for $2,000 apiece. There are 160 business houses, put up in good shape; four banks, all together the biggest bubble he ever saw.

You will find it to your advantage not to buy a sewing machine until you have canvassed the merits of the light-running Domestic, sold here by A. & M. Turner, only $4. W. Kibler, traveling salesman. 3

Some Republicans have been elected to office in Platte county, and it is not impossible to elect others; it cannot be done by Republicans staying away from the polls. It is the genuine republicans vote that counts.

Dr. Powers, dentist, will hereafter be at his office, opposite the Clothing House, every two weeks commencing Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 19th and 20th. Next visits November 2d and 3d and Nov. 16th and 17th. 2

It is understood that both political parties will print on their tickets, for and against continuance of township organization, one at the top, the other at the bottom, so that either can be torn off, and leave the will of the voter.

Fremont city council held a meeting Thursday evening last to receive bids for their $25,000 in bonds. There was a lively contest between a local bank of Fremont and Harris & Co. of Chicago, the latter getting the bonds at $90 premium.

Last Friday a large gray eagle swooped down on the poultry yard of P. G. Tyler, who lives in K precinct. Mrs. Tyler ran out and seized a club, knocked the bird down and killed it. It was brought to Seward on Saturday and bought by John Zimmerman, who will have it mounted. The bird is a large one, measuring seven feet from tip to tip of wings. Seward Reporter.

The dance given last Wednesday by the Catholic Knights of America was a success in every particular; the sum realized was $92, and the case voted to the most popular candidate for Sheriff, went to Dan. Condon by quite a majority.

The Republicans in Ohio concluded to attend the polls, notwithstanding it was an unpleasant, rainy day, and the result showed a decided increase in their vote, as well as a splendid victory. Good example for Platte county Republicans.

It may be well enough to remark that in case the voters of Platte county say, by their ballots, that township organization shall be discontinued, the next board of county commissioners will be appointed by the county clerk, treasurer and county judge.

F. R. Cookingham has removed his establishment to the rooms recently occupied by D. W. Shaff, who remains with the Singer Company as special collector. Mr. Shaff is an excellent business man, and well worthy any position his Company may ask him to fill.

Those who want bargains in stationery, fancy goods, books, school supplies, albums, toys, etc., should call immediately at A. & M. Turner's, as they are closing out, and in fact, these lines of their goods, and in fact everything, except only organs and sewing machines. 1f

Dr. Martyn and Schug have removed their office to the rooms recently occupied by A. Henry, Olive street. They will be more convenient now to their patients, being on the ground floor. It is not out of place here to remark that they are number-one physicians.

Hemphillman sells from a paper of pins or needles to a suit of clothes, and from a pair of mittens or gloves to an overcoat and should you be in want of a stick of candy or a barrel of salt, you can obtain the same right at his general store, pays the highest price for your eggs and butter. 28-16

A lady teacher at Norwich, Conn., having dismissed a pupil because he had partaken of onions for dinner, the fact created a breeze in the town, the school board had several stormy meetings, and now a committee has been appointed who are in favor of onions at all times and places.

The JOURNAL job department is prepared to furnish, on short notice, all kinds of commercial work, such as letter heads, note heads, bill heads, statements, circulars, envelopes, cards, doggers, posters, &c.; visiting cards; lawyers' briefs; pamphlets; catalogues; sale bills, &c. Satisfaction guaranteed. Orders by mail promptly attended to. Address, M. K. Turner & Co., Columbus, Neb. 1f

W. H. Thompson says that in driving a cow over the bridge at Locke creek, she had a leg broke by falling and getting caught in a hole in the bridge. She happened to be good enough for beef, or the accident would have been considerable loss to him. When he returned for his cow, the bridge had been repaired. He says that the bridge at Mattie's has a hole in the floor big enough to break a horse's leg.

While John Walker was digging a well for one of his tenants on Sec. 29, T. 20, 1 w. in the valley of Shell creek, at the depth of 51 feet he struck a log imbedded in the earth. He thinks the bark he leaves us is of the cedar species. The water lay immediately under it, and a tough blue clay over it. Fifty-one feet of made-earth, shows the depth of Nebraska soil at that particular place, and it has been demonstrated by experiment that the soil from that depth is as rich as it is at the surface.

We see by the Kalamazoo correspondence of the Norfolk News that Miss Carrie Lawson (formerly of this city) recently had a narrow escape from death or injury; she was with Geo. Churchill; they had two young colts hitched to a chaise, and were just starting out for a ride when the horses became scared and started to run, headed for a row of large willow trees just east of L. Jenkins'. Mr. Churchill could neither turn nor hold them and they dashed into the trees, breaking the neck-yoke in two and the tongue in four pieces, throwing Mr. Churchill and Carrie over the front of the chaise under the horses' feet. One of the horses stepped over Carrie's head, and as soon as they could she and Mr. C. got up, without even a scratch."

