A TABIFF conference of republica senators was held at Washington on the night of the 25th at which a conclusion was reached that the finance committee shall prepare a tariff bill as a substitute for the Mills bill, and that it then shall be reported to the senate and taken ap and passed, regardless of the length of time this may require.

THE Mills tariff bill is so inconsistent and special in its provisions of protect tion and revenue that democrats have become disgusted with it. They canno comprehend the justice of taxed sugar and free wool. Those interests to the citizens of the United States are of great value, and the difference made in the two articles in the Mills bill shows briefly the injustice of the measur without going into lengthy detail. Democrats do not approve of it and will not support Cleveland, who recommended it.

Our neighbor county, Merrick, is gong to have an interesting time over the collection of the deficit of W. H. Web ster, one of their ex-officials. His bonds men for two terms have been officially notified that suit will be brought against them at the next term of the district court for the recovery of the amounts due the county-the first set, $19,274.47. the second, $34,611.98. The Courier says that it now transpires that at his first bi ennial settlement with the commission ers he was utterly unable to produce the money which his books called for, but that instead he gave in as the assets of the county a large assortment of notes more or less secured by mortgages or various chattels throughout the county In other words, he was at that time guilty of embezzlement and the com missioners knew it, but permitted him to go on through his second term, run ning the county still further behind and

He came to the court house when the convention was in session and made us speech. As to the speech we will say but little, but it made him no votes owing to its weakness. He was a rip roaring Van Wyck man then, but defeat caught him. Now he has another bee in his bonnet as he is out howling himself hoarse for Manderson and the excuses

he makes for his flop are awful to hear And thus says the Schuyler Quili, but why so very unkind! Bro. Robison is an exceedingly modest man, and has not even intimated, so far as known. that he has any ambition to serve his constituency in the state legislature.

ENGLAND has sent seventy-five thousand Cleveland campaign buttons to this country and they had to tarry in the custom house until they had paid their tribute to the robber-barons of industry. Down with the despotic tariff! Why should not Cleveland campaign buttons be manufactured in English shops? Does not England manufacture idols for India, Josses for the China trade and all sorts of fetiches for her friends and clients in Africa? Is this country to put up a Chinese wall against the importation of these great civilizing contraptions? Bandanas and campaign buttons forbid!-{State Journal.

DESERTING GROVER

Recruits for the Republican Ranks. New York special, 14: - Everybody nows the firm of Thurber, Wyland & Co. to be the greatest grocery house in the world. When they buy for manfacture the raw material comes directly from the farmer and producer. Four years ago Horace K. Thurber, special partner in the firm, was, to the surprise of his friends, a strong advocate of the election of Grover Cleveland. Today he is as strongly opposed to him. To a reporter who yesterday sought an explanation of his change of front Mr. Thurber said: "Yes, it is true that I was in favor of Grover Cleveland four years ago, and I then gave my reasons for it. Now I believe it would be suicidal to vote for him-or, rather, for the platform which he represents. I would not vote for my own father if he favored the destruction of American industries. I am an American and desire our country's best interests first, last and all the time. I am no politician, and have no axes to this district for float representative two grind, but I am strongly in favor of a protective tariff because I believe it for the good of our country and those who earn their bread in it. If the tariff is reduced, the time and cost of importing is also reduced through the aid of steam and electricity. With the carrying trade of the ocean in the hands and under the control of Europe, what must be the result? A reduction of pay to the American workmen in order to produce the same goods at the same market price as European manufacturers do. Europe, if the tariff be taken off, will be enabled to convey our raw material across the ocean, manufacture it abroad, and return it to this country, made up into articles which we consume, much cheaper than we can do it ourselves. The result would be a stoppage of work here or compulsory reduction of wages. Do these American workmen desire to place themselves on the same plane with the poorly paid workmen of Europe? That would be the result of the removal of the tariff. I am desirous for the welfare of the American workmen before those of any other country, for their success would be mine, and I cannot see that

"When every European paper hailed President Cleveland's message with deconvinced me it was not for the best interests of this country that he should be re-elected. The only way the wage earner of this country can be protected is by protecting himself with his ballot. If the American workman desires that his home and home comforts shall be on a par with the impoverished working classes of Europe, he will vote for free trade. If otherwise, he will decline to

He says: "I shall take off my coat and do all in my power to aid the election of Harrison and Morton. I know hundreds of democrats who voted for Blaine in 1884 who will do as I mean to do this year. On the other hand, I know many republicans who voted for Cleveland who regret that they did so, and who desire to make amends by voting for Gen. Harrison. I am opposed to Mr. Cleveland because I know he is untrue to the principles of American protection. During the campaign of 1880, when the Garfield procession was passing through the streets of Buffalo, hundreds of democrats marched under the republican banner of protection. I stood with Mr. Cleveland watching the display. Pointing to the democrats in the ranks, I said: 'You see now the results of a doubtful tariff policy.' 'Well,' replied Mr. Cleveland, 'it's all right isn't it? Free trade and sailor's rights-isn't that right?"" Canton, O.: A prominent resident Stark county, Horace G. McDowell, cashier of the Farmers' bank, of this city, and an extensive sheep owner, has repudiated the party of free trade. He says he has hitherto been a Cleveland democrat, but he is such no longer.

The Lie Nailed to The Counter.

WM. GOULD, Esq., General Agent Minneapolis Harvester Co., Omaha, Neb., Dear Sir: It is being reported throughout this and adjoining counties that the Minneapolis Harvester Co. had sold their shops and were going to discontinue the manufacture of their machines. When we first heard of this we paid very little attention to the report, thinkng it came from some unprincipled machine agent who could not sell a machine his own any other way than by lying, but when so many of our customers came nd asked us about the matter men to whom we expect to sell machines this oming harvest, we are compelled to inquire into the matter. We have denied he stories all the time, and denounced them as lies and thought we were right in doing so. Now we want the facts; if it is true, we want to know it, and if it is a lie, we want to nail it. Please let us hear from you at once, as we want your letter hat report is entirely unfounded. I enclose copy of a letter received from the is a trick of men who can not hold their way against us, only by ving to scare a farmer not to buy the "Minnie," hoping thereby to get a chance for publication. Very truly yours,

o sell one of their own. Farmers need not fear. I have no doubt they can take our word, as well as that of a competitor. If they lie about our machine, is it not probable they would lie again to sell heir own?

I will have a man there shortly. Do your best and I will help all I can.

WM. GOULD, G. A. WM. GOULD, Esq., General Agent, Omaha, Neb., Dear Sir: -Answering yours elative to the rumors in Nebraska that the Minneapolis Harvester Works had sold their shops and grounds and were going out of the business, we have to say there is not one word of truth in them. They have not sold their shops or grounds and are not going out of the business, and you can so inform all parties making inquiries regarding this matter. Yours truly,

AND GET THE BEST, OF ERNST & SCHWARZ.
