A BUFFALO paper says that just before the opening session of the senate in that city, Bishop Cox remarked to a reporter: "I should like to correct the proof sheet of my prayer, you newspaper men and printers are so unfamiliar with prayer that you're pretty certain to bungie it up badly."

HENRY J. CHRISTOPHER, a well known banker of Chicago, shot himself in the head with a pistol the other afternoon, and died instantly. A great many reasons are assigned why he committed suicide, but it is stated that he had been drinking heavily for some time past and was thought to be partially insane.

THE citizens of Browdie township, Ill., were startled a short time ago by a terrible explosion. On examination it was found to have been caused by an eruption on the farm of Christian Lonkerback, who states that when the explosion occurred a cloud of smoke and dust was thrown sixty feet in the air, in which were bits of materials, stumps of trees, roots and stones, and a deep hole was left in the earth, which has not yet been explored.

Three Cents a Mile.

While Brother Simmons of the Seward reported explaining that a three-cent mile-passenger bill that Van Wyck voted for in the Senate in 1881, he might properly have added that on a motion to indefinitely postpone, the Senate being a tie, fifteen to fifteen, the presiding officer, Mr. Carns, of Seward, voted to postpone, thus defeating the measure. The bill had quite a history, as may be seen, by those interested, in examining Senate File No. 52, in the Senate Journal for 1881. Briefly it was as follows: On the 19th day of the session the bill was introduced by Senator H. M. Wells. It was referred to the railroad committee of which John C. Myers was chairman, the committee consisting of Myers, C. H. Gere, H. M. Wells, H. F. Cady, Isaac Powers, J. F. Burns and H. Zehring. The bill was a plain, straight bill providing that the railroads of Nebraska should not charge more than three cents a mile for carrying passengers. There were serious defects in the bill, as introduced, one of which would have rendered it unconstitutional, had it passed in that shape. These were remedied when the bill came to be considered in committee of the whole. The measure run the usual gauntlet, but final action was taken on the 38th day. Ervin moved that the consideration of the bill be indefinitely postponed. The yeas and nays being demanded, were as follows: for postponement, Ballantine, Burns, of Dodge, Cady, Coon, Daily, Ervin, Evans, (of Butler), Gere, (C. H.), now of the railroad commission), Morse, Myers, Perkins, Pierce, Powers, (late Attorney General), Smith, (B. K., of Boone county), and Zehring.

Those voting against postponement, and thus going on the record as favoring the reduction of passenger rates to three cents a mile were: Baker, Burns, (of York), Dismore, Doane, Graham, Harrington Howe, Taylor, Teft, Turk, Turner, Van Wyck, (now U. S. Senator), Wells, Wherry and White.

Being a tie vote, 15 to 15, the fate of that measure in the Nebraska Senate, in the year 1881, depended upon one man's vote, that of the presiding officer, Edward C. Carns, Lieut. Governor, from the county of Seward. He voted for postponement, and thus helped to defeat one of the attempts made in the Nebraska legislature to fix a limit to railroad extortion.

When the complete history of railroad legislation comes to be written, there will be some interesting chapters for Nebraska, and one of them will have considerable to say of Mr. Carns and his perfect subservience to railroad influences. It will be well for the republican party of Nebraska when such men are not elected to office.

The celebration of the Knights of Labor on the 6th inst., of their annual holiday proved to be a gala day. In Boston 15,000 people took part in the grand procession, in that city the grand parade, in Chicago 40,000 laborers united in a similar parade. In Baltimore the demonstration was imposing, the columns being composed of eight divisions, preceded by a platoon of police. New York city turned out from 15,000 to 20,000 laborers to celebrate the holiday, which was followed by a picnic. At Newark, N. J. 25,000 men took part in the procession.

