ISSUED EVERY WEDNESDAY BY M. K. TURNER & CO.

Columbus, Neb. TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION: One year, by mail, postage prepaid,

-Payable in Advance.

Specimen copies mailed free, on applica-

TO SUBSCRIBERS. When subscribers change their place of residence they should at once notify us by letter or postal card, giving both their former and their present post-office,—the first enables us to readily find the name on our mailing list, from which, being in type, we each week print, either on the wrapper or on the margin of your Journal, the date to which your subscription is paid or accounted for. Remittances should be made either by money-order, registered letter or draft, payable to the order of

M. K. Turner & Co. M. K. TURNER & Co.

TO CORRESPONDENTS. All communications, to secure attention, must be accompanied by the full name of the writer. We reserve the right to reject any manuscript, and cannot agree to return the same.—We desire a correspondent in every school-district of Platte county, one of good judgment, and reliable in every way.—Write plainly, each item separately. Give us facts.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 13, 1887.

Coming Events. Firemen's Tournament, Kearney, July

18 - 22. Annual Camp Meeting State Holinese Association, at Bennett, Neb., August

3-13. Omaha Fair, Sept. 5-10. Soldiers Reunion, Omaha, Sept. 5-12

Nebraska State Fair, Lincoln, Sept. Fair at Schuyler Sept. 21-24.

27 - 30.Fair at Albion Oct. 4-6.

THE U. S. consul at Palermo ha Washington that deaths there the other day are believed to be from cholera.

Platte County Fair at Columbus, Sept

It is reported from Montreal last week that Canadian cholera is more prevalent any price that Rome can get in return." this season than for many years past. Children are dying from cholera infantum at an alarming rate.

to be a church choir in Massachusetts port, shaking the whole city. The in which there has not been a quarrel building was of wood, which for three years, but most likely it is one was blown to pieces, leaving nothing of those country squeaking choirs which sing by ear and main strength."

was blown to pieces, leaving nothing earnings of the Fremont post office for tibly packed up in that little cherub, the year ending June 30, 1887, were their first born. sing by ear and main strength.

PAYMENTS from the U.S. treasury or account of pensions since the 18th inst. amount to nearly $12,000,000. It is stated that the expenditures so far this month exceed receipts by over $9,000,000.

A REBORT comes from Julesburg, Col. of a severe drouth at that place and vicinity, with no signs of crops, that there would be no hay, vegetables, etc.,

PHILLIP LEIGLER, living with hi mother in the north part of Cincinnati, died in great agony the other night from the effects of a dose of carbolic acid administered by his mother by mistake for medicine.

An English mail steamer from St Thomas to Havanna the other day brought the news that Peter Parli, who took part in the American Revolution, under General Washington, had died in Demerara, aged 130 years.

It is stated that there are three hundred and fifty-five new money offices were established on the 5th inst., by the postmaster general at Washington. Among this number we notice only one in Nebraska at Wayland.

A REPORT comes from Sterling, Col., contradicting that sent out from Washington that eastern Colorado was suffering from drouth, and that homesteaders were compelled to leave their home- 'flag,' and a chorus of do da, do da, day. steads, and pronouncing it false in every particular.

HUGH M. BROOKS, who killed C. A. Preller and packed him in a trunk at the Southern Hotel at St. Louis, is now face to face with the gallows. The state supreme court has refused his application for re-hearing and set the execution for August 26.

daughter of the late President James stick her and choke her until insensible: A. Garfield, is engaged to be married be then retreated to the woodshed and to J. S. Brown, who, it will be pretended suicide. Dr. North, chief remembered was her father's private surgeon of the Wabash railroad, was secretary during his brief career in the presidential office.

THE Postmaster General has fixed the rates of government telegrams the same as last year. The basis of computation has been changed. Instead of paying rates on exact distance from the place where the telegram is filed to the point of destination, distance from state or territorial capitals is computed and tolls paid thereon.

JOHN A. WITTER, the famous Colorado horse breeder, died at his residence in Denver; suspicions of relatives brought about a post mortem examination, which proved that Witter had been poisoned. His wife is strongly suspected, as she was very jealous of Mr. Witter. He was $100,000 worth of property. It con- in jail awaiting a hearing. only thirty-six years old. He leaves an estate it is said of over $100,000.

As USUAL here Nebraska is again with an additional lot of laws which everybody is subject to, with scarcely nobody knowing what they are; some of them went into force from the time of approval, the remainder of them July 1, and yet, even the most intelligent of citizens who desire to know the laws have not had the opportunity to do so.

