The governor of the prison was present, who replied that he could have a change if he wished, meaning he could have prison clothes.

It has been rumored that J. C. Caldwell, if elected, would decline the office, in favor of Dr. Edwards of Platte Center. It may be well enough for Mr. Caldwell to decline to serve, (that is now his own affair), but after that, it seems to the JOURNAL that the appointing power should consider themselves free to act according to their sense of obligation to the public.
