

A. & N. TIME TABLE. Leaves Columbus...

The Journal has decided the largest circulation of any newspaper published in Platte county...

Read Kramers' ad. Follow the crowd to "Fitz's." The Domestic leads them all.

Murdoch & Son are kept busy building houses. Fresh oysters and celery at Herman Oehlrich & Bro's.

Chesman at A. & M. Turner's book and music store. The Western Cottage organ for sale at A. & M. Turner's.

Books, books, books, toys, toys, at E. D. Fitzpatrick's. Horse blankets of all kinds and all prices at F. H. Rusche's.

Brood mares for sale. I will sell. Mrs. Hoisington has houses to rent. Enquire of her, south of Monastery.

Money to loan on real estate. W. B. Backus, attorney at law, 12th street, Columbus.

The finest assortment of plush and fur lap robes, you will find at F. H. Rusche's.

Mrs. Lockhart's residence and barn this side of M. Reagan's present a nice appearance. The Domestic, light-running and durable, can be purchased at A. & M. Turner or G. W. Kibler.

Guns, A. Becker & Co. Headquarters for cheap Steamship Tickets, sold on time.

Justice J. C. Cowdry has been appointed Police Judge, vice W. N. Hensley, now postmaster.

All kinds of school supplies, at reasonable prices, at A. & M. Turner's book and music store.

J. C. Morrissy has put down a new walk in front of Kramer's store, a much needed improvement.

Desiring to make a change in our affairs, we will sell at cost, our entire stock (excepting only organs and sewing machines) at cost, to close our store. We have a large line of Toys, School Supplies, Papeterie, Envelopes, Writing Paper, Legal Cap, Ledger Paper, Music Paper, School Books, Drawing Paper, Miscellaneous Books, Albums, Dictionaries, Blank Books, Memorandums, Pictures, Harmonicas, Microscopes, Etc., Etc., Etc.

We wish to sell in one day, if possible. Call at once to secure bargains. A. & M. TURNER, 11th St. in East Department of Kramers' Double Store.

An oyster supper and fair for the benefit of the Presbyterian church will be given at the Mennercher Hall this (Wednesday) evening, Nov. 11th. Supper from 6 o'clock to 10. All are invited.

The Nebraska Telephone Co. completed the setting of poles on its line to this city on the 31st ult. We will soon be in speaking distance with Omaha, Lincoln and intermediate towns.

Money to loan at once and without delay on real estate, in large or small amounts, on time to suit. Promptly, quietly and at the lowest possible rates. Apply to Gus G. Becker & Co.

Sam Welch, brakeman on the Cedar Rapids road, got his head caught in some manner and badly pinched, lately, but the injury is not thought to be serious. So says the Genoa Enterprise.

You will find it to your advantage not to buy a sewing machine until you have canvassed the merits of the light-running Domestic, sold here by A. & M. Turner, only—G. W. Kibler, traveling salesman.

FOR SALE—A six-year-old horse weighing about 1100 lbs., a good roadster, a new single harness and new side-bar top buggy, will sell for cash or time if desired.

Mr. R. C. Moran of Creston informs us that F. W. Anderson was bit on Friday week by a hog; that Mr. John Drake had been severely afflicted by illness, and that Mrs. W. C. Jackson by a fall had fractured an ankle.

William Eimers, of Humphrey, came down Saturday on business. He reports trade lively in his departments. In a short time in the future we believe Mr. Eimers property in Columbus will be greatly increased in value.

We present our usual tabular statement of Platte county's voting. It will be a study for politicians, and all should preserve it for reference. We notice that the Democrat has mistaken the column of figures on Gere's vote for regret.

While nearly all the republican ticket was defeated at the election in Platte county, the republicans of Seward county elected nearly all of theirs. It is a source of a small degree of consolation that our neighbors accomplished some good.

Those who want bargains in stationery, fancy goods, books, school supplies, albums, toys, etc., etc., should call immediately at A. & M. Turner's, as they are closing out, at cost, these lines of their goods, and in fact everything, except only organs and sewing machines.

KRAMERS' CHEAP SALE

Our Cheap Sale last week was such a great success, surpassing all our expectations, that we run out of some goods; we consequently did not advertise in last week's JOURNAL. We have since ordered and received an entirely new supply of CLOAKS.

NEW MARKETS. FLANNELS, ETC. We propose to sell them CHEAP from now until they are closed out; and when we advertise CHEAP, you all know that we mean it.

Kramer leads and is never unsold. Remember that we do as we advertise, though we are unfortunate enough to be compelled to sell DRY GOODS, AND CLOTHING, AND BOOTS & SHOES.

for a living and we mean to sell a great many if low prices and good goods and one uniform low price will tell.

We contemplate making a great change in our Clothing and Tailoring business and offer great inducements. It pays to trade at Kramers' at all times, but be sure to come to Kramers' to trade this month.

C. & L. KRAMER, 1 New York Cheap Cash Store, Columbus Lyceum.

Notwithstanding the rain Friday evening, a goodly number were present at Mennercher Hall, getting there between showers, and were amply repaid for their trouble by the general excellence of the exercises.