On the morning of the 4th an famous attempt was made to kill the whole family of Mrs. S. Hoyt, who keeps a saloon in Denver, Col., by blowing up the house by a stick of dynamite. Albert Hopgood and Leonard Davenport, who did the deed, have been arrested and put jail. The object was revenge because Mrs. Hoyt's daughter refused to listen to Hopgood's loving words.

Some of the more independent of the democratic newspapers are outspoken and eighty-one buildings have been dein their denunciation of President Cleveland's letter explaining why he will not be present at St. Louis; the World wants to know how many threats would have deterred General Jackson. for instance, from going to a place where he had promised to be present Mr. Cleveland, however, is not Jackson. and, if he thinks he would be an unwelcome guest, as he says, he has a perfeet right to reconsider his promise.

Late Telegrams. Hon, W. H. Munger of Fremont has accepted a place on the board of railroad commissioners, and filed his bond.

The sloop Mystery was capsized Long Island Monday evening, with a party of thirty-five excursionists on board mostly women and children. Only ten were rescued alive.

Flournay, secretary of Virginia, and the editor of the Richmond Times, at a recent banquet at Richmond, given to the Gen. Lands Post G. A. R. of New York, advocated a change of the U.S. flag by the addition of the rebel stars and bars.

Ben Halliday, a well-known western character, died Monday at St. Vincent's Hospital, Portland, Ore., of paralysis. Born in Keutucky, a grocer in Missouri, a government contractor, and at one time worth $5,000,000, afterwards losing a great deal of it, his was a very checker-

Saturday night at 8 o'clock fire broke out on the stage of the Alcazer theater, Hurley, Wis., and within an hour the entire business part of the town was in flames, while eleven persons perished in the theater. Loss, of property, fully $500,000. The Alcazer was a variety theater chiefly frequented by miners, and was one of the resorts of unsavory repute associated with notorious dance houses of the mining regions.

Dr. McGlynn's speech at New York Sunday was received with vociferous applause. He said that God would not condemn those who followed the dictations of their conscience. "As long as failed. Catholic people continue to let the pope do as he pleases, in politics as well as religion, allowing the cardinals to be elected to assemblies and daring to forbid an American priest from making any speeches or attending any political meeting in the future without permission telegraphed the department of state at of the propaganda, which thinks Florida is a suburb of New York and Mobile a street in San Francisco; so long as such is allowed, so long will the Irish. German and American poor be sold out for

AT Findlay, O., one day recently the McCoy glycerine factory, situated on the Carlen farm about four miles west THE Omaha World says there is "said of the city exploded with a terrific reof the building. The ground where the building stood was torn up in a terrible manner, leaving a hole in the ground eighteen feet deep. Tramps were seen hanging around just before the explosion, but after it shoes and parts of clothing were found and it is believed that the tramps were blown to atoms. The cause of the explosion is not known.

Dr. North, of Peru, Ind., a promiand that settlers are leaving to hunt for nent physician of that place was shot and killed by John Christainson one afternoon last week. Christainson was jailed, but at 12:15 a. m. a band of masked men appeared at the jail and being refused the keys for admission, battered down the iron door, took Christainson, run him down to the bridge across the Wabash river, pulled him up by the neck and let him hang until he was dead, all accomplished in thirty minutes from the time the keys were demanded. The lynching was witnessed by a thousand people. After this part of the proceedings was over it was announced that Dr. North was not dead but in a critical condition.

"DANIEL?" "What, sire." "Can you write poetry?" "I cannot, sire, but Drum can."

"Oh d-n Drum." "But what do you want, sire?" "I want a campaign song; an old rattler, the lines ending with

'Buffalo nag' and "Which flag, sire."

"Dan'l, take this pardon away, I am in no humor to sign it. You make me lame."—Chicago Mail.

THE shooting of Dr. North by Christianson at Peru, Ind., is explained in this way: Christianson's young daughter got married against his consent, which infuriated him; he called his daughter from her new home, threaten-MISS MOLLIE GARFIELD, the only ing to kill the bride and groom, then called, and when he opened the woodshed, was fatally shot by Christianson.

> THE careless use of firecrackers on the 4th at Clarendon, Pa., was the cause of a great conflagration in the town, burning more than a hundred business houses and residences, wiping out the greater part of the town. John Stewart was caught in the bursting of an oil ing something against the law. His artank and was cremated. It is feared that many others shared a similar fate. No estimate can be put upon the loss. but there is every reason to believe that it will reach half a million dollars.

A FIRE one day last week broke out at Grafton, W. Va., supposed to be of incendiary origin, and before it could be sumed, with almost all their contents, dwellings.

