ISSUED BYERY WEDNESDAY BY M. K. TURNER & CO., Columbus, Neb.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION: One year, by mail, postage prepaid,

-Payable in Advance.

TO SUBSCRIBERS.

When subscribers change their place of residence they should at once notify us by letter or postal card, giving both their former and their present post-office,—the first enables us to readily find the name on our mailing list, from which, being in type, we each week print, either on the party of your JORNAL, the per or on the margin of your JOURNAL, the per or on the margin of your JOURNAL, the to which your subscription is paid or ac-led for. Remittances should be made by money-order, registered letter or draft,

M. K. TUBNER & Co. TO CORRESPONDENTS.

All communications, to secure attention, must be accompanied by the full name of the writer We reserve the right to reject any manuscript and cannot agree to return the same.—We desire a correspondent in every school-district or Platte county, one of good judgment, and re liable in every way.—Write plainly, each item separately. Give us facts.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 13, 1888.

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

Congressional. esentative in Congress, 3d District, GEORGE W. E. DORSEY. J. B. Hunter, at Culbertson, has had preliminary examination and been held for murder. HARRISON GARRETT, brother of Robert Garrett, was drowned last Friday night in the Patapseo river. In New York state hereafter the death sentence will be carried into effect by One morning last week a construction engine was derailed near Niles, Ohio. and wrecked. Two men were killed.

electricity instead of by the rope.

IT was stated at Washington on the 7th inst, that the president had signed the bill appropriating $8,000,000 for pensions

MRS. JOHN SHERIDAN, mother of Gen. Sheridan, at Somerset, O., was reported for it, say, one to five years. on the 7th inst., very ill and in a critical condition.

JOSEPH KETCHAM, the baggagemaster who was shot by robbers in his car on the Cincinnati, Indianapolis & Chicago railroad, died of his injuries Saturday.

THE destruction of property caused by the storm of the 6th inst. at Attawa was widespread. The loss will reach $300,-000. Three persons were reported killed.

A REPUBLICAN campaign club has been organized at Galena, Ill., by democrats who refuse to subscribe to the Cobden club free trade doctrines.-[Oakdale Sentinel.

THERE has been a story recently put into circulation among railroad men. that soon an invention of a new locomo tive will be constructed, that will reach a speed of 200 miles an hour.

THE Atlas paper mills, owned by stock company, controlled by the Kimberly Clark Company and located at Appleton, Wis., were totally burned on the morning of the 8th. Loss $150,000. SENATOR MORGAN is becoming alarmed about the report on the fisheries treaty. He repeated the remark in the senate of the 7th inst. that "The senate may make war necessary, as I am afraid we are doing here today." THE Oregon delegation to the Chicago convention left Portland Monday. They were accompanied to the depot by thousands of people. Republicans there are jubilant over the outlook for the coming campaign. Five men were horribly burned by the overturning of a ladle at the Dessemer mill of the Pennsylvania steel works at Stetton, June 8. One died in an hour and another cannot live. The others are seriously burned.

THE latest reports concerning Gen. Sheridan as we go to press are that his pulse indicates satisfactory heart action, breathing irregular, improvement in appetite continues. At 2 p. m. Monday he had slept comfortably.

MISS KATE BISHOP, an actress o Australia, wears a silver bracelet on the left arm night and day. Her only sister locked it there before she sailed for America to get married. The ship went down with all hands, and the key is with the drowned girl.

THE sensation in fashionable circles of Richmond is the announcement of the marriage next fall of Miss Amelia Rives. Virginia's gifted authoress, to John Armstrong Chandler, of New York, a grandson of John Jacob Astor, and several times a millionaire.

THE dead bodies of James Phillips and his wife were found one day last week in a log cabin near Logan, Ohio. It the past ten years: appears from the evidence of their children, that Phillips had cut his wife's throat with a pocket knife and then used the same knife to cut his own throat.

OWEN IFOR, manager of the Omaha slate and roofing company, and Wm. E. Jones, a workman employed in that institution, met with horrible deaths at Omaha, in the afternoon of June 8, by being precipitated from a scaffold at the Convent of Mercy, to the stone steps be- the interests of our own people rather low, a distance of nearly fifty feet

SEVEN thousand republican majority for Oregon is a splendid victory, the republicans electing seventy out of the ninety members of the legislature. It is stated that the democrats had the full support of a strong prohibition organization, and their talented men gathered to do the speaking in all parts of the may be looked for at any moment.