Mr. John A. McConnell, editor of the Charleston (Illa.) Plaindealer, and Miss Martha A. Kennedy, of this place, were married, on Wednesday, at the residence of the bride's sister, Miss Caroline Kennedy, at noon, this week, the ceremony being conducted by Rev. Geo. B. Smith, pastor of the M. E. Church, assisted by Rev. Dr. Drummond. The ceremony was witnessed by a pleasant party of some thirty or forty guests. The bride was the recipient of many handsome and valuable presents, and the occasion was one long to be remembered by those who shared in its enjoyments.

The only regret in the matter is that by this marriage Cadiz loses another of its best girls. Her presence would be missed, but she will be followed to her new home in the west by the best wishes of a host of friends. We congratulate our friend McConnell on his excellent judgment in coming back to his native town of Cadiz to get a wife, and we extend our wishes to both that they may live long and prosper.

Mr. and Mrs. McConnell left on the three o'clock train for a trip to Niagara, Chicago, and other places. We clip the above from the Cadiz (O.) Republican of the 22d inst. The bride was a former resident of this city, and made here many friends. The JOURNAL, acquainted with the happy couple, desires to tender its sincerest congratulations.

Wednesday evening last the fiftieth anniversary of the marriage of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Clark took place at their residence in this city. The ceremony was admirably conducted by Esquire Capt. Hammond, Henry Woods and Mrs. Roscoe standing up with the happy couple.

A splendid supper had been provided by Henry Woods, and very nicely prepared by his wife (daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clark) and was served at their residence. Everything was done that could have been foreseen to contribute to the pleasure of the occasion.

One of Mrs. Clark's brothers celebrated his golden wedding three years ago—a pretty good record, two out of five children. He has lived all this time, in the same house in which he was married, and never been seventy-five miles away, while Mrs. Clark in that time has lived in seven different states of the Union, besides Canada and New Brunswick, and in 114 different houses.

We append the list of presents which were numerous and valuable: Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kramer, asphalt rings; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. McFarland, table spread; Mesdames Mallen and Sullivan, silver cester; Messrs. Beck and Taylor, gold-headed berry spoon; Mr. and Mrs. Brodfecher, silver pickle cester; Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe, $5 gold piece; Mr. and Mrs. Gatward, $5 gold piece; Mrs. E. H. Halsey, $10 gold piece; Mrs. Marie Brown, $10 gold piece; Mr. J. E. Moorfield, $2.50 gold piece; Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Marshall, gold engraved bangle; Mrs. Drake, knit hood and silk handkerchief; Mr. and Mrs. Ames, black silk scarf; Miss Garbes, china cup and saucer; Mr. and Mrs. Fitzpatrick, handsome album; Mr. and Mrs. John Ashton, gold wedding ring; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Woods, set silver gold-lined tea spoons; $20 gold bearing certificate, club; $24 base-burner stove, club; $18 reclining chair, club; handsome fur-lined cloak, club; silver cester, club; John Tanshill, handsome boquet.

We learn that this was the first golden wedding ever celebrated in Platte county.

It is a long road that has no turn, and Platte county, on a close inspection, does not seem to have been run in the past on the principle of economy, or even leaning toward "reform."

The people are beginning a "little now" to investigate the affairs of the county and inquire into the subject of taxation and how the taxes are being expended. We think it will make a dark picture when all is developed.

The management of county affairs has so far been in the hands of democrats, who are so anxious generally to obtain the spoils of office that it is a wonder more strains of construction have not been placed upon the laws to obtain fees. It is time now to introduce into the public conscience Platte county a little economy and reform. Every honest citizen, every intelligent man who has to pay taxes, favors a strict compliance with law, and if democrats find that they can not secure this through democratic incumbents, they should cheerfully unite and place some republicans in office who are known to be in favor of economy and who will practically carry it out. Men who remain in office a long time are apt to become careless of the people's money, and, as a general rule, lose all interest in matters of economy, feeling more in salaries and fees.

