Last week the well known barber Henry Woods, was adjudged insane, and was taken to the insane asylum at Lincoln. that there is little money in the country. Among other odd things that Mr. J. speaks of during his trip is a town in Barton county, Mo., called Liberal, which is four or five years old, with a population of 1.000, has no officer and has never had, except a recorder of deeds, and has never had either a church or a saloon.

The Old and the New.

The old council adjourned sine die last Saturday evening, the last act being a motion by Councilman North that the thanks of the retiring council be tendered to Mayor Carl Kramer for the able and impartial manner in which he had presided over the deliberations of the council. This was the handsome thing to do, and was but justice to Mayor Kramer. The late council, including Ragatz and Lockner and North, will long be remembered by citizens of Columbus, as holding the reins during a very important epoch, and doing their already sold $32,000 worth of lots, and duty well.

The new council elected E. D. Fitzpatrick as their president, and the Jour-NAL hopes that city affairs will have the full and fair attention of councilmen elect, and that the end of the year may see Columbus in even better situation than at present.
