Blood for Blood.

Schuyler had a double tragedy las week. A man named Lapour was confined in jail because he had not been able to furnish bonds to keep the peace. Sheriff John S. Degman had given the man his breakfast and was leaving the prison when he was struck down and beat upon the skull by Lapour, -- a piece of scantling being the bludgeon used. Lapour's punishment swiftly followed, and is described by the Herald of the 13th, as

"The last act in this terrible tragedy

THE LOVE BUTTON HOLE AND SEWING MACHINE.

The only practical Button Hole Ma-chine for family use, being easily changed from plain work to button hole or vice versa, without the use of attachments or omplicated machinery. It will make two seams at once, either zig-zag or straight, being adapted to use either one or two needles, and the zig-zag stitch being produced by the same device used in making the button-hole stitch.

There is nothing of a speculative or experimental nature in any of its mechanical details. It is extremely simple, easy of operation, accuted to any kind of of operation, acapted to any kind of work within the range of family sewing.
