

Subscription prices: One year, $1.00; Six months, $0.50; Three months, $0.25.

Advertisements: First insertion, 10 cents per line; subsequent insertions, 5 cents per line.

Copyright notice: All rights reserved. Printed and published by M. K. Turner & Co., Columbus, Neb.

There has been an unusual demand lately for corn in Europe.

Sunday night, a shock of earthquake plainly heard at Farmington, Mo., lasted half a minute.

State politicians are getting ready for the convention. Judge Beese's term will be out, also Regent Halliwell's.

It is claimed that the late Senator McKim has secured the great cotton mill, with a bonus of $250,000.

There seems to be a lively time ahead among the republican politicians of Fremont, on the theory that two large trees cannot grow and flourish when they are close to each other.

Miss Josephine, daughter of John Hennessy, while attempting to milk a young cow, was kicked near the ankle, and broke her leg.

Miss Anna Hamer closed her school in District No. 11, the 29th of June, with a picnic for the scholars.

Herbert Powers tells us that his forty acres of sorghum looks splendid. Last year he manufactured 5,500 gallons.

David Leiger, of Shell Creek precinct, was here last Saturday. He is manufacturing a large amount of cheese this summer.

Ed McKenzie, an old time resident of this county but now of Madison, says he has got the Washington Territory fever and departed on the evening train for Spokane Falls to look over prospects there.

Charles Leiger, of Shell Creek precinct, was here last Saturday. He is manufacturing a large amount of cheese this summer.

Charles Leiger, of Shell Creek precinct, was here last Saturday. He is manufacturing a large amount of cheese this summer.

Charles Leiger, of Shell Creek precinct, was here last Saturday. He is manufacturing a large amount of cheese this summer.

Charles Leiger, of Shell Creek precinct, was here last Saturday. He is manufacturing a large amount of cheese this summer.

Charles Leiger, of Shell Creek precinct, was here last Saturday. He is manufacturing a large amount of cheese this summer.

Charles Leiger, of Shell Creek precinct, was here last Saturday. He is manufacturing a large amount of cheese this summer.

Charles Leiger, of Shell Creek precinct, was here last Saturday. He is manufacturing a large amount of cheese this summer.

Charles Leiger, of Shell Creek precinct, was here last Saturday. He is manufacturing a large amount of cheese this summer.

Charles Leiger, of Shell Creek precinct, was here last Saturday. He is manufacturing a large amount of cheese this summer.

Charles Leiger, of Shell Creek precinct, was here last Saturday. He is manufacturing a large amount of cheese this summer.

A RIOT AT DULUTH

An Infuriated Mob Fired Upon by the Police.

CLUBS, STONES, GUNS, BAYONETS.

All brought into Headquarters and a Detachment of the National Guard.

DULUTH, July 9.—The laboring men's strike, which has been in progress several days, culminated in a bloody war between the strikers and policemen.

Thirty determined policemen were killed and a mob of 5,000 strikers armed with pistols, stones and clubs.

At 3:30 o'clock a crowd of strikers reached Third street and Tenth avenue.

After the first fire the mob was infuriated by the presence of the police. Half an hour later they made a rush for the corner of police.

A volley and one striker lay dead, while seven more were wounded.

One policeman was shot through the head. Three men are dead and twelve or fifteen wounded.

The strikers started from Twentieth avenue, while another body came down from Third street by Fifteenth avenue.

The police stood their ground. As the strikers made a rush for the corner of Third and Tenth streets, they were fired upon.

After the first fire the mob was infuriated by the presence of the police. Half an hour later they made a rush for the corner of police.

A volley and one striker lay dead, while seven more were wounded.

One policeman was shot through the head. Three men are dead and twelve or fifteen wounded.

The strikers started from Twentieth avenue, while another body came down from Third street by Fifteenth avenue.

The police stood their ground. As the strikers made a rush for the corner of Third and Tenth streets, they were fired upon.

After the first fire the mob was infuriated by the presence of the police. Half an hour later they made a rush for the corner of police.

A volley and one striker lay dead, while seven more were wounded.

One policeman was shot through the head. Three men are dead and twelve or fifteen wounded.

The strikers started from Twentieth avenue, while another body came down from Third street by Fifteenth avenue.

The police stood their ground. As the strikers made a rush for the corner of Third and Tenth streets, they were fired upon.

After the first fire the mob was infuriated by the presence of the police. Half an hour later they made a rush for the corner of police.

A volley and one striker lay dead, while seven more were wounded.

One policeman was shot through the head. Three men are dead and twelve or fifteen wounded.

ALL OVER NEBRASKA.

A Grief of Governors of Unusual Intensity.

GRANT, Neb., July 8.—Miss Henry, who murdered Edward C. Mahar in Cass county in April, was tried before Judge Cochran at Imperial, convicted of murder in the second degree, and sentenced to life imprisonment in the penitentiary.

