GHOSTS ABROAD.

The Valiant was her name. Who had christened her, and how she came to be christened a name so peculiarly inappropriate, we cannot say.

On the 13th of February we cleared out of the Tyne, loaded to the muzzle with...

For the rest, our ship's company consisted of a motley crew of seamen, a steward, a dozen stokers, three engineers, a steward, a cook and a cabin lad.

The man who took the lead, Jack Dredge, a stumpy old fellow with a weathered face...

Well, we could feel the lift of the sea under our keel, and waited for the return of the tug with our skipper.

Hour after hour the Valiant pegged stubbornly along, plunging down the green slopes of the waves, and raising her...

INDIANS AND SALMON AT FORT WRANGLER.

During our stay at Fort Wrangler, while the Indians on short distance look in the country they were huddled together in their huts...

THE COST OF SHOELING A FLY.

Twenty dollar subscriptions were asked for (to make good the damage by fire to the Methodist church), and this being...

PRIMITIVE AND INDEPENDENT.

Perhaps one of the most primitive of the independent kingdoms is the little island of Johnston, in the Comoro group.
