The Bill in the Congress.
In Murat Halstead's paper, the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette of July 24, 1898, was published the following paragraph, which is assigned as the reason why certain senators voted against Halstead's confirmation, the other day:

"It was a sickening spectacle, and the only relief in the thought that perhaps it has come in time to suggest to the nation that an administration connected by such men will not be wanted by an honest people. The black list entire is Cameron, Chace, Callahan, Everts, Ingalls, Jones, Logan, Miller, Plumb, Riddleberger, Sawyer, Sewell, Teller, Van Wyck. To carry it in a single instance, it is made up of millionaires, servants of corporations, Logan men, and corruptionists. There was not a vote cast that was not bought with money."
