George Davis, who for some time has held a position on the Democrat of this city, went to Schuyler last week to take a clerkship in a dry goods store of that place. Good luck to you, George.

Beach and Bowers' minstrels appeared at the Opera House Friday night last to a good house and kept their hearers in roars of laughter for two hours. A good minstrel troupe is what attracts the average Columbus denizen.

Carl Kramer drove up from Columbus Wednesday to see how business matters are running at his store here. While Mr. Kramer keeps one eye well on his finances he has the other peeled for the interest of his friend, Van Wyck—Genoa Leader.

J. N. Stewart, of the U. S. Army, stationed at Omaha, was in the city a couple of days last week visiting friends. He was returning from a short stay with his uncle, Levi Jenkins, of Kalamazoo, Madison county, who is very low with disease of the kidneys.

Each person who buys one dollar and fifty cents of jewelry at my store from Dec. 1 to Jan. 1, will hold one number; one of said numbers will entitle the holder to a beautiful diamond and opal ring. Call and see the prize. A. J. Arnold, opposite Clothier Hotel. 33-3

It is stated in an exchange that there are now traveling in this country 225 recognized dramatic companies, 31 musical organizations, 17 variety combinations, 22 minstrel bands, 17 miscellaneous parties and 32 circuses. We guess Columbus is getting her share of the amusements.

The many friends of Charles Henderson will be sorry to learn that his health is very poorly and according to the Schuyler Quill "his life seems to hang by a thread only." He will be remembered by our Columbus readers as the genial telegraph operator for the U. P. here several years ago.

J. & A. Heitkemper will move their large stock of staple and fancy groceries, crockery, etc., into the rooms now occupied by G. Heitkemper's jewelry store, about the middle of November, and expect to deserve a continuance there of the very liberal patronage the public has been bestowing upon them. 26-1

Any person purchasing goods to the amount of $3.00 at J. B. Delsman's will be given, free of charge, a ticket which entitles the holder to a chance on any of the following articles: a No. 3 Singer Sewing Machine, a $5 Album and a fine silk Muller worth $2.50. Chances will be good until Dec. 31, 1886. Remember that J. B. D. is never undersold. 33-4

At the earnest solicitation of citizens of Platte Center, Schroeder Bros. of this city are about to establish a depot at that thriving burg for the exchange of flour for wheat. To those who wish to exchange wheat for Schroeder's celebrated brands of fine flour, it will be a good opportunity without being compelled to haul many more miles to and from Columbus.

The Engine Company, at their meeting Monday evening, made the necessary arrangements to give a ball Christmas night, Dec. 25th. The fire boys know how to manage to make such affairs pleasant for those who attend, and also profitable to themselves, and as they represent an institution that all our citizens are interested in, they should see to it that they have good patronage.

The JOURNAL job department is prepared to furnish, on short notice all kinds of commercial work such as letter heads, note heads, bill heads, statements, circulars, envelopes, cards, doggers, posters, &c.; visiting cards; lawyers' briefs; pamphlets; catalogues; sale bills, &c. Satisfaction guaranteed. Orders by mail promptly attended to. Address, M. K. Turner & Co., Columbus, Neb.

The Fire Department of this city are making arrangements to receive the delegates of the Nebraska State Firemen's Association which meeting will convene here the 19th of January. Considerable work will be despatched during the continuation of the session, among which will be the location of the annual tournament. Several hundred delegates are expected, and our fire laddies will endeavor to make things pleasant for them while in our city.

Wednesday evening, at 8 o'clock, prompt, all citizens, business men and others, are earnestly requested to be present at the City Hall, to confer upon matters of very general interest to the city. Don't forget this. Don't delay it. Be sure to attend. CARL KRAMER, Mayor.

J. S. Freeman and wife returned Saturday from a visiting tour east, John also being in attendance at the National Convention of the Knights of Labor at Richmond, Va. He speaks of the southern people he came in contact with as very kind and hospitable, and well disposed towards the northern folks. There are many objects of interest at and near Richmond, but John had time to speak only of a few. Ex-President Tyler's grave has no mark but a magnolia tree. He visited ex-President Monroe's grave. The monument to the Rebel dead near Richmond is forty-five feet square at the base, rising ninety-five feet high. This is built without mortar except at the very top alone, ten feet high, which was placed by a penitentiary convict, who received ten years off his sentence for the feat. Gen. Washington's headquarters is pointed out, also the church in which Patrick Henry delivered his famous speech; old Libby prison is being used as a store house for fertilizers; the day that President Cleveland attended the State Fair (Oct. 21), it is estimated there were 20,000 people in the city. Mr. Freeman says that the President does not seem to be a very bright man, one rather thinks of physical strength and endurance, and considerable self-will or stubbornness when looking at him. Mr. Freeman says that "times" in the east are very much closer than in Nebraska.

