- The Golden Bell Comedy and Comic Opera company gave one of their rare and most excellent entertainments at the opera house last night to a rather small but appreciative audience. From the rising of the curtain to the close of the enterment the audience was kept in a continuous round of admiration and applause. This company is, without an exception, by far the best company in the market. that ever appeared in Shelton. It is one of true merit, and the members are all artists who possess splendid iday goods, at Dr. Stillman's drug to perfection. The entertainment which they give is entirely different from anything ever given here before, and cannot but belp to please all who see it. The company gives another performance here this evening, and oldest and best farmers of Platte deserve to be greeted by a crowded county, a man who knows how to house, and all who fail to attend will make the most money from his miss a chance of seeing one of the labors, brought to this market Mon- best performances by one of the best companies now traveling. - Shelton