LATE news from London of the Irish land bill in the House of Lords the other evening, Earl Dunrayen said there were 300 amendments waiting, which alnost recast the bill, many provisions of which derogated from the main object of the measure. Earl Spence declared the bill would fail to bring a settlement of the Irish question, and was not worth considering, as it would not relieve the

A SECOND fire at Clarendon, Pa., last week about swept the town out of existence. The fire got into the oil wells and derricks and fixtures, which soon turned into solid flames. Two hundred stroyed. One child perished in the flames, and two or three grown persons were badly burned.

Dr. Mackenzie, by an operation last part of the county, though it was not in as good a state of preservation as this one." This is another proof that the German Crown Prince when he left is one. This statement comes from the British Medical Journal at London. It is further stated that Dr. Mackenzie is from the surface.

of a mastodon was found in the eastern part of the county, though it was not of novels but they are the only books of novels but they are the only books that have any life in them so, she takes over the fatigue and misusage she received trying to cross Shell Creek. The growth that remained in the throat of the mastodon was a coanger in Nebraska. She glances at the fashion papers, of course she has to keep up with the styles, but she decides that she can borrow one from her cousin, Maria Jane, so she takes another novel. Then she passes down the street with a very in not troubled at the Prince's condition.

of a mastodon was found in the eastern part of the county, though it was not follows, to-wit: Lot number 6 in Block of novels but they are the only books that have any life in them so, she takes over the fatigue and misusage she received trying to cross Shell Creek. The game of the world by Jacob Gutter, jr., on the 2d day of November, A. D. 1835, 1876, 1873, 1876, 1873, 1876, 1873, 1876, 1873, 1876, 1876, 1877, 1873, 1877, 1872, 1873, 1877, 1873, 18 not troubled at the Prince's condition. from the surface.

Mr. Blaine was entertained at supper in London, one evening last week, by Henry Irving. A number of prominent persons were present. Mr. Blaine will start in a day or two on a tour through Scotland and Ireland returning to London the last of the month. He will then go to Hamburg for the waters and for

A RLPORT from Berlin, Wis., states that worms are destroying the cranberry vines in that section, and it is feared that the vines will be permanently injured. One grower who expected to harvest 1,500 bushels will not get any. NEBRASKA NOTES.

Long Pine can boast of mustering in recently a military company of fifty-two

The land office was opened at Chadon the other day and business it is said started off lively.

The State Veterinarian has quarantined the four townships in which the infected herd is located.

Omaha had a $5,000 fire Thursday night in a block owned by Hansel & Allen, corner 13th and Harney. The B. & M. railroad is graded up to the U. P. track here and the graders pulled out .- Schuyler Quill, July 6. Last week it was stated that in the southern part of the state the farmers are harvesting their wheat and oats.

The O'Neill papers report the discovery of the "wild man of Nebraska" near that town. An attempt to capture him

Lloyd, a 10-years-old son of Byron O'Krne, living near Iticha, was drowned while bathing in Wahoo creek one day last week. Miss Hattie Murphey mysteriously disappeared the other night from Rulo. She is described as being 15 years old, dark brown hair, and had on a plaid A survey has commenced for the contruction of a canal from the Platte over to Kearney. This will give the city water power equal to 11,500 horse A $25,000 hotel will soon be completed at Norfolk. The addition to the Insane Asylum at that place is to be made soon, and some $94,000 expended on $13,657.68. The earnings for last year The register and receiver of the land

South Omaha is now fourth in the list of pork packing cities of the Union. with a prospect of soon being the third, only Chicago, St. Louis and Kansas City being now ahead.

with that of Lincoln.

Gustave Barmeston was drowned on the 5th inst., near Norfolk, in the North Fork while in bathing it is said in an intoxicated condition. His home is said to be at Walnut, Iowa.

noticed in this state of the celebration of the Fourth of July, none excelled Ed. Fitzpatrick's to the young America of Columbus and vicinity. A fight occurred the other night a K. C. & O. depot, York. One man was hit on the head with a spike and the other had his breast caved in by a blow from a hammer. All were arrested. Maud Murphey, a nice looking girl of 13, is supposed to have walked in her sleep into the Missonri river a few nights ago at Rulo. Her body has since been found near Nodaway, Missouri, by O. F. Alger, of Albion, was arrested the other night by Marshal Cooley.

