Jim Frazier has bought a large number of cattle the last two weeks, shipping nine car loads last week, eleven the week before and a number to be shipped Friday of this week.

WANTED—A first-class solicitor for a daily paper. The best of references will be required and a permanent situation guaranteed. Inquire at THE JOURNAL office for further particulars.

Monroe's new paper, "The Looking Glass," is to make its appearance soon. Mr. Strother is a talented young man, and his paper will be one more good laborer to forward the interests of Platte county.

F. W. Fruh purposes running a sorghum mill here this fall. There is a number of farmers in the neighborhood who would raise the sorghum if they could be assured of getting it worked up at a reasonable cost.

For Buford plows and cultivators, for harrows, seeders, wagons, Plano binders and anything else needed on the farm in the way of machinery, call on Joseph A. Gutzmer on Olive street opposite Henry's corner. 48-4t

George Lehman of the Grand Pacific has laid a walk on the west side of his hotel 10x12 feet, also built a new porch, is converting a number of rooms into suites, and recarpeting the house throughout with Brussels.

At the M. E. Church, April 7th, by the pastor, H. L. Powers, a sermon in the morning, 11 a. m., Christian character and its effect upon society, in the evening 7:30, the relation of christian denominations to the Bible.

Fullerton has a ladies' cornet band of which any town might well be proud. It was organized some six months ago, and, although they have never had an instructor outside their membership, they make very good music.

Some sleek thief went through Mr. C. W. Jackson's house last Wednesday while his family were away visiting and ransacked the bureau drawers and tore the house upside down generally. Nothing was missed but a pair of valuable pants.

A good lunch is a hard thing to get in a large city, and harder still when traveling; but the dainty refresh served Fullam sleeping car patrons in the buffet sleepers on the regular overland trains of the Union Pacific is greatly enjoyed.

A "hobo" (tramp) on his way east the other day, told Jackson at the U. P. depot that California was "swelling up accounts," that we would see in a short time the hundreds of thousands coming this way that ever struck the time. Meet them—on the border.

Last Wednesday night the barn rovers were pretty active in the city. Evr. Knox had a set of single harness stolen, Vincent Macken also; Dr. Schug missed two fine lap robes. George Scott's barn, also E. H. Henry's were entered, but nothing taken, so far as we know.

The Platte river bridge was accepted Monday by the authorities from M. Wagner, the contractor. He has done most excellent work, at a low price, and everybody is not only satisfied, but well pleased—even Wagner, although it is our candid opinion that he didn't make much out of his contract.

A special train carrying vice president Holcomb, general traffic manager Mellen and superintendent Resequie of the Union Pacific, passed through the city Wednesday evening, en route for Sioux City to arrange for terminal facilities there for the U. P., comprising passenger and freight depots and yards.

We are in receipt of an invitation to be present at the laying of the corner stone of the Missouri Valley College, April 10th, at Marshall, Mo. The enterprise is under the auspices of the co-operating synods of the Cumberland Presbyterian Church of the four states, Colorado, Nebraska, Kansas and Missouri, with an endowment of $100,000.

The 12 year old son of August Smith, a farmer residing 4 miles northwest of town, narrowly escaped being the victim of a horrible accident on Monday. He was cutting corn stalks with a machine when the horses became frightened and ran away, throwing the lad to one side. The team ran into a wire fence and was considerably scratched up.—Argus.

The Democrat's abuse of such men as Jonas Welch, Henry Bieler and Jacob Tuchman, members of the county board of supervisors, because their honest and disinterested action did not give the printing contracts to D. F. Davis, will not hurt those gentlemen in the estimation of the good people of the county, who know them well and appreciate their worth.

As a fair-minded business man, competent to manage his own affairs and take a share in looking after public matters, Jonas Welch will very easily be favorable comparison with Dr. Frank Davis. Jonas is known all over this section of country as a capable, upright man who attends strictly and well to whatever business he may have in hand, and that he has done so in this case, is doubtless what hurts Davis.

At Platte Center April 19th the Teachers' Association will have a meeting at which Edward Daniels will discourse on "How to teach history," Miss Anna Lath on "Methods of discipline," George Ward on "Numbers," Miss Nellie Lynch on "Drawing." The debate on the abolition of recess will be by M. P. Hard, Charles Brindley and Howard Rowe in the affirmative, and C. J. Wagner, Byron Dieffenbach and M. J. Hogan in the negative.