Incredible as it may seem, there are citizens of the county who think that K. H. Henry draws a salary from the county treasury, as president of the Driving Park and Fair Association, and that it is quite a good thing, financially speaking. On page 46 of the compiled statutes, section 16, will be found this paragraph: "Whenever any county agricultural society, organized by law, shall have procured in fee simple, free from encumbrance, land for fair grounds not less than ten acres in extent, the county board of said county may, in their discretion, if the finances of the county will admit, appropriate and pay to such society a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars for every thousand inhabitants in said county, to be expended by such society in fitting up such fair grounds, but for no other purpose; but not more than one thousand dollars shall in the aggregate be appropriated in any one county." There is probably no need for anything further to say. The above law is plain enough, and the money is paid to the society, through the president, for the purpose of aiding the society to fit up the fair grounds. The amount paid this year was something over $300, we believe, and Platte county has fair grounds and fairs that she has no reason to be ashamed of.

S. Guyne, superintendent of the Nebraska Telephone Company, called at this office Tuesday. They are engaged in erecting a line between Fremont and Columbus, and if desired, they will put in an exchange at North Bend. He informed us that they were setting four miles of poles per day, and that the line to Columbus would be completed inside of two weeks. The line will be the best in the state as they are using copper wire instead of the iron wire usually used on the line, and the superintendent is accompanying the force to see that everything is done in the very best manner. After the line is constructed to Columbus they will put in the town exchanges. Superintendent Guyne says that they will put in an exchange if they get as many as eight or ten subscribers, which we are assured they will certainly obtain. We hail the telephone as connecting us with the outside world in a manner that no other invention could do, and we are very glad to see that it is at our doors.

Abner Turner went to California last week. A. M. Jennings returned from St. Edwards yesterday. Y. T. Price was in town Monday. His family will make Columbus their home after the 2d.

J. W. Early and Mr. Powers accompanied the railroad commission to Chadron last week. Miss Annie, daughter of G. W. Galley, started Monday for a visit to her sister's at Granville, N. Y.

Margaret Huber, sister of John's, accompanied by her daughter Emma and grand child, arrived at the Huber home last week from Massachusetts.

The following was prepared for last week's JOURNAL, but omitted because of a press of other matter: Sunday evening, at the Congregational church, Mrs. Slaughter, Sup't of the Home for the Friendless, at Lincoln, gave a very entertaining account of the origin, the purpose and the work of that institution. It was a plain, straight-forward story, giving interesting incidents in the history of the institution, now in operation several years. If all the generous-hearted people of the state could know what a field for usefulness this institution has opened, and how good a work it is doing, if they could have heard Mrs. Slaughter's earnest statements of Sunday evening, we are sure there would be such a donation for the institution as would gladden the hearts of its inmates. There deserted babes are cared for—there are twenty such in the institution; homeless or neglected children; outcasts; deserted and helpless wives, and the aged, weak and forsaken by relatives.

We know, from lady friends in Lincoln, that the Home, under the effective superintendency of Mrs. Slaughter, is all that its name implies. To the ladies who, by state and county organization, manage the affairs of the Home, it is a labor of love and devotion, and all of us can recognize it as one more illustration of that "pure and undefiled religion," which visits the fatherless and widows in their affliction.

There are a goodly number of important features about the Home that are little known in the state, among which are that help may be contributed in the form of money, provisions or clothing, and that the express companies make no charge for the transportation of such donations. Mrs. S. related how Central City had sent them word that they would furnish a complete Thanksgiving dinner for the Home, and described the joyous way in which it was received by the inmates. The turkey, the chickens, the pudding, the cranberry sauce, everything complete for a Thanksgiving dinner as good as anybody's made there very thankful, and when she asked them that their, to them unknown, friends, no doubt felt even better than they did, because it was really "more blessed to give than receive," they said, "they must feel very much delighted, then."

Several schools have contributed potatoes by allowing pupils to bring one or more potatoes each as a donation. From Tekamah they had several large boxes of apples sent them in pound packages, collected at a social given for the purpose—pounds of sugar, soap, tea, coffee, etc., etc.

A society was organized here, of which we shall soon have more to say. Lyceum.

The meeting Friday was attended by a still larger number than usual. The following list of officers was selected for the ensuing four weeks: President, Carl Kramer; V. Pres't, J. E. Munger; Sec'y, Miss Clara Weaver. The executive committee appointed were M. K. Turner, John Wiggins and A. Anderson. For the meeting next Friday evening, the committee announce the following program, and the meeting will take place at the Mannercher Hall: Song by the scholars; declamation by Jessie Becher; short lecture on railroading by L. A. Clark; song by Geo. Falbaum; paper by P. Phillips; "Fifty Years Ago"; declamation by L. H. Leavy; essay by A. T. Clark; declamation by W. D. Shaff; debate.—Should any educational qualification be required of a voter? Affirm: B. Fuller, O. C. Shannon, Miss Martin. Deny: J. E. Munger, R. O'Brien, Mrs. L. Kramer. Doxology, in which all are expected to join.