An attempt was made to rob an express car on the Cincinnati, Indianapolis & Chicago train due at Cincinnati at 10 c'clock p. m., June 8. The robbers shot through the glass window, hitting Joe In the same speech he highly eulogized James G. Blaine as a statesman and the best equipped for the high office of president, and John A. Logan as a man no less distinguished as a statesman than as a soldier. There was no mugwump-limite their escape.

In the same speech he highly eulogized ing one Bogier, at Stewart, about a destroying the upper portion of his residence and setting fire to a bed, also the building in a couple of places. In the lower part of the building, the furniture, pictures, tables, etc., book shelves and who were brought before Judge Prowse.

CLEVELAND AND THURMAN

Last Thursday the delegates met national convention at St. Louis, and coln special to the World says: were called to order at 10:22 by tempo rary chairman White. Among the incidents of the preliminaries was credentials handed in from the delegation of Alaska, the first time that territory has coln. The rate on canned salmon in been represented in a national conven-

Hon, Patrick A. Collins of Massachu setts was made permanent chairman, H. H. Ingersoll of Tennessee, secretary. Among the assistant secretaries wa Col. E. L. Merritt of Nebraska.

Daniel Daugherty made the speec nominating Cleveland, and was enthusi astically cheered. Second after second followed until McKenzie of Kentucky renewed his motion to nominate Clevelond by acclamation and it was done

An adjournment was shortly carried. and on the next day Thurman of Ohio was nominated for vice president.

J. STERLING MORTON, by far the ablest and most prominent of the Nebraska delegation to the St. Louis convention, was deliberately snubbed by Mr. Boyd's packing-house gang and purposely igored in the division of honors bestowed by the delegation. Jim North, who knows a great deal more about mules than he does about platforms, was given the most prominent position on the the committee on resolutions, for which J. Sterling Morton is so eminently fitted Jim North making a platform for the national democracy is enough to make a horse laugh.- [Omaha Bee.

And yet, notwithstanding what Bee says, Jim North has abilities that would have made him as bad a president as Grover Cleveland is, and why should he not be capable of conferring doubtedly be hung by a mob. with others as to the platform on which Cleveland is to stand? We have differed considerably with North on some mat ters of local import, but we must say that for ability in a general way, the probability is that he has as much a the man who penned the above article and could write as good a speech as Morton, if he would take the same time wine rooms. It is well. To say nothing of the lascivious nature of wine room associations, any place where a man may utes after retiring, should not be allowed o exist.—[Omaha Stockman.

Facts are no less facts, either, because authorities deny their existence or when them or palliate their force. A married woman, in a wine room with a lecherous scoundrel-a slight noise heard, and the law, whatever there may be in store for Dissolute youth prepares for unfaithfulness in the marriage relation, and a beside,—the world gapes for a moment when the tragedy takes on a more serious aspect, mutters a few protests, turns away, and hurries on to see the next denouement. Ruined homes, blight ed lives, despair, remorse, poverty of everything that goes to make true manhood, true womanhood are strewn all along the mad course of this social cvclone, as the debris after a storm.

The tempests within the hearts of husbands, faithful to wives who disregard their vows and openly or secretly cherish illicit loves, and the fiery ordeal of boundless grief that fond wives can only know when husbands who at the marriage altar promised love and proection till death should seal the vow. turn away from a pure, unselfish and holy affection to flutter and perish in the smiles of painted sin-these are known only or mostly to the daily martyrs who suffer torments that cannot be your best endeavors to keep the rising Compton the house of O. Perrault was well as your own,-as far removed as children instantly killed. possible from influences destructive of good character; secure good habits in solid foundation of intelligent right inits impudent face, give it no abiding money. It is understood that the treas-

GEN. GRESHAM defined his position on the tariff question in his Wall street speech in 1884, as follows-and it is precicely in accordance with republican