The name of the man mentioned in last week's JOURNAL who was injured at Oconee was John Johnson. He was out hunting, and thinking that game was near by, held his gun by his side in readiness to shoot, when it struck a corn-stalk and was discharged, hitting him in the foot. Dr. Schug was immediately telegraphed for, and on examination, found that he would have to lose two of his toes. The amputation was performed and Johnson thinks himself lucky to come out as well as he did.

Charles Rinehart, one of the younger generation of live business men of Omaha, has been in the city the past few days, visiting his parents.

Miss Alice Matthews of Port Sainia, a niece of W. T. Rickly, accompanied him on his return from Canada, and will make this her future home.

Charles Moore and family returned Wednesday last from Missouri. Mr. Moore says Nebraska is good enough for him.

Mrs. T. C. Bauer returned home from Columbus, Ohio, Saturday week, accompanied by her sister, Miss Rebecca Becker.

Miss Anna C. Turner returned home Saturday last from her winter's sojourn in her native state, Ohio. She is in her usual good health.

Charles Rinehart, one of the younger generation of live business men of Omaha, has been in the city the past few days, visiting his parents.

Miss Alice Matthews of Port Sainia, a niece of W. T. Rickly, accompanied him on his return from Canada, and will make this her future home.

Mrs. Wm. Nove, Mrs. Wm. Nieman and Mrs. Nelson of Omaha arrived in the city last Thursday, visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Ramussen for several days.

Prof. M. A. Courtright, who taught at the Reed school-house nine years ago, was in the city Thursday. He and his wife taught last year in the Niobrara schools.

Loran Clark of Albin passed through town Tuesday en route to Grand Island to attend a meeting to be held there to decide about a proposed railroad from North Platte to Albin.

L. H. North returned last week from a three weeks' visit to Oklahoma. He speaks very favorably of the country being opened up for settlement, but says the water is of poor quality.

S. J. Wheeler, Oconee's capable supervisor, was in the city over Sunday. He reports considerable sickness in his neighborhood. Most of Mr. Mat. Ivey's family are suffering with catarrhal fever.

St. Paul society has lost, temporarily, one of its brightest ornaments. Miss Minnie Freeman left the city Saturday for a visit of a few days with friends at Henderson, after which she will proceed to Lincoln and take the short-hand course of the Lincoln Business College, returning home probably some time in June. Miss Freeman will be sadly missed in social circles, in which she was an acknowledged leader.—[Phonograph.]

Knights Abroad. Thursday evening last at about 6:15 Knights of Pythias of Occidental lodge No. 21 of this city to the number of forty-four, in company with Deputy Grand Chancellor Harry Merrigan of Omaha, left here over the Union Pacific in a specially-decorated car for Fullerton for the purpose of instituting a new lodge at that place to be known as America lodge No. 114. Upon the arrival of the train there and while the Knights were alighting, they were treated to some soul-stirring music by the Ladies' Silver Cornet Band, after which they proceeded in a body to the lodge room and commenced work, which was continued without intermission until midnight when the visitors were invited to cease hostilities and repair to the Gay hotel, where they partook, with a keen relish, one of the most elegant and sumptuous repasts that could possibly be afforded before them. Hon. Chanucy Witte, in choice, well-chosen words welcomed the visitors which was responded to on behalf of the Columbus knights by Judge G. B. Bowman in his usually happy style. After all had partaken of the good things to their satisfaction, Attorney Critchfield took his station on the floor as master of ceremonies, and called for responses to the following toasts: "Pythianism," "Harry Merrigan," "America lodge No. 114," "J. W. Tanner," "Occidental lodge No. 21," Carl Kramer; "Valiant Knights and fair ladies," J. M. Macfarland. After which work of instituting was resumed and continued until after daylight. The new lodge starts out with a membership of some thirty odd of Fullerton's best citizens, and in addition to their neighbors and there is no reason why it should not grow and become one of the very strongest in the state. The Columbus boys are just in the way of their treatment, and their neighbors and there is no reason why it should not grow and become one of the very strongest in the state. The Columbus boys are just in the way of their treatment, and their neighbors and there is no reason why it should not grow and become one of the very strongest in the state.

Now is the time (any day) to subscribe for the JOURNAL, a local weekly paper and the Nebraska Family Journal, a state weekly paper, containing every week thirty-two columns of choice reading matter, both for $2 a year, when paid in advance. We are receiving numbers of new subscribers—still there is room for more.

Gertrude, daughter of Peter Bachus, aged three years, died of scarlet fever on the 24th ult.

March 24, of scarlet fever, the oldest daughter of Jacob Ripp, aged 6 years. Dr. W. M. Condon left Monday for Chicago where he will take a two months' course in practical dentistry. There is promise of a large amount of building in Humphrey this year.

