Always insure with Henrich. Henrich's insurance is fire tested. Henrich's insurance is preferred. Insure with Henrich against lightning.

Get on board the special train from Columbus to Grand Island Friday morning at 7:50. Tickets good till June 17. Fare one and one-third for the round trip.

The Fleming House is outlined against the sky and is being rapidly pushed to completion. It is certainly a big improvement for the corner of Olive and Twelfth.

The case of James McDonald vs. Mary A. Erley, administratrix and the heirs at law of J. W. Erley, deceased, tried before Judge Harrison, was by him taken under advisement Friday.

Jack Crothorn, an old-time resident here, brother-in-law of Louis Leroy, was one of eight persons out of forty-three stopping at a hotel in Johnston who escaped the fury of the flood.

The ladies' aid society of the Presbyterian church will give their annual ice-cream and strawberry festival at Fitzpatrick hall on Wednesday evening, June 23. Everybody is cordially invited.

Be sure to price groceries at Wm. Becker's before investing with a traveling order-taker. Mr. Becker will give you the best of goods at fair prices. Buy where you can get the cheapest and best, any day in the year.

Cheap water power means an abundance of factories and that means increased population and business and increased value for all town property and every farm within a radius of twenty miles. Build up the town.

There was a report here yesterday morning that E. S. Clark had escaped jail at Fremont. He had had his trial for misappropriation of the funds of his employer to the extent of $700, as provided, and was about to receive his sentence.

From what we can learn, the fight Sunday evening in this city, between a young man of Columbus and another of Madison, both of whom had been on the excursion to Grand Island, was nothing but disgraceful, from start to finish, and the young men will honor themselves, their relatives, their communities and all who know them and who wish them well, by becoming sober-minded and well behaved, if not on all occasions, then on as many as possible.

Miss Delilah Davis has been very sick the past week. Rev. H. L. Powers was a Lincoln visitor Wednesday. Carl Kramer visited his brother at Fremont last week. Mrs. Saml. Galley of Creighton is visiting friends in the city.

George Lehman and S. C. Smith went to Des Moines, Monday. Mrs. L. E. Webb went to Fullerton Friday on a visit of a few days. Rev. Constock preached at the Congregational church Sunday evening. D. G. Christy, one of the teachers in the city school, left for Dakota Friday.

W. A. Hampton, Esq., of Humphrey was an attendant at district court last week. J. C. Post left last week for Oklahoma. He will engage in the banking business at King Fisher.

J. L. Cladin, Esq., editor St. Paul Phonograph, was a caller at these headquarters yesterday. Miss Mae Pollock, one of the teachers of the city school, started Saturday for her home in Illinois.

Miss Clara Weaver and Miss Olga Wells went to Holton, Kas., Saturday morning to attend normal there. Miss Addie Bannal went to her home in Waverly Friday evening, after teaching a successful term of school.

C. E. Pollock returned from the Dakota Hot Springs Saturday, after three weeks' sojourn, much improved in health. The many friends of Miss "Tottie" Hood here will be pleased to learn she was in the graduating class of this year at Schuyler.

Mrs. Abbot and Smith of Schuyler were in the city one day last week looking over our public improvements, especially the waterworks. Geo. N. Lamb was in the city Thursday. He has recently bought of the U. P. R. Co. a forty-acre tract to add to his already good-sized farm.

Lieut.-Gov. Meiklejohn passed through the city from Lincoln Saturday on his way to Fullerton. He has been acting governor "just a little bit," all right. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Tucker attended the graduating exercises of the Schuyler high school Friday evening, and spent Sunday at Linwood with Mr. Tucker's father.

Fred Stenger and Fred Luchinger left Wednesday for a trip to Europe to occupy about three months. May they enjoy themselves hugely and return safe, is the wish of THE JOURNAL. Ernest Gerrard, George Whaley and Jessie Becher returned home Friday evening after a hard year's study at the State University at Lincoln.

Rev. Father Flood, a well-known priest formerly of this vicinity, later of Omaha, was located two weeks ago at Jackson, Dak., a place at which Father Ryan officiated as priest twenty-eight years ago.

Perry Loshbaugh has received a letter from his father, Joseph Loshbaugh, dated June 21st, Caldwell, Kas., in which he states that harvest had begun at that place. Mr. L.'s many acquaintances will be glad to hear that he is enjoying good health.

A deal was consummated Thursday morning at Omaha which, says the World, means the bringing of not short of half a million dollars of Boston capital to Omaha this summer. It was the purchase of 44 feet on Farman, just west of the old city hall lot, and the 38 feet on Sixteenth north of the Commercial National bank site, by Frederick L. Ames of Boston. The building contemplated means a magnificent structure, six or seven stories high. It will be occupied entirely by S. P. Morse & Co., and will be one of the most complete dry-goods houses in the country. It will be lighted throughout by incandescent lights, and will have magnificent entrances on Farman and Sixteenth streets, the interior furnishing an excellent promenade from one street to the other.