In revising our tariff laws and reducing our customs revenues home interests should not be neglected. [Applause.] Indeed, protection to manufacturers and aborers can and should be afforded by taxing only such imports as come into real competition, and admitting others free. No one disputes that the republi-can party is in favor of thus affording protection to our domestic industries. Cheers. Revenue laws should be enacted with reference to our local conditions and wants. We should legislate in It must grow fast. Not until we are able to control the markets of the world can we afford to adopt free trade. No intelligent man needs to be told that the weight of opinion in the democratic party is decidedly opposed to the protective policy, and that once in full possession of the gov-ernment it would refuse to act or maintain protective laws. But it is not my purpose to enter into an extended discussion of the tariff question. There you have the issue in a nutshell THERE is no doubt but General Sheri- Let the revenues be raised by a tariff on dan grows weaker after every attack of "such imports as come into real compehis fatal malady. There seems no dis- tition" to home products and home inagreement among his physicians as to dustries and let the rest come in free the treatment, and medical men claim This is the republican doctrine pure and that he is having the benefit of the best simple, that is what protection means. service known to the profession. Never- Let trade be free for all products that theless, we think the general's death | we are compelled by our environment to import from other countries, but give everything raised by our farmers, produced by our artisans, or dug from our own soil the first preference in our home market by a sufficient tariff on foreign competing products to accomplish that intention. There is no mugwumpism in Ketchum in four places. They were that plain declaration of Greeham in 1884. followed up by J. B. Zumerman, the In the same speech he highly eulogized

The nine consolidated cases of the Lincoln wholesale dealers against the Union Pacific have been tried. A Lin-

The rate on sugar to Omaha from the Pacific coast was 60 cents, and to Lin-coln the local rate added, making the rate 75 cents. The rate on canned goods was 75 cents to Omaha and $1.40 to Lin-$1 to Omaha, Kansas City, Chicago, Buffalo and New York and $1.15 to Lincoln. On a number of shipments made a tender of the rate which was the Omaha rate with an additional sum based on the through rate for the additional twentytwo miles, and when the road refused to receive it replevened the goods. The suits decided yesterday were to determine the rights of possession. Judge Chapman instructed the jury that if the road was regularly charging a certain rate to a given point, such rate was not less that a reasonable one for any point a less distance from the place of shipment. The jury found that the mileage through rate tendered was a reasonable one and that the plaintiffs were en titled to the goods.

Cut the Boy's Head Off-A Horrible Deed Committed by a Brutal Father.

WATERLOO, Ia., June 11.-Word has been received here of a tragedy that occurred last Monday night in Hazel Green township, about seventeen miles from Monticeller An old man by the name of Rothbacker, who was working in a stone quarry with another man, undertook to whip his boy, a lad about 12 home. years of age, when the other man interfered. In the evening the old man tried to whip the boy again but he ran away. This enraged the father, and he caught the boy, knocked him down and cut his head off with an axe. Up to last night the officers have been unable to find him. Threats of lynching are freely used, and if Rothbacker is caught he will un-

GREAT dissatisfaction exists in Brooklyn over the democratic ticket. Brooklynn each year comes up with a big democratic majority, but it is expected that this year the usual majority will be cut away down if it does not disappear altogether. Three of the principal democratic leaders in that city, Aldermen Kane, Coffee and McGarry, have come out in opposition to the ticket. These MAYOR BROATCH is making war on the three men are members of the aldermandemocratic ward. One of them is quoshoot a woman in cold blood and be ted as saying that he would not be surcleared by a jury in less than ten min-prised if Brooklyn gave a republican majority this fall. The dissatisfaction is general and any number of prominent democratic workers will be at the polls the combination put up by Grover spree at Tobias for a week, insulted a There were no witnesses against the Cleveland.—[State Journal.

THE Omaha Republican of the 7th guilty think the wronged husband near | said: "In the present condition of affairs a revolver is drawn, accidentally dis- it is understood that the Nebraska delcharged (it is claimed), the unfaithful egation to the republican national conwife is killed, and now her slayer es- vention will support Senator Allison for capes, and doubtless there will be no the presidency. This will be the gracepunishment for him, at the hands of the ful thing to do for our eastern neighbor.' We think the most graceful thing to him in the course which his character do would be to support the man whom and conduct have marked out for him. the people of Nebraska most generally favor, and that is Gresham. Allison is certainly an excellent man, but Gresham thousand multitude of nameless ills has more elements of strength as a candidate and his nomination would delight Nebraskans who have watched and admired his course as a public man.