The committee of School District No. 9,999, have cleaned the school house, put a new latch string on the door and chinked the cracks.

The board of directors are hereby authorized to hire a teacher for the spring session. The teacher must be sound in mind and body and not afraid to use the rod. Wages $10 a year and board around.

Mrs. C. G. Hickox, Miss Dorra Covner, Miss Nellie Covner, Board of Directors.

The meeting of Y. P. B. C. E. that was planned for Wednesday, this week, has been postponed one week.

Platte Center. There is a great interest manifested in school election this year.

The village election seems to be working very quiet this year.

D. H. Carrig, C. J. Carrig, J. F. Di-neen, P. F. Dooly, Jerry Carrig, D. D. Roberts and D. P. Lynch returned Saturday from Chicago where they were marketing 20 cars of cattle that were shipped from here on the 28th of March.

Wm. Lowery and Mr. Farr of Chicago arrived here Saturday night. Mr. L. owns a large ranch 3 miles northwest of town and came out to look after his stock, etc. This is Mr. Farr's first trip to this county and he seems much pleased with the country. Mr. Lowery will ship 4 cars of fat cattle to Chicago Tuesday night.

Mrs. Rebecca Smith, mother of Wm. Smith and Mrs. John Spray, died Thursday night and was buried in the Burrows cemetery on Friday. Mrs. Smith was 72 years old.

George N. Hopkins says he has the Oklahoma fever.

Platte Center is daily expecting to hear of the appointment of John Moffat as P. M. under the new administration. Mr. Rossiter, the present incumbent has sent in his resignation and we learn is setting his pins for county surveyor.

We would rather see Dick get there than any other democrat we know of.

The ladies of our school district are taking quite an interest in school affairs this spring. They are very much interested in the employment of competent teachers.

District 44 and Vicinity. School closed the 22d ult., with about $200 in warrants, endorsed, not paid for want of funds. The warrants are held by C. J. Wagner, the teacher. Mr. W. is a practical teacher, has taught five months' school at this place, and has given universal satisfaction. He will remain in this vicinity during the summer.

Lonie Schreiber is fencing 20 acres for pasture.

August Kerkman has a new windmill. Fred Stenger is fencing another 160 acres for pasture. Mr. S. has also had a new windmill put up for furnishing water for his increasing herd.

Mr. F. W. of Columbus was in these parts Monday and secured a quantity of sorghum seed. He will establish a molasses factory in the eastern part of the city this summer, where he will be prepared to manufacture sorghum for all who desire it.

C. H. Sheldon of your city passed this way again last Friday with more steers for his feed lot. It seems to me that Mr. S. does not propose to confine himself to his easy chair, at the head of the Commercial bank, when ransacking a bunch of fat steers affords such good exercise.

At the school meeting last Monday a levy of 12 mills on the dollar was voted on the taxable property in the district for school purposes.

The board was also directed to purchase one acre of ground; the present site of school houses.

A spring term of 3 months was ordered taught, school to commence next Monday and a term of 8 months for the next school year.

John Connelly and wife have removed to their residence near Platte Center where they will now reside.

Louis Heiden is having a wind-mill erected and a pump put in, so we are informed. Several other parties are doing likewise.

Joseph Hengger of Columbus has for some time been removing his personal property and household goods to his farm on Shell creek; we hear that his family will remove hither in a short time.

John Connelly has purchased 160 acres of prairie from U. S. Senator Paddock. He will begin immediately to fence it and will use it as a pasture. Mr. Mier found this addition to his farm indispensable owing to the growing needs of his large herd of cattle. The price paid, our informant stated, was $3,000.

John Connelly has purchased a horse this spring from Mr. Belford. Horses are in great demand owing to the spring work now on hand and all persons desiring to purchase should buy early before the price rises as it will be no surprise if there is any great demand during the working season.

We were informed that Mr. Belford has purchased a fine stallion. It is reported that he was sick and while being taken to Columbus he fell down on the road and died. The cause was unknown to my informant. The horse being valued at $1,500, this will prove quite a severe loss to Mr. Belford, providing there is no insurance, which we are credibly informed is the case.

George Hotel has bought 500 bushels of corn from F. W. Karline, to feed his steers this spring and summer.

ATTENTION, HORSEMEN! Harness Depot. F. H. RUSCHE'S. Opposite Lindell Hotel.

F. H. RUSCHE'S. I have constantly on hand all goods from the cheapest to the best, and will sell them at lower prices than the same quality of goods can be bought anywhere else in Platte county.