The building will conform to the ground purchased, will be L shaped, and will contain two passenger and one freight elevator. Mr. Morse says work will be commenced on the structure as soon as plans can be prepared. He expects it to be completed in time for him to occupy for his next Christmas trade. When the building is completed it will represent an investment of Mr. Ames of $450,000, which is certainly a grand stroke for Omaha. Mr. Ames being a very wealthy man and likewise largely interested in railroads, Omaha will doubtless be benefited more and more. Every portion of Nebraska is benefited by investments of this sort, and if we cannot see them made in Columbus, then we are still glad that Omaha can secure them.

Monday evening next, June 17th, Mr. J. H. Reed will deliver a lecture on Ireland at the Congregational church in this city for the benefit of the parsonage of the church. The lecture will be illustrated by magic lantern pictures. Admission, adults 25 cents, children 10 cents. Rev. J. A. Reed has given the Congregational society here the residence building occupied for a long time by John Wiggins, and the Woman's Working Band will endeavor, by lectures and other entertainments, to raise money to fit the house up as a parsonage. Both the Mr. Beeds are to be highly commended for what they are doing for the church. Mr. Beed's lecture on Pompeii was certainly most interesting, as all who were present know, and this one will doubtless be equally so.

Burt Arnold has completed the survey of a line west, north and east of the city, and finds that Columbus can have an immense water power by a water way from the Loop above Stevens's, entering the river again east of the city—two, six foot falls in that distance, besides which, the outlet would give us a splendid system of sewerage, the natural drainage being toward the west. If the final figure shall prove as solid as the preliminary lines indicate Columbus can congratulate herself on the situation of things because this will give us an immense, cheap power, available with means that can readily be raised among home men, and at once. Get the cheap power and we shall have no trouble in getting the factories.

On New Breaking Saw Plan. I can furnish you seed on contract, or for cash. J. N. Taylor. 7-2t

PREPARED. Mrs. Andrew Peterson has presented her husband with a bouncing boy. Andrew looks three inches taller. Miss M. Keelson intends to take a trip to Germany to see the "Vaterland" more. Many a sturdy Teuton would enjoy such a trip, but "money makes the mare go," and people that have enough of the fire stuff or Binky here are few and far between. Enough? Who has enough? Says Johnny: "Grandpa, when has a man money enough?" "Guess once, John, when he has a thousand dollars." "O, no, no!" "Two thousand?" "Ten thousand?" "No." "Hundred thousand?" "No." "A million?" "When he'll be have enough." "When he has a little more than he has."

Key. Dr. Henrich has consented to supply the German Baptist church of Plattville in Saunders county, this state, until they have a regular pastor. This with his work around the center, and building a church there and collecting funds keeps the old gentleman busy enough; still his pen is running as fast as ever.

Mr. Hein, who has been superintending Mr. John Kramer's farm while that gentleman was living in Plattville, has moved with his family to Plattville center adding another family to the population of that thriving town. Four new busness places have been opened this spring. The little shower of rain Thursday night has wonderfully improved the looks of hill and dale, fields and meadows. Whole nature seems to sing out for a little more!

Mr. and Mrs. Sutton started on a trip to New York. May they have a safe and pleasant trip. Mr. Herman Baly, a sturdy farmer of Saunders county, was looking over a part of Plattville's beautiful lands with a view of purchasing a farm here. He has filed upon a certain half section, but will, as a good husband ought to do, consult his "better half" before concluding a bargain.

Mr. O. Basher lost one of his little children by death. He has the sympathy of neighbors and friends. The clean and smart butcher of Plattville Center is doing a flourishing business. He has recently purchased a piece of land south of town, fenced it in, and a well made, buildings erected, etc. Everything speaks prosperity. Mr. Z. has the monopoly of the business and deserves to have it.

Farmers Take Notice. Hereafter I will be at the Farmers' shipping office, Saturdays only, unless otherwise requested. J. J. Barns, mgt. L. Look Here. The accounts and books of Hickok, Halm & Co. are in my hands for settlement. Call and settle at once. 7-2t M. P. HERRD.

FUR TABLE CUTLERY at the Backet. FUR STATIONERY, shop at Webb & Son's. HAY FOR SALE. Inquire of M. K. Turner. AT THE JOURNAL'S OFFICE. WM. SCHULTZ makes boots and shoes in the best styles, and does only the very best stock that can be procured in the market. 3-24t

MILK SEED. I have for sale 100 bushels of Swedish milk seed. Will seed, ready for sowing. Call soon at my residence, pending orders at Klautz's grocery, Columbus, Iowa. JOHN B. KRUE.

THE TELEGRAPHIC BOOK at Millard, Neb., makes the usual order, all kinds of telegraph and the greatest difficulty in securing quotations for non-resident students, but there is no excuse for not securing the same. We have the largest assortment of the number qualified to fill them. The telegrapher's manual, a crown many changes are being made, and this is a good time for the ambitious young man to get a start in business life. Write for circular.