The friends of Grandma Griffin gladdened her heart last week by presenting her with a nice heating stove, and helping her relay her carpet, etc., making her more comfortable. We have known aged people to wrongly imagine that they were "in the road," "not wanted," "lingering uselessly on the stage," but this is all a mistake with people of intelligence and heart. The sentiment with such, is much the same for the very aged as for the very young, with this added, that the aged have passed through many a trial, conflict and sorrow, and are entitled, if they have preserved their integrity, to our reverence, as well as our affection and our aid. All right-minded youth naturally expect to be aged sometime, and they will instinctively honor the aged with us and care for them as they would wish for themselves in similar circumstances. There is no finer crown for son or daughter than that they care for father or mother with affection like that bestowed upon themselves—pure and fervent. The truth is that to be allowed the privilege of ministering to the wants of those who are dear to us by ties of kindred or to those who for any reason, enlist our affection, is one of the tokens that human nature has somewhat of the divine in it. If people were less ashamed to say kind words, and more ready to give expression to their generous impulses, this would be a better world than it is.

A Baptist Meeting at Meza. The Nebraska Association of German Baptist churches met December 37 with the German Baptist church at Meza, Platte county, Neb. This body comprises the churches at Beatrice, Genoa, Plattville, Elk Creek and Humphrey, Meza and Omaha, and all except Omaha were represented. The meeting was opened with a sermon by Rev. C. H. Ranz of Plattville, and was then called to order by its presiding officer Rev. A. Heinrich, who was, by acclamation, unanimously re-elected. The time was chiefly spent in religious services, in discussions and deliberations on the condition of the churches and in devising plans of operations for the extension of Christ's kingdom. One result was that a colporteur was appointed to be supported by the association as far as its means will go, and meanwhile application for a permanent appointment will be made to the Baptist Publication Societies. The religious exercises were conducted by the ministers from abroad and were well attended. They closed with a lovefeast which lasted till about 1 o'clock a. m., and was enjoyed very much by all present. Short addresses by a number of brethren besides the ministers, fervent prayers and good singing made deep impressions. About midnight the sisters of the church served coffee and cake, which were also relished by all. Two collections for benevolent objects amounted together to about $13 or $14. The next meeting will be held February 25th at Beatrice, Rev. A. Heinrich to preach the opening sermon and Rev. H. P. Beuthak to be his alternate. REPORTER.

Palatine. J. M. Anderson is building a corn crib 24x20. Mrs. Persson had a little boy baby a couple of weeks ago. Mr. A. G. Rolf commenced his third term in our school district the 20th of Nov. 139 hogs were taken to Genoa by three of our farmers Thursday and Friday of last week. Nels Berlin returned to his Daves county farm yesterday, after visiting his home here for five weeks. Mr. Berlin, sr., has been suffering with inflammatory rheumatism for some time; has been very sick but is better now. W. D. Hanchett received the money last week, for the horse he lost in August from the Omaha Horse and Cattle Insurance company and gratefully acknowledged the same. Master Paul Rolf ran a pitch-fork tie into his arm lengthwise from his elbow toward the wrist two weeks ago. But he only stayed out of school two days to get his arm and was out again as jolly as ever. Quite a number of our farmers have bought the "Parition Steam Boiler" for fattening cattle and hogs with less expense and in less time than by the old way, which is a necessity in these hard times. MARRIED.—Dec. 11, by pastor of the Lutheran church, Mr. John Berlin late of Tecoma, W. T., and Miss Mary Benson of Brooklyn, N. Y. We understand the bride and groom were loudly serenaded in the evening. DANN. Bismark Township. Snow disappeared very rapidly last week. There were some pretty cold mornings last week. The people are putting up their supply of winter meat. Otto Mueller has purchased a fine young bull of Mr. Brunnhaber. Jacob Karlne is shelling and hauling away most of his corn. George Hodel is repairing his pasture fence. Nothing on a farm like good fences. The enrollment of the Bismark Academy has now increased to thirty-seven. Corn husking is again in full blast, many of the neighbors having large amounts in the field yet. C. J. Moore shelled a few hundred bushels of corn for Louis Nounburg, the other day, and J. G. Dreher expects to shell soon. CHARLES. Weather Report. Review of the weather at Genoa for the month of Nov. 1886. Mean temperature of the mo.—deg's 32.15 Mean do of same mo. last year—deg's 37.10 Highest temperature on the 1st, —degrees 50 Lowest do on the 25th—deg's 5 Ordinarily clear days 19 Very cloudy days 10 Calm days 12 High winds—days 8 Number of days on which rain fell 6 Inches of rain fall or melted snow 1.43 Do of same month last year 1.32 Inches of snow during the month 13.20 Frost throughout the month. Fogs on the 21st. Lunar Halo on the 14th. Parhelia on the 30th. Violent storm of wind and snow commencing on the evening of the 15th at 9 p. m., and continuing without intermission until the morning of the 17th. Snow very much drifted and roads blocked; for the violence of the storm it has been only exceeded by that of 1874.