> Four steamships landed at Castle Garden, June 8, with 2,271 immigrants. The commissioners of immigration found that the steamship California from Hamburg, brought over on her trip 1,032 passengers, principally Polish Hebrews and German farm hands. They also learned that at the time they left Hamburg there were detained in barracks 5,000 German and Hebrew Poles awaiting transportation to this country, and that small pox had broken out among

A TERRIBLE wind and thunder storm passed over Montreal June 6th and did much damage, particularly in the country, where much valuable timber was destroyed and many houses blown down. It is feared the storm did much damage to vessels on the river and lower lakes, battle of life against all the wrongs, use but no details can be obtained. At

It is reported at Central City that the your offspring; build character on the investigation by the county commissioners of the accounts of the county stead of on the shifting sand of beastly treasurer, Col. W. H. Webster, are short passion and you will have done a goodly about $35,000. The investigation shows he had been struck by some dull indearer to you than your life. No matter Foster short about $1,000. No one under what specious plea vice may show seems to know what became of the urer will turn over all the property he has to meet this shortage. The value of his property is estimated at $20,000.

Nonopy questioned Cleveland's nomination at St. Louis. The southern wing opinion and the republican platforms of of the party is in the saddle, if both names of the ticket do come from the north. Thurman's nomination is much Cleveland's practical dictation as that of his own, and the convention showed how completely the party is under the thumb of the president, by recording his will all around.

NEBRASKA NOTES.

Hastings claims a population of 13,240.

Lincoln public improvements.

Wahoo has one legalized saloon. Report don't say how many of the other Mr. Theodore Wentz of Sutton started overland on the morning of the 7th on a bicycle to visit his old home in Ohio.

Friday at Scribner John Eberhart was drowned in the Elkhorn. He was crossman when it capsized. been struck at Ponca. What's the use striking it all the time. Why not get out a little for next winter? Word was received one day last week at Valentine from Cottonwood Lake, of Robinson. No particulars given. The hydrophobia scare has reached York. The city has passed an ordinance ordering all dogs within the city limits to be either muzzled, tied up or shot. William G. Leegar was arrested las week at Gibson, on a charge of assault against her father, S. W. Johnson, for an attempt at incest. A warrant was issued pet in one mass, commingled with

W. P. Baldwin, jr., who has been general agent for the Union Pacific road at Butte, has been appointed assistant general freight agent of the company with headquarters at Omaha.

of W. T. Scott as a candidate for the office of attorney general of the state. His claim will be presented to the state republican convention.

The board of trade of Nebraska City are trying to get a large woolen mill. Nebraska has wakened up all around this year to the importance of getting manufactures of all kinds.

A man was discovered Saturday near Benkleman fast in the quicksand in the Republican river. He is sixty years old. couldn't give his name and had about

$1,000 in currency on his person. Frank D. Mills of Creighton dropped dead Saturday, with heart disease. It is thought that the young man had just received mail which had such a depressing effect as to hasten the attack

Bert McPeck, a twelve years old sor of C. E. McPeck, of Fairfield, was drowned-on the 9th inst., while bathing in the Blue, a few miles south of town. His remains were recovered and taken to his Benkleman has contracted for a school house to cost $5,375, and yet that whole region of country was a "desert waste" a few short years ago. American enterprise is surely making inroads upon the mythical Great American desert.

A report from West Point says the waters for several days last week of the Elkhorn river overflowed the banks and in many places in the valley did much damage to bridges along the river. The bridge at Wisner was entirely destroyed

Deputy U. S. Marshall Stewart, on the night of the 8th, arrested a man at Kearney named G. I. Clemens, for sending obscene matter through the mail. He had been writing to a lady in Omaha. The Marshall took him back to Omaha. The George G. Mead Post No. 1 of Philadelphia, sent a handsome garland of immortelles to Sedgwick Post No. 1 ic board and each represents a heavy of Kearney, to be placed on the grave of Capt. Emmet Crawford, who was murdered two years ago by Mexicans. Capt. Crawford, although claiming Kearney as his home, was a member of the Philadel-been saved the indignity and her husband the trouble of cuffing the whelp.

About four weeks ago, just as the B.

In the vicinity of Nelson last week the rain fell in torrents and flooded cellars and everything about the village. About thirty feet of the K. C. & N. railroad track in the corporation and sixty feet mile away from town, and thirty to forty feet about a mile and a half away were washed to the bottom of the fill. The wagon bridges near town are damaged and impassable.

One night last week an unfortunate tramp gave up his life. Mr. Ferrel, congeneration,—your neighbor's children as demolished and Perrault's wife and five ductor on freight train No. 19, as he was approaching Amee station saw the dead body of a man lying near the track. He stopped his train, picked up the body and carried it to Ames, where it was turned over to the coroner. The man's head was badly fractured, showing that portion of your duty by those who are the deputy treasurer accounts Otto strument and killed. Nothing found to reveal his name or home.

