TURSDAY, JAN. 4TH. and national; unbelief; intemperance; indifference; formalism. John xiii. 15-27. WEDNESDAY, JAN. 5TH.

Prayer for the church - minis ters: teachers; members; zeal; spirituality; consistency; fellowship and aggressive work. John xv. 12-21. THURSDAY, JAN. 6TH.

Prayer for families and schools-family love; christian nurture; early conversion; for colleges; Sunday schools and FRIDAY, JAN. 7TH. Prayer for missions-consecration person and property, blessed by the Holy Spirit that soon the gospel may be preached to every creature. Mark xvi.: Acts

SATURDAY, JAN. 8TH. Prayer for nations; outpouring of the Holy Spirit; enforcement of equal and just laws; for rulers; Sabbath observance; the suppression of anarchism and dog. lawlessness; for peace among nations; the abolition of slavery; the opium trade and liquor traffic; for the blessing of God on all efforts to remove the curse of intemperance. Rom. xiii.: Joel ii. 23-32. That the members of our churches may have a greater sense of personal responsibility for the meetings, and thus the aggregate attendance and benefit be as large as possible, we have decided to
