THE BEST

been ever followed upon him is perfect health, and a fine, robust health.

As to the propriety of our being married next month, Jennings says I am to have a partnership, and I see my way clear at once.

Blood Purifier

of the day. C. E. Upton, Nashua, N. H., writes: "For a number of years I was troubled with a humor in my eyes, and unable to obtain relief until I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla."

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

It has effected an entire cure, and I am now as well as ever.

A PRIZE

It's Miss Leigh, sir.

WOOD-NOTES FROM A CAGE. What—what—what there, my pet onary? What are you trying, my town-bred bird? What are you trying to do with me? Ab, I can guess at the rouse you've heard.

HOW WILL THEY LIVE? A Social Problem that Demands an Immediate and Satisfactory Answer. "How on earth will they live?" asked an eminently respectable citizen a few days since when informed of the approaching marriage of a Detroit young lady to a gentleman from another city.

HONORA'S DECISION. Her Wise Choice Between Duty and a Lover. It was a pretty and picturesque sight that met Belton Black's gaze as he paused among the clustering birches of the wood.

LOVE IN JAPAN. How Japanese Loves Propose to Their Beloved. Among very old-fashioned folks in Japan a curious custom still survives.

A ROYAL GEM. The gift of Emperor Francis Joseph to a Little Maid Who Lives in Alabama. An Advertiser reporter yesterday saw a beautiful piece of jewelry, which has a very interesting history.

RELIGIONS OF JAPAN. Shintoism, a Religion of Nature, and the Seven Happy Gods. Shintoism, a religion of nature, was for hundreds of years the only religion of the Japanese.

THE AGE OF FISHES. It is not generally known that there is hardly any limit to the age of a fish.

PERSONAL AND LITERARY. The Kings of Sweden and Saxony are both poets. Speaking of prima donna, Clara Louise Kellogg says that "the day for large salaries is now a thing of the past."

PERSONAL AND LITERARY. Wirt Walton, who runs a newspaper at Clay Center, Kan., and leads a brass band as well, owns the fastest team of horses in the State.

PERSONAL AND LITERARY. A Literary man in a recent letter dated Fargo, D. T., says: "I have been writing persistently since I came West last November, and have piled the pen under all conditions and circumstances."

PERSONAL AND LITERARY. The grandest performance ever given—Nagara in her great eater-act. An exchange asks: "What is lovelier than a woman's face? It is lovelier in armed chairs."—Eugeneville Argus.