> Jos. H. Fuller of Norden was a happy man until a dark-skinned Missourian in gratiated himself into the affections o Mrs. Fuller and succeeded in dishonor ing her and disgracing her family. Ful ler caught the pair, which so worked upon him that he determined to commit suicide, but was deterred by a man from Valentine whe had come to the ranch to buy sheep. The couple have parted, she returning to her father, and he living a lonely and blasted life on the deserted

Last Tuesday night while the Union Pacific train No. 2 was coming into Kearney from the west a half drunken passenger offered an insult to a jady passenger, when Frank Haskins of Plum Creek interfered, rebuking the man. The of which cut an artery in his left leg mary, director of the Deutsche Sewarte, above the knee. It is reported that the of Hamburg, will co-operate with him. man who did the cutting was arrested at Grand Island when the train got there, and will be taken back to Kearney.

Mr. S. B. Lowell, an old resident. the eastern part of Buffalo county, who has been a merchant in Gibbon for a number of years past, has been adjudging the stream in a boat with another en insane and will be taken to the hospital. He has been brooding over finan-A three-inch vein of coal has again cial matters, imagining that he was about to become bankrupt and the other day he got a knife and began whetting it and told his wife to get one and they would end their miserable existence. His wife finally persuaded him to give her the knife and thus averted the murder of a cattle man named Byron the deed. It is a sad blow to his friends for he was universally respected by

Neligh was again visited by a severe albums were piled up on the parlor carsplinters and wall paper. It is miraculons that Mr. Jackson and his family, who were sleeping in the house, escaped

A report comes from Dawson, Richardson county, June 9, that a tramp knocked down and outraged a young daughter of H. S. Belden while picking gooseberries. The citizens are much excited at the outrage. Her father offered The first vote I cast was for W. H. Har-$250 for his arrest He is described as rison for president. I cannot see how having the general app. ar in e of a tramp, any foreign working man can come over faded shabby clothing, black slouch hat, here and become an American citizen no beard, face very dark, probably caused by the weather, compactly built, about 30 years old, 160 pounds weight, the actions of the two parties in the hisand scar on face. A later report from Tecumseh states that Lawrence Morrisey, a detective, had arrested a man supposed to be the tramp who committed the outrage on Miss Belden.

Further particulars of the suicide Mrs. Charles Gerig at North Platte are as follows: Mrs. Gerig, a short time ago, was told by a fortune teller that her husband was not true to her, but was writing to some other girl, which seemed to worry her considerably and caused a jealous feeling toward her husband. Saturday evening Mrs. Gerig did some shopping around town and about five o'clock called for her husband, who manager of the electrict light works. go home with her. He could not home just at that time, so she wen home alone and found her father there and requested her father to leave her, as she desired to be alone. Before her father left the house, however, she swallowed a quantity of strychnine, which she had purchased a few moments before, and at once began to bathe her face, and while doing so fell backward. and whlie her father was gone for a physician she expired. The woman had to make them sound properly again in led a rather checkered life before her led a rather checkered life before her reduction. They are the same old in-marriage and was addicted to the opium struments used four years ago. At that habit. She has for a long time been considered by many to be partially insane from the effects of opium.

Announcement was made last week of the suicide at the state penitentiary of Mrs. Sarah J. Overton. As people soon forget what has occurred, we quote from a contemporary a bit of her history. She was sent to the penitentiary last September. She was living in Butler county with her husband and several children One morning the news was taken to the neighbors that the husband had been Fay E. Roberts, a drummer for a glove found with his head nearly blown off by braska, in the year 1879, voted the sum of $100. lady on the street and was thrashed in woman but her own little children, who a very becoming manner by her husband.