charged by his wife with failing to support her, and with cruelty. The warrant was sworn out by Mrs. Alger's father, but he was subsequently discharged. During a severe thunder storm one evening last week at Red Cloud and vicinity, two sons of Joseph Cox, living some distance in the country, were struck and instantly killed. One boy was nine years old, the other thirteen. A very severe storm was reported one day last week at Superior. A good deal of property was injured, and some of it greatly so. John Tindle, a farmer living in the country was struck by flying timber and had both legs broken. Several other persons were reported injured. A. W. Rankin, living sixteen miles northeast of Broken Bow on Clear creek while plowing in his field one day last by lightning and instantly killed. He was a man highly esteemed and respect-ed. He leaves a wife and several children to mourn his loss. M. N. Eskey, druggist, of Bartley, was arrested the other day by U.S. Marshal Stewart, accused of selling liquor, or dorest it is stated was a surprise to the citizens as they thought he was a model druggist as it regards liquor selling. It is said he will stand a trial. W. F. Wahi, of Albion, was arrested the other night on a charge by G. W. Waisner, of embezzlement, but, giving bond for his appearance, he was discharged. The next morning his sureties subdued, is believed to have burned surrendered him up, and he was placed twenty-eight buildings including two of report of railroad track laying in the the largest hotels, two furniture stores, first six months of 1887. The report two drug stores, two millinery stores. shows that the number of roads worked the Standard Express newspaper office on in Nebraska were five, and three hunand several small stores and private dred and thirty-one miles of track laid. Decidedly a good showing for six

> W. H. Keeling of Falls City has an acquisition in the form of the jaw bone of a mastodon, found in the Nemaha valley. "The bone is twelve feet and ten inches in length, and as it has been broken off at the ends, it must have originally been considerably longer; in the broadest part the bone is nearly two feet in width, and the cavities are easily discerned where the immense molar teeth were set. The great weight of the bone would indicate that it was partly petrified and turned to stone. From the general appearance of the bone the ordinary observer will naturally conclude that it is a remnant of one of the giant mastodons that in long ages past roamed over this country. Quite recently what was supposed to be the thigh bone of a mastodon was found in the eastern

COLUMBUS HIGH SCHOOL Orations and Essays of the Graduates, May

WHAT'S IN A NAME, BY KATIE PARLY. A name may not be the most in portant factor in a man's life, but it ce ainly is not the least important. No matter how great a man's energy, talent, or courage may be, an odd or ridiculous name will add greatly to the necessary difficulties in making his way upward. For how much more difficult t would be for a Muggins or Boggs to gain acceptance as a poet, than for a Milton or Tennyson? Indeed, some names are almost fatal to success, for they suggest nothing but okes and familiarity. It is difficult to imagine that a person called Blobbs could be visited at any time by an inspiration of genius.

Of what avail is a man's aristocrati appearance, correct dress, and satisfactory balance at the bank, if his visiting eard condemns him to pity or ridicule It must be a great satisfaction to lady bearing a disagreeable name, to know that she may have the opportunity satisfying to her pride and affections. This custom has been adopted by the opes, who change their names on being chosen as successors to St. Peter. The Pope who introduced this custom was Sergious II, who can well be excused for the innovation, since his name meant to change it for a better, in a way botl hog's mouth. During the time of Louis XIV a di inguished writer who was a friend of Richelieu, had the misfortune to bear the inappropriate name Greaux, which neant beggar; it is not surprising that he adopted the name of his patrimonial estate, and was henceforth called Balzac The learned Erasmus adopted the Greek form of his Dutch name Gerard. A great many more instances could be named of eminent and talented men names, have changed them, and a great many instances could be named of men who have neither eminence or talent, indeed nothing to recommend them to notice, but suddenly-acquired wealth, who after making the necessary European tour, have returned to the native land with the glory of a foreign addition to their names such as who, becoming dissatisfied with their

Smith or Van Brown. Some people, anxious to compensate their children for inheriting vulgar or lisagreeable names, couple them with aristocratic, euphonious, Christian names, the result being a ridiculous combination, such as Constance Evangeline Finnegan, or Guy Wellington

One can sympathize with the fact that the young mother and her husband spend many pleasant hours of consultation and discussion in deciding what name will sound most mellifluously, and assert most fittingly the sterling and at It is stated that the gross postal tractive qualities which are so percep-

The French in former times were invoys sent to negotiate a marriage between Louis XIII, and one of the Spanoffice at Beatrice have been notified by ish princesses, rejected Unaco, the elder ner to the study of more beneficial the Secretary of the Interior that the and more beautiful who was intended works? office at Beatrice would be consolidated for their royal master, and preferred her sister, because her name, Blanch, had a more musical sound.