Railroad Accident. The Norfolk News of the 22d has this paragraph. Compton's numerous friends and acquaintances in this neighborhood will be glad to read that he escaped injury: "On last Friday night a freight train on the F. & M. V. railway was coming west, the engineer noticed that a bridge across a little run between Rock Creek and Wisner was on fire. He at once reversed his engine and told his fireman, Charlie Compton, to jump, at the same time taking a flying leap into the darkness. Charlie escaped unhurt, but the engine was less lucky, having his shoulder dislocated. When the engine struck the bridge it went through and the freight car, which was piled up on top of it, all being consumed by the flames. In one car were a span of mules and some cattle belonging to some emigrants who were on the train, and it is supposed that one of them was in the car with the stock at the time of the accident, and that he was killed in the wreck and his body burned up by the fire. A temporary track was laid around the wreck and trains were running as usual in the afternoon."

Best in the World. Ottumwa Lily Corn Starch has been brought to the highest attainable quality by employing the best skill and scientific aid that money can furnish. It is the most strengthening and health-giving food now before the public, and is especially recommended for children and invalids. Every package guaranteed strictly pure. Remember and ask your grocer for Lily Corn Starch.

At the union meeting called at this place Saturday evening last for the purpose of nominating an independent candidate for township supervisor, all went smoothly and the minutes were as follows: Meeting called to order by F. H. Gorrard at 8 p. m. On motion, Barney Fitzpatrick was elected chairman and Fred Jewell secretary.

After remarks from several members, Mr. Edward Beaster was nominated and pledged the unanimous support of all present. It was then moved that a committee be appointed to draft a petition to the board of supervisors to divide the town of Lost Creek and form it into two separate towns, said petition to be presented at the polls for signatures. Motion carried, and L. H. Jewell, S. E. Eardard and F. H. Gorrard appointed an committee.

On motion, meeting adjourned. FRED JEWELL, Sec'y. Platte Center Items. Thinking a few items from Platte Center might be of interest to some of your many readers I will try to give you a few.

Carrig & Lynch's new store building is rapidly nearing completion. Dan Macken got quite a tumble Monday while leading a colt out to water.

Farmers are busy now husking corn which is an immense crop around here. The local candidates for office in this county are busy now, and most every day there are from 1 to 5 in town.

S. E. Phillips will give a dance Friday evening. It is needless to say that it will be a grand affair, at Goodman's Hall.

The dance given by Wassenberg Saturday evening, was not quite up to the average. Quite a number from Platte Center were in attendance.

Shell Clark has friends visiting with him from the south part of the state. L. S. Dorman, E. Brooks and Hugh Smith arrived home from Dawes county on the 12th. Mr. Smith will return in about two weeks.

W. W. Tolman has sold the north half of the lot on his school section to Mr. G. Fuller from Iowa, who, we understand, will use it for pasture. Mrs. Henry Guile arrived at home from Iowa on the 13th, called by the severe illness of her daughter Mrs. T. T. Crosier, who at this writing is much better.

Farmers in this vicinity are well pleased with the St. Edward grain market this year and thousands of bushels of wheat have been brought in, in the last ten days. Crouch Bros. furnish a home market for a large amount of wheat, as they are turning out fifty barrels of flour a day, and which they ship largely to Omaha and St. Louis.

Humphrey. The M. E. church is being finished and plastered this week. Charles Kaminski and Chris Schveyer returned from a land hunt west on Thursday; they report the country is good enough here for them.

The Catholic church is being enlarged and ground is already broken for a Monastery. They will have, when completed, a fine lot of buildings here. One thing we do need, and that is a flouring mill. We are in a good country and with people going to Madison or St. Edward to mill every day it looks to me that a mill would pay big.

Farmers in this vicinity are well pleased with the St. Edward grain market this year and thousands of bushels of wheat have been brought in, in the last ten days. Crouch Bros. furnish a home market for a large amount of wheat, as they are turning out fifty barrels of flour a day, and which they ship largely to Omaha and St. Louis.

Humphrey. The M. E. church is being finished and plastered this week. Charles Kaminski and Chris Schveyer returned from a land hunt west on Thursday; they report the country is good enough here for them.

The Catholic church is being enlarged and ground is already broken for a Monastery. They will have, when completed, a fine lot of buildings here. One thing we do need, and that is a flouring mill. We are in a good country and with people going to Madison or St. Edward to mill every day it looks to me that a mill would pay big.