The probability is that if the authorities of the town had arrested Roberts

The probability is that if the authorities of the town had arrested Roberts

The probability is that if the authorities of the most rigid cross examination oughly investigate the matter: to put himself, if ties of the town had arrested Roberts tion, that their mother, while her husfor drunkenness, the lady might have band was not watching and perhaps asleep, had taken the gun and deliberate- at his corliest convenience. ly murdered him. She was convicted on testimony and was sentenced to the pen-M. train was pulling out of Omaha, itentiary for a term of twenty-five years. David Snider, the engineer, was hit on The woman proved a vicious and unthe head with a stone thrown by some ruly prisoner from the first. She was one unknown, and who intended to kill. continually quarreling with the other Snider was brought to Lincoln and female convicts and the authorities have cared for. He grew worse and died last not been able to compel her to do a day's Columbia Wednesday. Snider came to Lincoln work since she entered the prison. She from Springfield, O., and was about 45 got into a rage on Saturday morning and was tearing her bedding into shreds One day last week while the family of when she was taken from the room Ferdinal Matthis was being ferried where she was with other female convicts across the Elkhorn river at Wisner, the and placed in a cell. In this cell yesterboat capsized in mid stream. Mrs. day morning about 6 o'clock she was Matthis and one daughter were rescued found with her throat cut from ear to from the torrent, a man and two lads swam ashore, but two girls and two boys were drowned. They were returning from the wedding of young Frank Matthis. Nothing had been heard of the purpose. Coroner Shoemaker was called and summoned a the bodies.

Shoemaker was called and summoned a the the following estimate be and is hereby made for the following estimate be and is hereby made for the following estimate be and is hereby made for the following estimate be and is hereby sharpened for the purpose. Coroner Shoemaker was called and summoned a the bodies. jury and an inquest was held. Beside the facts which are given above it was brought out that the woman had frequently said that she would not serve out her sentence and when a convict was buried last Friday she remarked that there had never been a woman buried in the grounds and that she would probably be the first one. These facts, it seems, were not known to the prison officials. The coroner's jury rendered city attorney police..... the following verdict: "That the said Sarah J. Overton came to her death on the third day of June, 1888, at 6:30 a. m. june13-4 by cutting her own throat with a sharp at Queenstown, have been sentenced to imprisonment for a week and to be dismissed from the service for firing a salute in honor of Wm. O'Brien.

Advices from the east state the sultan

The London Standard says that the Irish land bill has been abandoned by the government, and that a land com mission, to continue in session for three years, will be substituted.

Henry Villard writes confirming the expedition to the south pole. Dr. Neu-Advices from Zanzibar state the Italian consul at that place has hauled down the Italian flag and suspended relations with the sultan. An Italian man-of-war is expected to arrive shortly. The Berlin correspondent of the St. James Gazette, under date of June 11th, dispatches that paper as follows: "Emperor Frederick is distinctly worse. He is suffering from severe pains. Letely his physicians have discovered a hole between the windpipe and gullet, which endangers the taking of food."

June 5th, at St. John, N. B., Captair Diggins, of the American schooner A. H. Knight, which had been seized for violation of the bail act, ordered the lines rain and thunder storm one night last to be let go and preparations made to week. About midnight the lightning have a tug take the vessel out of the struck the residence of Hon. D. N. Jack- harbor. Five policemen tried to arrest son, severely shivering, splintering and the crew. American Consul Molley ad-One day last week at Oakland Miss lower part of the building, the furniture, rived and arrested the captain and crew, Correspondence.

An Old Man's Views.

MONBOE, Neb., June 6th, 1888. FRIEND TURNER: -As I am three score veers and upward. I have seen many changes in political affairs in the nation. and then vote a democratic ticket, if he would only stop and reflect and weigh tory of American government. No man can fail o see that the republican is the party of progress and reform. It seems to my mind on looking at the history of the past that no party in any country can boast of so much good ac complished in the same space of time a by the republican party of this country Democrats would say I am prejudiced am so far as the history of our country goes. From the period of the formation of the government up to the present time, I claim if all the good the democratic party has accomplished in the interest of good government was put into one side of the balance and the bad in the other, the bad would outweigh the good. I also claim that according to the records of history if all the good the republican party has accomplished since the time of its birth up to the present time were put in the balance it would far outweigh the bad; and I further claim that the republican party is the fittest to rule the destiny of the American people. P. S.—The democrats are again getting out their old rusty trumpets and trying time they were strained beyond their capacity and they now give forth cracked and extremely hollow sound. Proceedings of Board of Supervisor

Tuesday, June 5th, 1888. Board met pursuant to adjournment at 20 clock p. m. Chairman, Hon. R. H. Henry presiding. John Stauffer, clerk. On motion the reading of the minutes of last was deferred until the next meeting of Whereas, the county of Platte, state decided bonds similarly voted by other coun

Oscar Eng. constante, Walker.