The Spanish were influenced in th same way, as the following incident will Spanish ambassador to the court of Elizabeth of England considered it a great slight to his dignity when the Queen appointed a wealthy citizen to receive him, because his host bore the short and unpretentious name of John Cuts. He found out however that if Cuts had a short name, he had a long purse, and a right royal way of dipping into it for the purpose of up-holding the English name for hospi-From the great variety of reports

> The Ancients were very superstitions in regard to names, and even elevated the study of names to a science, under the title of Ononmantia. More than one Emperor owed his elevation to his name. Cresar in his expedition to Africa gave a command to obscure Scipio, because the people thought that the Scipios were invincible in Africa. Even now in modern times a man's political and social position is in inenced by his name. For how much more willing would man be to admit that he voted for Col. Harrison for mayor, and not for Ephraim Bug, and how often a fashionable society lady is heard vehemently declaring, "No I can't invite him to my party although he is intellectual, moral and wealthy for he has such an awful name I should be ashamed to introduce him," and instead of his name on her list, will ap- Higgins gave us a good oration, devoid pear "Montague Le Roy," the name of an inert, silly young dude, but then "his name's so cute, you know.' Therefore can a man, who has a noble

LITERATURE OF SOCIETY, BY CHATTIE RICI Literature, as well as society, has existed through all ages. The literature of the ancients was very meagre, and consisted mainly of popular songs, and such inscriptions as could be made with name, truly say, "My name, to me, is a the hyeroglyphic alphabet. Greece made the first advance and produced a literature that has been the admiration of all ages, and Socrates, Plato and Aristotle are still among the field of philosophy, and with such success that they are still authority on week during a thunder storm was struck many points, after all the changes society and religion that their race has thousand who took it in on the 4th, it During the dark ages, literature county to read it. Come, Judge, let us seemed to decline, but with that bril- have it, for the Argus man is as mad as liant period in the world's history which marks the discovery of America, the invention of the printing press, the man-ufacture of gun powder and the dawn of political freedom over a benighted world, literature revived, more brilliant and vigorous than ever before, and gave to the world some of its grandest and man became so enthused with the ex-Shakespeare, Milton and Bacon, and fol-The literature of this age was such as to elevate and inspire the reader to cor rect principles and noble acts.

literature of our day? How have we improved this grand inheritance left us by our ancestors? By writing and reading a flashy unreal of Byron Millett was that of Thomas Among our principal and favorite writers are Mrs. Holmes, Bertha M. Clay, May Agnes Fleming, The Duchess and H. Rider Haggard, the latest sens as only a dream; he says that he imagsational writer about whose works the lines that all the officers in Platte county whole of society is thrown into com-

The whole of social literature is History is usually considered uninteresting, but when written in the form of a novel and combined with a copious quantity of fiction, transforming a common historical character into a beautiful that is that he is a "kicker." O, how and bewitching heroine, it at once be- the mighty have fallen and gone off to comes a favorite volume and occupies worship false gods. an important position in the library. Still, a pure novel, written without regard to history, time, place or cause, is generally hailed with the greatest enthusiasm in society.

Another form of literature which might mention are the society papers, filled with spicy paragraphs and humorons anecdotes to attract the eye and refresh the mind but which contain little or no literature of intrinsic value to the reader. Reflect upon the young lady of today as she enters the book store to procure something to read. She is tired to death sipid air as though she had been up the night before till about two o'clock. The modern young man enters the book store, purchases the life of the "Younger Bros., The Cuerillas of the West" or of some other equally noted character, glances around disdainfully at the volumes of poetry and science on the shelves, and then goes out with a very important air whistling probably the tune of the latest popular waltz. The proprietor looks after them, remarks upon the young lady's beauty and the gentleman's style, then takes up his novel entitled "The perils and adventures of Sandy Jim." So runs the world away. Let us glance into the kitchen of Mrs. Samantha V. Dolittle on Saturday at 9 o'clock in the morning, you see Mrs. Dolittle seated in state, reading with seemingly great interest from a book entitled "Cleopatra's wedding secret." The table stands as it did when she finished breakfast, except that her pet poodle is eating leisurely the remaining pieces of beef steak. The milk stands unstrained in a pail on the floor and the cat is helping itself. In fact the whole kitchen is in the most admired disorder.

