Teachers' Association

The fourth annual convention of North Nebraska Teachers' Association met in three days' session in this city last week, beginning on Wednesday evening. The exercises were held in the Opera House and consisted of an address of welcome delivered by Mr. Charles Brindley of this city, who welcomed the visitors in a nest and very appropriate address. This was responded to by Supt. E. A. Enright of Boone county in an able and interesting manner. Music was furnished by the pupils of the High School, and recitations given by Misses Mae and Nellie North and Miss Zura

The exercises of Thursday and Friday consisted of well prepared papers and addresses by the different educators present, all of which were of a very high order of excellence, and in an unusual degree, practical and original. The discussion on Friday afternoon on the study of Latin and Greek was animated and interesting, and drew out expressions from nearly every one present. The convention was more largely attended than heretofore, some thirty or thirtyfive different persons being present at times during the meeting. The necessity of more normal schools in Nebraska was emphasized and a committee appointed to properly memorialize the legislature on this subject. After a very profitable session of two days the conrention adjourned to meet at Norfolk in At the same time an exhibit of school work was held at the High School building. Columbus, Norfolk and Albior

The Platte Bridge.-An Error Corrected. ED. JOURNAL:-I noticed in your issue of Dec. 26th, an article written by Guy C. Barnum, warning the tax-payers of Columbus, of the dangers before them, in the location of the new bridge to be built over the Platte river, also advised concerning the same. His first dangers viz: the washing of the bank at the north end of the bridge, is not without reason and should be avoided, of course, By locating twenty or thirty rods farther up stream, (which will require less bridging, give better banks, and furnish a good road) this can be done. His second danger, I admit, will bear the present location. The present location is the most convenient for the public.