All too short, was Mr. L. Phillips's picture of the public schools of London fifty years ago and the railroads of those times. He promised to refresh his memory, and continue his descriptions.

Instead of decreasing, the meetings of the Lyceum are increasing in interest. The following programs were announced: FRIDAY, Nov. 13th, Song by the scholars of the High School; essay by W. B. Backus; recitation by Nellie North; instrumental music by Mollie Condon; declamation by Richard O'Brien; talk by Carl Kramer; duet by Mary and Martha Turner; debate—Is crime increasing? Affirm, J. E. Munger, N. A. Clark, C. A. Brindley, Robert O'Brien; deny, L. J. Cramer, John Wiggins, Maynard Hurd.

FRIDAY, Nov. 20th, Quartet—Into the Silent Land; essay, American poets of the 19th century by Clara Weaver; sketch of the life of Longfellow by M. K. Turner; selections from Longfellow by Ida Martin; music by Rose North; recitation by Miss Canavan; sketch of the life of Bryant by Mrs. Page; selections from Bryant by F. W. Shaw. Debate—Was Longfellow a greater poet and man than Bryant? Affirm, W. H. Tedrow, Wm. Swartley, Julia Calligan, Denny, W. B. Backus, W. M. Callister. Every-body invited.

Dr. Powers, dentist, will be in his office every Monday over Ernst & Schwarz's store, with H.P. Coolidge. Teeth extracted without pain with laughing gas. People having had fitting teeth or poorly adapted in appearance and expression will do well to call on the doctor as he makes the artistic construction of artificial teeth a specialty. I use the patent air chamber by which the suction is equally distributed over the roof of the mouth, making a perfect fit and causing the plate to be worn with comfort. Gold fillings a specialty. From one to four teeth inserted without a plate. Remember, in office every Monday.

—About a hundred ladies of the city met, by invitation of Mrs. L. Gerrard, Mrs. A. Zeigler and Mrs. M. J. Cramer, at Mrs. Gerrard's residence, Friday evening last, and from all accounts, had an exceedingly pleasant time. Columbus people, we are glad to note, have acquired the habit of taking the even tenor of their way regardless of the weather, which, on this occasion, was not of the best. The inclemency outside seemed, however, but to add zest to the good things within doors. Given comfortable parlors, congenial company and a table laden with the choicest viands, and there is no doubt as to results.

—Julius Rasmussen, the grocer on the corner of 13th street, and Nebraska Avenue, has one of the finest establishments in Central Nebraska. Some time since he made a thorough overhauling of the building so that it looks spick-span new, and now he has filled it up with an splendid line of staple and fancy groceries of all kinds, and a brilliant assortment of the finest crockery ware in the city, and all at the most reasonable prices. Julius, as is well known, takes pride in pleasing the taste of his customers, and always gives them the very best, at fair prices.

Best in the World. Ottumwa Lily Corn Starch has been brought to the highest attainable quality by employing the best skill and scientific method that money can furnish. It is the most strengthening and health-giving food now before the public, and is especially recommended for children and invalids. Every package guaranteed strictly pure. Remember and ask your grocer for Lily Corn Starch.

Personal.

Charlie Landers is in the city. Henry Bagatz started for Wisconsin Thursday last.

S. H. Tucker of Creston has lately had a spell of sickness. Mrs. Gates, of Albion, has been spending a few days at Columbus, the guest of Mrs. Geo. Clothier.

Samuel Durr, brother of Mrs. John Siesel, left yesterday for his home at Canton, O., after a four months visit here.

Theodore Wolf, living near Leigh, Colfax county, was in the city one day last week on business. He made a pleasant call at this office.

H. S. Bodenbaugh who formerly resided in this community, now a citizen of Udall, Kan., was in the city Tuesday. He is well pleased with his new home.

Mrs. Robt. Wiley arrived from Pennsylvania Friday evening. She has to use crutches, not having wholly recovered from the injury received by a fall from a carriage.

Mrs. W. H. Winterbotham has been visiting her parents in this city, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Hudson. Will come down from Genoa and was in the city Monday. He has two stores in full blast, one at his home, Genoa, the other at Silver Creek under charge of Horace Hudson, both doing well.

Prof. Rusch will preach at the school house Nov. 15th, at 3 p. m.

A little daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Nels Anderson, Nov. 4th.

Mrs. John Abrahamson made a three days visit to Genoa last week.

Mr. Gustave Abrahamson has a new wind-mill just put up on his farm.

The hog cholera has not made its appearance in this neighborhood, and we don't want it to come either.

Corn hunking has commenced. The corn is not quite so good a quality as last year, but there will be a larger yield.

Married, Oct. 5d, by the pastor of the Swede M. E. church, Mr. Nels Persson to Miss Hannah Nelson, both of West Hill.

Mrs. William Irwin, mother of W. J. Irwin, P. M. of West Hill, has been very sick again, but is better now so as to be considered out of danger.