Mrs. Dolittle looks up and takes in the situation. She throws the dog down, into bankruptcy. scares the cat away and says: "Oh dear I wish they would wait for their breakfast till I finish this chapter." yells her daughter from the other room "baby's crying." "Oh, do let me alone, and take the baby up," says Mrs. Dolit-tle. The daughter walks leisurely into the bed room, looks into the mirror, applies an additional quantity of face powder and wonders if she looks like the heroine in the last story she read. Then she goes over to the cradle, looks at the quite symbolize what you would conider a model household. Very well, let's go into the business nouse. Here everything is supposed to be in the best of order. The cashier sits at his desk seemingly very busy. What is he doing? Why he is reading a novel. "Cash" some one says. "All right," says he, "just a minute." Other clerks come up for cash. When he finishes his chapter how does he make his entries? He credits the whole thing to Texas Joe in payment of a purchase of ten bowie knives and a case of Sharp's rifles. You are ready to go? Doesn't this baby, gives it a shake and takes it up very gingerly. You say the view doesn't suit you either? Why don't the cashier attend to his business, you say? you see his novel is so interesting that he can't put it up. Let's advise the young man to go to the far, far west, the supposed stage of all blood-thrilling acts, and he can soon tell how much of what he reads is truth and how much is fiction. But let us still be very thankful that there is one person out of one hundred who is content to read literature that is at least half sensible, and let us hope that the taste of our novel-reading friends will some day aspire to the perusal of works of culture and science. It has been said that most of the crude mass of fluenced by names, for the French en- begin by reading novels may end by reading Shakespeare and Milton. Is not fiction, then, of value as a forerun-

> If you answer this question correctly you will say No. Other literature might be supplied that would lead to the same results without debasing the public mind with worthless and injurious fie tion. "The love of fiction" says Haggard "is probably co-eval with the existence of humanity." We agree with Mr. Haggard there. But the love of knowledge is probably co-eval also, with the existence of humanity, or, how could the world have so advanced and still be advancing? Yet, if less fiction was read and more people turned their thoughts toward the great and the grand, the world might still advance considerably beyond its present stage, and we could say as did the poet: Lo! the days are hastening on, By prophet bards foretold, When with the ever-circling years omes round the age of gold. When knowledge shall, o'er all the earth, It's closk of glory fling, And the whole world resound the song That now, the learned sing."

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Platte Center. Our saloon men and drug store men have came to dagger's points, and everybody is looking for hair to fly. This is a vicinity for prohibitionists.

We had a glorious 4th. 2,000 people were in attendance. The band boys did good work, and realized $85. Judge of political bom bast. Can any one tell us what has become of the special building committee in School District No. 24. Gentlemen. have you ever been consulted in the matter of building the new brick school building? If not, why not? Mr. S. E. Phillips has commenced the erection of the calaboose. So you men who are in the habit of painting towns red look a little out, as our city dads are getting in earnest, and say that the law must and shall be enforced. Why is it that Judge Higgins refuses world's models. They worked in the to have his oration published in the Argus? or to have any extracts made from it? If it was good for us two undergone in the lapse of so many ages. certainly would benefit the whole a wet hen, and I do not blame him either. J. S. Freeman and D. L. Bruen of Grand Prairie took in the speech of Millett last evening and Judge Freeimmortal names. This was the age of ortation of Byron around the "Horns of the Author," that he suggested that we, lowing them come the great historians, the Author, that he suggested that we, whose works are standard the world of Platte Center, have a literary society over both for fact, and style of writing. formed when the nights get longer and discuss the live issues of the day and post ourselves up on the living issues But what is the character of the and as Byron says not be "bamboozled" any longer.

The only incident during the lecture Shea, who became so overcome that he had to succumb to Morpheus, and Tom declares to this day that it seems to him are appropriating all the taxes to their own use, and that the big monopolies are stealing the farmers blind, and in fact has forgotten whether he was a republican, democrat or a mugwump; but says one thing he does remember and

The man who took the horse and buckboard on the 4th, and which was afterwards found in Shell Creek some mile and a half from town.was yesterday brought before his Honor, Esq. Hawkins. The case was compromised by the young man paying the owner twenty-five dollars and costs, amounting in all to $62: this is quite a luxury indeed, and in all probability will have to pay $150 more, as the fine young mare

Byron Millett delivered himself last vening of an abundance of gall. He said that he used to vote the republican ticket but at this time he was not voting the machine ticket any longer, at which the moss-back went into eestacy; he told us that three-fourths of the farms in Platte county were mortgaged and that a list of the mortgaged property should be published in the county papers, and let the world know how matters stood with the private affairs of those men who in order to pay debts have seen fit to give their money lender ample security. Now we would request our own Mr. Millett in the next speech he makes, to tell the good honest farmers and men who do not read and keep posted (as he does) how is it these farms of this county are mortgaged? What causes these farms to be mortgaged? and by so doing he will relieve a great load from the American people. Come. Byron, tell us for God's sake, and save Neboville. Mr. Ed. Graham and family of Creston visited at Daniel Jenni's last Sunday. Miss Janet Bell and the Misses Welch, of She us poor speculative beings from going reek, were in Neboville last week. Miss Olive M. Payne, of Schuyler, is spending the week with her cousin, Miss Jessie Maw. Mr. Charles Wise of Atchison, Ks., is spending short vacation at the home of his father, Mr ohn Wise.