LEVI M. BROBST, of West Point, Neb., was married to Miss Gussie Lefler on the 1st of September, and they started on their wedding trip east to visit Brobst's parents at Stratton, Pa., whom he had not seen in ten years. On the route, Brobst acted strangely and near Anville, Pa., he leaped from the train, bidding his new bride good bye, and landed among the rocks down a steep bank. The train was stopped and with lamps the brakeman found the mangled and bleeding body down among the boulders. He was frightfully hurt, and when brought to Reading died without uttering a word.

COLUMBUS has two candidates for the nomination for governor, on opposite sides of the fence, Hon. Leonard Gerrard being the Republican aspirant, while Hon. James E. North is frequently mentioned as the Democratic nominee. Either gentleman would fill the gubernatorial chair with dignity and grace, and should the two political conventions bring the choice for the next governor down to a purely Columbus affair, there would be a very pretty race, and no mistake would be made, no matter which candidate is successful.—Elkhorn Valley News.

ADVICES from Ching Too Foo, the chief of the province of Schuen to Shanghai, China, state that the natives of the eastern part of that province and those of northern Cochinchina have risen against the Christians and are massacring them and destroying their property. This active persecution is attributed to the impudence of the English and American missionaries. In Cochinchina alone, fifty Christians have been killed, their houses burned and farms destroyed. It is said that whole villages occupied by Christians have been destroyed.

WEDNESDAY morning last there was quite a wreck at Grand Island, caused by a misplaced switch.

The engine and two fruit cars of a passenger train ran off the track. The engine was thrown on its side and badly demolished. A man by the name of Simon Koehler of Denver was riding between the two fruit cars, was so tightly squeezed that a jack-screw was needed to extricate him. Though badly injured, he may recover.

CAPT. John L. Clem, assistant quartermaster, U. S. A., in the department of the Platte, is ordered to proceed to Ogden, Utah, for duty. A short leave of absence has been granted to Capt. Charles F. Humphrey, quartermaster at Cheyenne, Wyo. Major James F. Randlett, Ninth cavalry, has been assigned to a station at Fort Robinson, Neb. The commanding officer Cheyenne Ordnance Depot, Wyo., will issue to the commanding officers of troops B, and E, Ninth cavalry, at Fort DuChesne, Utah, 64 each, of the new model Springfield carbines for trial.

THE State University at Lincoln opens in all its departments Sept. 16. Entrance examinations are to be held the two days preceding. The University is the highest grade of the public free school of the state, and those who are able to do so, should take advantage of the opportunity offered by the state for a higher education than the district school affords.

WALHAM WANDSER, of Vermont, is giving the citizens of Lansing, Mich., considerable trouble in shoving off counterfeit coin. After he was arrested, in his trunk was found eight hundred dollars in bogus gold and $1,200 in certificates of deposit on the Lansing Savings Bank. The coin ranged from $1 to $20 pieces, which the genuine, save for light weight.

A SEVERE rain, hail and wind storm visited Hastings, Neb., the other night. It blew in the west wall of the engine house at the waterworks, damaging it materially—also injured the opera house—the B. & M. round house—the Amphitheatre at the fair grounds; various residences were also damaged more or less.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Madison Chronicle, signing himself "Passenger," says that the railroad accident at Platte Center was caused by rum, and that the man drove his team straight down the track into the face of the engine. He probably didn't examine the tracks very closely.

PRINCE ALEXANDER has fully decided to proclaim his abdication. The Russian consulates in Bulgaria are distributing for signature petitions to the czar favoring the election of the prince of Oldenburg as successor to Prince Alexander. This course, it is said, has been taken at the request of Bismarck to save Bulgaria.

AT Peoria, Ill., a company of citizens with a capital stock of $25,000, has been formed for the purpose of making known the advantages of the place as a manufacturing city, and inducing manufacturers and others to locate there. A similar organization would be a most excellent thing for the growing towns of Nebraska.

FRY D. A. BRADY, post chaplain at Fort D. A. Russell, died suddenly September 9th. Mr. Brady was well known to many of our Ohio readers. He was one of the many patriotic Methodist ministers who got into the army during the War of the Rebellion. He was a genial gentleman. Mr. Brady's widow is a sister of ex-Postmaster General, Frank Hatton.

