Mr. Becher's father removed to this city, Gus. following in 1859, in the meantime going to school. For eight years thereafter he was clerk in the hardware store of Hurford & Bro. at Omaha, where he made many friends. After that he came to Columbus, and for the succeeding four years was engaged in the United States service, under Major Frank North, with the Pawnee Scouts. In '71, he served as enrolling clerk in the senate. After his return he started in his present business, in which he takes great pride, and in which he has been fairly successful, enjoying the confidence, and winning the good will of every man with whom he does business. The county's money and the county treasurer's duties will be safe in his hands.

Written for the JOURNAL. THE OLD SHOE IN THE POND. BY MARION GRAY.

A friend remarks that "some unfortunate peo-ple are like an old shoe in a pond,—unnoticed, save as a target for 'ill-will.'" Oh, yes, 'tis well enough to talk
Of "holding up your head,
And wearing smiles upon your face,"
No matter what is said.
Advice in need, is good indeed,
But through this world and round, God pity him, or her, who plays
"The old shoe in the pond."

Full well, we ken, this pleasant earth

Hath spots of clay and mire.
Its by-roads, leading swiftly down,
Its mountains, trailed by fire.
Our castle, tow'ring toward the skies
Built up of fancies fond,
The world sees not and trots right by
"The old shoe in the pond." One's shoulders may not be so broad,
The burden still is there;
Sweet dreams of youth, how fast they fade
Beneath the clouds of care.
The world looks on and queries oft

Just kow, one went aground.

Yet "caste" and "creed" consign to doom

"The old shoe in the pond." CHORUS-Oh, cling to hope with grit and will:

Dreadful Case of Boils Cured. Gentlemen-As far back as I can recollect I was subject to boils. They would break out every spring and off and on during the year. There are sears all over me now from virulent boils. Several years ago I took several bottles of S. S. S., and I am now entirely free from boils and I have been ever since I finished taking your valuable blood puritier, now several years ago.