A. Osterhoff, road everseer, Humphrey.

H. R. Williams, town clerk, Burrows. M. Gilsdorf, road overseer, Granville. Jim Hawond, road overseer, St. Bernard. E. T. Gransu, road overseer, Humphrey. S. M. Russom, J. P., Butler.

June 12, 1 2 o'clock p. m.

table knife, sharpened by her in her cell for that purpose, with her own hand, with intent to commit suicide."

Lething a tax of property in the city of the purpose, with her own hand, with intent to commit suicide."

Lething a tax of property in the city of the purpose and counce ity of Columbia:

BECTION 1. Total a taxled perional at a valuation of all reals perional at a valuation of the purpose and M. Federoff, the editor of the Novee Veremga has been sentenced to six weeks imprisonment for libelling Gen.

Von Schellendorf, German minister of war.

Three privates of the Tipperary militia mixel property in said city be and the same here y is leved to pay intrest on he rater bond of said city, and for be payment of the current expenses of running aid water works.

But 3. The basis upon which the levy provided for in he two preceding sections is made in the valuation of the property in said city as fixed by the assessor of the township of the city of Commbus and returned By him to the founty clerk of said county for said year.

Sec. 4. This ordinate shall be in force from its passage, approval and publication.

Attest: G. FALBAUM, City Clerk. ESTRAY NOTICE.

with speckled neck, about five years old. The owner will please call, prove property, pay charges and take her away.

FRED. GERBER. A. DUSSELL.

ruffian sprang upon Haskins with a statement that he is about to take an NIIII TV WIND WIII C NALPEY MIND WITP?

All Kinds of Pumps.

PUMPS REPAIRED ON SHORT

NOWSTHETIME

to have your friends come to Kansas and Nebrask as costern lines will sell tickets and run to all KANSAS and NEBRASKA points -OVER THE-UNION PACIFIC

SEMI-MONTHLY LAND EXCURSION

"The Overland Route," Until July 1, 1898, tickets sold for these excur-sions will be good thirty days for the round trip, and can be used ten days going. When purchas-ers are ready to return, these tickets will be good five days for that purpose. If purchasers wish to stop short of destination on our lines, agents will stamp good to return from such point. J. S. TERRETS, E. L. LOMAX, Gen. P. & T. Agent, Ase't G. P. & T. A simplest principles in philosophy and takes the rank above all Lamp Fillers. No danger of explosions. Absolute safety guaranteed. No spilling, wasting or dripping of oil on the floor, table or outside of can. Use it once and you will not be without it for five times its cost. It works in large cans as well as small ones, thereby saving the frequent and annoying trips to the store with a small can. Every can made of the very bost tin, and warrated to work satisfactorily. Call and see sample can and get prices.

ERNST & SCHWARZ,

ERNST & SCHWARZ

GARLAND

STOVES AND

GALLEY BROS.

What better than a good warm coat for your wife or daughter? Bargains will be given for the next THIRTY DAYS, to close them out before invoicing.

Five Hundred Suits!

Of men's, boys' and children's clothing to close out. On account of the open winter we will close out over 200 overcoats cheaper than ever known in Columbus.

Do not fail to see Galley Bros.' bargains before buying. Remember these bargains will not last long, we mean to close them out, so take advantage of the bargains we shall offer at

GALLEY

Before we invoice.

McKINLEY & CARNAHAN.

COLUMBUS, NEB. Money to loan on improved farms in this and adjoining We are prepared to close loans promptly, in all cases where title and security are satisfactory.

Office up-stairs in Henry Building, corner of Olive and Eleventh streets.

SPEICE & NORTH.

ESTATE!

Union Pacific and Midland Pacific R. R. Lands for sale at from $2.00 to $10.00 per acre for cost or on five or ten years time, in annual payments to suit purchasers. We have also a large and choice lot of other lands, improved and unimproved, for sale at low price and on reasonable terms. Also business and residence lots in the city. We keep a complete abstract of title to all real estate is Platte County.

W. T. RICKLY & BRO.

COLUMBUS, NEBRASKA.

Fresh ! Salt Meats.

Game, Poultry, and Fresh Fish. All Kinds of Sausage a Specialty. Cash paid for Hides, Pelts, Tallow. Highest market price paid for fat cattle. Am't G. P. & T. A. Olive Street, two Doors North of the First National Bank,

