"Well I can tell you of an event of that description. It happened in this way: One afternoon, not long ago, two young men whom I had known in Streator, Ills., came to me and informed me that they had induced two sisters to elope with them from a town in central Kansas, and that it was necessary that the nuptial knot be tied without delay. They were, they said, expecting the irate father and the grown up muscular brothers of the girls to arrive in the city on the next train, with 'blood in their eyes.' As the 'boys' were old schoolmates of mine, of course I told them that they had but to command me and I was at their service. "We hired a carriage and drove to the hotel where the young ladies were awaiting the return of their to be husbands whose names are William B- and Charles W-, It was then nearly 5 o'clock p. m. As soon as we could get the girls into the carriage we hurried to Recorder Hinde's office, where William and Charley presented themselves before the marriage license clerk and requested that they be given the documents necessurv to entitle them to wed their cirls. As I remarked before, the girls are sisters. Their given or Christian names are Lillie and Lidic.

After obtaining the licenses the young men and their ladies and myself went to the residence of a preacher, whose name I have forgotten. His church is on the THE WISE SKELETON.