The Long Talked of Battle a Matter of History.

FOUGHT IN OLD MISSISSIPPI.

Kilrain Wins First Fall and First Blood as Well.

SULLIVAN ALL ELSE.

The Mitchell Tactics Adopted and Sullivan Led a Foot Race Through Nearly All the Routes—Kilrain Nearly Felled Out the Body and Unable to Call Out the Reserve Force of the Boston Boy.

NEW ORLEANS, July 8.—The Sullivan-Kilrain fight occurred at Richburg, Mississippi, 103 miles distant from New Orleans. Sullivan won in the seventy-fifth round. Neither of the combatants was seriously injured, although Kilrain was very weak at the close.

The first information of the result was brought to New Orleans by a special train, which made the run of 103 miles in three hours and ten minutes.

There was no interference and Kilrain was the first to shy his castor into the ring. He was seconded by Charlie Mitchell and Mike Donovan.

At the opening of the nineteenth round the referee demanded that Kilrain withdraw his hands as he had been hit in the stomach, which he refused to do.

At the opening of the nineteenth round the referee demanded that Kilrain withdraw his hands as he had been hit in the stomach, which he refused to do.

At the opening of the nineteenth round the referee demanded that Kilrain withdraw his hands as he had been hit in the stomach, which he refused to do.

At the opening of the nineteenth round the referee demanded that Kilrain withdraw his hands as he had been hit in the stomach, which he refused to do.

At the opening of the nineteenth round the referee demanded that Kilrain withdraw his hands as he had been hit in the stomach, which he refused to do.

At the opening of the nineteenth round the referee demanded that Kilrain withdraw his hands as he had been hit in the stomach, which he refused to do.

At the opening of the nineteenth round the referee demanded that Kilrain withdraw his hands as he had been hit in the stomach, which he refused to do.

At the opening of the nineteenth round the referee demanded that Kilrain withdraw his hands as he had been hit in the stomach, which he refused to do.

At the opening of the nineteenth round the referee demanded that Kilrain withdraw his hands as he had been hit in the stomach, which he refused to do.

At the opening of the nineteenth round the referee demanded that Kilrain withdraw his hands as he had been hit in the stomach, which he refused to do.

At the opening of the nineteenth round the referee demanded that Kilrain withdraw his hands as he had been hit in the stomach, which he refused to do.

At the opening of the nineteenth round the referee demanded that Kilrain withdraw his hands as he had been hit in the stomach, which he refused to do.

At the opening of the nineteenth round the referee demanded that Kilrain withdraw his hands as he had been hit in the stomach, which he refused to do.

At the opening of the nineteenth round the referee demanded that Kilrain withdraw his hands as he had been hit in the stomach, which he refused to do.

THE VICTOR

STATEMENT

OF THE RECEIPTS AND EXPENDITURES BY JOHN STAUFFER, COUNTY CLERK, FROM JAN. 1, 1899, TO JULY 1, 1908.

Table with columns for Receipts and Expenditures, listing various items and amounts.

Table with columns for Receipts and Expenditures, listing various items and amounts.

Table with columns for Receipts and Expenditures, listing various items and amounts.

Table with columns for Receipts and Expenditures, listing various items and amounts.

Table with columns for Receipts and Expenditures, listing various items and amounts.

Table with columns for Receipts and Expenditures, listing various items and amounts.

Table with columns for Receipts and Expenditures, listing various items and amounts.

Table with columns for Receipts and Expenditures, listing various items and amounts.

Table with columns for Receipts and Expenditures, listing various items and amounts.

Table with columns for Receipts and Expenditures, listing various items and amounts.

Table with columns for Receipts and Expenditures, listing various items and amounts.

Table with columns for Receipts and Expenditures, listing various items and amounts.

Table with columns for Receipts and Expenditures, listing various items and amounts.

Table with columns for Receipts and Expenditures, listing various items and amounts.

Table with columns for Receipts and Expenditures, listing various items and amounts.

Advertisement for ERNST & SCHWARZ, featuring a lamp and text: 'SUPERB LAMP FILLER AND COAL OIL CAN COMBINED'.

Advertisement for ERNST & SCHWARZ, featuring a lamp and text: 'SUPERB LAMP FILLER AND COAL OIL CAN COMBINED'.

Advertisement for BAKER PERFECT STEEL BARB WIRE, featuring a wire and text: 'BAKER PERFECT STEEL BARB WIRE'.

Advertisement for SPEICE & NORTH, featuring a scale and text: 'SPEICE & NORTH'.

Advertisement for GOSHEN, featuring a fence and text: 'GOSHEN'.

Advertisement for LAND FOR SALE, featuring a landscape and text: 'LAND FOR SALE'.

Advertisement for GRASS SEEDS, featuring a field and text: 'GRASS SEEDS'.