A week ago last Sunday Chris, Kersch, crack cigar maker of Columbus, together with a large number of friends, spent the day at Mr. J. Kersch's place. All report a good time. We hear that Mr. John Kersch, one of farmers, leaves today (July 10) for Milwaukee Wis. Mr. Kersch formerly resided in the beauti ful city of white brick and lager, and says h knows of no better place to spend the summer He is accompanied by his two grand children. A little too late for last week's letter, we were informed of the wedding, on Thursday, June 30 of Gerhard Grotelueschen and Miss Anna Ress. Ceremony was performed at the Loseke church by Rev. Henry Fischer and the festivities, dancing, supper, etc., at the groom's house, kept up till morning. The bridegroom is one of

The soda-water days have come,
The hottest of the year;
The young man says "Would you like so:
Real nice ice-cream, my dear?"
He thinks "Twill be a small amount,"
She says "I don't object,"
And now, you bet, in his account,
The ends will not connect.

stalwart young farmers of Nebo, and the bride is the daughter of a business man of Leigh, who formerly lived here. We join congratulation and best wishes with those of their many other

Mr. Editor and people of Neboville, I feel that after this effusion it will not be safe for me in this country, threfore, it behooves me to leave. May you all continue morally, financially and never grow less," is the sincere farewell wish of

Drunkenness or the Liquor Habit Positively

Cured by Administering Dr. Haines' Golden Specific. It can be given in a cup of coffee or ea without the knowledge of the person taking it; is absolutely barmless and will effect a permanent and speedy cure, whether the patient is a moderate drinker or an alcoholic wreck. Thousands of drunkards have been made temperate men who have taken Golden Specific in their coffee without their knowledge, and today believe they quit drinking of their own free will. IT NEVER FAILS. The system once impregnated with the Specific it becomes an utter impossibility for the liquor appetite to exist. For full particulars, address GOLDEN

SPECIFIC CO., 185 RACE STREET, CINCINNATI, O. jan12-87y All the gambling houses of Omaha are said to have been closed under the nev law. Correct. Thousands of cures follow the use of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. 50 cents. It is stated that the public debt has been decreased the past year $109,300,-

A Manchester Millwright. F. NEWELL IS THE WELL

-known millwright who resides a -Manchester, opposite Richmond. He is known all through eastern and southern Virginia, where he has been wrighting mills for many years.

-An accident happened him four -years ago, the main particulars o -which he details in this letter:

RICHMOND, Va., April 15th, 1887 Gentlemen - Four years ago a blow on my left shin cracked the bone. Since then I have had trouble nearly all the time with erysipelas in that leg. The least little thing would cause inflammation and breaking out. From time to time I have driven off the inflammation by short courses of S. S. S.

Four weeks ago Saturday night the leg was broken out and covered with festered blisters. I took four bottles of S. S. S., and now the leg is entirely well, the skin being as smooth and fair as a woman's. H. F. NEWELL.

Treatise on Blood and Skin Diseases mailed free. The Swift Specific Co., Drawer 3, Atlanta, Ga.

ANNUAL STATEMENT OF THE CONDITION OF THE COLUMBUS × STATE × BANK June 1st, 1887.

RESOURCES. County orders and other securities LIABILITIES. apital stock...... 8 60,000.60

We, Leander Gerrard, President, and J. E. Tasker, Cashier of the Columbus State Bank, do hereby certify that the above is a true and correct statement of the condition of said Bank upon LEANDER GERBARD, Pres't, J. E. TASEER, Cashier. Legal Notice. At a regular meeting of the Board of Super-visors of Platte county, held at the court house in Columbus on June 18th, 1887, the following in Columbus on June 18th, 1887, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, That hereafter, this Board will not redeem any Road, Poll or Labor Tax receipts, and that parties holding same must at the proper time present them to County Treasurer or Collector of Taxee, in payment for the Road, Poll or Labor Tax assessed against them.

And it is further ordered that the Clerk publish notice of this action of the Board.

Attent:

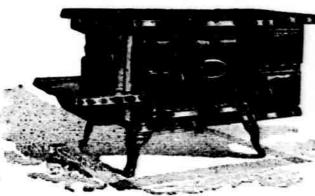

JOHN STAUFFER. JOHN STAUFFER.