Denver.

EN. JOURNAL.—After a long silence, I am induced to write you a communication that your readers may know that your humble servant still lives. The past summer in Denver has been very hot indeed. My partner, Gen. A. J. Sampson, and his son, Anderson, recently returned from a trip to the Pacific coast, where the general went to attend the G. A. R. Encampment. He was delighted with country, trip, people, and so forth. He took some pains to inquire into the labor movement on the coast. He reports 5,000 socialists in San Francisco, and only 12 anarchists in that whole country; that California contains 75 trades union and 70 labor organizations.

Eastern Colorado and western Nebraska are settling up very rapidly. Nebraskans occasionally call on the writer. Col. Robert Moran made quite a visit to the Queen City. He is one of the best of men and it is too bad that he suffers so from asthma. He came to this country for relief and I guess he did not find much of it. Mr. Jas. Meagher and family have come and gone. Messrs. Lake and Miller from Creston have located homesteads near Julesburg.

Former Columbus residents who live in Denver so far as I can learn are getting along nicely. Dr. Bone-steel is working up a good practice in his profession. He has now five cases of typhoid fever. Patients are doing well. Mr. and Mrs. Palmer are prospering. They have a large circle of friends here in Platte county. Mr. A. Henrich, the father of J. S., is the very "salt of the earth." E. R. Dean, Esq., of David City, paid his respects. His daughter, Jessie, is still here. She thinks of teaching

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Bismarck Township.—Threshing is in progress. T. M. Wilson has got his seed corn gathered. Hay is about finished. Emil Carr is making hay for J. Wagner of Columbus. Miss Laura Butler is visiting friends at Richmond. Louis Numburg sold quite a number of cattle last week. Misses Annie and Alice Stevens, of Genoa, were visiting at O. D. Butler's at Richmond. R. C. Mueller came very near losing one of his valuable horses with the colic the other day. W. H. Swartzley commenced his school on the 30th. He is engaged for eight months. We noticed about a dozen loads of hogs going by last week from lower Shell Creek; we suppose they are getting afraid of the cholera too. W. H. Swartzley broke one of the springs to his buggy by leaving it too heavily laden with melons one evening last week; we suspect where he was going.

A 15-year-old son of Mrs. Karhine has a badly swelled face resulting from his getting cold in a small dwelling which first appeared on his lower jaw.

From present prospects pork will be pretty dear the coming winter and spring, hogs being about as scarce as "hen's teeth" in this section of the country. There was quite a gathering at Otto Mueller's one day last week, at which the Hiawak thresher and "masher," Fred Cole was present, riding about five miles to see the girls again. The late rain put the ground in pretty good condition to plow, although it did not wet down very deep. Some of the neighbors have availed themselves of the opportunity and are turning the weeds under.

Rescued from the Grave.

My wife for many years was afflicted with a blood disease which baffled the most skillful treatment, and finally resulted in a very large ulcerated and ugly looking running sore on one of her limbs, which had been growing larger and larger for the last four years, discharging quantities of pus or matter, and was rapidly undermining her health that I almost despaired of effecting a cure. I tried every known remedy, such as the sarsaparilla and potash mixtures and prescriptions of the best physicians, with no benefit in any way. A few months ago my attention was called to S. S. S. I procured some of this medicine, which she began to take, and in a short time increased in flesh and strength, and the sore, which was then larger than my hand and reached to the bone, began to heal. After continuing its use a few weeks, she regained her health and spirits, and the sore was entirely healed. She had been in such a terrible condition for years, and was so near death's door at the time she commenced the S. S. S., that I refrained from making the facts known to the public. Though knowing or being satisfied that she was cured, I feared the disease might return; but as it has now been three months since she stopped using the medicine, and is in perfect health, being able to walk several miles without unusual fatigue, and attends to household duties as she did before she was so afflicted, I publicly make this statement for the benefit of all who are afflicted as was my wife.