Dated, June 18th, 1887.

Tax Sale Notice. To John H. Green: You are hereby notified that the property de-cribed as follows, to-wit: Lot number 6 in Block ERNST & SCHWARZ, wince for safety, convenience, cleanliness and simplicity, cannot be excelled. It embodies the simplest principles in philosophy and takes the rank above all Lamp Fillers. No danger of explosions. Absolute safety guaranteed. No spilling, wastfag or dripping of oil on the floor, table or outside of can. Use it once and you will not be without it for five times its cost. It works in large cans as well as small ones, thereby saving the frequent and annoying trips to the store with a small can. Every can made of the very best tin, and warrated to work satisfactorily. Call and see sample can and get prices.

SUPERB LAMP FILLER COAL OIL CAN COMBINED

GARLAND

STOVES AND

ERNST & SCHWARZ.

Eleventh streets.

HENRY RAGATZ & CO. Have a Fine Line of Staple and Fancy

GROCERIES.

Crockery and Glassware,

Which were bought cheap for cash, and will be sold at very low prices. Eleventh Street, Columbus, Nebraska.

McKINLEY & CARNAHAN, MORTGAGE BROKERS,

COLUMBUS, NEB.

Money to loan on improved farms in this and adjoining counties, at current rates. We are prepared to close loans promptiy, in all cases where title and security are satisfactory.

Office up-stairs in Henry Building, corner of Olive and

SPEICE & NORTH,

General Agents for the sale of Union Pacific and Midland Pacific R. R. Lands for sale at from $2.00 to $10.00 per acre for cash or on five or ten years time, in annual payments to suit purchasers. We have also a large and choice lot of other lands, improved and unimproved, for sale at low price and on reasonable terms. Also business and residence lots in the city. We keep a complete abstract of title to all real estate in Platte County.

W. T. RICKLY & BRO.

COLUMBUS, NEBRASKA.

Fresh : Salt Meats. Game. Poultry, and Fresh Fish. All Kinds of Sausage a Specialty, Cash paid for Hides, Pelts, Tallow. Highest market price paid for fat cattle.

Olive Street, second door north of First National Bank. Legal Notice. To all whom it may concern: The commissioner appoint

> The best manufactories of the country represented. Not to be undersole by anybody. Come and see prices at

This is the most PRACTICAL HIGH-CUT This is the most PRACTICAL HIGH-OUBHOB ever invented.

It is very GENTERL and DRESSY and give the same protection as a boot or over-gaiter. It is convenient to put on and the top can be adjusted to at any ankle by simply moving the buttons.

For sale by

Legal Notice. To all whom it may concern:

The commissioner appointed to view and report upon the practicability of a change of location of a part of the Columbus and Colfax county road in Section 29, Town 17, Range I east of the 6th principal meridian in Nebraska, and more accurately and definitely described by a plat on file in the county clerk's office, has reported in favor of the change and re-location as thus shown, and all objections thereto, or claims for damages caused thereby, must be filed in the county clerk's office on or before NOON of the 14th day of September, 1857, or such change and re-location will be made without reference thereto.

in favor of the vacations thereof, and all objec-tions thereto or claims for damages caused thereby must be filed in the county clerk's office on or before Noon of the 6th day of September, A. D. 1897, or said vacation will be made without Legal Notice.

The commissioner appointed to view and port upon the practicability of the location of public road commencing at the one-half (1/3) section mound on the west line of Section seven (7), in Town twenty (20), Range one (1) west and running thence east along the center line of said Section seven (7), to the east line thereof and terminating thereat, has reported in favor of the location of the said road. Now all objection the structum of the said toat. Now an objection thereto or claims for damages caused thereby must be filed in the county clerk's office on of hefore NOON of the 6th day of September, A. D 1886, or said location will be made without reference thereto.

JOHN STAUFFER,

orence thereto. John Stauffer, (Magroine Road). County Clerk. Dated Columbus, Neb., July 24, 1887. 2jul

Dated Columbus, July 2d, 1887.

to all whom it may concern:

JOHN STAUFFER, County Clerk.

GREISEN BROS

THE LARGEST AND FINEST STOCK The commissioner appointed to view and report upon the practicability of the vacation of that part of a public road commencing at the northeast corner of Section 18, Town 17, Reast, running thence in a southwesterly direction west of Omaha, at-GREISEN BROS. and terminating at the southeast corner of S.W. of N.E. 4 of Section 19, Town 17, Range